Amendments to Employment Agreement with Bruce D. Hansen

On January 16, 2016, General Moly, Inc. (the Company) and Bruce D. Hansen, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, entered into a Second Amendment (the Second Hansen Amendment) to the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement dated as of January 1, 2012, as amended by Amendment No. 1 dated as of September 6, 2013. Pursuant to the Second Hansen Amendment, the term of Mr. Hansen's employment will extend for a period of twelve (12) months, which term will automatically renew for a successive twelve (12) month term on each annual anniversary of the January 1, 2016 effective date, unless the Company provides 90 days' notice of non-renewal. In the event the Company terminates Mr. Hansen's employment upon non-renewal or without cause, or Mr. Hansen terminates his employment for good reason, independent of a change of control (in each case as previously defined in Mr. Hansen's employment agreement), Mr. Hansen would be entitled to any base salary earned but not yet paid and a severance payment in an amount equal to six (6) months of his annual base salary. If a change of control occurs and the Company (or its successor) terminates the employment of Mr. Hansen without cause during the one-year period following the close of the change of control event (a double-trigger arrangement) or Mr. Hansen terminates his employment for good reason, Mr. Hansen would be entitled to receive a payment equal to two (2) years of annual base salary.

Effective January 16, 2016, the Company and Mr. Hansen entered into a Third Amendment to the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (the Third Hansen Amendment). Pursuant to the Third Hansen Amendment, any severance payments to Mr. Hansen will be determined by applying his base salary immediately preceding the implementation of the salary reduction described under Reductions in Cash Compensation below, and such salary reduction is excluded from the definition of good reason set forth in Mr. Hansen's employment agreement.

Copies of the Second Hansen Amendment and the Third Hansen Amendment attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively.

Amendments to Employment Agreement with Robert I. Pennington

On January 16, 2016, the Company and Robert I. Pennington, the Company's Chief Operating Officer, entered into a Second Amendment (the Second Pennington Amendment) to the Employment Agreement dated as of December 27, 2012, as amended by Amendment No. 1 dated as of September 6, 2013. Pursuant to the Second Pennington Amendment, the term of Mr. Pennington's employment will extend for a period of twelve (12) months, which term will automatically renew for a successive twelve (12) month term on each annual anniversary of the January 1, 2016 effective date, unless the Company provides 90 days' notice of non-renewal. In the event the Company terminates Mr. Pennington's employment upon non-renewal or without cause, or Mr. Pennington terminates his employment for good reason, independent of a change of control (in each case as previously defined in Mr. Pennington's employment agreement), Mr. Pennington would be entitled to any base salary earned but not yet paid and a severance payment in an amount equal to six (6) months of his annual base salary. If a change of control occurs and the Company (or its successor) terminates the employment of Mr. Pennington without cause during the one-year period following the close of the change of control event (a double-trigger arrangement) or Mr. Pennington terminates his employment for good reason, Mr. Pennington would be entitled to receive a payment equal to two (2) years of annual base salary.

Effective January 16, 2016, the Company and Mr. Pennington entered into a Third Amendment to the Employment Agreement (the Third Pennington Amendment). Pursuant to the Third Pennington Amendment, any severance payments to Mr. Pennington will be determined by applying his base salary immediately preceding the implementation of the salary reduction described under Reductions in Cash Compensation below, and such salary reduction is excluded from the definition of good reason set forth in Mr. Pennington's employment agreement. The Third Pennington Amendment also provides that Mr. Pennington may act as an independent third-party consultant to another company or board of directors.

Mr. Shumway will receive an annual base salary of $275,750, subject to annual review and adjustment by the Board, and will be eligible to receive incentive cash awards and equity-based incentive awards, and to participate in retirement, health and welfare benefits offered by the Company. In the event the Company terminates Mr. Shumway's employment upon non-renewal or without cause, or Mr. Shumway terminates his employment for good reason, independent of a change of control (in each case as defined in Mr. Shumway's employment agreement, consistent with the definitions in the employment agreements with Messrs. Hansen and Pennington), Mr. Shumway would be entitled to any base salary earned but not yet paid and a severance payment in an amount equal to six (6) months of his annual base salary. Mr. Roswell will receive an annual base salary of $265,750, subject to annual review and adjustment by the Board, and will be eligible to receive incentive cash awards and equity-based incentive awards, and to participate in retirement, health and welfare benefits offered by the Company. In the event the Company terminates Mr. Roswell's employment upon non-renewal or without cause, or Mr. Roswell terminates his employment for good reason, independent of a change of control (in each case as defined in Mr. Roswell's employment agreement, consistent with the definitions in the employment agreements with Messrs. Hansen and Pennington), Mr. Roswell would be entitled to any base salary earned but not yet paid and a severance payment in an amount equal to six (6) months of his annual base salary.
