PETROBRAS CONTRACTS A NEW CREDIT LINE

(Rio de Janeiro, March 19, 2003). PETROLEO BRASILEIRO S.A. Petrobras, (BOVESPA: PETR3 / PETR4, NYSE: PBR / PBRA, LATIBEX: XPBR / XPBRA), Brazil's largest oil and gas, petrochemicals and energy company, announces that it has today signed a US$ 100 million credit line issued by the HSBC and guaranteed by the Export Credits Guarantee Department (ECGD), in order to finance up to 85% of goods and services to be purchased in the United Kingdom.

The term of the financing is 10 years with semi-annual amortizations and interest at Libor + 0.525% p.a. Besides interest, PETROBRAS will pay insurance on the ECGD credit.

Around 70% of the credit line will be drawn down shortly to reimburse payments already made and the balance will be used by the end of this year.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
