Section 8 - Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

Supplemental Information

As previously disclosed and reported in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by Aetna Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (“Aetna”), on July 6, 2015 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), on July 2, 2015, Aetna, Humana Inc. (“Humana”), Echo Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aetna (“Merger Sub 1”), and Echo Merger Sub, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aetna (“Merger Sub 2”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, Merger Sub 1 will be merged with and into Humana, with Humana surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aetna (the “First Merger”), and immediately following the First Merger, Humana will be merged with and into Merger Sub 2, with Merger Sub 2 surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aetna (the “Second Merger” and together with the First Merger, the “Mergers”). At the effective time of the Second Merger, Merger Sub 2 will be renamed Humana LLC.

On September 3, 2015, a purported Aetna shareholder filed a Verified Shareholder Class Action and Derivative Petition challenging the Mergers in the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, against the individual members of the Aetna board of directors (the “Aetna Board”) and Aetna. The complaint is captioned Tomasulo v. Bertolini et al., Case No. 2015-24374 (the “Complaint”). The Complaint asserts both putative class action claims (purportedly on behalf of a class of Aetna shareholders) and derivative claims (purportedly on behalf of Aetna) against the individual members of the Aetna Board. The Complaint generally alleges, among other things, that the Aetna Board breached its fiduciary duties by negotiating and entering into the Merger Agreement because the Mergers overvalue Humana, the negotiation process leading to the Mergers was flawed, the Mergers represent an effort by the Aetna Board to avoid being acquired by the company referred to as Party A in Aetna's registration statement on Form S-4 filed with the SEC on August 28, 2015, Aetna senior management preferred a transaction with Humana to a transaction with Party A given concerns over their post-transaction continued employment, and Aetna's registration statement on Form S-4 omits certain material information. The Complaint generally seeks, among other things, declaratory and injunctive relief, preliminary injunctive relief prohibiting or delaying the defendants from consummating the Mergers, other forms of equitable relief and unspecified amounts of damages. In addition, the Aetna Board has received demands from Mr. Tomasulo (who filed the Complaint) and another purported Aetna shareholder to investigate and remedy potential or alleged breaches of fiduciary duties in connection with the Mergers.

In response to these demands, and the subsequently filed Complaint, the Aetna Board, in accordance with Pennsylvania law and procedure, appointed a special litigation committee (the “SLC”), consisting of Edward J. Ludwig (Chairperson), Roger N. Farah, Ellen M. Hancock and Richard J. Harrington, to, among other things, investigate and evaluate such demands and the Complaint, including the allegations and requests for action contained therein. The SLC has retained independent counsel to assist and advise it in connection with its investigation and evaluation. Additional lawsuits arising out of or relating to the Merger Agreement and/or the Mergers may be filed in the future.
