TORONTO--(MARKET WIRE) August 2, 2006 -- Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX:PAE - News) (TSX:PAE - News), a rapidly emerging, vertically integrated film, television and home entertainment company, announced the availability of a recent CEOCorner interview with Peace Arch President John Flock discussing recent strategic achievements. In the online interview, Mr. Flock highlighted some of the measures that have enabled Peace Arch to continue its growth as a vertically integrated independent film, television and home entertainment studio that finances, produces, acquires, markets and distributes its own projects and those of third party producers.

"Peace Arch has shown remarkable progress over the past few months," said Mr. Flock. "I hope this interview gives investors a better understanding of our accomplishments and ongoing potential.

Mr. Flock also discussed several of the far-ranging entertainment projects that the company is producing through its three divisions. In addition to the dozen feature films that the company has already produced this year alone, he revealed that Peace Arch had just embarked on the company's biggest project to date, a 10-hour miniseries that will air in the United States on Showtime Networks. He touted several of the company's upcoming feature films, such as Chapter 27, a project starring Jared Leto and Lindsay Lohan, about Mark David Chapman, the troubled man who shot John Lennon.
