(AMEX:PAE - News) (TSX:PAE.TO- News), has entered into a video label/distribution agreement with MarVista Entertainment to distribute MarVista's upcoming home entertainment titles to the Canadian marketplace. That announcement was made today by Fernando Szew, CEO, MarVista Entertainment and Berry Meyerowitz, President, Peace Arch Home Entertainment.

The first release, anticipated for a Q1 2007 street date, is The Ron Clark Story starring three-time Emmy Award-nominee Matthew Perry (Studio 60, Friends). Based on a real-life teacher who changed the culture of his

The quality of MarVista's content will add even more depth to our already strong line up of high quality commercial product for the Canadian marketplace. The Ron Clark Story is a great way to begin the relationship and we look forward to many more releases of this caliber over the years ahead," said Mr. Meyerowitz

Peace Arch will provide all distribution and marketing services for the new releases, including the creation of packaging and promotional materials. All titles under the Peace Arch distribution deal will feature the MarVista Entertainment label.
