INFORMATION CIRCULAR

AS AT AND DATED THE 29th DAY OF DECEMBER, 2006

(unless otherwise noted herein)

This Information Circular accompanies the Notice of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (hereinafter called the "Company"), and is furnished in connection with a solicitation of proxies for use at the Meeting and at any adjournment thereof. The Meeting is sometimes hereinafter referred to as the Meeting .

PERSONS OR COMPANIES

MAKING THE SOLICITATION

THE ENCLOSED PROXY IS BEING SOLICITED BY

MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

Solicitations will be made by mail and possibly supplemented by telephone or other personal contact to be made without special compensation by regular officers and employees of the Company. The Company may reimburse shareholders nominees or agents (including brokers holding shares on behalf of clients) for the cost incurred in obtaining from their principals authorization to execute forms of proxy. No solicitation will be made by specifically engaged employees or soliciting agents. The cost of solicitation will be borne by the Company.

COMPLETION, DEPOSIT AND VOTING OF PROXIES

Those shareholders so desiring may be represented by proxy at the Meeting. The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy are directors or officers of the Company. A shareholder has the right to appoint a person (who need not be a shareholder) to attend and act on his behalf at the Meeting other than the persons named as proxy holders in the form of proxy accompanying this Information Circular. To exercise this right, the shareholder must either insert the name of the desired person in the blank space provided in the proxy and strike out the other names or submit another proxy.

The instrument of proxy must be signed and, together with the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy thereof, deposited either at the office of the Registrar and Transfer Agent of the Company in person to CIBC Mellon, 320 Bay Street, Banking Hall Level, Toronto, Ontario or by mail or fax to CIBC Mellon Trust Company, Proxy Dept, P.O. Box 721, Agincourt, Ontario, M1S 0A1, (fax 416-368-2502) or at the Head Office of the Company at the address set out above, not less than 24 hours prior to the time of the holding of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, or be deposited with the Chairman of the Meeting prior to the commencement of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Unregistered shareholders who received the proxy through an intermediary must deliver the proxy in accordance with the instructions given by the intermediary.

THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE PROXY SOLICITED HEREBY WILL BE VOTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN ON ANY BALLOT THAT MAY BE CALLED FOR AND IF A CHOICE IS SPECIFIED WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER TO BE ACTED UPON, THE SHARES SHALL BE VOTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN. WHERE NO CHOICE IS OR WHERE BOTH CHOICES ARE SPECIFIED IN RESPECT OF ANY MATTER TO BE ACTED UPON AND A MANAGEMENT NOMINEE IS NAMED IN THE FORM OF PROXY TO ACT AS THE SHAREHOLDER S PROXY, THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE PROXY HEREBY SOLICITED SHALL BE VOTED IN FAVOUR OF ALL SUCH MATTERS. THE FORM OF PROXY GIVES THE PERSON NAMED AS PROXYHOLDER DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY REGARDING AMENDMENTS OR VARIATIONS TO MATTERS IDENTIFIED IN THE NOTICE OF MEETING AND OTHER MATTERS THAT MAY PROPERLY COME BEFORE THE MEETING.

NON-REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS

Pursuant to the requirements of the Canadian Securities Administrators, under National Instrument 54-101, the Company has distributed copies of the Notice of Meeting, this Management Information Circular and the Form of Proxy to the clearing agencies and intermediaries for distribution to non-registered shareholders of the Company who have not waived their right to receive such materials. Non-registered shareholders may be forwarded a proxy already signed by the intermediary or a voting instruction form to allow them to direct the voting of the common shares they beneficially own. A voting instruction form (which is not a proxy) is normally mailed to non-registered shareholders by their broker.

Should a non-registered shareholder who receives a Form of Proxy wish to attend, and vote at the Meeting in person (or have another person attend and vote on his/her behalf), the non-registered shareholder should strike out the names of the persons named in the proxy and insert his/her own, or another person's name in the blank space provided.

Shareholders should note that if they received a voting instruction form from a broker or an intermediary, it is not a valid Form of Proxy and cannot substitute for a Form of Proxy at the Meeting. The Scrutineer of the Meeting cannot count the votes of a non-registered shareholder wishing to vote in person or by proxy at the Meeting unless such shareholder holds a valid Form of Proxy from the Intermediary. Such shareholders need to contact their broker or intermediary and arrange deliver to them of a valid Form of Proxy.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXY

In addition to revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a proxy may be revoked by instrument in writing executed by the shareholder or his attorney authorized in writing, or if the shareholder is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or attorney thereof, and deposited either at the registered office of the Company at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, or, as to any matter in respect of which a vote shall not already have been cast pursuant to such proxy, with the Chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, and upon either of such deposits the proxy is revoked.

VOTING SHARES AND

PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Common Shares without par value and an unlimited number of Preference Shares without par value. As at December 29, 2006, there are 32,458,983 Common Shares, 4,347,827 Series I Preference Shares and 3,161,929 Series II Preference Shares issued and outstanding. At a general meeting of the Company, on a show of hands, every shareholder present in person and entitled to vote and every proxy holder duly appointed by a holder of a share who would have been entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote and, on a poll, every shareholder present in person or represented by proxy or other proper authority and entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote for each Common Share and one (1) vote for each Preference Share of which such shareholder is the registered holder. The chairman of the Meeting has the right not to conduct a vote by way of ballot on a matter unless a poll is demanded by a shareholder or proxy holder present at the Meeting or required because the number of shares represented by proxies that are to be voted against a matter is greater than 5% of the votes that could be cast at the Meeting in respect of that matter.

Subject to the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) in respect to a majority shareholder, two persons whether present in person or represented by proxy, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business for any meeting of shareholders.

To the knowledge of the directors and senior officers of the Company, no person or company beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, or exercises control or direction over, voting securities carrying more than 10% of the outstanding voting rights attached to any one class of voting securities of the Company, other than:

The directors have determined that all shareholders of record as of the 8th day of January, 2007 will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the AGM.

PRESENTATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The financial statements of the Company for the year ended August 31, 2006 and the report of the auditors thereon will be placed before the meeting.

FIXING THE NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

Management proposes that the number of directors for the Company be fixed at seven (7) for the ensuing year, subject to such increases as may be permitted by the Articles of the Company and by applicable law. The Directors have served in their respective capacities since their election or appointment on the date stated in the table and will serve until the next Annual General Meeting or until a successor is elected or appointed, unless the office is vacated in accordance with our Articles.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Each Director of the Company is elected annually and holds office until the next Annual General Meeting of Shareholders unless that person ceases to be a Director before then. In the absence of instructions to the contrary the shares represented by proxy will be voted on a poll for the nominees listed below.

MANAGEMENT DOES NOT CONTEMPLATE THAT ANY OF THE NOMINEES WILL BE UNABLE TO SERVE AS A DIRECTOR. IN THE EVENT THAT PRIOR TO THE AGM ANY VACANCIES OCCUR IN THE SLATE OF NOMINEES HEREIN LISTED, IT IS INTENDED THAT DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY SHALL BE EXERCISED BY THE PERSON NAMED IN THE PROXY AS NOMINEE TO VOTE THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY PROXY ON A POLL FOR THE ELECTION OF ANY OTHER PERSON OR PERSONS AS DIRECTORS.

The Management nominees for the Board of Directors and information concerning them as furnished by the individual nominees are as follows:

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

At the AGM, shareholders will be asked to vote for the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Chartered Accountants, as the Company's auditors to hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders, and to authorize the directors to fix their remuneration. PricewaterhouseCoopers were first appointed as the Company's auditors on March 15, 2003 following the resignation of KPMG LLP, Chartered Accountants who were first appointed in February 1999. To the knowledge of the directors and officers of the Company, there have been no disagreements, unresolved issues or consultations with the former auditors, KPMG LLP, Chartered Accountants. It is the intention of management of the Company to vote the proxy solicited hereby, unless the shareholder directs therein that his/her shares be withheld from voting on the appointment of auditors, for the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Chartered Accountants as the Company's auditors.

STATEMENT OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

Corporate governance relates to the activities of the Board of Directors (the Board), the members of which are elected by and are accountable to the shareholders, and takes into account the role of the individual members of management who are appointed by the Board and who are charged with the day-to-day management of the Company.

The Board believes that its commitment to sound corporate governance practices is in the interest of its shareholders and contributes to effective and efficient decision making. The TSX Committee on Corporate Governance has issued a series of guidelines (the TSX Guidelines) for effective corporate governance. The guidelines address matters such as the constitution and independence of corporate boards, the functions to be performed by boards and their committees and the effectiveness and education of board members. A company listed on the TSX is required to disclose annually its approach to corporate governance with reference to the TSX Guidelines. In addition, as a foreign private issuer listed on The American Stock Exchange (AMEX), the Company is required to meet the AMEX listing guidelines. See Schedule A which details the corporate governance practices of the Company and confirms the Company's compliance, as applicable with the TSX guidelines.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

During the most recently completed financial year ended August 31, 2006 the Directors of the Company were entitled to a yearly retainer of $5,000. As well, Directors were entitled to $500 for each Directors or Committee Meeting attended in person and $300 for each Directors or Committee Meeting attended by conference call. Chairpersons of any Directors or Committee Meeting were entitled to twice that of a non-chair member. All Directors are entitled to an initial 75,000 stock options.

Set forth below is a list of all stock options granted by the Company pursuant to the Company's Amended Share Option Plan to non-Named Executive Officer directors and other "insiders" (as that term is defined in the Securities Act (Ontario)) of the Company, outstanding and exercisable at the date of this Information Circular.

MI 52-110 requires that the Audit Committee be composed of a minimum of three members, every member be a director of the Company, every member must be independent (subject to a permitted exemption for controlled companies), whereby in certain circumstances, one member need not be independent) and financially literate (both as defined in MI 52-110). Please refer to Audit Committee in the Company's Annual Information Form dated November 29, 2006, for further information with regard to the composition of the Audit Committee.

Compensation Committee

The Board has constituted a Compensation Committee, which will review the Company's overall compensation philosophy, corporate succession and development plans at the executive officer level. The Compensation Committee consisted of three independent directors as of August 31, 2006.

The Compensation Committee for the year ended August 31, 2006 was composed of Juliet Jones, Drew Craig and Nelson Thall.

Executive/Corporate Governance Committee

The Board has constituted a Corporate Governance Committee, which will develop and implement the Company's approach to corporate governance issues. The Corporate Governance Committee also exercise the functions of a nominating committee, and in such capacity will make recommendations with respect to the size and composition of the Board, recommend nominees to the Board, and the amount and form of directors' remuneration to adequately compensate for risks and responsibilities assumed by directors, and assist in selecting a chair of the Board. The Company's orientation and education program for new recruits to the Board will be developed and implemented by this Committee. In addition, the Executive/Corporate Governance Committee has been authorized to develop a process for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and of committees of the Board, and for assessing the contribution of individual directors and for assessing the Board on its effectiveness. The Corporate Governance Committee is composed of one related director and two unrelated directors.

The Corporate Governance Committee for the year ended August 31, 2006 was composed of Juliet Jones, Richard Watson and Robert Essery.

Greenlight Committee

The Board has constituted a Greenlight Committee, which will review projects that meet a certain exposure criteria, ensuring that they are appropriately funded and ultimately giving authority for them to proceed into production.

The Greenlight Committee for the year ended August 31, 2006 was composed of John Flock, and Richard Watson with Jeff Sagansky acting as an advisor.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's Compensation Committee (the Committee) has the responsibility for annually setting and approving the compensation package for the Chief Executive Officer and for annual reviewing and approving the compensation packages for executive officers of the Company. The Committee also reviews and approves changes to the Company's compensation policies in respect of matters such as the structure and granting of stock options.

The Committee was composed of three unrelated directors, Drew Craig, Juliet Jones and Nelson Thall for the year ended August 31, 2006.

Components of Total Compensation

The aggregate compensation of senior officers of the Company, including Named Executive Officers, consists of three components: base salary, car allowance and long-term incentives principally in the form of stock options. The Company aims to ensure that each executive officer's compensation is balanced among these three components.

Base Salary

Base salary levels for all executive officers (including the Chief Executive Officer) are based upon performance and are relative to comparable positions within the industry and markets in which the Company operates, and are intended to achieve the following objectives:

1.
to attract and retain executives and senior management required for the success of the Company;

2.
to motivate performance;

3.
to provide fair and competitive compensation commensurate with an individual's experience and expertise; and 4.

to reward individual performance and contribution to the achievement of the Company's objectives.

(ii)

Car Allowance

(iii)

Long-term Incentive Awards

Long-term incentive awards may be granted annually with the target award set as a percentage of the executive's salary based on corporate performance and the employee's years of service with the Company. The Company does take into account the amount or terms of previously issued options when determining whether and how many stock options will be granted to executive officers in each year. The size of the grant is based on the Black-Scholes formula for valuing stock options and is approved by the Compensation Committee.

The base salary for the Chief Executive Officer is determined in the same manner as that of all other executives. The Chief Executive Officer does not participate in the Committee's or the Board's decisions or does he vote relating to his compensation. The long-term components of the Chief Executive Officer's incentive compensation were determined in accordance with his management contract which generally reflects the same principles applicable to other executives in the determination of incentive compensation awards.

PENSION PLAN

No pension plan or retirement benefit plans have been instituted by the Company and none are proposed at this time.

INTEREST OF INSIDERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

In connection with the acquisition of kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc. that took place on January 23, 2006, a 4% standby fee was payable to the Secured Creditors that signed Letters of Credit to aid in the financing of the acquisition. Drew Craig, one of the secured creditors as well as a director and Chairman of the Board, signed a Letter of Credit for $900,638.00 and received 82,649 common shares on April 24, 2006 as payment of the 4% standby fee.

On April 24, 2006, Drew Craig, a director and Chairman of the Board, exercised 250,000 Series II Preference Share warrants and purchased 250,000 Series II Preference Shares at a price of U.S. $0.50 per share. On May 25, 2006 Mr. Craig exercised the remainder of his warrants of 726,032 Series II Preference Share warrants at a price of U.S. $0.50 per share.

On April 28, 2006, Drew Craig received 116,011 common shares worth CAD$63,203.09 for his dividend entitlement on his preference shares accrued from July 29, 2005 to February 28, 2006. On June 19, 2006 Mr. Craig received a cash payment for US$33,600.88 for his dividend entitlement accrued from March 1, 2006 to May 31, 2006. Mr. Craig received 49,920 common shares worth CAD$49,420.54 for his dividend entitlement on his preference shares accrued from June 1, 2006 to August 31, 2006.

On June 16, 2006, the Company entered into an agreement with a company controlled by Drew Craig and a member of the Company's senior management Berry Meyerowitz to loan the Company $2,740,000. The loan bears interest at the rate of 18% per annum and is secured by the Company's unencumbered entitlement to tax credit receivables due on films that it has produced and by guarantees provided by certain unrelated production companies in order to assist the Company with the financing of its distribution advances. The loan is due on December 1, 2007. During the year, the Company incurred interest of $99,000, which is included in interest expense in the statement of earnings.

No insider of the Company, no proposed nominee for election as a director of the Company and no associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing, has any material interest, direct or indirect, in any other transaction since the commencement of the Company's last financial year or in any proposed transaction, which, in either case, has materially affected or will materially affect the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

PARTICULARS OF OTHER MATTERS

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF PROXY

1.

This Proxy is solicited by the Management of the Company.

2.

This form of proxy (Instrument of Proxy) must be signed by you, the Registered Shareholder, or by your attorney duly authorized by you in writing, or, in the case of a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or representative of the corporation; and if executed by an attorney, officer, or other duly appointed representative, the original or a notarial copy of the instrument so empowering such person, or such other documentation in support as shall be acceptable to the Chairman of the Meeting, must accompany the Instrument of Proxy.

3.

If this Instrument of Proxy is not dated in the space provided, authority is hereby given by you, the Registered Shareholder, for the proxy holder to date this proxy seven (7) calendar days after the date on which it was mailed to you, the Registered Shareholder, by or on behalf of the Company.

4.

A Registered Shareholder who wishes to attend the Meeting and vote on the resolutions in person, may simply register with the scrutineers before the Meeting begins.

5.

A Registered Shareholder who is not able to attend the Meeting in person but wishes to vote on the resolutions, may do the following:

appoint one of the management proxy holders named on the Instrument of Proxy, by leaving the wording appointing a nominee as is (i.e. do not strike out the management proxy holders shown and do not complete the blank space provided for the appointment of an alternate proxy holder). Where no choice is specified by a Registered Shareholder with respect to a resolution set out in the Instrument of Proxy, a management appointee acting as a proxy holder will vote in favour of each matter identified on this Instrument of Proxy and for the nominees of management for directors and auditor as identified in this Instrument of Proxy; appoint another proxy holder, who need not be a Registered Shareholder of the Company, to vote according to the Registered Shareholder's instructions, by striking out the management proxy holder names shown and inserting the name of the person you wish to represent you at the Meeting in the space provided for an alternate proxy holder. If no choice is specified, the proxy holder has discretionary authority to vote as the proxy holder sees fit.

The securities represented by this Instrument of Proxy will be voted or withheld from voting in accordance with the instructions of the Registered Shareholder on any poll of a resolution that may be called for and, if the Registered Shareholder specifies a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the securities will be voted accordingly.

Further, the securities will be voted by the appointed proxy holder with respect to any amendments or variations of any of the resolutions set out on the Instrument of Proxy or other matters which may properly come before the Meeting as the proxy holder in its sole discretion sees fit.

If a Registered Shareholder has submitted an Instrument of Proxy, the Registered Shareholder may still attend the Meeting and may vote in person. To do so, the Registered Shareholder must record his/her attendance with the scrutineers before the commencement of the Meeting and revoke, in writing, the prior votes.

To be represented at the Meeting, this proxy form must be received at the office of CIBC Mellon Trust Company of Canada, Proxy Dept, P.O. Box 721, Agincourt, ON M1S 0A1, by mail or by fax at 416-368-2502 or in person at CIBC Mellon Trust Company of Canada, 320 Bay Street, Banking Hall Level, Toronto, ON or at the Head Office of the Company at Suite 407 124 Merton Street, Toronto, Ontario, M4S 2Z2, 24 hrs prior to the time of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, or may be deposited with the Chairman of the Meeting prior to the commencement of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Board of Directors.

Drew Craig was appointed as a Director and Chairman of the Board on July 29, 2005 and is a member of the Compensation Committee. Mr. Craig has been involved in the media and telecommunications industry for over 25 years. He started his career at Craig Media a family broadcast company founded by his grandfather. Initially working in the area of television programming and production Mr. Craig assumed various management roles eventually becoming President and CEO of Craig Media until it was sold in December 2004. Under his leadership the company grew dramatically from a single small television station to a group of stations that had a 60% reach of Canada. With the launch of four major market independent television channels Craig Media became the countries largest privately held television company. Mr. Craig also launched three national specialty cable channels MTV, MTV2 and TV Land under a joint venture arrangement with Viacom. Currently Mr. Craig is principal of Craig Wireless Systems a company operating and deploying wireless broadband networks in Canada, the USA and Europe using WiMax technology.

Mara Di Pasquale was appointed as our Chief Financial Officer on September 29, 2003 and as a Director on February 11, 2004. She was also the Chief Operating Officer from September 29, 2003 until August 31, 2006. She has an extensive career, including acting as Vice President of Finance Entertainment for Gullane Entertainment PLC, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer for Catalyst Entertainment Inc. as well as Senior Vice President of Finance for Lions Gate Films Inc. Ms. Di Pasquale is a Chartered Accountant and studied at McGill University in Montreal where she received her Graduate Diploma in Public Accountancy and at Carleton University in Ottawa where she received an Honours Bachelor of Commerce degree.

Robert Essery was appointed as a Director on February 10, 2005 and is currently President of the REO group of companies since 1992.

Gary Howsam was appointed as a Director on January 20, 2003 and our Chief Executive Officer effective December 20, 2002. Mr. Howsam's responsibilities include our daily affairs, which include all strategic planning, operations management and budgeting, corporate finance, recruitment, training and management of all employees. Mr. Howsam has more than 20 years of executive level experience in the Canadian motion picture industry. From 1997 to 2003 Mr. Howsam was President of Greenlight Film and Television Inc., which develops, finances, produces and distributes feature films.

Juliet Jones has been on the Board of Directors since February 22, 2001 and is a member of our Audit, Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee. Ms. Jones is currently the Chief Financial Officer of Webtech Wireless Inc., a TSX Venture listed company. Previously Ms. Jones served in various roles for Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. including Chief Financial Officer from 1996 to March 2001 and again from January 2003 to September 2003. Ms. Jones previously served as a member of the Board of the Vancouver Chapter of Certified General Accountants and served as the chair of the professional development committee.

Nelson S. Thall was appointed as a Director on January 20, 2003 and has an extensive communications consulting career, including serving as a director of McLuhan Institute, Stan Lee Media Inc. and a former board member of Torstar Corp. and Imark Corp. Mr. Thall also has served in the North American entertainment industry as an independent producer, a manager of talent and an advisor to such companies as Stan Lee Media Inc. Mr. Thall is a well-known media critic and social commentator in North America. He studied media science under Marshall McLuhan at the Center of Culture and Technology in Toronto.

Richard Watson was appointed as a Director on January 20, 2003 and is a member of Corporate Governance and Greenlight Committee. He has practiced corporate commercial law in Toronto for over 25 years. During that time, he has been legal counsel for a wide variety of Canadian public and private companies. Mr. Watson has over 20 years of business and advisory experience in the Canadian film industry, working with writers, directors, and production companies and has had significant involvement with the financing of Canadian feature films.

The Directors have served in their respective capacities since their election or appointment on the date stated in the respective paragraph and will serve until the next Annual General Meeting or until a successor is elected or appointed, unless the office is vacated in accordance with our Articles. As an Ontario corporation, we are required by Ontario corporate laws to include on our board of directors a majority of persons ordinarily resident in Canada. All of our Directors and Officers are Canadians. With the exception of Juliet Jones who resides in British Columbia, all of our Directors and Officers reside in the Province of Ontario.

Senior Officers

Gary Howsam is currently our Chief Executive Officer. See narrative above.

John Flock is currently our President and the President of Peace Arch LA, Inc., based in Los Angeles, California. He is responsible for focusing on the development and production of feature films as well as the licensing and distribution of the Company's films in the United States. John is a graduate of Columbia University and NYU School of Law. He began his career in the film industry as an attorney specializing in independent production, financing and distribution, with a particular emphasis on international co-production and co-financing arrangements. John has produced or executive produced a dozen feature films, including: Clockwatchers (BMG), Storyville (Fox), Fortress (Dimension) and Fortress 2 Reentry (TriStar).

Mara Di Pasquale is currently our Chief Financial Officer. See narrative above.

Management

Lewin Webb is President and Head of Production at Peace Arch Motion Pictures Inc. (PAMP); he is responsible for both overseeing the development and physical production of all PAMP productions. Lewin began his career as an Assistant Director on several noted films including Legends of the Fall, The Long Kiss Goodnight, Fly away Home and The Ladies Man. Lewin also produced ESPN's first Made-for-Television Movie, A Season on the Brink and was the Assistant Director and Associate Producer of MTV's first Made-for-Television Movie, Jailbait. Most recently, Lewin has completed photography on his second directorial work, The Good Shepherd, under the PAMP banner.

Blair Reekie is the President of The Eyes Project Development Corp. the Peace Arch subsidiary involved in documentary and lifestyle television programming. He heads the division's development activities and overseas factual television production at the Company's Vancouver facilities. Blair began his television career with PAE (formerly The Vidatron Group) in 1988 as a staff writer/producer for corporate and educational films, television commercials and special event installations including museums and World's Fairs. Since then, he has garnered more than 14 national and international awards for production, education and media excellence, including Gold Apples (International Educational Film Festival), Golden Maples (International Television Association - Canada), Gold Medals (New York Film Festivals) and Gold Cindys (International Association of Visual Communicators). Blair is the Creator and Executive Producer of the series "Animal Miracles" and "Campus Vets" as well as numerous award-winning specials including "Heroines," "Raven in the Sun" and "Cake Night".

Penny Wolf is Executive Vice-President responsible for international sales and marketing of Peace Arch's growing slate of film and television productions while operating from the company's London sales headquarters. Ms. Wolf has more than 20 years experience in international sales and marketing, most recently as managing director of HBO Films, London, where she helped established the international sales operation for that company. While at HBO she supervised the worldwide distribution of such films as the Academy Award-nominated Maria Full of Grace, The Life and Death of Peter Sellers and Gus Van Sant's Last Days, which was nominated for a Golden Palm at this year's Cannes Film Festival. Prior to joining HBO Ms. Wolf was Head of Sales at Granada Films, where she sold and marketed Vanity Fair, and Vice President of International Sales for Capitol Films Ltd. where she worked on the film Gosford Park.

Berry Meyerowitz is President of Peace Arch Home Entertainment Inc., a position he has held since January 2006 when Peace Arch purchased his company, kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc. He is responsible for overseeing all distribution in Canada and for specifically leading the home entertainment division's growth to become one of the leading independent studios in North America.

Previously, Berry was based in New York City and worked for Marketrend Interactive, a leading provider of premium retail consulting, CRM solutions and marketing services for automotive dealers, dealer groups and OEMs. Immediately prior to Marketrend Berry served as Vice President, Sales & Marketing for Radiowave.com, a Motorola incubated company, based in Chicago, which was one of the leading developers of streaming audio programming. Before Radiowave.com, Berry was appointed to re-launch the Canadian office of 20th Century Fox Home Entertainment Canada. In this capacity he served as Director of Marketing and led the successful campaigns for films such as The Star Wars Trilogy, There's Something About Mary, The X-Files, The Full Monty, and more. Berry's initial foray into the entertainment industry was as the first employee of Telegenic Entertainment Inc., now Peace Arch Home Entertainment, where as Director of Sales & Marketing he was instrumental in the establishment of the Company's overall operations. Berry's career also includes the creation and operation of Mad Dog Promotions, a company that specialized in creating unique corporate and university promotional programs.

Berry is the Co-Head of the Arts & Entertainment division of the United Jewish Appeal in Toronto. He has an MBA from the Schulich School of Business at York University and a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy and Middle East Politics from the University of Western Ontario and the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Michael Taylor, a 22-year television industry veteran, is President of Peace Arch Television, Ltd. and will spearhead the Company's expansion into representation of third-party television productions to the television and home video distribution markets.

At Craig Media, Canada's largest privately held television broadcasting company until its 2004 sale to Chum Media, Mr. Taylor was responsible for sourcing and negotiating all television program supply agreements with major North American broadcasters and suppliers, television programming and scheduling, and sub-licensing program rights to third-party broadcasters. Michael was involved with some of the most successful and popular television programming throughout his career, and he has worked with and represented a diverse, who's who list of companies - from ABC Television Network to the William Morris Agency and prior to his tenure at Craig Media, Mr. Taylor was CEO at Unified Entertainment (2001-2003), a full-service television distribution and co-production company, CEO of Ewireless Canada Corporation (1999-2001), the Canadian division of a Chicago-based company that created a patented, abbreviated wireless dialing service, and President/COO at Telegenic Communications (1983-1999), a full-service television program, merchandise and licensing entertainment company.

Advisors

Jeff Sagansky has served as the President of Tri-Star Entertainment where he greenlighted such films as "Look Who's Talking," "Peggy Sue Got Married," "Steel Magnolias," "Glory" and "About Last Night." In 1990, he joined CBS as head of programming where he engineered CBS's ratings rise from third to first place in a mere 18 months. While there, CBS developed such critically-acclaimed series as "The Nanny," "Dr. Quinn, Medicine Woman," "Touched By An Angel," "Chicago Hope," "Picket Fences" and the cult favorite "Northern Exposure." In 1994, he joined Sony as Head of Worldwide Television and Strategic Planning for the studio. While there, he oversaw the purchase of Telemundo and the Loew's-Cineplex merger. In 1998, Sagansky became President and CEO of Paxson Communications Corporation, owner of PAX TV. During his four years at Paxson, PAX's network distribution grew from 60% of U.S. TV households to almost 90%.

Kerry McCluggage began his career in the entertainment industry in 1978 at Universal Television, and in 1980 became the company's youngest vice president at the age of 25. In his 13 years at MCA/Universal, he worked in the theatrical division, served as President of Universal Television, and also produced a ground-breaking television series he developed, "Miami Vice." Other series he developed during his tenure include "Magnum P.I.," "Murder, She Wrote," "The A-Team," "Coach," "Northern Exposure," "The Equalizer" and "Law & Order". In 1991, McCluggage became Chairman of the Paramount Television Group, supervising the production and worldwide distribution of Paramount's television programming. During his 11 years at Paramount, McCluggage shepherded such series as "Frasier," the highly-successful "Star Trek" series, "JAG," and the top-rated magazine series "Entertainment Tonight." He also developed and launched America's fifth broadcast network, UPN, while growing the company's station holdings and overseeing the start of the Sci-Fi Channel domestically and the Paramount Comedy Channels in the U.K. and Spain. He is currently the President of Craftsman Films, an independent production company developing motion picture and television product.

Peace Arch Home Entertainment Inc. (formerly kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc.) (kaBOOM) based in Toronto, is a distributor of DVDs and related home entertainment products.

Dear Fellow Shareholders,

2006 has been an exciting year of progress for Peace Arch Entertainment. We achieved a number of key business successes that propelled us closer to our goal of building a consistently profitable diversified entertainment company. We fine-tuned our business plan and aggressively implemented our strategy to increase shareholder value by:

Ø

Acquiring and/or producing prestige feature film and event television projects;

Ø

Acquiring/producing a high volume of low-cost television and direct to DVD feature films;

Ø

Licensing our projects to third party distributors in exchange for guaranteed payments and a significant participation in the profits earned by their exploitation; and,

Ø

Accelerating growth by acquiring undervalued content and distribution assets.

I am pleased to report that we made tangible progress in each of these key areas during fiscal 2006. We added five new films to our line-up that are intended for worldwide theatrical release starring highly marketable on-screen talent like Steve Buscemi, Jared Leto, Lindsay Lohan, John Malkovich, and Lucy Liu. We co-produced and secured all distribution rights outside the United States to the ten-hour series The Tudors, a landmark television event starring Jonathan Rhys Meyers that will premiere on Showtime in the United States in the spring of 2007. We produced or acquired 16 new films for DVD or television premiere featuring such stars as Billy Zane, Jennifer Beals, Michael Madsen and Kristy Swanson. Overall, during 2006 we filled our sales and distribution pipeline with a diverse array of highly commercial content, and we expect to see the financial results of those efforts as these projects are brought to market in fiscal 2007.

Our sales and distribution operation continues to grow with the addition of experienced, highly regarded senior executives focused on the international television and DVD markets. We added a number of exciting new customers to our expanding worldwide distribution network including the Lifetime cable network, DVD distributors Genius Entertainment and Union Station Entertainment and, more recently, Sony Pictures Home Entertainment and Corus Entertainment's Movie Central television network.

On the acquisition front, in January we acquired Canadian home entertainment distributor kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc., which had a banner year of sales and profits and has an exciting line-up of new product already in place for 2007.

We also entered into an agreement to acquire Castle Hill Productions, Inc. and Dream LLC, including their library of more than 500 classic and contemporary movies and their excellent US distribution and sales operation that will complement our own sales force. Each of these transactions is expected to increase our earnings and profits and diversify our revenue streams while adding valuable content assets and expanding our licensing and distribution capabilities.

We established a number of key alliances in 2006 that we expect will contribute to the Company's continued growth in 2007. We completed a private placement of 7.5 million common shares to an investment group of private and institutional investors led by noted entertainment industry figure Todd Wagner. We also signed a multi-picture production and distribution agreement with RHI Entertainment, a premiere producer and distributor of high quality, award-winning television programming that has thus far resulted in five new projects for Peace Arch.

Financially, in 2006 we began to see the positive results of our aggressive strategy. Revenues increased from CAD$10.7 million in 2006 to CAD$21.3 million in 2007, primarily as a result of our acquisition of kaBOOM! Entertainment. We experienced a net loss of CAD$4.1 million that is largely attributable to costs associated with the purchase of kaBOOM!, higher stock based compensation and warrant expense associated with investor relations, equity financing and bridge financing. The company invested in significant new content assets and rights during the year. As revenues are realized from sales of that programming in 2007, we expect significant increases in revenue and profit performance.

We would like to sincerely thank our employees, directors and shareholders for their support as we build Peace Arch into one of the most exciting companies in the entertainment industry. We are energized by the opportunities we have already seized and by those we are planning to create together in the years ahead.

ABOUT OUR BUSINESS

Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc., Peace Arch or the Company, is an integrated media company that finances, produces, acquires and distributes high quality film and television programming for worldwide markets.

The Company earns revenues primarily from two sources: the distribution of newly acquired product and productions, and the distribution of its library. Once a production is completed and delivered, the program is then included in the Company's library of film and television programs along with acquired programming. Through its internal sales operations, the Company licenses that programming to theatrical distributors, television broadcasters, cable companies, satellite services and home entertainment distributors around the world.

The Company has a track record of delivering critically acclaimed productions to both film and television distributors. In 2006, the Company's film Delirious was awarded three prizes in the elite competition section of the 54th San Sebastian International Film Festival. In 2005, the Company's television motion picture, Our Fathers, was nominated for two Emmy awards, and the Directors Guild of Canada nominated the Company's feature, The Good Shepherd, for two awards. In addition, the Company won six Leo Awards for programming excellence for its projects Love it or Lose it! and Prisoners of Age. The success of these projects enhances the demand for Peace Arch's existing and future productions and increases the Company's visibility, enhancing the long-term marketability and value of its library of film and television programming both domestically and internationally.

The Company operates in five locations, two in Toronto and one each in Vancouver, Los Angeles and London, England. Peace Arch manages its business in three operating segments: Motion Picture, Television, and Home Entertainment.

Motion Picture

The Company produces or acquires a large number of lower budget feature films intended for DVD or television premieres and a smaller number of medium budget films intended for worldwide theatrical release. The Motion Picture segment derives its revenues by licensing distribution rights to these productions to sub-distributors in various territories and media throughout the world.

During fiscal 2006, the Company delivered 10 feature films and had 9 other features in production at year-end. The films delivered during fiscal 2006 were: The Veteran, Heartstoppers, Warriors of Terra, Five Girls, The Last Sect, UKM: Ultimate Killing Machine, Troubled Waters, Living Death, Dead Mary and Delirious. The films acquired or in production at the end of fiscal 2006 were: Chapter 27, Watching the Detectives, Guantanamo, In Tranzit, The Mad, Bottom Feeder, Harm's Way, Stillborn and Never Forget.

Television

The Company's Television segment derives revenues by licensing television films, documentaries and other programming produced or acquired by the Company to broadcasters, cable and satellite television providers and home entertainment distributors domestically and abroad. In fiscal 2006, the Company expanded its television division beyond its traditional lifestyle and documentary niche to include made-for-television movies and mini-series. During fiscal 2006, the Company delivered 10 episodes of lifestyle programming, 2 documentaries and 1 made-for-television movie. At year-end, the Company had 1 mini-series, 2 television series and 3 made-for-television movies in production. The television episodes delivered were for the series Love it or Lose It! (Series II), Makeover Wish, and Uber Guide, the documentaries delivered were Fantasy Lands Asia, and Fantasy Lands 2006, and the made-for-television movie delivered during the year was The Stranger Game. The movies for television acquired or in production at fiscal year end were Luna: The Way Home, Passions Web and Nightmare. The mini-series in production is The Tudors. The two television series in production were Air Dogs and Last 10 Pounds.

In the third quarter of 2006, the Company entered into a binding letter of agreement, as amended on October 27, 2006, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Castle Hill Productions Inc. and Dream LLC, which hold the rights to a library of approximately 500 films with a stated purchase price of US$9.0 million. The closing of this acquisition is expected to occur by December 15, 2006.

Home Entertainment

During fiscal 2006, the Company acquired 100% of kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc. (kaBOOM!), one of Canada's leading independent home entertainment studios. kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc. was renamed Peace Arch Home Entertainment Inc. and continues to conduct business under the kaBOOM! label for its children's products and under the Peace Arch Entertainment for all others products. This strategic acquisition emphasizes the Company's focus on building its distribution business.

The Company's Home Entertainment segment derives its revenues from the distribution of DVDs and ancillary merchandise to wholesalers and retailers in Canada. It provides a full range of services relating to the licensing, marketing sales and distribution of its products. It distributes sell-through and rental films across a wide variety of genres, such as children's and family, special interest and live action feature films.

In collaboration with its content partner Nelvana, during fiscal 2006 the Home Entertainment segment developed two unique branded product lines Treehouse Presents, and Teletoon Presents. Peace Arch Home Entertainment has strong relationships with content providers such as Lions Gate (Maple Pictures), THINKFilm, Sesame Workshop, DIC Entertainment, Sony BMG, EMI Music, and more.

STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

The Company is committed to expanding the way it delivers content to viewers by building its distribution business and focusing on the strength of its brands. Ownership of distribution rights in film and television programming provides a source of both current and future cash flows. Through growth and exploitation of a library of film and television distribution rights, the Company will realize the benefit of future revenue streams providing a source of long term cash flow and value to the Company.

With this strategic objective, the Company has begun to formalize key international distribution relationships which can reliably support the financing and exploitation of its products. While maintaining a conservative production financing strategy based on single-production, non-recourse bank loans supported in large part by presales of distribution rights and tax credits, the Company is also working to enhance its ability to support financing of projects through exclusive funding agreements with third party interim and equity financiers. Finally, the Company will focus on building and maintaining liquidity and capital resources to fund strategic acquisitions to support its growth.

Through its strong relationships with international and domestic partners, Peace Arch's vision is to become a world leading independent distributor of feature film and television programming. In support of this, the Company is focused on the following:

- Building an industry leading sales company through hiring and acquisition;
- Producing a high volume of quality film and television projects;
- Minimizing project financing risk;
- Accelerating growth by acquiring existing content libraries and compatible distribution capabilities.

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

The Company measures the success of its strategies using a number of key performance indicators. These have been outlined below, including a discussion as to their relevance, definitions, calculation methods and underlying assumptions.

Revenue Revenue is a measurement defined by Canadian and U.S. GAAP. Revenue is the inflow of cash, receivables or other consideration arising from the sale of product and services and is net of items such as trade or volume discounts and certain excise and sales taxes. Peace Arch's revenue streams for the year ended August 31, 2006 were derived primarily from its three business segments: Motion Picture 44%, Television 11% and Home Entertainment 45% (2005 - 86%, 14% and nil, respectively).

Amortization of investment in film and television programming, other production and home entertainment direct costs Amortization of investment in film and television programming, production and home entertainment direct costs represents the amortization of the capitalized costs associated with internally produced and acquired film and television programming, from which distribution and licensing revenues are derived. Other production costs include amounts due to third party participants with interests in the performance of the production. Home entertainment direct costs consists primarily of duplication, distribution and marketing expenses of video and DVD as well as royalty expenses.

Selling, general and administrative expenses Selling, general and administrative expenses include period costs that are not directly attributable to the film and television program or home entertainment product. These include such costs as employee remuneration, professional fees, regulatory license fees, occupancy costs and overhead costs. Stock based compensation and warrant costs include the expenses associated with stock options granted to employees during the year, as well as the costs related to warrant issues. The Company categorizes these expenses as salary, general and administrative expenses.

Earnings (loss) from operations before the undernoted Loss from operations before the undernoted is defined as revenue less expenses.

FISCAL 2006 COMPARED TO FISCAL 2005

Revenues for fiscal 2006 were $21.3 million, up 98% from $10.7 million last year. Motion Picture and Television experienced increases of 2% and 46% respectively. Home Entertainment revenues in 2006 represent seven months of revenues from the purchase, in the second quarter, of kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc.

Operating expenses, defined as amortization of investment in film and television programming and other production costs, home entertainment direct costs, selling, general and administration and other amortization, of $24.4 million were up 94% from $12.6 million in the prior year. The increase is consistent with the revenue growth, and includes seven months of Home Entertainment costs from the purchase of kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc.

(Loss) earnings from operations before the undernoted was $(3.1) million compared to $(1.9) million last year. (Loss) earnings from operations excludes interest and other gains or losses not attributable to operations. The Television segment reported earnings of $648,000, an increase of 8.2% from prior year. The Home Entertainment segment achieved earnings of $876,000 for the seven months reported, and the Motion Picture segment incurred a loss of $(1.2) million, after incurring a loss of $(878,000) the prior year.

Motion Picture

Motion Picture revenues for the year were $9.4 million, up 2% from prior year. The Company's strategy to expand its distribution channel with a variety of new programming is consistent with the Company's focus on distribution.

Operating expenses for the year were $10.6 million, up 5.2% from last year, primarily driven by enhanced marketing and sales activities.

Segment loss was $(1.2) million for the year, 37.2% higher than the loss of $(878,000) reported in the prior year due to increased sales infrastructure and marketing cost related to the increased number of feature films delivered. The Company increased the sales infrastructure to accommodate the growing number of titles to be acquired or delivered.

Television

Television revenues for the year were $2.3 million, up 46.4% over last year. This increase is due to higher sales from the television library and the recognition of a television movie entitled "The Stranger Game" in fiscal 2006 compared to fiscal 2005.

Operating expenses for the year were $1.6 million, an increase of 70.6% from prior year, consistent with the increase in revenues.

Segment earnings were $648,000 for the year, 8.2% higher than last year. The Company plans to expand the television division by acquiring and producing more projects. The Company is currently in production of a 10 hour dramatic mini-series focusing on the tumultuous years of King Henry VIII's nearly 40 year reign of England.

Home Entertainment

Home Entertainment revenues of $9.6 million in fiscal 2006 represent seven months of revenues recognized from the acquisition kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc. in the second quarter of 2006.

Operating expenses for the year were $8.7 million, representing seven months of DVD duplication, other direct costs and overhead costs associated with home entertainment revenues.

Segment earnings were $876,000 for the year. The Company acquired kaBOOM in January 2006 as part of the Company's strategy to diversify operations by selling directly to video and DVD retailers.

Corporate

The Corporate results represent the incremental cost of corporate overhead in excess of the amount allocated to the other operating divisions. Corporate overhead in fiscal 2006 was $3.5 million, up from $1.5 million in 2005. The increase is a result of additional support required for organic growth and the acquisition of kaBOOM!. Stock-based compensation and warrant costs increased to $1.4 million in fiscal 2006 from $257,000 last year.

This increase reflects the Company's higher expense for the costs related to warrant issues and stock options granted to employees during the year.

Interest Income

Interest income increased to $1.1 million for the year, compared to $818,000 in the prior year. The largest component is interest revenue earned on the Restricted Term Deposit of $991,000 compared to $811,000 in the prior year. This interest revenue was offset by interest expense of the same amount recorded in respect of the Film Financing Obligation.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for the year was $2.9 million up from $953,000 last year due to the increase in production loans from $16 million to $29.8 million and interest on the bank credit facility and interest expense on the Film Financing Obligation discussed above.

In fiscal 2006, $1.1 million of interest on indebtedness relating to production of film and television programming was capitalized. In fiscal 2005, $0.7 million of interest on indebtedness relating to production of film and television programming was capitalized. Interest component may vary each year depending on the dollar value of production during the year and the timing of production commencement and delivery during the year.

Income Tax Recovery

Intangible assets and goodwill that arose in the kaBOOM! acquisition resulted in a future income tax liability represented by the tax effect of the temporary timing differences between the tax and accounting treatment related to the amortization of intangible assets and goodwill. Amortization of the intangible assets during the year resulted in a partial reversal of the temporary timing differences and an income tax recovery of $108,000.

FISCAL 2005 COMPARED TO FISCAL 2004

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Revenues for fiscal 2005 were $10.7 million, down 49% from the prior year. Both Motion Picture and Television revenues decreased reflecting the lower number of projects produced as well as lower sales from the television library.

Operating expenses defined as amortization of investment in film and television programming and other production costs, home entertainment direct costs, selling, general and administration and other amortization, of $12.6 million were down 43.2% from $22.1 million in the prior year. The decrease in expenses is consistent with the decrease in revenues year over year.

(Loss) earnings from operations before the undernoted was $(1.9) million compared to $(925,000) in 2004. (Loss) earnings from operations excludes interest and other gains or losses not attributable to operations. The Television segment reported earnings of $599,000, a decrease of 52.5% from prior year. Motion Picture segment incurred a loss of $(878,000) after incurring a loss of $(1.7) million the prior year.

Motion Picture

Motion Picture revenues for the year were $9.2 million, down 50% from prior year. The decrease in revenues reflects the lower number of projects produced by Peace Arch and is consistent with the Company's strategy to prioritize the distribution arm of the business. This resulted in lower presale revenues at the time a project is completed and delivered.

Operating expenses for the year were $10.0 million, down 50% from last year, consistent with the decrease in revenues of 50%.

Segment (loss) earnings from operations before the undernoted was $(878,000) for the year, 47% lower than the loss of $(1.7) million reported in the prior year.

Television

Television revenues for the year were $1.5 million, down 47% from 2004. The decrease is due to lower sales from the television library in fiscal 2005 compared to fiscal 2004.

Operating expenses for the year were $948,000, a decrease of 42.4% from prior year, consistent with the decrease in revenues of 47%.

Segment earnings (loss) from operations before the undernoted were $599,000 for the year, 53% lower than 2004.

Corporate

Corporate overhead in fiscal 2005 was $1.6 million, up from $534,000 in 2004. The increase was driven by the inclusion of a full year of operations of the Los Angeles office for fiscal 2005, and lower recovery of selling, general and administrative costs. Included in 2005 was $257,000 of costs associated with the stock options granted to employees, none were granted in 2004.

Interest Income

Interest income of $818,000 for the year compared to $39,000 in the prior year. Increase in interest income is due to interest revenue earned on the Restricted Term Deposit.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for the year was $953,000 up from $220,000 in 2004 due to an interest expense recorded on the Film Financing Obligation. The interest expense was offset by interest revenue of the same amount recorded with respect to the Restricted Term Deposit.

Income Tax Recovery

At August 31, 2005, the Company had accumulated losses for tax purposes of $6.5 million which are available for carry forward to future years. The benefits of the tax loss carry-forwards have not been reflected in the financial statements.

During the year ended August 31, 2004, the Company recorded a reversal of future income taxes valuation of $989,500. These future income taxes arose from the forgiveness of production loans in the amount of $2.7 million from a related party. The loan forgiveness has been recorded as contributed surplus net of the income tax impact of $989,500.

QUARTERLY CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION (UNAUDITED)

The following tables set forth certain unaudited data from the consolidated statements of (loss) earnings for each of the eight most recent quarters ended August 31, 2006. The information has been derived from the Company's unaudited consolidated financial statements that, in management's opinion, have been prepared on a basis consistent with the audited financial statements contained elsewhere in this report.

Results of operations for any period are dependent on the number, timing and commercial success of motion pictures and television programs delivered or made available to various media, none of which can be predicted with certainty. Consequently, our results of operations may fluctuate materially from period to period and the results of any one period are not necessarily indicative of results for future periods. Cash flows may also fluctuate and are not necessarily closely correlated with revenue recognition.

During the year ended August 31, 2005, the Company identified a required revision to its second quarter February 28, 2005 financial statements related to its accounting treatment of a complex arrangement with Showtime for the project Our Fathers. We determined that the arrangement was in the nature of a co-financing relationship where both parties contributed financially to the production. Under GAAP, the co-financier's contribution to the project is considered a reduction of the film's negative costs. Previously, the co-financier's contribution to the production was recognized as revenue by the Company from sale of rights. The cost of the Company's investment in its film assets is similarly reduced.

The adjustment to the February 28, 2005 quarter was a reversal of $6.1 million in revenues and $5.7 million in amortization resulting in an increase of net loss of $0.4 million.

The Company identified a required revision to its February 28, 2005 financial statements related to the valuation of its obligation to issue shares. It was determined that the price of the company's stock on the settlement date should be used to value the obligation to issue shares at February 28, 2005. The adjustment to the February 28, 2005 quarter is a gain on the revaluation and settlement of obligation of $762,000 and to the May 31, 2005 quarter a reduction on the gain on settlement of obligations of $762,000.

The preceding table reflects the revised February 28, 2005, and May 31, 2005 quarterly results of operations as well as the quarterly results of the Company for the past two years.

Quarterly net earnings (loss) have varied due to one time events that occurred during the second and third quarter of fiscal 2005 arising from the recognition of a one time $0.8 million gain and $1.3 million gain respectively, on the settlement of obligations.

FOURTH QUARTER

During the fourth quarter, the Company generated revenues of $7.9 million, a significant increase of 376% over the same period last year due to growth in the television division and operations of kaBOOM!. During the quarter, Peace Arch took delivery of the films The Veteran , UKM: Ultimate Killing Machine , Troubled Waters , Living Death , Mary and Delirious . Peace Arch also took delivery of the 2 episode documentary Fantasy Lands 2006 , 5 episodes of the lifestyle program Uber Guide and 4 of Makeover Wish .

Net loss in the quarter was $(2.2) million, up from the loss of $(198,000) during the same period last year. The Company in the current quarter incurred additional selling, general and administrative costs for stock based compensation, legal and accounting fees related to an F3 Registration, increase in headcount for the sales division and bad debt expense of $579,000.

On June 7, 2006, the Company completed a private placement of 7.5 million common shares for net proceeds of $8.4 million. The proceeds were used to repay the term loan of $3.4 million, and to settle letters of credit provided by a financial institution and certain of the preferred shareholders of $4.2 million in connection with the kaBOOM! acquisition and to provide working capital. The increase in production loans and proceeds from the private placement account for the majority of the increase in cash flow from financing activities in 2006.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The nature of the business is such that significant expenditures are required to produce, acquire and promote television programs and motion pictures in advance of revenue generation from these programs and motion pictures, which is earned over an extended period of time after their completion or acquisition. The Company has historically financed its capital requirements through various bank and other financial institution loans, vendor financing arrangements, loans from related parties as well as through the issuance of shares and warrants.

While these consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities in the normal course of operations, there are conditions that cast substantial doubt on the validity of this assumption. The Company has undergone substantial growth in corporate, sales infrastructure and through acquisitions and requires additional financing until it can generate positive cash flows from operations. While the Company continues to maintain its day-to-day activities and produce and distribute films and television programming, its working capital situation is severely constrained. Furthermore, the Company operates in an industry that has long operating cycles which require cash injections into new projects significantly ahead of the delivery and exploitation of the final production.

During the year, the Company completed a private placement with net proceeds of $8.4 million, secured new sources of financing for the cost of acquisitions and productions carrying lower rates of interest and received funds from the exercise of Preferred Share warrants. The Company is currently working on various financing initiatives however there is no assurance that the Company will be successful in its financing efforts and in achieving sufficient cash flows from operations. If the Company is unsuccessful, the Company may be required to significantly reduce or limit operations. The application of the going concern basis is dependent upon the Company obtaining additional financing in the short term and achieving sufficient cash flows from operations to fund continuing operations and meet its obligations as they come due.

The Company's success is predicated on its ability to finance growth. Adequate financing provides the flexibility to make appropriate investments in the future. The Company monitors cash flow with the long-term goal of maintaining credit worthiness. The Company attempts to ensure that new film and television programming are fully financed from distribution minimum guarantees, presales of certain rights, tax credits and bank financing, the security for which is limited to the future cash flows from the film project and in some cases provides a guarantee to the providers of the loan. The Company borrows funds from banks and other financial institutions to finance the costs of production which are generally incurred in advance of contracted receipts and revenues from these programs. The Company typically finances the capitalized costs of its proprietary film and television programming through presales from customers, borrowings from bank facilities, government tax incentives, contributions from co-producers and working capital deployed as interim financing to contracted receipts. The Company also funds capital requirements through the issuance of shares, warrants and debt. As the business grows, the Company's financing requirements are expected to grow and the Company expects the continued use of cash in operating activities and, therefore, is dependant on continued access to external sources of financing.

As at August 31, 2006, the Company had cash or cash equivalents available of $1.2 million compared to $1.4 million in 2005 and had drawn $1.8 million on its $2.5 million bank credit facility.

Cash Flows from Operating Activities

During the year, $17.9 million was used by operating activities, compared to $5.8 million used by operating activities in fiscal 2005 and $3.2 million generated from operations in 2004. The increase of cash flows used from operations for the year ended August 31, 2006 was due primarily to the increase in investment in film and television programming.

The use of cash flows from operating activities of $5.8 million in fiscal 2005 compared to the increase in cashflows of $3.2 million in 2004 is attributable to a use of working capital in 2005.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

During the year, cash flow used from investing activities was $7.4 million, compared with $51,000 used in 2005 and $71,000 used in 2004. The increase in 2006 was due to the acquisition of 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of kaBOOM! Entertainment Inc., the net cash requirement of the transaction was $7.2 million.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities

In fiscal 2006, cash flows from financing activities was $25.1 million compared to $5.8 million in fiscal 2005 and cash used for financing activities of $2.6 million in fiscal 2004. The Company issued $31.9 million and repaid $18.3 million of production loans in 2006. These production loans represent various loan financing arrangements for the purpose of commencing the production of a film project or the acquisition of film distribution rights. During 2006, the Company generated cash flows of $8.6 million from financing activities through the issuance of common stock. On June 7, 2006, the Company completed a private placement of 7.5 million common shares for net proceeds of $8.4 million. The proceeds were used to repay the term loan of $3.4 million, and to settle letters of credit provided by a financial institution and certain of the preferred shareholders of $4.2 million in connection with the kaBOOM! acquisition and to provide working capital. The increase in production loans and proceeds from the private placement account for the majority of the increase in cash flow from financing activities in 2006.

In 2005, cash from financing activities was provided from the proceeds of the issuance of Series I Preference Shares and warrants of $2.3 million, and net additions of production loans of $3.4 million. Cash used in financing activities in fiscal 2004 of $2.6 million was primarily due to the net repayment of production loans.

Capital Resources

Bank Credit Facility the Company has a bank credit facility with a Canadian bank with a maximum credit availability of $2.5 million. The credit facility bears interest at the prime rate of interest plus 1.25% and is due on demand. The bank credit facility is secured by a general assignment of a subsidiary's assets and a guarantee from the Company. At year end, there was $689,000 available under the facility.

Production Loans The Company enters into various loan financing arrangements for the purpose of commencing a production of a film project or the acquisition of film distribution rights. Such loans are usually specific to each film but may be secured by the receivables of several films. The Company expects $26.9 million of the loans to be repaid in 2007, and $2.8 million to be repaid in 2008. The Company has production loans outstanding at August 31, 2006 of $29.8 million compared to $16.0 million in 2005.

Commitments The Company has entered into various contracts which result in future cash flow commitments related to production loans, operating leases, obligations to issue shares and revenue guarantee obligations. The following table details the cash flow commitments over the next five years and thereafter related to these obligations.

		Payments Due by Period
(in thousands of dollars)	Total	Less than 1 year	1 - 3 years	4 - 5 years	After 5 years

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Revenue Guarantee Obligation	21,272	-	21,272	-	-
Total Contractual Obligations	57,723	31,340	25,824	559	-

At August 31, 2006, the Company had commitments of $2,229,000 (2005 - $3,134,000) with respect to the acquisition of film distribution rights to ten films, which will be delivered to the Company during the year ended August 31, 2007. These payments are required to be made at the date of delivery of the respective films which is expected to be no later than August 31, 2007.

Capital Structure During the year, the following capital transactions occurred in addition to those noted above:

Capital Stock

i)

On December 30, 2005, 1,435,897 Series II Preference Share warrants were exercised at a price of US$0.50 per share for total proceeds of US$717,948.

ii)

On March 30, 2006, Comerica Bank of California agreed to convert its US$1,075,000 loan for 215,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

iii)

On April 24, 2006, 500,000 Series II Preference Share warrants were exercised at a price of US$0.50 per share for total proceeds of US$250,000.

iv)

In connection with the kaBOOM! acquisition on January 23, 2006 certain preferred shareholders provided letters of credit in return for a fee that was eligible to be settled in cash or common shares. The fee was classified as equity as it was most likely to be settled by a fixed number of shares and valued at $108,000. On April 24, 2006, the Company issued 245,291 common shares to settle the fees.

v)

On April 28, 2006, the Company issued 178,620 common shares for the settlement of $97,000 of dividends payable to certain preferred shareholders. The value of the shares issued to settle the liability was $123,000 and therefore the Company recorded a loss on settlement of the dividends of $26,000.

vi)

On May 25, 2006, 726,032 Series II Preference Share warrants were exercised at a price of US$0.50 per share for proceeds of US$363,016.

vii)

On June 7, 2006, the Company granted, as partial compensation to retain an investment banker as its financial advisor in connection with the private placement described in note 18(a)(vi) of the financial statements, a warrant to purchase up to 269,000 common shares at an exercise price of $1.21 per share, exercisable to June 7, 2010 as described in note 20. The fair value of $273,000, which was allocated against the net proceeds of the private placement, was estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions: an expected life of the warrants of 3 years, a risk free rate of interest of 4.16% and an expected volatility of 102.6%.

During the year ended August 31, 2006, the Company issued 441,333 common shares for gross proceeds of $255,000 in connection with employee stock options that had been exercised. A balance of $118,000 representing a portion of the value associated with stock options was transferred from contributed surplus.

ix)

During the year, the Company recorded dividends of $308,000 compared to $22,000 in 2005 in respect of the Series I Preference Shares and the Series II Preference Shares.

On February 7, 2006, the Company issued 1.5 million Common Share warrants to a firm of marketing and publicity consultants. 1 million warrants vested immediately and 500,000 warrants vest at the end of the arrangement 12 months after the grant date, as a result, the Company recorded an expense of $469,000. Each warrant is convertible into one common share of the Company at an exercise price of US$0.54, exercisable to February 7, 2009. The fair value of each warrant was estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions: an expected life of the warrants of 2-3 years, a risk free rate of interest of 4.0% and an expected volatility of between 94.38% and 102.6%.

During fiscal 2001, the Company granted, as partial compensation to retain an investment banker as its financial advisor, a warrant to purchase up to 100,000 Class B Shares at an exercise price of US$2.72 per share, exercisable to April 16, 2006. As the warrants were granted at an exercise price equal to the market value of Company's shares on the date of grant, no compensation expense was recorded. During the year, the warrants were not exercised and have since expired.

Series II Preferred Share Purchase Warrants

See (i), (iii) and (vi) under Capital Stock above.

Each Series I and Series II Preference Share is convertible into one Common Share of the Company at any time. Each outstanding Series I and II Preference Shares pays a 10% cumulative dividend on a quarterly basis.

On July 29, 2005, in connection with a private placement, the Company issued 4,347,825 Series II Preferred Share warrants. Each warrant is convertible into one Series II Preference Share of the Company at a price of US$0.50 at any time up to July 29, 2009. The allocation of the proceeds from the issuance of the Units to the warrants was $693,000.

SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On November 3, 2006, the Company completed a sale of certain distribution rights excluding North America in distribution rights with Sony Pictures Home Entertainment for the television program The Tudors .

On November 2, 2006, the Registration Statement filed on September 1, 2006 on Form 3 became effective. The Company intends to maintain the effectiveness of the Registration Statement until November 2, 2009.

On November 1, 2006, the Company entered into a binding letter agreement with CSC Global Technologies Inc. (CSC). Pursuant to the Agreement, a new company will be created, where 51% of the common shares will be owned by the Company and 49% owned by CSC. The agreement will require the Company to provide financing toward the start up of the business venture. The amount of this obligation has not yet been determined.

On October 24, 2006, the Company filed Amendment No. 1 to the Registration Statement on Form 3 for the resale of 36,061,540 common shares, no par value, of the Company. Of the common shares offered 24,978,219 common shares were issued and outstanding, 8,695,654 common shares were issuable upon conversion of preferred shares that were issued to selling shareholders listed in the prospectus, 1,769,000 common shares were issuable upon exercise of warrants that were issued to the selling shareholders listed in the prospectus, and 618,667 common shares were issuable upon exercise of stock options that were issued to the selling shareholders.

On September 7, 2006, 500,000 Series II Preference Share warrants were exercised at a price of US$0.50 per share for total proceeds of US$250,000.

OFF BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

Certain film productions delivered during prior years were pursuant to co-production agreements with an independent producer (the co-producer) in another country. The production loans are arranged jointly by the co-producers to cover their individual funding of the respective film production. Each co-producer is responsible for the payment of its respective portion of the loans out of receipts from the respective co-producer's exploitation of the production. In the event of default by the co-producer, the Company is liable for any unpaid balance of the co-producer's share of the loan. At August 31, 2006, the total amount of such unpaid loans was approximately $223,000 (2005 - $343,000). In the event of such a default, the Company has full recourse to all the copyright, exploitation and other rights attributed to the co-producer pursuant to the co-production agreement. No accrual has been made as the Company believes the likelihood of payment is remote.

During the year ended August 31, 2005, the Company provided a guarantee of the sales performance of its subsidiary Peace Arch Films Limited (PAF) of US$2,500,000 to assist with a third party producer's financing for a production for which PAF has acquired worldwide distribution rights. The Company has been advised that the related financing obligation was fully satisfied prior to August 31, 2006 and that therefore PAF has no liability associated with the guarantee.

The Company has entered into financings with a Canadian limited partnership, which provides security for bank loans provided either to the Company to finance minimum guarantee obligations related to production rights acquisitions, or to production entities directly to support financing of production costs. The limited partnership guarantee is secured by the Company by certain distribution rights relating to each project. In each instance, the Company is the distributor of the project and the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce is the bank.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has transacted business in the normal course with entities that are subject to common voting control and with entities over which the Company exercises significant influence. These transactions are measured at the exchange amount, which is the actual amount of consideration given as established and agreed between the related parties and having normal trade terms.

During the year ended August 31, 2006 the Company paid $190,000 (2005 - $185,000) to a company controlled by a shareholder, director and officer of the Company for executive services rendered. These expenditures are reflected in the company's selling, general and administrative expenses.

During the year ended August 31, 2006, the Company paid $nil (2005 - $32,000) to a shareholder, director and officer of the Company for legal services rendered. These expenditures are reflected in the Company's selling, general and administrative expenses

During the year ended August 31, 2006, the Company received payment of $nil (2005 - $nil) from a company controlled by a shareholder, director and officer of the Company in repayment of an outstanding balance owing. This balance was unsecured, non-interest bearing and had no specified repayment date.

As at August 31, 2006, included in accounts receivable was $nil (2005 - $1,421,000 (US$1,200,000)) from a company owned by a member of senior management. This amount is a result of a sale of distribution rights to the related company prior to the individual becoming a member of senior management. The amount is secured by an irrevocable letter of credit.

On June 16, 2006, the Company entered into an agreement with a company controlled by a director and a member of the Company's senior management to loan the Company $2,740,000. The loan bears interest at the rate of 18% per annum and is secured by the Company's unencumbered entitlement to tax credit receivables due on films that it has produced and by guarantees provided by certain unrelated production companies in order to assist the Company with the financing of its distribution advances. The loan is due on December 1, 2007. During the year, the Company incurred interest of $99,000, which is included in interest expense in the statement of earnings.

As at August 31, 2006, included in production loans was $50,000 due to a director of the Company with respect to a loan for the purpose of interim financing of a certain production. The loan is due on demand and is interest free.

During the year ended August 31, 2006, the Company paid interest of $13,000 to a member of the Company's senior management in respect of an interim bridge loan provided for one of the Company's productions. The interest is reflected as a cost of that production in investment in film and television programming.

OUTSTANDING SHARES

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Common Shares without par value. At November 27, 2006 the Company had 30,915,294 Common Shares outstanding (excluding 343,689 shares in escrow). At August 31, 2005, the Company had 20,620,615 Common Shares outstanding (excluding 558,689 shares in escrow).

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Preference Shares, issuable in series without par value. At November 27, 2006 the Company had 4,347,827 Series I Preference Shares and 3,161,929 Series II Preference Shares and 1,185,898 Series II Preference Share warrants issued and outstanding. There were 4,347,827 Series I Preference Shares and 4,347,827 Series II Preference Share warrants outstanding in fiscal 2005.

The Company has 6,217,466 Common Shares reserved for issuance pursuant to the current stock option plan, of which 441,333 were exercised prior to August 31, 2006.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Company's business is subject to a number of risks and uncertainties discussed below. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company or that the Company does not currently anticipate will be material, may impair the Company's business operations and its operating results and as a result could materially impact its business, results of operations, prospects and financial condition.

Competition The business of producing and distributing film and television programming is highly competitive and involves a substantial degree of risk. The Company faces intense competition from other producers and distributors, many of whom are substantially larger and have greater financial resources. The Company competes with other companies for ideas and storylines created by third parties as well as for actors, directors and other personnel. The Company's future financial performance may be adversely affected if it is unable to compete successfully.

Seasonality Our revenues and results of operations are subject to variations that are difficult to predict. Results of operations for any period depend on a number of factors such as on the number of film and television programs that are delivered, the price at which the Company is able to sell them and whether the cost of productions are within budget. Consequently, results may vary from period to period, and the results of any one period may not indicate results for future periods. In particular, results of operations in any period depend to a large extent upon our production and delivery schedule for television programs and motion pictures. As a result of the production cycle, our revenues are not recognized evenly throughout any given year. Cash flows may also fluctuate and will not directly correspond with revenue recognition.

Reliance on key customers In the year ended August 31, 2006, one customer represented approximately 25% (2005-30%) of revenues, a second customer represented approximately 9% (2005-28%) and a third customer represented approximately 5% (2005-9%) and two customers approximately 8% (2005-nil %) of total revenues. We expect that a significant amount of our revenues will continue to be derived from a relatively small number of customers. The loss of any of these customers could have a material adverse impact on our results of operations and financial condition.

Risks Associated with the Production of Film and Television Programs Results of operations for any period depend on the number of film and television programs that are delivered. Consequently, results may vary from period to period and the results of any one period may not indicate results for future periods. Cash flows may also fluctuate and may not directly correspond with revenue recognition. Actual production costs may exceed budget, perhaps significantly, due to factors within or beyond the Company's control. These factors may delay completion of a production. If there are significant cost overruns the Company may have to seek additional financing to complete the production or will have the ability to call upon the bond in order to complete the film. The Company may be unable to recoup the additional costs which could have a material adverse impact on operating results and liquidity.

Investments in film and television programming are amortized against revenues in the ratio that current revenues bear to management's estimate of ultimate revenues for each program. The Company expects to amortize a 100% of film costs over a three-year period. Management periodically reviews its estimates and adjusts the amortization of its production costs accordingly. In the event that management should determine that the capitalized costs for a program exceed its fair value, capitalized costs would be written down in the current period, resulting in a corresponding decrease in earnings.

Managing Future Growth We are subject to risks associated with possible acquisitions, business combinations, or joint ventures. From time to time we engage in discussions and activities with respect to possible acquisitions, business combinations, or joint ventures intended to complement or expand our business. We may not realize the anticipated benefit from any of the transactions we pursue. Regardless of whether we consummate any such transaction as well as the integration of the acquired business could require us to incur significant costs and cause diversion of management's time and resources. Any such transaction could also result in impairment of goodwill and other intangibles, development write-offs and other related expenses. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Audience Acceptance Revenues derived from the production and distribution of film and television programming depend primarily upon acceptance by the public which is difficult to predict. Some or all of the proprietary film and television programs may not be commercially successful, which could result in the Company's failure to recoup its investment or realize its anticipated profits.

Departure of Key Personnel The Company's business is substantially dependent on the services of certain key personnel placed in certain positions within the organization. The success of the Company depends to a certain degree upon the skill and efforts of its management and upon its ability to attract and retain qualified management personnel. The loss of their services could have an effect on the Company's business.

International Operations The Company's international distribution revenue is subject to risks associated with local economic conditions, currency fluctuations, changes in local regulatory requirements, compliance with a variety of foreign laws and regulations, cultural barriers and political stability. The Company's international distribution revenue may be adversely affected by these risks.

Government Incentives The Company accesses Canadian government incentives in the form of tax credits and utilizes structures which permit foreign country tax-assisted participation in the financing of its projects. If such subsidies and tax assistance were to be eliminated the Company's production operations could be adversely affected in the future.

Foreign Exchange The Company receives a portion of its revenues from the United States and international sources in United States dollars. A portion of a film and television program's financing of production costs may be denominated in United States dollars while production costs are payable primarily in Canadian dollars. Accordingly, operating results can be affected by fluctuations in the United States dollar exchange rate as we do not hedge our foreign exchange exposure. In addition, costs may be payable in currencies other than Canadian and United States dollars. We monitor our currency exchange rate risks on an ongoing basis.

Interest Rates The Company is exposed to interest rate risk from the bank credit facility and production loans bearing interest rates that vary with fluctuations in interest rates.

ACCOUNTING CHANGES AND RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Impact of new accounting pronouncements

In September 2006, the CICA released new Handbook Section 1506, Accounting Changes (Section 1506), effective for annual and interim periods beginning on or after January 1, 2007. This section replaces the former section 1506 which establishes criteria for changing accounting policies, together with the accounting treatment and disclosure of changes in accounting policies and estimates, and correction of errors. The Company has determined that Section 1506 will not have any impact to the consolidated results of operations or financial position.

In September 2006, the Emerging Issues Committee issued EIC-163 Determining the Variability to be Considered in Applying AcG-15, effective for the first interim or annual reporting period beginning on or after January 1, 2007. EIC-163 defines that the variability to be considered in applying AcG-15 is to be based on analysis of the design of the entity and prescribes the steps to be undertaken in such an analysis. The Company has not yet determined the impact of adopting EIC-163 on its consolidated results of operations or financial position.

Critical accounting estimates

The Company's significant accounting policies are described in note 2 to the consolidated financial statements. The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect its reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and the related disclosure of contingencies. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on third party information that it believes is reasonable in the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The Company's most significant use of estimates and assumptions in preparing the consolidated financial statements relate to future revenue projections used for the purposes of amortizing investment in film and television programming, provision for doubtful accounts to reflect credit exposures, recoverability of tax credits returns and rebates, valuation allowances and impairment assessments for various assets including investment in film and television programming and productions in progress.

Variable Interest Entities Effective December 1, 2004, the Company adopted Accounting Guideline 15 (AcG-15) - Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities issued by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants 9 (CICA). AcG-15 provides criteria for the identification of VIEs and further criteria for determining what entity, if any, should consolidate them. AcG 15 defines a VIE as an entity that either does not have sufficient equity at risk to finance its activities without subordinated financial support or wherein the equity investors lack the characteristic of a controlling financial interest. VIEs are subject to consolidation by a company if that company is deemed the primary beneficiary of the VIE. The primary beneficiary is the party that is either exposed to a majority of the expected losses from the VIE's activities or is entitled to receive a majority of the VIEs residual returns or both.

The Company acquires from independent production entities various distribution rights to film properties either outright or by providing a non-refundable minimum guarantee against future revenues to be generated from its distribution activities. The Company has determined that these independent production entities are VIEs since they lack sufficient equity financing to support their business activities. The Company's interest in a particular film, as represented by its non refundable minimum guarantees, is variable due to its participation in future distribution revenues of the production entity and can be significant. The Company's maximum exposure to loss for any particular film is represented by its non-refundable minimum guarantee and is reflected in the financial statements as investment in film and television programming. In evaluating its arrangements with the independent production entities for the acquisition of its distribution rights and all other arrangements with variable interest entities which have been identified, the Company has determined that it is exposed to greater than 50% of the expected losses or a majority of the expected returns in arrangements with two independent productions and therefore is considered the primary beneficiary of these entities. As a result, the Company has consolidated the assets, liabilities and operating results of PA Heartstopper Films Inc. and PA Warterra Films Inc. The Company has determined that its rights to the remaining acquired film properties do not expose the Company to the majority of the expected losses or a majority of the expected returns of the VIEs. The aggregate of the Company's maximum exposure to loss as represented by the aggregate of the non-refundable minimum guarantees to the production entities is $12,118,000.

Film Investments The Company records amortization of investment in film and television programming based upon the ratio that current revenues bear to estimated remaining unrecognized ultimate revenue as of the beginning of the current fiscal year. Investment in film and television programming is recorded at the lower of remaining unamortized film costs and fair value and productions in progress are recorded at the lower of cost and estimated fair value.

Estimates of future film and television programming revenue and fair value are affected by changes in general economic or industry conditions and market preferences. These factors are primarily outside of the Company's control. Management's estimates of future cash flows are based on its best estimates of future economic conditions as they impact the Company. These estimates are reviewed periodically in accordance with company policy. Significant decreases in future estimates of revenue may result in accelerating amortization of film and television production costs or require unamortized costs and productions in progress being written down to fair value, based upon estimated future discounted net cash flows from the related feature film productions or series.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets Goodwill and intangible assets are tested for impairment at least annually. The impairment test follows a two-step approach. The first step determines if the goodwill is potentially impaired, and the second step measures the amount of the impairment loss, if necessary. Under the first step, goodwill is considered potentially impaired if the value of the reporting unit is less than the reporting unit's carrying amount, including goodwill. Under the second step, the impairment loss is then measured as the excess of recorded goodwill over the fair value of the goodwill, as calculated. The fair value of goodwill is calculated by allocating the fair value of the reporting unit to all the assets and liabilities of the reporting unit as if the reporting unit was purchased in a business combination and the purchase price was the fair value of the reporting unit.

The fair value of the Company's intangible assets is exposed to future adverse changes if the Company experiences declines in operating results, or if future performance is below historical trends.

Income Taxes Future income taxes are provided for using the asset and liability method. Under the asset and liability method, future tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Future tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply when the asset is realized or the liability settled. The effect on future tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that substantive enactment occurs. To the extent that the Company does not consider it to be more likely than not that a future tax asset will be realized, it provides a valuation allowance against the excess.

The recognition of future tax assets depends on management's assumption that future earnings will be sufficient to realize the future benefit. No assurance can be given that future earnings will be sufficient to realize the future benefit.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

As at August 31, 2006 and 2005, the Company's financial instruments included cash and cash equivalents, restricted term deposits, accounts and other receivables, revolving credit facility, production loans, revenue guarantee obligation, obligation to issue shares and accounts payable and accrued liabilities. The carrying values of the restricted term deposits and the revenue guarantee obligations approximate fair value as the interest rates are reflective of current market rates as at August 31, 2006. The carrying value of the obligation to issue shares reflects fair value as it is reported at the fair value of the shares at August 31, 2006. The carrying value of the remaining financial instruments approximated their fair value due to their ability for prompt liquidation or short term to maturity, with the exception of tax credits, which are receivable over a period of up to two years.

The Company expects to recover the carrying value of these tax credits and as such has not written them down to fair market value.

DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer are responsible for establishing and maintaining the Company's disclosure controls as required by Multilateral Instrument 52-109 issued by the Canadian Securities administrators.

The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, with the aid of Management, have designed disclosure controls and procedures, to provide reasonable assurance that material information relating to the Company, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to management by others within those entities particularly during the period in which the annual filings are being prepared. Management has also designed internal controls over financial reporting to provide reasonable assurance regarding reliability of financial reporting and preparation of the financial statements for the year ended August 31, 2006 in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 52-109. There have been no changes to the Company's disclosure controls and procedures or to the Company's internal controls over financial reporting that occurred during the preceding quarter that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures in place as at August 31, 2006 and have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were adequate and effective with the following exception. It was determined at August 31, 2006 additional internal review procedures were necessary to provide reasonable assurance of the reliability of the accounts of certain subsidiary companies. Management is implementing control procedures to correct this deficiency.

The Company is rapidly growing by incorporating new subsidiaries and acquiring new companies. From time to time there may be deficiencies in the design of disclosure controls and procedures relating to newly acquired or incorporated subsidiaries. Given the ongoing increase in size and capacity of operations, management is continually re-evaluating the current system and implementing the appropriate changes to the current controls and procedures to address the needs of a larger organization.
