UNITED BANCORPORATION OF ALABAMA, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT
for
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS to be held on May 2, 2012

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the stockholders of United Bancorporation of Alabama, Inc. (the “Corporation”) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Corporation’s Board of Directors for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Corporation to be held on May 2, 2012, at 3:00 p.m., local time, and at any adjournments thereof (the “Meeting”).

The matters to be considered at the Meeting include: (1) the election of three (3) directors, each of whom is nominated to serve until the 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, each to serve until his successor is elected and qualified; (2) approval of an advisory (non-binding) proposal regarding the compensation of executive officers as described in this Proxy Statement; and (3) the transaction of such other business as may come properly before the Meeting.

The Corporation’s executive offices are located at 200 East Nashville Avenue, Atmore, Alabama 36502. For information on how to obtain directions to the Annual Meeting, please call or email Tina Brooks at (251) 446-6001 or tbrooks@ubankal.com, respectively. This Proxy Statement is dated March 28, 2012 and, together with a copy of the Corporation’s 2011 Annual Report, is being mailed to stockholders of the Corporation on or about April 4, 2012.

VOTING SECURITIES

As of March 26, 2012, the Corporation’s only outstanding voting security was its Class A Stock, of which 2,367,902 shares (excluding treasury shares) were issued, outstanding, and entitled to vote. Those shares were held by approximately 876 stockholders of record. Stockholders of record on March 26, 2012 are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting.

Notwithstanding that date, the Corporation’s stock transfer books will not be closed, and stock may be transferred after the record date, although only stockholders of record as of the record date may vote at the Meeting.

The directors, nominees for election as directors, and executive officers of the Corporation as a group number nine persons and, as of March 26, 2012, beneficially owned 270,683 shares of Class A Stock, 11.43% of the total shares of such stock outstanding. See “SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT.”

VOTES REQUIRED

The representation in person or by proxy of at least a majority of the outstanding Class A Stock entitled to vote at the Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Votes withheld from any nominee, abstentions and broker “non-votes” are counted as present or represented for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the Meeting. A “non-vote” occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to the proposal and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

The election of directors requires an affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting. The nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of such shares will be elected as directors. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote for directors. See “ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION” below for information regarding voting on Proposal 2. Although the Corporation is presently not aware of any other matters to be acted upon at the Meeting, any other matters that may be considered and acted upon by the stockholders at the Meeting would require approval by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote and represented at the Meeting either in person or by proxy. Abstentions would be treated as votes cast with respect to any such matter and therefore will have the same effect as a vote against such matter. Broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast with respect to such matter and therefore would have no effect on the outcome of the votes.

PROXIES

If the enclosed Proxy is executed and returned, it may be revoked at any time before it has been exercised; if it is not revoked, the shares represented thereby will be voted by the persons designated in such Proxy in accordance with the instructions therein. In the absence of instructions, the Proxy will be voted FOR election of each of the director nominees described in this Proxy Statement, FOR Proposal 2, and with discretionary authority on all other matters that may come properly before the Meeting.

* nominee for election for a term expiring at the 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders

Mr. Justice, who has been a director of the Corporation since 1991, will retire at the 2012 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. As permitted by the Bylaws of the Corporation, instead of seeking a replacement nominee for Mr. Justice, the Board of Directors has determined to reduce the total number of directors to seven.

The Bank is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation. None of the other entities listed under the column "Principal Occupation During Past Five Years" above is affiliated with the Corporation.

Each director of the Corporation continuing in office after the Meeting attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Corporation's Board of Directors and its committees held during 2011 while he or she served as a director. The Corporation's Board of Directors held eleven meetings in 2011.

The Board of Directors strives to be composed of a diverse group of persons with a variety of experience, qualifications, attributes and skills that enable it to meet the needs of the Corporation's governance. In particular, the Board of Directors is constituted by a group of individuals which have a mix of skills and knowledge in the areas of banking, finance, accounting and business. In addition, members of the Board of Directors are active in, and knowledgeable about, the local communities in which the Corporation operates. A number of the members of the Corporation's Board of Directors are also among the largest of the Corporation's shareholders.

When considering whether directors and nominees have the experience, qualifications, attributes and skills, taken as a whole, to enable the Board of Directors to satisfy its oversight responsibilities effectively in light of the Corporation's business and structure, the Board of Directors considered the information discussed in each director's biography above. The Board of Directors also considered the many years of experience represented by Mrs. Ash and Messrs. Crim, Cunningham, Jones and Swift, each of whom have been involved with the Corporation or the Bank for at least ten years. Each of the Corporation's directors also has business and personal relationships with people in their respective communities which provides an important connection to the Corporation's customers. In addition, the Board of Directors believes that each of the directors has a reputation for honesty, integrity and adherence to high ethical standards.

With regard to Messrs. Crim, Cunningham, Maxwell and Swift, the Board of Directors considered their experience owning and operating a business. Mr. Andreoli is a certified public accountant and Mrs. Ash has experience with bank financial accounting. Both have a thorough knowledge of accounting and financial statements. Mr. Maxwell also has extensive experience with real estate development, construction, management and maintenance, which is valuable for a community banking organization with a number of locations and for which real estate often serves as collateral for loans. Mr. Jones is an experienced community banker with knowledge of how to operate and manage community banks. He received a masters degree in banking and is a past president of the Alabama Bankers Association. Each of the directors and nominees is active in civic organizations in the communities served by the Bank.

The Corporation has chosen to separate the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer positions. In addition, the Corporation has created the position of Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors believes that this leadership structure facilitates its oversight of management. In addition, the Board of Directors believes that this leadership structure better protects shareholder interests by providing independent oversight of management.

The duties of the non-executive Chairman of the Board include:

- preparing the agenda for Board of Directors meetings with the Corporate Secretary and in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer and other members of the Board of Directors;
- ensuring that information flows openly between senior management and the Board of Directors; and
- presiding over all meetings of the Board of Directors;
- assigning tasks to the appropriate committees of the Board of Directors;
- presiding over all meetings of shareholders.

The Corporation believes that the Board of Directors, the Board committees as presently constituted and the leadership structure of the Board of Directors enables the Board of Directors to fulfill its role in overseeing and monitoring the management and operations of the Corporation and protecting the interests of the Corporation and its stockholders.

The Board of Directors oversees the risk management of the Company through its committees and the positions of Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Board's Audit Committee monitors (1) the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal controls, (2) the integrity of its consolidated financial statements and (3) compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. In addition, the Audit Committee coordinates with the internal audit function and the independent registered public accountant.

At its quarterly and other meetings, the Board of Directors reviews and discusses the financial statements of the Bank, periodic reports filed by the Corporation and the policies and practices of the Corporation. In addition, the Board of Directors reviews corporate strategies and objectives, evaluates business performance and reviews the annual business plan.

The Corporation does not have a standing nominating committee, and all director nominations are considered by the Board of Directors as a whole, with each director participating in consideration of director nominees. The Board of Directors has not adopted a nominating committee charter. Certain members of the Board are not "independent directors" as defined by NASDAQ rules as described under "AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT" below. As an employee of the Corporation's subsidiary, United Bank, Mr. R. Jones is not an "independent director." Mr. Swift does not meet that definition solely by virtue of his serving as an officer of the Corporation, notwithstanding that he is not employed by the Corporation or its subsidiaries. The other members of the Board of Directors are "independent directors" as so defined.

The Board of Directors does not have a specific policy regarding diversity when identifying director nominees; however, the goal of the Board of Directors has been, and continues to be, to identify nominees for service on the Board of Directors who will bring a variety of perspectives and skills from their respective professional and business experiences, particularly in the communities served by the Bank. Experience as a director of the Bank is generally considered a strong positive factor in evaluating nominees. Depending upon the needs of the Board of Directors and the Corporation from time to time, certain of the factors described below may be weighed more or less heavily in evaluating potential nominees. There are no specific, minimum qualifications, qualities or skills that must be met by potential nominees.

The Board of Directors identifies nominees by first considering on an informal basis the current members of the Board of Directors. Current members of the Board of Directors are considered for re-nomination, with strong consideration generally given to the value of continuity of service by existing members of the Board of Directors. If a vacancy on the Board of Directors occurs due to a director's decision not to stand for re-election or for any other reason, the Board of Directors will then determine if there is a need to fill the vacancy or reduce the number of directors serving on the Board of Directors, in accordance with the Corporation's Bylaws and Certificate of Incorporation. If the Board of Directors determines a need to fill a vacancy, current members of the Board of Directors are polled for suggestions as to individuals meeting desired criteria, and research may also be performed to identify qualified individuals. To date, the Board of Directors has not formally engaged third parties to assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees, although the Board of Directors may do so in the future.

Historically, the Corporation has not had a formal policy concerning stockholder recommendations for nominees, and the Board of Directors does not feel that such a formal policy is warranted at this time based on what it believes to be satisfactory experience to date in identifying director nominees without such a policy. However, a reasonable stockholder recommendation will be considered, in light of the particular needs of the Corporation and using the procedures set forth above, if the Board is seeking to fill a vacancy. Except in extraordinary circumstances, the Board of Directors does not anticipate increasing the number of directors to allow nomination by the Board of Directors of a stockholder-recommended nominee. Any such recommendation should be communicated to the Board of Directors as described below. Although it does not presently anticipate doing so, the Board of Directors may reconsider adoption of a formal policy for stockholder recommendations for director nominees at such time as it believes that the Corporation's circumstances warrant such consideration.

The Corporation has not instituted to date a formal process by which stockholders may communicate directly with directors. However, informal processes exist by which communications sent to the Board of Directors or in care of an officer or other representative of the Corporation are forwarded to the President and Chief Executive Officer, who is also a director. The Board of Directors believes this process has adequately served the needs of the Board of Directors and the Corporation's stockholders. Until some other procedure is disclosed to the Corporation's stockholders, stockholders may direct communications intended for the Board of Directors to the Stockholder Relations Department, at the address set forth under "ANNUAL REPORT ON FORM 10-K" below. The envelope containing such communication must contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a "Stockholder-Board Communication" or "Stockholder-Director Communication" or similar statement that clearly indicates the communication is intended for the Board of Directors. All such communications must clearly indicate that the author is a stockholder of the Corporation and state whether the intended recipients are all members of the Board of Directors or certain specified directors. Copies of such communications will be circulated to the President and the appropriate director or directors.

Although the Corporation does not have a formal code of ethics denominated as such, its ethical guidelines for all employees, including the principal executive officer and principal financial officer, are included in the Directors' Code of Conduct, Employee Code of Conduct and United Bank Conflict of Interest Policy, copies of which are attached to the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010.

The Corporation's Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee. See "AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT" and "EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION DISCUSSION" below. In addition, the Board of Directors of United Bank has established an audit committee.

It is intended that, unless "Withhold Authority" is noted, proxies in the accompanying form will be voted at the Meeting for the election to the Board of Directors of L. Walter Crim, Leslie H. Cunningham and Richard K. Maxwell to serve until the 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. Each of the nominees are currently members of the Board of Directors. If any nominee is not a candidate when the election occurs (which is not anticipated to be the case), it is intended that the proxies may be voted, unless authorization is withheld, for any substitute nominee or nominees recommended by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any nominee will be unable to serve as a director if elected.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CORPORATION RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES LISTED ABOVE.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION DISCUSSION

The Board of Directors of the Corporation established a Compensation Committee in March 2009 for determination of executive compensation. The Compensation Committee consists of all members of the Corporation's Board of Directors other than Mr. R. Jones, who is an executive officer of the Corporation. Prior to March, 2009, the Board of Directors of the Bank made compensation determinations with respect to employees of the Bank, including those who were executive officers of the Corporation, based on the recommendations of the Compensation Committee of the Bank's Board of Directors.

Since March 2009, the Compensation Committee of the Corporation has made compensation determinations with respect to employees of the Bank, including those who are executive officers of the Corporation. For executives other than the President and Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee acts on the compensation recommendations of the President and Chief Executive Officer, with the objective of providing compensation competitive with that provided by comparable financial institutions.

The compensation of the President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. R. Jones, is determined by the Compensation Committee in accordance with the provisions of Mr. R. Jones' employment agreement. See Agreements with Mr. R. Jones below. Mr. R. Jones' compensation consists of a specified annual salary, performance-based annual cash incentive compensation, long-term incentives in the form of stock options and other equity awards, and other benefits. The Compensation Committee based its determination of Mr. R. Jones' compensation package as reflected in the employment agreement on the advice and recommendation of a compensation consultant specializing in the banking industry, with the intent of providing a compensation package designed to retain Mr. R. Jones' services and motivate him to perform to the best of his abilities. Mr. R. Jones' 2011 base salary reflects the Board's determination of the salary level necessary to meet this objective. As described below, long-term incentives in the form of incentive stock options were granted to Mr. R. Jones in accordance with the employment agreement as supplemented in 1999.

Compensation for executive officers other than the President and Chief Executive Officer consists of annual base salary, annual cash bonuses and awards under the Corporation's equity incentive plans determined by the Compensation Committee, primarily on the recommendation of the President and Chief Executive Officer. Base salary is determined at hiring and is reviewed annually for increases based upon performance evaluations made by the President and Chief Executive Officer. Annual cash bonuses are generally awarded as a percentage of base salary. The bonus, if any, is based on the individual's compensation, salary grade and individual performance and the performance of the Bank.

The stockholders of the Corporation approved the 2007 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2007 Plan") at the 2007 Annual Meeting and awards under the 2007 Plan were made to certain officers of the Corporation beginning in October, 2007. It is contemplated that the percentage of incentive compensation to total compensation will increase over time. The Corporation intends that the long-term incentives provided by the 2007 Plan will help the Corporation recruit, retain and motivate its officers, directors and employees.

Agreements with Mr. R. Jones. The Bank and Mr. R. Jones entered into an Executive Compensation Agreement as of May 28, 1993 (the "1993 Agreement") which provided for certain deferred compensation benefits. The 1993 Agreement was replaced in 2001 by the Supplemental Compensation and Amendment Agreement (the "2001 Agreement") discussed below, with amounts payable thereunder for 2011 being described under "All Other Compensation" in the Summary Compensation Table above.

Following discussions in the latter part of 1997, the Bank entered into an Employee Agreement with Mr. R. Jones dated as of January 1, 1998 (the "Agreement"). Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. R. Jones has agreed to provide full-time professional services to the Bank in the capacity of President and Chief Executive Officer of the Bank, to the exclusion of other businesses or activities. The Agreement was for an initial term from January 1, 1998 through December 31, 2001, and unless terminated automatically renews on January 1 of each year for a three-year term. The Agreement provides for a specified annual salary, together with performance-based cash incentive compensation ("Bonus") determined by the Compensation Committee at the time of its annual review of Mr. R. Jones' performance. The Bonus under the Agreement is calculated as a percentage of Mr. R. Jones' salary, ranging from zero to 45%, based on attainment of certain net income levels by the Bank. Salary and Bonus paid to Mr. R. Jones for 2011 and 2010 are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table above. The Agreement specifies that Bonus awards are intended to eventually be governed by an Executive Incentive Compensation Plan applicable to certain officers of the Bank generally, as well as to the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Bank. The Agreement also provides for Mr. R. Jones to receive long-term incentives at the discretion of the Board; benefits provided to employees of the Bank generally; reimbursement of reasonable and customary business expenses incurred by him in connection with the performance of his duties; payment or reimbursement of certain fees for professional and other organizations in the Bank's market area; an automobile allowance; and vacation time. As amended by the 2001 Agreement, the Agreement also provides for supplemental compensation to be paid by the Bank to Mr. R. Jones upon retirement and in certain other circumstances as set forth in the 2001 Agreement.

The Agreement also provides generally that, in the event of Mr. R. Jones' death, the Bank will pay to his estate one quarter of his then-current annual salary plus a prorata portion of the Bonus otherwise payable to him, provided that in the event the Bank purchases life insurance with benefits payable to Mr. R. Jones' beneficiary or estate equal to or in excess of the amounts payable in the event of death, no additional payments will be required; that, in the event of his disability, the Bank will pay his salary and a prorata portion of Bonus until the earlier of twelve months after the date of disability or such time as disability benefits commence under a Bank-provided disability insurance policy; and that the Bank will pay Mr. R. Jones an amount equal to monthly salary, benefits and prorata Bonus for twelve months after termination of his employment if such termination is not for cause or a result of material change in Mr. R. Jones' duties and responsibilities.

Under the Agreement, Mr. R. Jones has agreed that, during the term of his employment and for two years thereafter, he will not engage in any business similar of that of the Bank or any of its affiliates or solicit any employee of the Bank or any of its affiliates to leave their employment with the Bank. See discussion of “CPP Restriction Agreement” below.

In a Supplemental Agreement with Mr. R. Jones dated as of March 9, 1999 (the “Supplemental Agreement”), the Corporation and the Bank agreed that, subject to his continued employment by the Bank at such times, in each year beginning in 1999 and ending in 2002, the Corporation would grant an incentive stock option (“ISO”) covering 8,160 shares of stock (the number of shares having been adjusted to account for the 2-for-1 splits of Class A Stock in May 1999 and June 2004) to Mr. R. Jones, exercisable at the then-current fair market value of Class A Stock, with each such ISO being exercisable in five equal installments, the first of which vested on the date of the grant. The last grant of options pursuant to the Supplemental Agreement was made in 2002.

On December 12, 2007, the Corporation and Mr. R. Jones entered into an amendment to the Supplemental Agreement. The amendment to the Supplemental Agreement adds or modifies provisions of the Supplemental Agreement to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations and administrative guidance of the Internal Revenue Service published thereunder.

The 2001 Agreement, which became effective as of January 1, 2001, provides for annual payments on a life insurance contract (“Insurance Payments”) in lieu of comparable payments previously required under the 1993 Agreement. In addition to the benefits under the Agreement and in lieu of post-employment payments previously specified in the 1993 Agreement, the 2001 Agreement provides for a normal retirement benefit of $102,000 per year to be paid to Mr. R. Jones for 20 years if he remains employed by the Bank until normal retirement age; lump sum payment to his beneficiary in the event of his earlier death; and proration of the annual payment amount if his employment by the Bank is terminated before normal retirement age for reasons other than his death, total and permanent disability, cause, or his voluntary termination without required notice, with the prorated annual payment amount increasing by 5% annual increments from 50% of the normal retirement benefit in 2001 to 100% in 2011 and thereafter. The 2001 Agreement also provides that if Mr. R. Jones’ employment by the Bank is terminated within 36 months after a change of control of the Corporation, as defined in the Agreement, he will receive a lump sum payment equal to (a) the discounted present value of the normal retirement benefit, plus (b) the discounted present value of the Insurance Payments for the lesser of ten years or the number of years until he would reach the age of 65.

On March 29, 2010, the Corporation and Mr. R. Jones entered into a CPP Restriction Agreement. The CPP Restriction Agreement modifies the employment and other agreements entered into with Mr. R. Jones to comply with the TARP Standards for Compensation and Corporate Governance adopted by the U.S. Department of the Treasury (“Treasury”) in 2009. For the period during which Treasury holds equity or debt securities of the Corporation (the “CPP Compliance Period”), the CPP Restriction Agreement generally prohibits payments upon Mr. R. Jones’ departure from the Corporation, tax gross-ups and bonus payments other than certain restricted stock awards. Further, the CPP Restriction Agreement requires that during the CPP Compliance Period Mr. R. Jones repay any bonus or incentive compensation based on materially inaccurate financial statements or other materially inaccurate performance metrics. Any noncompete agreement between the Corporation and Mr. R. Jones is suspended during the CPP Compliance Period.

In February 2010, the Treasury announced the creation of the TARP Community Development Capital Initiative (“CDCI”), in recognition of the unique role of Community Development Financial Institutions (“CDFI’s”) as lenders in disadvantaged communities. The Corporation, as a CDFI, applied to participate in the CDCI program. On September 3, 2010, the Corporation completed an exchange of TARP CCP capital for CDCI capital. All restrictions on executive compensation that applied under TARP CPP remain in force under the CDCI program.

Agreements with Mr. A. Jones. In September 2007, the Bank entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. A. Jones (the “2007 Agreement”). Pursuant to the 2007 Agreement, Mr. A. Jones has agreed to provide full-time professional services to the Bank in the capacity of Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Bank, to the exclusion of other businesses or activities. The 2007 Agreement is for an initial term of one year, and unless terminated automatically renews each year for a one-year term. The 2007 Agreement provides for a specified annual salary, together with the opportunity to earn an annual incentive award in accordance with the Bank’s incentive plan. Salary and bonus paid to Mr. A. Jones for 2011 and 2010 are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table above.

The 2007 Agreement also provides for (i) benefits provided to employees of the Bank generally, (ii) an award of 505 restricted shares of the Corporation’s common stock under the 2007 Equity Incentive Plan, and (iii) payment of a cash benefit equal to Mr. A. Jones’ then current base salary in the event of termination by the Bank without cause or by Mr. A. Jones for good reason, in either case within two years of a change in control.

Under the 2007 Agreement, Mr. A. Jones has agreed that, during the term of his employment and for one year thereafter, he will not engage in any business similar to that of the Bank or any of its affiliates or solicit any employee of the Bank or any of its affiliates to leave their employment with the Bank.

On March 29, 2010, the Corporation and Mr. A. Jones entered into a CPP Restriction Agreement. The terms of the agreement are substantially similar to the terms of the CPP Restriction Agreement described above with respect to Mr. R. Jones, except that the agreement with Mr. A. Jones does not prohibit bonus payments.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Some Corporation and United Bank directors, officers, and principal stockholders, and their associates and immediate families were customers of, or had transactions with, subsidiaries of the Corporation in the ordinary course of business during 2011. In addition, some Corporation and United Bank directors are directors, officers, trustees, or principal security holders of corporations or other organizations that were customers of, or had transactions with, the Corporation or its subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business during 2011. All outstanding loans and other transactions with the Corporation's, and its subsidiary's, directors, officers, and principal stockholders, and their associates and immediate families, were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable loans and other transactions with persons not related to the Corporation or its subsidiaries, and when made did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. In addition to banking and financial transactions, the Corporation and its subsidiaries may have had additional transactions with, or may have used products or services of, various organizations of which directors of the Corporation or its subsidiaries are directors, officers, or principal stockholders. Such transactions were on terms comparable to those which would have been recorded with unaffiliated parties, and the amounts involved in such noncredit transactions have in no case been material in relation to the business of the Corporation and its subsidiaries or to such other organizations.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

In January 2003, the Corporation established an Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The members of the Audit Committee are Michael R. Andreoli, Dale M. Ash, L. Walter Crim, Leslie H. Cunningham, William J. Justice, Richard K. Maxwell and David D. Swift, Sr. Although the Corporation is not subject to the listing standards of any stock exchange, including the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD"), SEC regulations require disclosure of whether Audit Committee members are "independent" as defined in the rules of some of those organizations. Mrs. Ash and Messrs. Andreoli, Crim, Maxwell and Cunningham are "independent directors" as defined in NASDAQ Rule 5605, and Messrs. Justice and Swift do not meet that definition solely by virtue of their serving as officers of the Corporation, notwithstanding that neither is employed by the Corporation or its subsidiaries. Mrs. Ash and Mr. Andreoli are "audit committee financial experts" as defined in SEC regulations.

The Audit Committee is responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the Corporation's independent auditors. The Audit Committee is required to pre-approve audit and certain non-audit services performed by the independent auditors. The Committee also assists the Board in providing oversight over the integrity of the Corporation's financial statements, the Corporation's compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements and the performance of the Corporation's internal audit function. The Committee also meets periodically with the Corporation's independent auditors and the Bank's internal auditors outside of the presence of the Corporation's management, and possesses the authority to retain professionals to assist it with meeting its responsibilities without consulting with management. The Committee is also responsible for receiving and retaining complaints and concerns relating to accounting and auditing matters. The Audit Committee met 7 times in 2011. The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors in January 2003, and amended on September 28, 2010, a copy of which is available on the Corporation's website at www.ubankal.com.

Management is responsible for the preparation of financial statements and the integrity of the reporting process, including the system of internal and disclosure controls. The independent auditors are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Corporation's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board. In so doing the Audit Committee is entitled under its charter to rely on reports and other information from sources it in good faith believes to be reliable, including the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Bank.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Corporation with management; has discussed with the independent auditor of the Corporation, Mauldin and Jenkins, Certified Public Accountants, L.L.C. ("Mauldin & Jenkins"), the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU §380); and has received the written disclosures and the letter from Mauldin & Jenkins required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and discussed with Mauldin & Jenkins their independence. Based on the review and discussion described above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors of the Corporation that the audited financial statements should be included in the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 for filing with the Security and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") requires the Corporation's executive officers and directors, and any persons who own more than 10% of the Class A Stock, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. The Corporation believes that all requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act applicable to directors and executive officers of the Corporation were complied with by such persons during the last fiscal year. In making this disclosure, the Corporation has relied on written representations by or on behalf of its directors and executive officers and copies of reports filed.

EXPENSES OF SOLICITATION

The cost of soliciting proxies in the accompanying form will be borne by the Corporation. In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited by directors, officers, or other employees of the Corporation or its subsidiaries personally, by telephone, or by telefacsimile. The Corporation does not expect to pay any compensation for the solicitation of proxies, but will reimburse brokers, custodians, or other persons holding stock in their names or in the names of nominees, for their reasonable expenses in sending proxy materials to principals and obtaining their instructions.

PROPOSAL 2
ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (the “Act”) requires the Corporation to permit a non-binding stockholder vote on the compensation of the Corporation’s named executive officers, as described in its proxy statement, during the period in which any obligation arising from the Corporation’s participation in the TARP Capital Purchase Program remains outstanding.

This proposal, commonly known as a “say-on-pay” proposal, gives the Corporation’s stockholders the opportunity to endorse or not endorse the Corporation’s executive pay program and policies through the following resolution:

“Resolved, that the stockholders approve the compensation of the named executive officers, as disclosed pursuant to the compensation disclosure rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission in this proxy statement.”

As provided in the Act, this vote will not be binding on the Board of Directors of the Corporation and may not be construed as overruling a decision by the Board of Directors nor to create or imply any additional fiduciary duty by the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee, however, may take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future executive compensation arrangements.

In voting to approve the above resolution, stockholders may vote for the resolution, against the resolution or abstain from voting. This matter will be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. On this matter, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the voting.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CORPORATION RECOMMENDS
A VOTE “FOR” APPROVAL OF THE COMPENSATION
OF THE NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Stockholders are entitled to submit proposals on matters appropriate for stockholder action consistent with regulations of the SEC. In order to be included in the Corporation’s proxy statement and form of proxy relating to its 2013 Annual Meeting pursuant to Rule 14a-8 promulgated by the SEC (“Rule 14a-8”), proposals from stockholders to be presented at the 2013 Annual Meeting must be received by the Secretary of the Corporation no later than December 5, 2012. The date after which notice of a stockholder proposal submitted outside of the processes of Rule 14a-8 will be considered untimely is February 18, 2013. If notice of such a stockholder proposal is received by the Corporation on or after February 18, 2013, then the Corporation’s proxy for the 2013 Annual Meeting may confer discretionary authority to vote on such matter without discussion of such matter in the proxy statement for the 2013 Annual Meeting.
