8 China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2012

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd)

Against this background, the Directors have taken active steps to seek additional sources of finance and improve the Group's liquidity position. As at 30 June 2012, the Group had total unutilised credit facilities of approximately RMB43.1 billion from certain banks. The Board believes that, based on experience to date, it is likely that these facilities will be rolled over in future years if required.

With the credit facilities and based on the Group's history of obtaining finance and its relationships with its bankers and creditors, the Board considers that the Group will be able to obtain sufficient financing to enable it to operate, as well as to meet its liabilities as and when they become due, and the capital expenditure requirements. Accordingly, the Board believes that it is appropriate to prepare these financial information on a going concern basis without including any adjustments that would be required should the Company and the Group fail to continue as a going concern.

3. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Except as described in note 3(a) below, the accounting policies applied are consistent with those of the annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2011, as described in those annual financial statements.

(a) Amendments to IFRS 7, Financial instruments: Disclosures – Transfer of financial assets: this amendment promotes transparency in the reporting of transfer transactions and improve users' understanding of the risk exposures relating to transfers of financial assets and the effect of those risks on the Company's financial position. The Group did not have any significant transfers of financial assets in previous periods or the current period which require disclosures in current accounting period under the amendments and these amendments have had no material impact to the contents of the interim financial information.

(b) Taxes on income in the interim periods are accrued using the tax rate that would be applicable to expected total annual earnings.

The Group has not early adopted any new accounting and financial reporting standards, amendments to existing standards and interpretations which have been issued but are not yet effective for the financial year ending 31 December 2012.

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION

4. ESTIMATES

The preparation of interim financial information requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expense. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

In preparing these condensed consolidated interim financial information, the significant judgements made by management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those that applied to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2011.

5. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

(a) Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including currency risk, fair value interest rate risk, cash flow interest rate risk and fuel price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

The interim condensed consolidated financial information do not include all financial risk management information and disclosures required in the annual financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the Group's annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2011.

There have been no changes in the risk management department since year end or in any risk management policies.

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION

5. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (cont'd)

(b) Liquidity risk

The Group's primary cash requirements have been for day-to-day operations, additions of and upgrades to aircraft, engines and flight equipment and repayments of related borrowings. The Group finances its working capital requirements through a combination of funds generated from operations and bank loans (both short-term and long-term). The Group generally finances the acquisition of aircraft through long-term finance leases or bank loans.

The Group operates with a working capital deficit. As at 30 June 2012, the Group's net current liabilities amounted to RMB32,888 million (2011: RMB29,679 million). For the six months ended 30 June 2012, the Group recorded a net cash inflow from operating activities of RMB5,847 million (2011: inflow of RMB5,515 million), a net cash outflow from investing activities and financing activities of RMB4,350 million (2011: outflow of RMB4,296 million), and an increase in cash and cash equivalents of RMB1,497 million (2011: increase of RMB1,219 million).

The Directors of the Company believe that cash from operations and bank loans will be sufficient to meet the Group's operating cash flow. Due to the dynamic nature of the underlying businesses, the Group's treasury policy aims at maintaining flexibility in funding by keeping credit lines available. The Directors of the Company believe that the Group has obtained sufficient general credit facilities from PRC banks for financing future capital commitments and for working capital purposes.

7. SEGMENT INFORMATION

(a) CODM, office of the General Manager, reviews the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources.

The Group has one reportable operating segment, reported as "airline transportation operations", which comprises the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery and ground service.

Other services including tour operations, aviation training, air catering and other miscellaneous services are not included within the airline transportation operations segment, as their internal reports are separately provided to the CODM. The results of these operations are included in the "other segments" column.

Inter-segment transactions are entered into under normal commercial terms and conditions that would be available to unrelated third parties.

In accordance with IFRS 8, segment disclosure has been presented in a manner that is consistent with the information used by the Group's CODM. The Group's CODM monitors the results, assets and liabilities attributable to each reportable segment based on financial results prepared under the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises (the "PRC Accounting Standards"), which differ from IFRS in certain aspects. The amount of each material reconciling items from the Group's reportable segment revenue, profit, assets and liabilities arising from different accounting policies are set out in Note 7(c) below.

(b) The Group's business segments operate in three main geographical areas, even though they are managed on a worldwide basis.

The Group's revenues by geographical segment are analysed based on the following criteria:

(1) Traffic revenue from services within the PRC (excluding the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“Hong Kong”), Macau Special Administrative Region (“Macau”) and Taiwan, (collectively known as “Regional”)) is classified as domestic operations. Traffic revenue from inbound and outbound services between overseas markets excluding Regional is classified as international operations.

(2) Revenue from ticket handling services, ground services, cargo handling service and other miscellaneous services are classified on the basis of where the services are performed.

Since the Group's aircraft are deployed flexibly across its route network, there is no suitable basis of allocating such assets and the related liabilities by geographic and hence segment assets and capital expenditure by geographic have not been presented.

Notes:

(i) The difference represents the different classification of business tax and expired sales in advance of carriage under PRC Accounting Standards and IFRS.

Despite the depreciation policies of these assets have been unified under IFRS and the PRC Accounting Standards in recent years, the changes were applied prospectively as changes in accounting estimates which results in the differences in the carrying amounts and related depreciation charges under IFRS and PRC Accounting Standards.

(iii) In accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards, certain employees' post-retirement benefits are recognised upon actually incurred. Under IFRS, such post-retirement benefits under defined benefit schemes are required to be recognised over the employees' service period using projected unit credit method.

(iv) The determination of the fair values of the acquisition costs and identifiable assets and liabilities of Shanghai Airlines acquired is different under IFRS and the PRC Accounting Standards, which results in difference in the intangibles/goodwill recognised arising from the acquisition.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Other operating income

In the first half of 2012, the Group's other operating income was RMB865 million, representing an increase of 128.23% compared to the same period last year. This was mainly due to the increase in government subsidies on operating business received by the Company as compared to the same period last year.

Net exchange (losses)/gains and finance costs

In the first half of 2011, the Group had a net foreign exchange gain of RMB818 million. In the first half of 2012, the Group had a net foreign exchange loss of RMB228 million, representing a decrease of RMB1,046 million (or 127.87%) compared to the same period last year, primarily due to the appreciation of exchange rate of USD against RMB during the period. Finance costs for the current period were RMB847 million, representing an increase of 18.30% compared to the same period last year. This primarily comprised an increase in interest accrued on loans from banks and other financial institutions as well as increased interest accrued on finance lease obligations.

The Group generally utilises foreign exchange hedging contracts to reduce the risks in exchange rate for revenues from ticket sales and expenses that are settled in foreign currencies. The Group's foreign currency exchange mainly involves the sales of Japanese Yen or the purchase of US dollars at fixed exchange rates. As at 30 June 2012, the foreign currency hedging contracts held by the Group that are still open amounted to a notional amount of USD35 million (31 December 2011: USD46 million), which will expire during the period between 2012 and 2017.

The Group generally operates with net current liabilities. As at 30 June 2012, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by RMB32,888 million. The Group has been and believes it will continue to be capable of financing its working capital by obtaining short-term or long-term loans from domestic and foreign banks in China.

The Group monitors its capital on the basis of its debt ratio, which is calculated as total liabilities divided by total assets. As at 30 June 2012, the debt ratio of the Group was 81.13%.

As at 30 June 2012 and 31 December 2011, the Group's short-term borrowings were RMB15,134 million and RMB11,454 million, respectively, and the Group's long-term borrowings were RMB30,227 million and RMB30,321 million, respectively. As at 30 June 2012, the Group's lease obligations payable within two years, from three to five years and beyond five years were RMB4,767 million, RMB7,232 million and RMB9,219 million, respectively, as compared to RMB5,017 million, RMB7,235 million and RMB8,009 million, respectively, as at 31 December 2011.

Exchange rate fluctuation risk

Since 21 July 2005, the Chinese government adjusted the Renminbi exchange rate system and established a floating exchange rate system by which the exchange rate would be adjusted and managed based on market supply and demand, with reference to a basket of foreign currencies. The fluctuation in the Renminbi exchange rate is affected by domestic and international economic and political conditions and general currency supply and demand dynamics. As such, future Renminbi exchange rates may fluctuate and be materially different from current exchange rates.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The Group operates its business in many countries and territories and generates revenues in different currencies. As such, its foreign currency liabilities are generally much higher than its foreign currency assets. The Group's major liability (purchases or leases of aircraft) is mainly priced and settled in US dollars. In addition, fluctuations in foreign exchange rates will affect the Group's costs incurred from foreign purchases such as aircraft, flight equipment, jet fuel, and take-off and landing charges in foreign airports. As at 30 June 2012, the Group's total interest-bearing liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, equivalent to Renminbi, amounted to RMB48,672 million, of which US dollar liabilities accounted for 94.82% of the total amount. Therefore, significant fluctuations in foreign exchange rates will expose the Group to foreign exchange loss arising from the translation of foreign currency denominated liabilities, which will also affect the profitability and development of the Group. The Group typically uses hedging contracts for foreign currencies to reduce the foreign exchange risks for foreign currency revenue generated from ticket sales, and expenses to be paid in foreign currencies. The Group's foreign currency hedging mainly involves the sales of Japanese Yen and the purchase of US dollars at fixed exchange rates. As at 30 June 2012, foreign currency hedging contracts held by the Group amounted to a notional amount of USD35 million (31 December 2011: USD46 million), and will expire between 2012 and 2017.

The Group recorded a net foreign exchange loss in the first half of 2012 as compared to the same period last year. As at 30 June 2012 and 30 June 2011, the Group recorded a foreign exchange losses of RMB228 million and a foreign exchange gains of RMB818 million respectively. Due to the large amount of existing net foreign currency liabilities, the Group's results will be adversely affected if the Renminbi depreciates against the US dollar, or if the rate of appreciation of the Renminbi against the US dollar decreases in the future.

Pledges on assets and contingent liabilities

The Group generally finances the purchases of aircraft, which is then secured by its assets. As at 30 June 2012, the total value of the Group's secured assets was RMB20,909 million, representing an increase of 14.15% from RMB18,317 million as at 31 December 2011.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Employees

As at 30 June 2012, the Group had approximately 63,781 employees, the majority of whom were located in the PRC. The wages of the Group's employees generally consisted of basic salaries and performance bonuses. In the first half of 2012, the Group was not involved in any major labour disputes with its employees, nor did it experience a substantial decrease in employees headcount. In addition, the Group did not encounter any difficulty in recruiting new employees.

Outlook for the second half of 2012

The Group would like to caution readers of this report that this report contains certain forward-looking statements, including descriptions of the Group's future operating plans for the second half of 2012 and beyond, and outlook of international and domestic economies and the aviation industry. Such forward-looking statements are subject to many uncertainties and risks, and actual events may be materially different from these forward-looking statements.

The Group intends to become a premium airline that is globally competitive. In addition, the Group intends to transform from a traditional air passenger and freight carrier to an integrated, modern aviation and logistics services provider.

In the first half of 2012, in spite of the positive profit achieved, the Group was fully aware of the various challenges ahead which will possibly hinder the future development of the Group. Firstly, the air transportation market is subject to further lackluster demand arising from the European debt crisis and the downturn of the U.S.'s economy, plus the reduced demand from traditional export market in Asia Pacific region, and the slowdown in China's economic growth. Secondly, international crude oil prices continue to fluctuate at a high level, exerting great cost pressure on the Company's consumption of fuel. Thirdly, the obvious slowdown in the appreciation of the Renminbi will further decrease the exchange gain of the Group.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Notwithstanding the difficult operating environment facing the Group in the second half of 2012, the Group will, under the principle of maintaining safe operation, enhance its sales and marketing capability in both passenger transportation and freight transportation; take full advantage of the peak season effect; strictly control costs and seek to generate better results of operations. At the same time, the Group will strengthen the fundamental management in our services to strengthen our construction of service integration and continually enhance service quality so as to upgrade our brand image. In addition, in the second half of 2012 the Group will further expedite the construction of its customer data platform, product research and development capability, direct sale service channel, tourist service centers, mobile internet and hub supporting system, for pushing the Group ahead towards further upgrade and transformation.
