Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction

Item 4 of the Statement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

This Amendment No. 7 is being filed to report that, since the filing of Amendment No. 6 to the Statement, dated June 14, 2013:

The Reporting Person cast withhold votes in opposition to each of Emerson's director candidates nominated for election at Emerson's annual meeting of stockholders on November 7, 2013. As a long-term investor, Mr. Miller believes that each member of the Board of Emerson has a duty to minority public stockholders. Because of a long history of related party transactions and accounting failures, as well as currently outstanding litigation and tax disputes, Mr. Miller is disclosing his withhold or negative votes and his ongoing opposition to the actions and inactions of the Emerson Board of Directors.

At the annual meeting, the Reporting Person cast votes in favor of a shareholder proposal requesting a special dividend, and cast votes in favor of a shareholder proposal recommending the adoption of cumulative voting, which was submitted by Mr. Miller for consideration by shareholders at the annual meeting, and Mr. Miller continues to support these proposals.

As disclosed by the Provisional Liquidators of Grande Holdings, the controlling stockholder of Emerson, the Provisional Liquidators are exploring a potential sale of the 15,243,283 Emerson Shares beneficially owned by Grande Holdings. As previously reported, California litigation against Emerson in 2011 specifically claimed that Emerson is the alter ego of Grande Holdings, on the basis that certain of its present and former directors and other entities or individuals are or were previously associated with Grande.

Mr. Miller believes the potential sale and transfer of the block of control shares currently owned by Grande Holdings warrants an urgent response, and questions the particular timing of the proposed sale while significant litigation and IRS challenges are pending against Emerson. Emerson's proxy statement states that Emerson can make "no assurances" regarding the impact of any such sales on the Company or other shareholders or on the trading price of Emerson common stock.

Mr. Miller believes that the Board of Directors of Emerson has a duty to ensure that control of the Company transfers to one or more holders who are committed to respecting the rights of the minority public stockholders.

Mr. Miller believes that the rights of minority stockholders would be compromised if the Board of Emerson facilitates or permits the transfer of a control block of shares by Grande Holdings without appropriate Board review and stockholder protections. Mr. Miller believes that the Board should adopt a stockholder rights plan that would protect minority stockholders in connection with any attempted transfer of blocks of shares by Grande Holdings.

In view of prior lawsuits against insiders of Emerson in conflict of interest transactions, Mr. Miller believes that Emerson is at risk of further litigation if control of the Company transfers in any manner, at any time, or to any person, including any affiliate or former affiliate of Grande, that is not in the interests of the minority public stockholders. Mr. Miller will scrutinize all transactions that affect Emerson common stock and its trading value.

Mr. Miller may consider purchases of additional shares of Emerson on the open market or from the Provisional Liquidators of Grande.

The Shares covered by this Schedule 13D were acquired by Mr. Miller for investment purposes in the ordinary course of his business as an investor.

Mr. Miller previously disclosed the following information in the Statement:

As set forth in the Statement originally filed on May 22, 2012, on November 3, 2011, Mr. Miller sent a letter to the Company urging the Company to declare a special cash dividend as an indication that the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") was considering the interests of public shareholders and suggesting that strategic alternatives be reviewed. Mr. Miller stated that he continued to believe that such actions by the Company would enhance shareholder value, and that he believed that a sale of the company may have been in the best interest of public shareholders. He stated that he shared the concerns regarding the independence of Emerson's directors expressed by other shareholders in the Schedule 13D filed on January 23, 2012. A copy of Mr. Miller's November 3, 2011 letter to the Company is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to the Statement.

As set forth in Amendment No. 1 to the Statement filed on August 6, 2012, on July 26, 2012, a material change occurred in the percentage of Shares beneficially owned by Mr. Miller resulting from a 1.2% increase in his ownership of Emerson Common Stock. In addition, on August 6, 2012, Mr. Miller sent a letter to the Board suggesting that the Board consider a merger or sale of the Company to resolve uncertainties over the bankruptcy of The Grande Holdings Limited (Provisional Liquidators Appointed) and control and strategic direction of the Company. Mr. Miller continued to believe that such actions by the Company would enhance shareholder value and that a merger or a sale of the Company would be in the best interests of the Company's shareholders.

As set forth in Amendment No. 5 to the Statement filed on April 8, 2013, Mr. Miller stated that he believed that the Company's capital structure was highly problematic, with its controlling shareholder in bankruptcy - The Grande Holdings Limited (Provisional Liquidators Appointed). In light of this Mr. Miller stated that he would welcome and strongly support the Board's declaration and payment of a special dividend of $1.25 per share, and stated that a sale of the Company would be in the best interest of all shareholders.

As set forth in Amendment No. 6 to the Statement filed on June 14, 2013, on June 12, 2013, Mr. Miller submitted a proposal for inclusion in the proxy statement to be circulated in connection with the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders. The proposal was for the adoption of cumulative voting in the election of Directors. A copy of the letter, the proposal and proof of ownership were attached as Exhibit 99.3 to Amendment No. 6 to the Statement.

In addition, on June 4, 2013, a material change occurred in the percentage of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by Mr. Miller.

Except as described above in this Item 4 and herein, Mr. Miller does not currently have any specific plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions or events specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. Mr. Miller reserves the right to change plans and take any and all actions that Mr. Miller may deem appropriate to maximize the value of his investment, including, among other things, purchasing or otherwise acquiring additional securities of the Company, selling or otherwise disposing of any securities of the Company beneficially owned by him, in each case in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions or formulating other plans or proposals regarding the Company or its securities to the extent deemed advisable by Mr. Miller in light of his general investment policies, market conditions, subsequent developments affecting the Company and the general business and future prospects of the Company. Mr. Miller may take any other action with respect to the Company or any of the Company's debt or equity securities in any manner permitted by applicable law.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

Item 5 of the Statement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:
