Subscription Shares

The 465,910,000 Subscription Shares represent (i) approximately 11.11% of the existing number of issued H Shares, and approximately 3.68% of the existing number of issued Shares as at the date of this announcement; and (ii) 10% of the then total number of issued H Shares (assuming that there is no change in the total number of issued H Shares other than the Subscription Shares since the date of the Subscription Agreement and up to Completion), and approximately 3.55% of the then total number of issued Shares (assuming that no Placing Shares under the Proposed A Share Placing are issued and there is no change in the total number of issued Shares other than the Subscription Shares since the date of the Subscription Agreement and up to Completion), in each case, as enlarged by the allotment and issue of the Subscription Shares. The aggregate nominal value of the Subscription Shares under the Subscription will be RMB465,910,000.

Ranking of Subscription Shares

The Subscription Shares, when allotted and issued, will rank pari passu in all respects among themselves and with the Shares in issue as at the date of the allotment and issue of the Subscription Shares.

Subscription Price

The Subscription Price of HK$3,488,895,000, representing HK$7.49 per Subscription Share, was determined after arm's length negotiations between the Company and the Subscriber with reference to, among other things, the historical trading prices of the H Shares, the Placing Price, the market conditions and the confidence of the Subscriber in its proposed strategic cooperation with the Company.

HK$7.49 per Subscription Share represents:

(a) a premium of approximately 8.6% to the closing price of HK$6.90 per H Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on 22 July 2015, being the last trading day immediately preceding the date of the Subscription Agreement;

a premium of approximately 9.8% to the average closing price of HK$6.82 per H Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the Subscription Agreement;
(b) and

(c) a premium of approximately 17.8% to the average closing price of HK$6.36 per H Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the Subscription Agreement.

Assuming 465,910,000 Subscription Shares are subscribed for under the Subscription, the gross proceeds from the Subscription will be approximately HK$3,489 million and the net proceeds from the Subscription will be approximately HK$3,474 million (after deduction of expenses of the Subscription payable by the Company). The net price (after deduction of expenses of the Subscription payable by the Company) raised per H Share upon Completion will be approximately HK$7.46.

The Company intends to utilize the net proceeds for working capital and other general corporate purposes.

Conditions of the Subscription

Completion is conditional on, among other usual and customary conditions, the following:

- (a) all waivers, consents, authorizations, clearances and approvals which are required from relevant governmental entities and the Stock Exchange for the Subscription and the signing of the Marketing Agreement having been granted, fulfilled or given (as applicable);
- (b) the Marketing Agreement having been executed by the Subscriber and the Company, and being in full force and effect;
- (c) the Subscriber and the Company having reached agreement in writing in respect of the arrangements for obtaining required approvals from relevant PRC governmental authorities for the transactions and arrangements contemplated by the Marketing Agreement;
- (d) the execution and performance of the Transaction Documents having been approved by the board of directors of the Subscriber;
- (e) the execution and performance of the Marketing Agreement having been approved by the Board;
- (f) no material default by the Company or the Subscriber of its relevant obligations under the Marketing Agreement prior to Completion Date; and
- (g) CEA Holding, being the controlling shareholder of the Company, having issued a deed of undertaking in favour of the Subscriber containing such terms and conditions as shall be agreed by the Subscriber and CEA Holding (the “Deed of Undertaking”) or the parties having agreed on such other mutually agreed mechanism to permit the Subscriber to enforce CEA Holding’s obligations which would otherwise be set out under such Deed of Undertaking.

The Subscriber and the Company shall use their commercially reasonable endeavours to reach an agreement on and execute the Marketing Agreement as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of the Subscription Agreement.

In the event any of the conditions is not fulfilled (or waived) by the Longstop Date, any parties to the Subscription Agreement may, at any time up to five Business Days after the Longstop Date, at its sole discretion, by written notice to the other party extend the Longstop Date by a period of up to 30 days (such new date being the “Extended Longstop Date”).

In the event any of the conditions is not fulfilled (or waived) by the Longstop Date and:

none of the parties to the Subscription Agreement elect to extend the Longstop Date in accordance with the (a) Subscription Agreement, the Subscription Agreement shall automatically terminate (other than the surviving provisions) on the day immediately following the fifth Business Day after the Longstop Date; or any party to the Subscription Agreement elects to extend the Longstop Date in accordance with the Subscription Agreement but any of the conditions is not fulfilled (or waived) before the Extended Longstop Date, the (b) Subscription Agreement shall automatically terminate (other than the surviving provisions) on the day immediately following the Extended Longstop Date, unless the parties should agree otherwise in writing.

Completion

Completion shall take place on the fifth Business Day after all conditions precedent have been fulfilled or waived or such other date as may be agreed to in writing between the Company and the Subscriber.

Transfer restrictions

Except for certain permitted transfers, the Subscriber shall not be permitted to dispose of any of the Subscription Shares from the Completion Date until the earlier of (the “Lock-up Period”):

(a) 36 months after the Completion Date;

the occurrence of any breach by the Company of the Company SA Material Obligations (as defined in the (b) Subscription Agreement) or its material obligations under the Marketing Agreement or by CEA Holding under the Deed of Undertaking (if issued pursuant to the Subscription Agreement); and

(c) the expiration or termination of the Marketing Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary under the Subscription Agreement, for so long as (i) the Marketing Agreement has not expired or been terminated in accordance with its terms and (ii) the Company has not breached any of the Company SA Material Obligations (as defined in the Subscription Agreement), without the Company’s prior written consent, the Subscriber and any wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Subscriber holding any Shares (the “Subscriber Party”) shall not knowingly transfer any of the Company’s securities to any PRC Airline Company or its affiliates; except pursuant to any tender offer or transfer in connection with a sale or change of control of the Company or a general offer made as a result of an acquisition of 50% or more of the outstanding Shares of the Company.

The Subscriber shall notify the Company in writing the first time the Subscriber Party transfers any of the Subscription Shares within three Business Days after any such transfer and thereafter, if the Subscriber Party transfers any Subscription Shares, it will file any notices required to be filed by it under applicable Hong Kong laws and regulations.

Right of first offer

After the expiry of the Lock-Up Period and in connection with any disposal (other than a permitted transfer) by the Subscriber Party of any of the Subscription Shares (the “Offered Shares”) to any other Airline Company or its affiliates, the Subscriber Party shall first provide the Company with a written notice of such intention (a “Transfer Notice”). Upon receipt of a Transfer Notice, the Company shall have the right to, either by itself or designate an affiliate to, purchase any of the Offered Shares at the price and on the terms set out in the Transfer Notice subject to fulfillment of applicable laws and regulations. The right of first offer shall not apply to any disposal by the Subscriber Party of any of the Subscription Shares via a transaction on any stock exchange on which such shares are traded.

Covenants of the Subscriber not to invest in other PRC Mainland Airline Company

For so long as (i) the Marketing Agreement has not expired or been terminated in accordance with its terms and (ii) the Company has not breached any of the Company SA Material Obligations (as defined in the Subscription Agreement), unless with the Company’s prior written consent, the Subscriber Party shall not, and shall procure that its affiliates will not, make any new equity or debt investments in, or provide any financing to, any other PRC Mainland Airline Company or an affiliate of any other PRC Mainland Airline Company other than any SkyTeam Member or its affiliates.

Covenants of the Company not to issue securities to the Subscriber Competitors

From the date of the Subscription Agreement, the Company undertakes to the Subscriber that for so long as (i) the Subscriber Party’s aggregate beneficial ownership in H Shares of the Company and all other securities convertible or exchangeable into H Shares of the Company does not fall below the number of Subscription Shares, (ii) the Marketing Agreement has not expired or been terminated in accordance with its terms, and (iii) the Subscriber Party has not breached any of the Delta SA Material Obligations (as defined in the Subscription Agreement), unless with the Subscriber’s prior written consent, it shall not issue any securities to a Subscriber Competitor or any of its affiliates other than a SkyTeam Member or its affiliates.

The Directors are of the opinion that such undertaking is fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders taken as a whole, because: (i) such undertaking is only limited in scope to the Subscriber Competitors; (ii) the Subscriber has provided parity covenants to the Company; and (iii) the Company has many other fund raising sources and options available, such as loans from banks and financial institutions and debt issuance, etc.

Future Issuance and the Right of Participation

Subject to all applicable legal and regulatory requirements, if the Company decides to issue additional Shares or any other securities convertible into or exchangeable into the Shares of the Company (a “Future Issuance”), it will give the Subscriber advance written notice of the proposed Future Issuance and permit the Subscriber’s participation in any Future Issuance on the same terms as applicable to other investors participating in such Future Issuance (the “Right of Participation”).

If the Subscriber is required by the Stock Exchange or under any applicable laws and regulations to abstain from voting in respect of any future shareholders' resolution of the Company granting a general mandate to the Board in connection with the Future Issuance in order for the Subscriber to participate in the Future Issuance, the parties to the Subscription Agreement shall discuss in good faith appropriate arrangements to satisfy the requirements by the Stock Exchange and/or under the applicable laws and regulations.

The Directors consider that the Right of Participation is a typical right granted by some other listed companies, whereby the Subscriber is permitted to participate in any Future Issuance but the Subscriber does not have a veto right to block any such issuance. Considering the possible strategic cooperation between the Subscriber and the Company, the basket of rights granted to and obligations borne by the Subscriber, the investment size of the Subscription, the stature and importance of the Subscriber, the Directors are of the opinion that granting the Right of Participation to the Subscriber is fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders taken as a whole.

Board Observer

For so long as (i) the Subscriber Party's aggregate beneficial ownership in H Shares of the Company and all other securities convertible or exchangeable into H Shares of the Company does not fall below the number of the Subscription Shares, (ii) the Marketing Agreement has not expired or been terminated in accordance with its terms, and (iii) the Subscriber Party has not breached any of the Delta SA Material Obligations (as defined in the Subscription Agreement), the Subscriber shall be entitled to nominate one individual to serve as an observer on the Board (the "Board Observer").

The Board Observer shall be allowed to participate in all meetings of the Board in person or by teleconference.

The Subscriber acknowledges that the Board Observer shall not be entitled to voting rights in any Board meeting and shall be subject to the same non-disclosure, insider trading restrictions and conflicts of interest policies and procedures as and to the extent the same apply to the members of the Board from time to time (including entering into a non-disclosure undertaking letter or other similar document which is required to be entered into by a member of the Board), provided that the Company agrees to implement and apply such restrictions, policies and procedures in a manner that minimizes to the extent possible any impact on the Board Observer's rights set forth in the Subscription Agreement, including without limitation the right to receive Board materials and to participate in meetings of the Board as provided herein. The Subscriber will instruct the Board Observer that he or she will be responsible for complying with such restrictions, policies and procedures.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if the Subscriber or any of its affiliates (i) makes any new investments in, or provides any financing to, any other PRC Mainland Airline Company or an affiliate of any other PRC Mainland

Airline Company; and (ii) obtains the right to appoint a director or observer to such other PRC Mainland Airline Company or its affiliate, the Subscriber shall no longer have the rights to nominate the Board Observer.

The Board Observer shall also serve as an observer to the Planning and Development Committee of the Board, and shall have the same rights and privileges, with respect to the Planning and Development Committee as he or she shall have with respect to the Board and shall be subject to the same restrictions, policies and procedures (to the extent set forth above with respect to the Board) as other members of such committee.

The Directors consider that the right to nominate a board observer is a typical right granted by some other listed companies, whereby the Subscriber will be able to sit in at the meetings of the Board, while the Board Observer will be subject to the same strict confidentiality obligations and other restrictions applicable to the Directors. In addition, the Board Observer is expected to add value and contribute knowledge and expertise at the Board meetings of the Company. Considering the possible strategic cooperation between the Subscriber and the Company, the basket of rights granted to and the obligations borne by the Subscriber, the investment size of the Subscription, the stature and importance of the Subscriber, the Directors are of the opinion that granting the right to the Subscriber to nominate a Board Observer is fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders taken as a whole.

Termination

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Subscription Agreement, the Subscription Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated by the Subscription Agreement may be abandoned by either the Company or the Subscriber, as applicable, by giving notice in writing to the other parties, at any time prior to 9.30 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Completion Date:

by the Subscriber, if the Company is in breach of its obligations or any Company Warranties (as defined in the (a) Subscription Agreement), and such breach is not cured within ten Business Days of receipt of written notice thereof from the Subscriber;

by the Company, if the Subscriber is in breach of its obligations or any Subscriber Warranties (as defined in the (b) Subscription Agreement), and such breach is not cured within ten Business Days of receipt of written notice thereof from the Company;

by the Company or the Subscriber, if a statute, rule, regulation, order, decree, ruling or injunction has been enacted, entered, promulgated, endorsed, threatened or is pending by or before any governmental entity which in any (c) material respect restricts, prohibits or threatens to restrict or prohibit the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents;

by the Subscriber, if there is any Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Subscription Agreement) having (d) occurred and is continuing; or by the Subscriber, if there shall develop, occur, exist or come into effect a suspension of dealings in any of the (e) Shares or listing of any of the Shares on the Stock Exchange for a continuous period of ten trading days, other than a voluntary suspension requested by the Company and agreed to in writing by the Subscriber.

GENERAL MANDATE TO ISSUE THE SUBSCRIPTION SHARES

Under the General Mandate, the Company is authorized to issue new H Shares not exceeding 20% of the total number of issued H Shares as at the date of the annual general meeting of the Company held on 16 June 2015, being a total of 838,638,000 new H Shares.
