THE FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF AN 8K FILING SUBMITTED BY PROASSURANCE ON FEBRUARY 28, 2005

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On February 28, 2005 ProAssurance Corporation announced that we have entered into an agreement that provides for NCRIC Group to be merged into ProAssurance in an all-stock transaction. Following our announcement, we held a conference call to discuss the transaction.

In that conference call we said that we expect the transaction to be accretive to ProAssurance book value and earnings per share in the range of approximately five percent. We are providing this filing to clarify that statement and provide additional information.

Our expectation is for accretion of approximately five percent on a pro forma basis, based on publicly available earnings estimates for NCRIC. In arriving at that figure, we based our decision on the achievement of a certain degree of synergistic savings that we developed in our internal models which we believe to be reasonable. There can no assurance that we will be able to realize these cost savings.

There is currently an $18.2 million judgment in place against NCRIC in the Columbia Hospital coverage lawsuit. The outcome of motions and potential appeals could jeopardize our accretion analysis.

NCRIC has taken action to strengthen loss reserves and although we believe that the loss reserves now in place are adequate, unanticipated adverse development in the future could also reduce or eliminate any accretion.

We are furnishing the exhibit to this Form 8-K in accordance with item 7.01, Regulation FD Disclosure. The exhibit shall not be
