Section 5. Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On September 7, 2007, The Commerce Group, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into employment agreements with its executive officers. Each agreement is for a term of three years, with automatic one year extensions, unless advance notice of non-renewal is provided by either party. If, during the term of the agreement, an executive resigns for good reason or the Company involuntary terminates the executive’s employment without cause, as those terms are defined in the agreement, then the executive officer will be entitled to receive from the Company a cash payment equal to 150% of the sum of the executive’s annual base salary as of separation date plus an “RSU Amount”, as discussed below.

If, during the term of the agreement, the resignation for good reason or involuntary termination without cause occurs within three years of a change of control, as defined in the agreement, then the executive officer will be entitled to receive from the Company a cash payment equal to 300% of the sum of the executive’s annual base salary as of separation date plus an RSU Amount.

If the executive resigns for good reason or the Company involuntary terminates an executive’s employment without cause, whether or not involving a change of control, and the executive is entitled to the benefits described above, then the executive will be subject to a one year non-compete and non-solicitation agreement, as detailed in the agreement. Each agreement also contains a provision for gross-up payments under IRS Code Sections 409A and 4999 for amounts pertaining to excise taxes or additional taxes imposed by these sections.

The employment agreement defines the “RSU Amount” as the value on the date of grant of the executive’s 2007 Restricted Stock Unit Award, which the Company first disclosed in a Form 8-K filed on February 23, 2007. The Company’s common stock closed at a value of $30.36 on February 16, 2007, the date the Company granted the 2007 Restricted Stock Unit Awards.
