statements contain forward-looking information relating to the financial condition, results of operations, plans, objectives, future performance and business of our Company and the acquired practice. The forward-looking statements are based on our current views and assumptions and actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements as a result of certain risks, uncertainties, and factors, which include, but are not limited to:

- o revenue and earnings expectations;
- o general economic, business, and regulatory conditions including federal and state regulations;
- o availability and cost of qualified physical and occupational therapists;
- o personnel productivity;
- o changes in Medicare guidelines and reimbursement or failure of our clinics to maintain their Medicare certification status;
- o competitive and/or economic conditions in our markets which may require us to close certain clinics and thereby incur closure costs and losses including the possible write-down or write-off of goodwill;
- o changes in reimbursement rates or payment methods from third party payors including government agencies and deductibles and co-pays owed by patients;
- o maintaining adequate internal controls;
- o availability, terms, and use of capital;
- o acquisitions and the successful integration of the operations of the acquired businesses; and
- o weather and other seasonal factors.

Many factors are beyond our control. Given these uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. Please see periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") for more information on these factors. Our forward-looking statements represent our estimates and assumptions only as of the date of this report. Except as required by law, we are under no obligation to update any forward-looking statement, regardless of the reason the statement is no longer accurate.
