Item 3. Bankruptcy or Receivership

On May 4, 2004, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Middle District of Florida, Orlando Division, issued a confirmation order of the Joint Reorganization Plan of the Registrant. The ten-day objection period expired on May 14, 2004 with no objections being filed. The Registrant has until June 30, 2004 to issue stock to creditors, renegotiate term loans and pay professional fees concerning the bankruptcy proceedings. The confirmation memorandum, the Joint Reorganization Plan as amended, the Joint Amended Disclosure Statement and the Confirmation Order are attached as Exhibits 99.8- 99.13 to this Form 8K.

The Registrant has 27,987,141 common shares issued and 27,841,941 common shares outstanding but the Joint Reorganization Plan, as amended, provides for the cancellation of all common stock, preferred stock, outstanding warrants and stock options of the Registrant. The Registrant will be issuing 10,000,000 new common shares as follows: 1,134,000 new common shares of the Registrant to the unsecured creditors of Lasersight Technologies, Inc., 1,116,000 new common shares of the Registrant to the unsecured creditors of Lasersight, Inc., 540,000 new common shares of the Registrant to the shareholders holding the old common stock (on a 51.828 reverse split basis), 360,000 new common shares of the Registrant to the holder of the old preferred stock and 6,850,000 new common shares of the Registrant to New Industries Investment, the debtor-in-possession (DIP) lender, upon conversion of $1,000,000 of DIP financing. Rounding will be used to ensure that no fractional shares will be issued.

A new three-year term note for approximately $2,200,000, at 9% interest, will be entered into with GE Healthcare Financial Services Holdings, a secured creditor. Principal and interest will be paid monthly. They will also be issued warrants to purchase 100,000 new common shares at $0.40 per share. A three-year note with New Industries Investment, the DIP lender, for $1,000,000 will provide for interest only payments at 9% per year, with interest payments due monthly. The principal balance is due at end of note. The note will have the ability to convert, at the holder's option, to 2,500,000 shares of new common stock of the Registrant.

The personal property tax claims of $65,624.37 for 2002 and $54,824.41 for 2003 were agreed to be paid to Earl K. Wood, Orange County Tax Assessor, over 72 months at 12% interest, with no prepayment penalty.

As presented in the Joint Amended Disclosure Statement, the Pro-forma December 31, 2003 balance sheet, which is contained in the Disclosure Statement of Exhibit 99.8 indicates that the Registrant has assets of $4,721,101 in value. This is after write-downs of inventory, accounts receivable, notes receivable, patents, fixed assets and other assets. The unsecured liabilities have been converted to equity.

Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On May 12, 2004, the Registrant engaged Moore Stephens Lovelace, P.A. as the auditors of the Registrant. Moore Stephens Lovelace, P.A. is a Winter Park, FL based CPA firm qualified to do SEC audit engagements.

Item 5. Other Events

On May 12, 2004, the Board of Directors appointed Danghui ("David") Liu as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Item 6. Resignation of Registrant's Directors

On May 12, 2004, the Board of Directors accepted the resignation of Zhentian Shi as a director of the Registrant. This resignation complies with the terms of the Joint Reorganization Plan of the Registrant, as amended, which was filed with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court.
