Hadera Paper Ltd. (AMEX:AIP) (the “Company”) held on May 17, 2010, an auction for Israeli institutional investors, as part of the contemplated public offering in Israel of a new series of debentures (“Series 5 Debentures”) pursuant to the shelf prospectus published by the Company in Israel on May 26, 2008.

At the auction, the Israeli institutional investors undertook to purchase Series 5 Debentures in the aggregate principal amount of approximately NIS 360 million (approximately US$ 95.6 million), approximately five times higher than the original contemplated offering size of NIS 75 million (approximately US$19.9 million).

On May 18, 2010, in light of the results of the auction for Israeli institutional investors, the Company’s board of directors resolved that the offering size shall be up to NIS 200 million (approximately US$53.1 million), instead of the original contemplated offering size of NIS 75 million (approximately US$ 19.9 million).

The Company accepted undertakings from Israeli institutional investors to purchase Series 5 Debentures in the aggregate principal amount of NIS 160 million (approximately US$42.5 million) bearing an annual interest rate of 5.85% (the “Auction Rate”). The issuance to the Israeli institutional investors that undertook to purchase Series 5 Debentures bearing the Auction Rate is expected to be at a rate of 46.57% of their total undertakings. The final annual interest rate of Series 5 Debentures will be determined at the public offering and shall not be greater than 5.85%

On May 10, 2010, the Company announced that Maalot (Israeli Securities Rating Company Ltd., an affiliate of Standard and Poor’s) decided to rate Series 5 Debentures as (ilA+)/Negative.

The Series 5 Debentures to be offered as part of the public offering in Israel have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.

There can be no assurance that the Company will complete the public offering of Series 5 Debentures, or that it will raise all or part of the proceeds, as set forth in this report.
