Response to press comment and trading update

Barclays

notes recent speculation regarding the possible issuance of new equity by Barclays by way of a placing and pre-emptive offer to existing shareholders

The Board of Barclays confirms this is currently under active consideration

A further announcement will be made in the event that the Board of Barclays decides to pursue such an equity issuance.

In respect of current trading, Barclays

Group profit before tax in May was well ahead of the monthly run rate for 2007. Relative to May 2007, Global Retail and Commercial Banking continued to deliver strong growth in profits and in Investment Banking and Investment Management profits were in line.
