The Acquisition and Escrow Agreements

Edgar Filing: GRUPO IUSACELL SA DE CV - Form SC 14D9

Pursuant to an Acquisition Agreement (the Acquisition Agreement) dated as of June 12, 2003, by and among Movil Access, Biper, Bell Atlantic Latin America Holdings, Inc. (BALAH), Bell Atlantic International, Inc. (BAIL), Bell Atlantic New Zealand Holdings, Inc. (BANZH) and together with BALAH and BAIL, the Verizon Shareholders) and Vodafone Americas B.V. (Vodafone) and together with the Verizon Shareholders, the Principal Shareholders), the Principal Shareholders agreed, among other things, to tender all the Securities owned by them in the Movil Access Offers. As of June 12, 2003, the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone respectively owned 39.4% and 34.5% of the total outstanding Series A Shares and Series V Shares (including Series V Shares held in the form of ADSs). Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, the Verizon Shareholders have converted their ADSs into Series V Shares.

In connection with the transactions contemplated by the Acquisition Agreement, Movil Access, Biper, the Verizon Shareholders, Vodafone and The Bank of New York, as escrow agent (the Escrow Agent), have entered into an Escrow Agreement, dated as June 12, 2003 (the Escrow Agreement). Pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone transferred to the Escrow Agent all of the Series A Shares and Series V Shares (other than Series V Shares formerly held in the form of ADSs) owned by the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone. Each of Vodafone and the Verizon Shareholders irrevocably appointed the Escrow Agent as its attorney-in-fact and proxy to tender such securities into the Movil Access Mexican Offer. Pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, the Securities owned by the Principal Shareholders and deposited with the Escrow Agent have been tendered in the Movil Access Mexican Offer by the Escrow Agent on behalf of the Principal Shareholders.

Certain other provisions of the Acquisition Agreement and Escrow Agreement are summarized in Item 3 below.

Financial Position of the Company

We did not generate sufficient cash flows from our operations to make the June 1, 2003 US$25.0 million interest payment on the Company's 14¼% Senior Notes due 2006 (the Iusacell senior notes) issued pursuant to the Indenture, dated as of December 16, 1999, between Nuevo Grupo Iusacell, S.A. de C.V., Bell Atlantic Corporation and The Bank of New York, as Trustee (the Iusacell Indenture) and, as a result, we did not make that payment. A 30-day grace period within which to make the interest payment expired on July 1, 2003. As a result, an event of default has occurred under the Iusacell Indenture, and the holders of the Iusacell senior notes have the right to declare the principal of and the accrued interest under the Iusacell senior notes due and payable or take other legal actions specified in the Iusacell Indenture, as they deem appropriate. The principal amount outstanding under the Iusacell senior notes is US$350.0 million.

The right of such holders to accelerate our repayment obligations under the Iusacell senior notes constitutes an event of default under the terms of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) dated as of July 25, 1997, as amended and restated as of March 29, 2001, among Grupo Iusacell Celular, S.A. de C.V., our wholly-owned subsidiary (Iusacell Celular), the lenders party thereto and The Chase Manhattan Bank, as Administrative and Collateral Agent, as amended from time to time, entitling the lenders to declare the indebtedness due thereunder immediately due and payable. If the lenders under the Credit Agreement accelerate the indebtedness, this would result in an event of default under the Indenture, dated as of July 25, 1997, between Iusacell Celular, certain Guarantors and First Union National Bank, as Trustee (the Iusacell Celular Indenture), which would permit the holders of the 10% Senior Notes due 2004 of Iusacell Celular (the Iusacell Celular senior notes) issued pursuant to the Iusacell Celular Indenture to accelerate Iusacell Celular's repayment obligations under the Iusacell Celular senior notes. The principal amount outstanding under the Iusacell Celular senior notes is US$150.0 million.

Also, should the foregoing defaults occur, the cross-default provisions contained in our various other credit agreements may also be triggered. In the event that the holders of the Iusacell senior notes, the holders of the Iusacell Celular senior notes or the lenders under the Credit Agreement choose to accelerate the maturity of their debt, neither we nor Iusacell Celular would have the cash resources to repay such amounts.

During the first half of 2003, Iusacell Celular exceeded the permitted leverage ratio of 2.50 under the Credit Agreement. On April 28, 2003, Iusacell Celular and the lenders entered into a temporary amendment and waiver to the Credit Agreement to increase the permitted leverage ratio from 2.50 to 2.70. On May 22, 2003, the amendment and waiver was extended until June 13, 2003 and on June 12, 2003, the amendment and waiver was further extended until June 26, 2003. On June 27, 2003, the amendment and waiver expired, which resulted in an event of default under the Credit Agreement as if the amendment and waiver had never been executed, entitling the lenders under the Credit Agreement to declare the indebtedness under their loan immediately due and payable. On July 10, 2003, the amendment and waiver was further extended until August 14, 2003. If the amendment and waiver expires and is not further extended, and the lenders thereunder accelerate the loan, defaults would occur under the Iusacell Indenture and the Iusacell Celular Indenture, which would permit the holders of the Iusacell Celular senior notes to accelerate Iusacell Celular's repayment obligations. The amendment and waiver contains covenants, expiring on August 14, 2003, which restrict Iusacell Celular from making any loans, advances, dividends or other payments to the Company and require a proportionate prepayment of the loan under the Credit Agreement if Iusacell Celular makes any principal or interest payments on any of its indebtedness for borrowed money, excluding capital and operating leases. Iusacell Celular did not make the July 15, 2003 US$7.5 million interest payment on the Iusacell Celular senior notes. Iusacell Celular has a 30-day period after July 15 within which to make the interest payment. If the interest payment is not made within the 30-day period, an event of default would occur under the Iusacell Celular Indenture, and the holders of the Iusacell Celular senior notes would have the right to declare the principal of, and accrued interest under, the Iusacell Celular senior notes due and payable or take other legal actions specified in the Iusacell Celular Indenture, as they deem appropriate. The principal amount outstanding under the Credit Agreement is US$265.6 million.

Under the Iusacell Celular Indenture and the Iusacell Indenture, consummation of the Movil Access Offers or the Offers will constitute a change of control which will entitle the holders of such notes to require Iusacell Celular and the Company, respectively, to repurchase all or part of such holders' notes at 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase. The resulting change of control upon consummation of the Movil Access Offers or the Offers will also constitute an event of default under the Credit Agreement, and, unless the default is waived, the lenders under that loan would have the right to declare all amounts outstanding under that loan immediately due and payable.

In its Report of Independent Accountants dated June 13, 2003, PricewaterhouseCoopers, S.C. stated that Iusacell is highly leveraged and has suffered recurring losses from operations that raise substantial doubt as to its ability to continue as a going concern. If Iusacell is unable to service or restructure its indebtedness, Iusacell will likely become involved in Mexican reorganization proceedings and the possible suspension or termination of all or a portion of its business under its concessions.

Purchaser's Plans for the Company

According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, following the consummation of the Offers, Fintech Mobile and Fintech expect to engage in discussions and negotiations in connection with a possible restructuring of the obligations of Iusacell and/or its subsidiaries with (i) the holders of the Iusacell senior notes, (ii) the holders of the Iusacell Celular senior notes, (iii) the lenders party to the Credit Agreement and (iv) other creditors of Iusacell and/or any of its subsidiaries. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, Fintech manages a fund that, as of the date of the U.S. Offer to Purchase, held approximately US$35.0 million of the debt securities of the Company and its subsidiaries and has discretion over actions taken by the fund with respect to those securities. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, in addition to reducing the Company's overall debt burden, Fintech Mobile and Fintech intend to work with and encourage creditors, as part of a general restructuring plan, to capitalize the Company by converting a substantial portion of their debt into equity. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, Fintech believes that, because it is a substantial holder of indebtedness of the Company and its subsidiaries, it is in a unique position to negotiate a restructuring of the Company.

According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, except as may be required in connection with a restructuring, Fintech Mobile and Fintech do not presently contemplate selling any significant asset of the Company or merging the Company with or into any other company. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, Fintech Mobile and Fintech intend to work with existing management of the Company and do not contemplate any material layoffs or termination of employment arrangements. However, according to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, following the consummation of the Offers, Fintech Mobile and Fintech may replace all or some of the current members of the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board of Directors) with designees of Fintech, as permitted by applicable laws.

According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, Fintech Mobile and Fintech intend to negotiate a favorable restructuring plan with the Company's creditors so that Iusacell may continue its operations, reduce its overall debt burden and become profitable. However, the U.S. Offer to Purchase states that there is no certainty that such restructuring plan will be implemented, that the discussions with Iusacell's creditors will be successful or that, even if such negotiations are successful, Iusacell will be profitable in the near or long term. Furthermore, according to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, in connection with such restructuring, the assets, liabilities, business operations and capital and operating structure of Iusacell could be substantially changed, and Iusacell could engage in mergers, sales of material assets or similar transactions, and there can be no assurance that such changes or actions would not have an adverse impact on Iusacell or its then existing shareholders.

Item 3. Past Contacts, Transactions, Negotiations and Agreements

Except as disclosed in this Item 3, to the knowledge of the Company, there is no material agreement, arrangement or understanding or any actual or potential conflict of interest between the Company or its affiliates and (i) the executive officers, directors or affiliates of the Company or (ii) Fintech Mobile or its executive officers, directors or affiliates.

Iusacell Shareholders Agreement

In accordance with Iusacell's by-laws and the Shareholders Agreement dated as of March 30, 2001 by and among Iusacell, the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone (the Iusacell Shareholders Agreement), Iusacell's Board of Directors consists of twelve (12) members. The Series A shareholders have the right to appoint seven (7) directors and their alternates (including the Chairman of the Board of Directors), and the Series V shareholders have the right to appoint five (5) directors and their alternates. Mexican law, Iusacell's by-laws and the Iusacell Shareholders Agreement give the Verizon Shareholders, as majority owners of the Series A Shares, the right to elect six (6) of the Series A directors. Under Iusacell's by-laws and the Iusacell Shareholders Agreement, the Verizon Shareholders, as holders of the majority of the Series A Shares, have the right to elect the Chairman of the Board of Directors, who casts the deciding vote in the event of a tie. Vodafone, as holder of more than 10% but less than 20% of the capital stock of Iusacell in the form of Series A Shares, has the right to appoint the remaining Series A director and, as the controlling owner of the Series V Shares, all five Series V directors, subject to (i) the right of any holder of a 10% or greater equity interest in Iusacell in the form of Series V Shares to elect one director, and (ii) the right, granted to the Verizon Shareholders under the Iusacell Shareholders Agreement, to nominate one of the Series V directors. If Vodafone is unable to elect Verizon's Series V director nominee, then Vodafone has agreed, under the Iusacell Shareholders Agreement, to nominate a Verizon nominee as the seventh Series A director.

Pursuant to the Iusacell Shareholders Agreement, the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone have agreed to certain restrictions on the transfer of their Iusacell shares. Pursuant to the Iusacell Shareholders Agreement, the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone have granted to each other a right of first refusal on certain transfers of Series A Shares, which they have waived in connection with the sale transactions contemplated by the Acquisition Agreement.

Transactions with Principal Shareholders

Iusacell Celular and subsidiaries of Verizon Communications Inc. (such company together with its subsidiaries, Verizon) have entered into a series of consulting and secondment agreements pursuant to which Verizon has agreed, for an indefinite term, to provide Iusacell with management, technical, marketing, legal and other consulting services and seconded employees. Seconded employees generally agree to expatriate assignments of two to three years duration, with such employees' compensation being paid by Verizon and reimbursed by Iusacell. Verizon charges Iusacell for the provision of seconded employees at cost. Vodafone has entered into a similar agreement with Iusacell. With respect to consulting services for 2003, Iusacell and Verizon have reached an agreement in which Iusacell Celular will pay a fixed fee of US$1.8 million plus any applicable tax gross-up amount.

Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone have agreed to terminate (and cause the Company and its subsidiaries to terminate) certain agreements, including the Iusacell Shareholders Agreement and the consulting and secondment agreements discussed above.

Acquisition Agreement

The Movil Access Offers

The Acquisition Agreement provides that promptly following approval by the Comisión Nacional Bancaria y de Valores (National Securities and Banking Commission of Mexico or CNBV) of the Mexican tender offer documents, Movil Access will commence the Movil Access Offers at a price equal to (i) in the Movil Access Mexican Offer, at the election of the offerees, and subject to certain conditions, either Ps. 0.05712180 per Series A Share and Ps. 0.05712180 per Series V Share or the dollar equivalent of such Mexican peso amount calculated using the average of the exchange rates reported on each of the five (5) consecutive business days ending two (2) business days prior to the expiration date of the Movil Access Offers by Reuters and Bloomberg on their FXBENCH page as the closing rate for the exchange of Mexican pesos and U.S. dollars, in cash to each tendering holder of Securities and (ii) in the Movil Access U.S. Offer, the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 5.712180 per ADS and, to the extent required by applicable law or regulation, for the Series A Shares and/or Series V Shares at the same U.S. dollar equivalent price per share as in the Movil Access Mexican Offer, calculated in the same manner as described in (i), in cash to each tendering holder of Securities.

Movil Access may, in its sole discretion, but subject to compliance with the Ley del Mercado de Valores (Mexican Securities Market Law) and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, increase the price in the Movil Access Offers for any reason on or before the expiration date of the Movil Access Offers so long as the share price increase is ratably applicable to each Security. The initial price per Security, or any higher amount per Security as may be offered in the Movil Access Offers in accordance with the foregoing, is referred to herein as the Movil Access Offer Price. The Movil Access Offer Price will be appropriately adjusted to reflect any reclassification, recapitalization, share split or combination, exchange or readjustment of any of the Securities or any share or other dividend thereon. If the conditions to the Movil Access Offers have been satisfied on the expiration date of the Movil Access Offers, Movil Access agrees to accept for payment all Securities tendered into the Movil Access Offers (and not withdrawn) on the expiration date of the Movil Access Offers, and Movil Access further agrees to pay for all Securities tendered into the Movil Access Offers and accepted for payment at such time as may be required by applicable law.

Modifications and Extensions of the Movil Access Offers

Movil Access will not, without the express written consent of the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone, extend the Movil Access Offers (except as provided below or as required by applicable law or regulation), impose additional conditions to the Movil Access Offers, reduce the number of Securities sought in the Movil Access Offers, decrease the Movil Access Offer Price or change the form of consideration payable in the Movil Access Offers, waive any of the conditions to the Movil Access Offers (except with respect to the condition that the Securities to be tendered by the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone in the Movil Access Offers will not be subject to any lien, which condition may be waived in the sole discretion of Movil Access) or otherwise amend or modify any term of the Movil Access Offers or terminate the Movil Access Offers prior to the termination of the Acquisition Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Movil Access may, without the consent of the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone, modify or amend (but not extend) the Movil Access Offers (provided that any such modification or amendment will not impose additional conditions to the Movil Access Offers, reduce the number of Securities sought in the Movil Access Offers or decrease the Movil Access Offer Price or change the form of consideration payable in the Movil Access Offers) to the extent that such modifications or amendments do not adversely affect the offerees or to the extent required by applicable law or regulation.

The date of expiration of the Movil Access Offers will initially be twenty-one (21) business days after the commencement of the Movil Access U.S. Offer. If on any date the Movil Access Offers are scheduled to expire the conditions to the Movil Access Offers have not been satisfied (except with respect to the condition that the Securities to be tendered by the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone in the Movil Access Offers shall not be subject to any lien, which condition may be waived in the sole discretion of Movil Access), Movil Access will extend the Movil Access Offers in increments of five (5) business days until all the conditions to the Movil Access Offers have been satisfied or waived except that Movil Access will not be required to extend the Movil Access Offers to a date that is later than December 11, 2003.

Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone Agreement to Tender

Edgar Filing: GRUPO IUSACELL SA DE CV - Form SC 14D9

As of June 12, 2003, the Verizon Shareholders owned, either beneficially or of record, in the aggregate, 657,966,431 Series A Shares and 76,152,002 Series V Shares (of which 1,400,000 Series V Shares were held in the form of ADSs) representing approximately 39.4% of the total capital stock of Iusacell (collectively, the Verizon Shares), and Vodafone owned, directly or indirectly, and either beneficially or of record, 303,326,053 Series A

Shares and 339,617,555 Series V Shares representing approximately 34.5% of the total capital stock of Iusacell (collectively, the Vodafone Shares).

Each of the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone agreed to cause to be tendered in the Movil Access Mexican Offer, and not to withdraw, all of the Verizon Shares and Vodafone Shares, respectively, and to tender all other respective Securities (other than ADSs) directly or indirectly owned (beneficially or otherwise) by them into the Movil Access Mexican Offer.

The Acquisition Agreement provides that before the commencement of the Movil Access Offers, the Verizon Shareholders will exchange or convert all ADSs owned by the Verizon Shareholders into Series V Shares and will cause to be tendered, and not to be withdrawn, such Series V Shares into the Movil Access Mexican Offer within two (2) business days after the commencement of the Movil Access Mexican Offer. The Verizon Shareholders have converted such ADSs and tendered such Series V Shares in accordance with the provisions of the Acquisition Agreement.

The Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone's obligations to cause to be tendered into the Movil Access Mexican Offer, and not to withdraw, all of their respective Securities is subject to the approval by the CNBV of the Mexican tender offer documents, and that no governmental entity (Mexican or U.S.) shall have enacted, issued, promulgated or enforced or entered any statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, injunction or other order which prevents or prohibits the commencement of either the Movil Access Mexican Offer or the Movil Access U.S. Offer. The CNBV granted such approval on June 27, 2003, and such tenders have occurred.

The Acquisition Agreement provides that each of the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone have certain withdrawal rights in the event of a Superior Proposal (as hereinafter defined). The Verizon Shareholders have agreed, pursuant to the provisions of the Acquisition Agreement and Escrow Agreement, and such agreements have the effect that, Securities which have been transferred to the Escrow Agent and are tendered into the Movil Access Mexican Offer cannot be withdrawn. A Superior Proposal is defined in the Acquisition Agreement to mean an acquisition proposal (Acquisition Proposal) to acquire a majority of the capital stock and/or assets of Iusacell or a merger, business combination or similar transaction involving Iusacell or any of its subsidiaries that (i) offers the stockholders of Iusacell consideration consisting solely of U.S. dollars and/or Mexican pesos having a greater value than the Movil Access Offers, (ii) contains no greater conditionality than the transactions contemplated by the Acquisition Agreement (including any financing contingency), and (iii) is reasonably determined by the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone in good faith (in their capacity as holders of Securities), and after consultation with outside counsel, after considering all terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal, including the likelihood and timing of its consummation, to result in a transaction that is more favorable to the stockholders of Iusacell than the Movil Access Offers. If, however, at the time a Superior Proposal is made, the Verizon Shareholders have not yet caused the Verizon Shares (other than ADSs), and Vodafone has not yet caused the Vodafone Shares, to be tendered into the Movil Access Mexican Offer, the Verizon Shareholders are required to cause to be tendered the Verizon Shares (other than ADSs), and Vodafone is required to cause to be tendered the Vodafone Shares, into the Movil Access Mexican Offer prior to withdrawing or causing the withdrawal of such Verizon Shares (other than ADSs) or Vodafone Shares.

Representations and Warranties

The Acquisition Agreement contains various representations and warranties of the parties thereto, including representations and warranties of the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone as to the ownership of the Verizon Shares by the Verizon Shareholders, and the ownership of the Vodafone Shares by Vodafone, due organization and corporate power, authorization, noncontravention, valid issuance of the Verizon Shares and the Vodafone Shares, consents and approvals and broker's fees. Some of these representations and warranties are qualified by the limitation that, in order for the representation to have been breached, the event breaching the representation must have a Material Adverse Effect. A Material Adverse Effect means any event, change, occurrence, effect, fact or circumstance having a material adverse effect on the ability of the Verizon Shareholders or Vodafone, as the case may be, taken as whole, to perform their respective obligations under the Acquisition Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby on a timely basis. In addition, the Verizon Shareholders have represented that the Verizon Shares at the time of acceptance for payment will represent at least 37.32% of the total issued and outstanding capital stock of Iusacell, and Vodafone has represented that the Vodafone Shares at the time of acceptance for payment will represent at least 32.68% of the total issued and outstanding capital stock of Iusacell.

In addition, the Acquisition Agreement contains representations and warranties of Movil Access and Biper concerning their organization and corporate power, authorization, noncontravention, consents and approvals, broker's fees, Biper financial statements and sufficient funds.

Access to Information Concerning Properties and Records

The Acquisition Agreement provides that during the period commencing on June 12, 2003 (i.e., the date that the Acquisition Agreement was executed) and ending on the earlier of the Movil Access Closing Date (as hereinafter defined) and the date on which the Acquisition Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms (the Transition Period), the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone will use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Iusacell and its subsidiaries, upon reasonable notice, to afford Movil Access and Biper and their employees, counsel, accountants, financial advisors, consultants and other authorized representatives, reasonable access during normal business hours to the officers, directors, employees, accountants, properties, books and records of Iusacell and its subsidiaries.

The Acquisition Agreement provides that the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone will use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Iusacell to furnish to Movil Access and Biper all information concerning its or its subsidiaries' business, properties and personnel as Movil Access and Biper may reasonably request; provided that such investigation and assistance will not unreasonably disrupt the operations of Iusacell or its subsidiaries. The Acquisition Agreement provides that the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone will not, however, be required to cause Iusacell to furnish any information if Iusacell believes that not furnishing such information is reasonably necessary to comply with applicable law, preserve attorney-client privilege and/or prevent a breach of or default under any contract to which Iusacell or any of its subsidiaries is a party. Directors and Officers Insurance; Indemnification

The Acquisition Agreement provides that from and after the Movil Access Closing Date, Movil Access and Biper will ensure that no provision of the by-laws or other organizational documents of Iusacell (in effect as of June 12, 2003) relating to indemnification and exculpation from liability for directors and officers shall be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the Movil Access Closing Date in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of individuals who on or prior to the Movil Access Closing Date were directors or officers of Iusacell, unless such modification is required by law and such individuals are notified promptly in writing of any such amendment, repeal or other modification.

The Acquisition Agreement provides that Movil Access and Biper will, jointly and severally, indemnify to the fullest extent that they are permitted to do so by applicable law and, from and after the Movil Access Closing Date, will cause Iusacell and Iusacell Celular to indemnify to the fullest extent that they are permitted to do so by applicable law, jointly and severally with Movil Access and Biper, the Verizon Shareholders and their affiliates, Vodafone and its affiliates, and the Verizon Shareholders and their affiliates and Vodafone's and its affiliates' respective officers, directors or employees (the Indemnified Parties) from any judgments, awards, fines, losses, costs (including reasonable attorney fees) or damages resulting from or arising out of any claim, action or proceeding brought against such Indemnified Party arising out of or relating to any acts or omissions occurring after June 12, 2003, the date of the execution of the Acquisition Agreement, and prior to and including the Movil Access Closing Date:

except Movil Access and Biper will not have any indemnification obligations under the Acquisition Agreement to the extent that (A) such indemnification would be prohibited or impermissible under applicable law if it were being provided by Iusacell (other than applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally), (B) such actions (or failure to take action) violate the provisions of the Acquisition Agreement described above under the section captioned "Conduct of Business of Iusacell Pending the Movil Access Closing Date," (C) the damages and losses for which indemnification is sought

The Acquisition Agreement provides that the obligations of Movil Access and Biper under this section captioned "Directors' and Officers' Insurance; Indemnification" will be binding upon the successors and assigns of Movil Access and Biper, and requires that if Movil Access, Biper or Iusacell, or any of their respective successors or assigns, (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties or assets to any person, then, and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Movil Access, Biper or Iusacell, as the case may be, honor the indemnification obligations set forth under this section captioned "Directors' and Officers' Insurance; Indemnification."

No Dispositions

The Acquisition Agreement provides that during the period commencing on the Movil Access Closing Date and ending on June 12, 2004, without the prior written consent of the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, such reasonableness to be determined with reference to the benefits reasonably expected by the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone to accrue to them from this provision), Movil Access will not transfer, assign, sell, exchange, gift, or dispose of beneficial ownership of, directly or indirectly (collectively, "transfer"), any of the Verizon Shares or the Vodafone Shares or enter into any contract with respect to, or authorize, any actions with respect thereto, and Movil Access and Biper agree to cause Iusacell and its material subsidiaries not to:

- (i) issue, sell or otherwise dispose of Iusacell's or any of its material subsidiaries' authorized but unissued capital stock that results in Movil Access and Biper or Iusacell no longer having and exercising the sole power to elect or appoint a majority of the Board of Directors or such material subsidiary, as the case may be;

Position of the Board of Directors

For the reasons set forth below, the Board of Directors believes that each holder of Securities should make his, her or its own decision regarding whether to tender Securities in the Offers based upon all the available information, including the factors considered by the Board of Directors more fully described below. As described below, the Board of Directors is unable to evaluate the value of the Company and the Securities given the uncertainty of whether the Company will be able to successfully restructure its debt, the related uncertainty of the equity value of the Company following any such restructuring and certain of the factors described below. Accordingly, the Board of Directors is unable to determine whether the offer price in the Offers is a fair price. The Board of Directors also is unable to determine whether the Offers will be consummated and accordingly, whether the offer price in the Offers will be available to holders of Securities. Subject to the factors set forth below, holders of Securities who wish to dispose of their Securities should consider whether a higher net sale consideration is available to them through selling in the open market as opposed to tendering their Securities, either in the Offers or in the Movil Access Offers.

Holders of Securities are urged to obtain a current market quotation for their Securities.

Background of the Transaction

According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, in early April 2003, in its role as investment manager to a fund that holds substantial debt of Iusacell and its subsidiaries, Fintech had informal conversations with the management of the Company regarding the Company's financial situation. In June 2003, Fintech joined with other holders of the Iusacell senior notes to form an ad hoc committee of bondholders to consider a potential restructuring of the Company and its subsidiaries. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, in connection with the activities of the ad hoc committee, Fintech has had discussions with management relating to the terms of such a financial restructuring, as well as, more generally, the financial condition of the Company.

According to the Movil Access U.S. Offer to Purchase, in late May 2003, a representative of Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. (Bear Stearns), acting on behalf of the Verizon Shareholders, approached a principal of Movil Access by telephone regarding such principal's possible interest in exploring an acquisition of Iusacell and the principal of Movil Access expressed an interest in such acquisition. During that telephone call, Bear Stearns invited representatives of Movil Access to come to New York City to discuss the possible terms of an acquisition transaction with the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone.

According to the Movil Access U.S. Offer to Purchase, on June 2, 2003, Movil Access entered into a Non-Disclosure Agreement with the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone.

According to the Movil Access U.S. Offer to Purchase, early in the week of June 2, 2003, representatives of Movil Access met with representatives of Bear Stearns and the Verizon Shareholders in New York City.

According to the Movil Access U.S. Offer to Purchase, during the remainder of the week of June 2, 2003, representatives of Bear Stearns, the Verizon Shareholders and their outside counsel conducted preliminary negotiations with representatives of Movil Access and its outside counsel regarding the terms and structure of an acquisition transaction. Late in the week of June 2, 2003, preliminary drafts of the Acquisition Agreement and Escrow Agreement were delivered to representatives of Movil Access and its outside counsel.

According to the Movil Access U.S. Offer to Purchase, commencing on June 6, 2003 and continuing until June 12, 2003, representatives of the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone and their respective outside counsel conducted intensive negotiations with representatives of Movil Access and its outside counsel regarding the Acquisition Agreement and Escrow Agreement.

On June 12, 2003, the Acquisition Agreement and Escrow Agreement were executed.

Each of the parties to the Acquisition Agreement announced the transaction in press releases on June 13, 2003. The Company also issued a press release announcing the transactions contemplated in the Acquisition Agreement.

On June 16, 2003, the Company and Movil Access entered into a confidentiality agreement for the purpose of permitting the evaluation by Movil Access of confidential information relating to the Company.

Reasons for Position of the Board of Directors

In reaching its position, the Board of Directors considered numerous factors including, but not limited to, the following:

Recent Market Prices of Securities; Offer Price Represents a Substantial Discount. Since Fintech's public announcement of its intent to commence the Offers and continuing through the Company's filing of this statement, the trading prices of the Series V Shares on the Mexican Stock Exchange and of the ADSs on the NYSE have remained substantially higher than the Offer Price. See Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation Introduction.

Comparison of the Fintech Offer Price to the Movil Access Offer Price. The offer price in the Offers represents an offer of approximately four times the offer price in the Movil Access Offers.

Viability of the Offers. Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, the Series A Shares and Series V Shares owned by the Principal Shareholders (other than Series V Shares formerly held in the form of ADSs) have already been tendered in the Mexican Offer by the Escrow Agent on behalf of the Principal Shareholders. Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, the Verizon Shareholders have already converted and tendered their Series V Shares formerly held in the form of ADSs in the Mexican Offer. The Company has been informed by the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone that they would not withdraw the Verizon Shares and the Vodafone Shares from the Movil Access Offers and, as a result, will not tender any Securities into the Offers. One of the conditions to the Offers is that the number of Securities validly tendered into the Offers (and not withdrawn) shall be equal to at least seventy percent (70%) of the outstanding Securities on a fully diluted basis (the Minimum Condition). Fintech Mobile has reserved the right to waive the Minimum Condition, but has not indicated whether it intends to do so. Furthermore, Fintech Mobile has reserved the right to withdraw the Offers if any person acquires a majority of the Securities. If the Movil Access Offers are consummated, and the Offers are not withdrawn, the Minimum Condition could only be satisfied (unless such condition is waived by Fintech Mobile) if Movil Access were to tender its Securities in the Offers. Under the Acquisition Agreement, Movil Access is subject to restrictions on its ability to dispose of its Securities without the consent of the Principal Shareholders. See Item 3. Past Contacts, Transactions, Negotiations and Agreements Acquisition Agreement No Dispositions.

Change of Control. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, the purpose of the U.S. Offer and the Mexican Offer is to enable the Purchaser to acquire control of, and the entire equity interest in, the Company. Furthermore, one of the conditions of the Offers is that the number of Securities validly tendered into the Offers (and not withdrawn) be equal to at least seventy percent (70%) of the outstanding Securities on a fully diluted basis. Fintech Mobile has reserved the right to waive the Minimum Condition, but has not indicated whether it intends to do so. Movil Access is restricted from participating in the Offers without the consent of the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement.

Minority Status of Public Securityholders. Following the consummation of the Movil Access Offers or the Offers, the holders of Securities other than Movil Access or the Purchaser, as the case may be, will continue to have limited ability to affect the future direction of the Company and, without the approval of Movil Access or the Purchaser, as the case may be, will continue to be unable to effect any sale of the Company.

Relationship with Principal Shareholders. As a result of the consummation of the Movil Access Offers and the resulting change of control, Verizon and Vodafone will no longer provide the Company with management or other support services. The Board of Directors cannot predict the strategy that will be implemented following such management change or the loss of support by the Principal Shareholders.

The Company's Operating and Financial Condition. The Board of Directors considered the Company's current and historical financial condition and results of operations, assets, liabilities, business strategy and prospects, and various uncertainties associated with those prospects in light of the Company's defaults under its debt obligations as well as the unsettled general economic conditions and unstable telecommunications industry market conditions under which the Company is operating.

Defaults under Debt Obligations. The Company is highly leveraged and has insufficient cash flows from its operations to service its indebtedness. The Company failed to make the June 1, 2003 US$25.0 million interest payment on the Iusacell senior notes and is currently in default under the Iusacell senior notes, which entitles the holders of such notes to accelerate Iusacell's payment obligations. Furthermore, during the first half of 2003, Iusacell Celular exceeded the permitted leverage ratio under the Credit Agreement and obtained a temporary amendment and waiver by the lenders under the Credit Agreement which expired on June 26, 2003. On July 10, 2003, the amendment and waiver was extended until August 14, 2003. If the amendment and waiver expires and is not further extended, resulting in an event of default under the Credit Agreement, and the lenders thereunder accelerate the loan, a default would occur under the Iusacell Celular Indenture which would permit the holders of the Iusacell Celular notes to accelerate the repayment obligations thereunder. Iusacell Celular did not make the July 15, 2003 US$7.5 million interest payment on the Iusacell Celular senior notes. Iusacell Celular has a 30-day period after July 15, 2003 within which to make the interest payment. If the interest payment is not made within the 30-day period, an event of default would occur under the Iusacell Celular Indenture. The Company is currently engaged in negotiations with the lenders under the Credit Agreement in connection with a possible restructuring of the obligations thereunder. To date, the Company's attempts to restructure its debt obligations have been unsuccessful, and there is no certainty that a full or partial restructuring favorable to the Company will be achieved.

Effect of Change of Control on Indebtedness. Under the Iusacell senior notes and the Iusacell Celular senior notes, consummation of the Movil Access Offers or the Offers will constitute a change of control which will entitle the holders of such notes to require the Company and Iusacell Celular, respectively, to repurchase all or part of such holders' notes at 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase. The resulting change of control upon consummation of the Movil Access Offers or the Offers will also constitute an event of default under the Credit Agreement, which, unless waived, would entitle the lenders to declare all amounts outstanding immediately due and payable.

Future Negotiations with Creditors. Following the consummation of the Offers, according to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, the Purchaser expects to engage in discussions and negotiations with the other creditors of the Company and its subsidiaries in connection with a possible restructuring of the debt obligations of the Company and/or its subsidiaries. If the Purchaser is able to negotiate a favorable restructuring plan with such creditors, the Company may continue its operations and become profitable. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, Fintech manages a fund that, as of the date of the U.S. Offer to Purchase, held approximately US$35.0 million of the debt securities of the Company and its subsidiaries and has discretion over actions taken by the fund with respect to those securities. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, in addition to reducing the Company's overall debt burden, as part of an overall restructuring plan, Fintech Mobile and Fintech intend to encourage creditors to capitalize the Company by converting a substantial portion of their debt into equity. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, Fintech believes that, because it is a substantial holder of indebtedness of the Company and its subsidiaries, it is in a unique position to negotiate a restructuring of the Company. However, there is no certainty that such restructuring plan will be implemented, that the Purchaser's discussions with the Company's creditors will be successful or, even if they are successful, that the Company will be profitable in the near or long term.

According to the Third Fintech Shareholders Letter, if the Movil Access Offers are consummated, [Fintech] and other creditors will have no choice but to accelerate the Company's debt to protect our interests.

Ability to Continue as a Going Concern. In its Report of Independent Accountants dated June 13, 2003, PricewaterhouseCoopers, S.C. stated that the Company is highly leveraged and has suffered recurring losses from operations that raise substantial doubt as to its ability to continue as a going concern. In 2002, the Company's accumulated losses were nearly the equivalent of two-thirds of its capital stock. According to the Mexican Companies Law (Ley General de Sociedades Mercantiles), an interested party may file a claim for dissolution and force the Company into a liquidation process (Proceso de Concurso Mercantil) of its assets if the accumulated losses exceed two-thirds of its contributed capital during any fiscal year. Furthermore, as a result of the Company's defaults under its debt obligations, some or all of its creditors will have the option of taking legal action against the Company, including instituting a reorganization proceeding in Mexico. In the event of the Company's bankruptcy and liquidation, it is possible that the liquidation value per share received by holders of Series V Shares and ADSs would be lower than the price per share in the Offers or even zero.

Terms and Conditions of the Offer. The Board of Directors considered the range and scope of the financial and other terms and conditions of the Offers, including the Minimum Condition, as well as the restrictions on the ability of Movil Access to participate in the Offers, as described above.

Cash Available for Non-Tendering Holders of Securities. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, in the event that, after completion of the Offers, Iusacell is required by the Mexican Stock Exchange, or the Purchaser decides, to delist the Series A Shares and Series V Shares from the Mexican Stock Exchange, the Company's shareholders that do not tender their Securities in the Offers may receive the same consideration as the shareholders that tendered their Securities since, to the extent required by Mexican regulations, prior to any such delisting, the Purchaser would deposit in a trust for a period of two years the funds, in Mexican pesos, that would be required to purchase all the Series A Shares and Series V Shares outstanding after the Offers at the same Mexican peso prices paid in the Mexican Offer. Also, according to the U.S. Offer to Purchase, after any such delisting, the Purchaser may cause the Company to carry out a reverse stock split to eliminate for cash, at the same Mexican peso prices paid in the Mexican Offer, the outstanding Securities held by any remaining shareholders other than the Purchaser.

No Financing Conditions. Fintech Mobile has deposited US$20.0 million into escrow with the Fintech Escrow Agent to finance the aggregate purchase price for all of the Series A Shares, Series V Shares and ADSs in the Offers and, according to Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule TO, Fintech Mobile will transfer to the Fintech Escrow Agent an additional US$20.0 million by the end of the U.S. business day on July 29, 2003, the scheduled expiration of the Movil Access Offers.

Form of Consideration. The consideration offered to the Company's shareholders for the tendered Securities is all cash. The transfer by Fintech Mobile to the Fintech Escrow Agent of an additional US$20.0 million by the end of the U.S. business day on July 29, 2003, the scheduled expiration date of the Movil Access Offers, will provide certainty of value to the Company's shareholders with respect to the tendered Securities.

Participation in Future of the Company. The tendering shareholders will not be able to participate in any future growth of the Company.

Uncertainty as to Trading Volume and Future Listing. The purchase of Series V Shares and ADSs pursuant to the Movil Access Offers or the Offers will reduce the number of Series V Shares and ADSs that might otherwise trade publicly and could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of the remaining Series V Shares and ADSs held by the public. It is possible that, due to decreases in trading volume and the number of ADS holders following consummation of the Movil Access Offers or the Offers, the ADSs will no longer meet the continued listing requirements of the NYSE. If that occurs, the NYSE may choose, at its discretion, to delist the ADSs. Similarly, it is possible that, due to decreases in trading volume and the number of holders of Series V Shares following the purchase of Series V Shares pursuant to the Movil Access Offers or the Offers, Iusacell will no longer meet the continued listing requirements of the Mexican Stock Exchange. If that occurs, the Mexican Stock Exchange may choose, at its discretion, to suspend the quotation of the Series V Shares. If, following the consummation of the Movil Access Offers or the Offers, Movil Access or the Purchaser decides, or Iusacell is required, to delist the Series V Shares from the Mexican Stock Exchange, Movil Access the Purchaser may cause Iusacell to carry out a reverse stock split in order to eliminate for cash, at the same Mexican peso price paid in the applicable Mexican offer, the outstanding Securities held by any remaining holders other than Movil Access or the Purchaser in accordance with Mexican law. Delisting the shares from the Mexican Stock Exchange could give rise to certain negative tax consequences for shareholders in Mexico who wish to sell their shares in an over-the-counter transaction.

Change of Business or Purpose; Dissolution; Mergers. According to the U.S. Offer to Purchase and the Folleto Informativo, in connection with any restructuring of the Company, the assets, liabilities, business operations and capital and operating structure of Iusacell could be substantially changed, and Iusacell could engage in mergers, sales of material assets or similar transactions, and there can be no assurance that such changes or actions would not have an adverse impact on the Company or its shareholders in the future.

Telecommunications Industry Prospects. The unstable market conditions of the telecommunications industry in Mexico and abroad have severely impacted the market valuations of companies in this industry. All companies in the global telecommunications industry must adapt to rapid and significant changes in technology which may require substantial capital investments. In addition, it is possible that new laws and regulations for the telecommunications industry will be enacted in Mexico.

Equal Treatment. The Offers treat all shareholders of the Company equally from a financial perspective by providing the same cash consideration per share to all shareholders of the Company regardless of the series of shares they own or whether or not they are majority shareholders.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Board of Directors is not meant to be exhaustive but includes the material information, factors and analyses considered by the Board of Directors in reaching its position. The members of the Board of Directors evaluated the various factors listed above in light of their knowledge of the business, financial condition and prospects of the Company. In light of the number and variety of factors that the Board of Directors considered, the members of the Board of Directors did not find it practicable to assign relative weights to the foregoing factors. However, the position of the Board of Directors was determined after considering the totality of the information and factors involved.

The Board of Directors has not obtained any report, opinion or appraisal as to the value of the Company and its securities or as to the fairness of the Offers to the holders of Securities.

The Verizon Shareholders have the right to appoint seven (7) members of the Board of Directors. Vodafone has the right to appoint five (5) members of the Board of Directors. See Item 3. Past Contacts, Transactions, Negotiations and Agreements Iusacell Shareholders Agreement. Of the twelve (12) members of the Board of Directors, nine (9) are employed either by Verizon or Vodafone or their affiliates.

Intent to Tender

To the knowledge of the Company, certain executive officers and directors of the Company own ADSs and such executive officers or directors do not currently intend to tender such ADSs or the underlying Series V Shares held of record or beneficially owned by them into the Offers or the Movil Access Offers.

Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement and Escrow Agreement, the Securities owned by the Principal Shareholders and deposited with the Escrow Agent have been tendered in the Movil Access Mexican Offer by the Escrow Agent on behalf of the Principal Shareholders, and the Series V Shares owned by the Verizon Shareholders held in the form of ADSs were converted into Series V Shares and have been tendered by the Verizon Shareholders in the Movil Access Mexican Offer. On July 25, 2003, the Company received a letter from the Verizon Shareholders and Vodafone stating that they would not withdraw the Verizon Shares and the Vodafone Shares from the Movil Access Offers and, as a result, would not tender any Securities into the Offers.

Item 5. Person/Assets, Retained, Employed, Compensated or Used

Neither the Company nor any person acting on its behalf has or currently intends to employ, retain or compensate any person to make solicitations or recommendations to holders of Series A Shares, Series V Shares or ADSs on its behalf with respect to the Offers.
