LG Electronics and Matsushita Settle PDP Patent Disputes

Seoul, Korea and Tokyo, Japan - LG Electronics, Inc. (LG Electronics) and Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd. (Matsushita) today announced that the two companies have reached a basic agreement to resolve the legal procedures by a settlement with respect to patents relating to plasma display panel (PDP) brought in Japan and Korea.

Under the agreement, the companies dismissed the applications of the import suspension and other legal actions in Korea and Japan, as to their respective PDP patents.

As part of the settlement, the two companies have agreed to enter into a cross-licensing agreement regarding PC and DVD specifications as well as PDP patents.

LG Electronics and Matsushita welcome an early settlement of the pending disputes. As a result of the settlement, the companies reconfirmed continued cooperation in other business areas.

Edgar Filing: MATSUSHITA ELECTRIC INDUSTRIAL CO LTD - Form 6-K

In addition, LG Electronics and Matsushita agreed to set up a Business Collaboration Committee to further explore potential collaboration areas.

The companies have been maintaining a good relationship since January 2001 when they agreed to form a business collaboration team in the field of residential air conditioners.

Matsushita Comments on Media Report

about the Company's Consolidated Net Profit Forecast for Fiscal 2006

Edgar Filing: MATSUSHITA ELECTRIC INDUSTRIAL CO LTD - Form 6-K

Osaka, Japan, April 25, 2005 Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd. (NYSE symbol: MC) commented on media reports about the company's consolidated financial forecast for the year ending March 31, 2006 (fiscal 2006), which were reported today (April 25, 2005) by the Nihon Keizai Shimbun.

Specifically, the references to net profit doubling from the same period a year ago to 100 billion yen are based on conjecture by the media, and not on any official announcements by Matsushita.

The company currently intends to announce its forecast for fiscal 2006 consolidated results on April 28, 2005, at the same time financial results for fiscal 2005 are announced.

MATSUSHITA REPORTS MARCH 2005 ANNUAL RESULTS

- Digital AV products, Home Appliances Contribute to Earnings Gains -

Osaka, Japan, April 28, 2005 Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd. (Matsushita [NYSE symbol: MC]) today reported its annual financial results for the year ended March 31, 2005 (fiscal 2005).

Consolidated Results¹

Consolidated group sales for fiscal 2005 increased 16%, to 8,713.6 billion yen (U.S.$81.44 billion), from 7,479.7 billion yen in the previous fiscal year. Explaining fiscal 2005 results, the company cited sales gains in digital audiovisual (AV) equipment and home appliances, especially V-products, and the addition of Matsushita Electric Works, Ltd. (MEW), PanaHome Corporation (PanaHome) and their respective subsidiaries to the company's consolidated financial results. Of the consolidated group total, domestic sales increased 32% to 4,580.5 billion yen ($42.81 billion), compared with 3,477.5 billion yen a year ago. Overseas sales were up by 3%, to 4,133.1 billion yen ($38.63 billion), from 4,002.2 billion yen in fiscal 2004. Excluding the effects of currency translation, overseas sales increased 6% from a year ago on a local currency basis².

¹ On April 1, 2004, Matsushita acquired a controlling interest in MEW. As a result, MEW, PanaHome and their respective subsidiaries became consolidated subsidiaries of the company. Fiscal 2005 consolidated results include the results of these subsidiaries on a full consolidated basis. For more information, see Notes 6 and 11 of Notes to consolidated financial statements on pages 13 to 15.

² Sales on a local currency basis is not a measure conforming with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP). However, the company believes that this measure is useful to investors in promoting understanding of the company's business conditions by excluding the influence of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations.

During the first half of the fiscal year under review, the overall economic situation in Japan was favorable, characterized by increased consumer spending, due mainly to an unusually hot summer and demand related to the Athens Olympics. In the second half, however, concerns arose regarding a downturn in components and devices industries and price declines in digital products, as well as rising raw materials costs, including crude oil prices. Overseas, the global economy slowed somewhat in the second half. The U.S. economy, however, continued steady progress with strong consumer spending, mainly a result of an improved U.S. employment situation. Meanwhile, the economy in China also continued high growth. Accordingly, the global economic situation, as a whole, remained stable.

As the first year of the new mid-term management plan Leap Ahead 21, fiscal 2005 was viewed as a time for the company to implement initiatives to achieve growth and strengthen management structures at each business domain company.

Matsushita strived to enhance profitability in fiscal 2005 by launching a new line of V-products, expanding simultaneous global product introductions and increasing sales of home appliances. Meanwhile, through collaboration activities with MEW, the company integrated overlapping businesses and reformed distribution channels to establish an optimized, customer-oriented business structure. As a result, Matsushita will provide customers all over the world with solutions for comfortable living in the home and office. Other initiatives included the selection and concentration of management resources at each business domain company, the acceleration of business and organizational restructuring, company-wide cost reduction activities and the reduction of total assets, mainly inventories, all aimed at strengthening the company's financial condition.

Regarding earnings, negative factors such as a strong yen, increased raw materials costs and intensified global price competition were more than offset by sales gains, comprehensive cost reduction efforts and other positive factors. As a result, consolidated operating profit³ for the year increased 58%, to 308.5 billion yen ($2.88 billion), compared with 195.5 billion yen in the previous year. During fiscal 2005, the company incurred restructuring charges of 93.2 billion yen ($871 million), while recording a 31.5 billion yen ($295 million) gain from the transfer of the substitutional portion of the Employees Pension Funds (EPF) to the Government⁴ in certain of the company's subsidiaries. These, and other factors, resulted in a pre-tax income of 246.9 billion yen ($2.31 billion), up 45% from 170.8 billion yen last year. Net income for the full fiscal year totaled 58.5 billion yen ($547 million), an increase of 39% from 42.1 billion yen in the previous year. Net income per common share for the fiscal year was 25.49 yen ($0.24) on a diluted basis, versus a net income per common share of 18.00 yen a year ago.

Consolidated Sales Breakdown by Product Category

Effective April 1, 2004, the company reclassified its previous five product categories (AVC Networks, Home Appliances, Components and Devices, JVC, and Other) into six new product categories to reflect the consolidation of MEW, PanaHome and their respective subsidiaries. The six new product categories are: AVC Networks, Home Appliances, Components and Devices, MEW and PanaHome, JVC, and Other.

The company's annual consolidated sales by reclassified product category, as compared with prior year amounts, are summarized as follows:

AVC Networks

AVC Networks sales decreased 2% to 3,558.8 billion yen ($33.26 billion), compared with 3,624.1 billion yen in the previous year. Within this category, sales of video and audio equipment increased 5% from a year ago, as strong sales in flat-panel TVs, digital cameras, and other digital AV equipment were more than sufficient to offset sluggish sales in VCRs and audio equipment.

³ For information about operating profit, see Note 2 of Notes to consolidated financial statements on page 13.

⁴ For information about the transfer of the substitutional portion of the EPF to the Government, see Note 7 of Notes to consolidated financial statements on pages 13 and 14.

Table of Contents

Sales of information and communications equipment were down 6% from fiscal 2004. Although increased sales were recorded for PCs and automotive electronics, sales declines in cellular phones for overseas markets in addition to slow sales of telephones and facsimile machines led to an overall decline.

Home Appliances

Sales of Home Appliances increased 2% to 1,217.9 billion yen ($11.38 billion), compared with 1,189.1 billion yen in the previous year. Within Home Appliances, sales gains were achieved through unique products, such as new washer/dryers, while an unusually hot summer in Japan contributed to increased sales of air conditioners and compressors.

Components and Devices

Sales of Components and Devices decreased 3% to 1,112.5 billion yen ($10.40 billion), compared with 1,142.4 billion yen in the previous year. Sales in semiconductors, the key component in digital products, recorded solid gains for the full fiscal year, despite relatively weak sales in the second half. Meanwhile, sales in electric motors and batteries decreased, resulting in overall lower sales in this category.

MEW and PanaHome

Sales of MEW and PanaHome (MEW, PanaHome and their respective subsidiaries) totaled 1,497.6 billion yen ($14.00 billion).

JVC

Sales for JVC (Victor Company of Japan, Ltd. and its subsidiaries) totaled 717.8 billion yen ($6.71 billion), down 11% from 802.7 billion yen a year ago. Although sales in AV equipment increased in the Japanese domestic market, sales were down in the Americas and Europe, with sales of software also down from a year ago.

Other

Sales for Other decreased 16% to 609.0 billion yen ($5.69 billion), from 721.4 billion yen a year ago. Although steady sales were recorded in factory automation (FA) equipment and industrial-use equipment, the reclassification of MEW products (those traditionally sold through the parent company) into a new product category (MEW and PanaHome) resulted in overall lower sales in this category.

Non-Consolidated (Parent Company Alone) Results

Parent-alone sales increased 2% to 4,145.7 billion yen, from 4,081.4 billion yen in the previous year. Strong sales of the company's V-products, particularly digital AV products and home appliances contributed to overall sales gains.

Regarding parent-alone earnings, the increase in sales and various cost reduction initiatives resulted in a parent-alone operating profit of 88.4 billion yen, up 88% from 46.9 billion yen in fiscal 2004. Recurring profit increased 11% to 116.3 billion yen, compared with 105.2 billion yen in the previous year, mainly a result of an increase in dividend income, and increases in allowances for investment losses. The parent company recorded a non-recurring income of 20.3 billion yen related to the sale of securities, and a non-recurring loss of 34.9 billion yen in restructuring charges. These factors resulted in a parent-alone net income of 73.5 billion yen, up 23% from 59.4 billion yen for fiscal 2004.

Consolidated Financial Condition

Net cash provided by operating activities in fiscal 2005 amounted to 478.4 billion yen ($4.47 billion), primarily attributable to improved net income, an increase in depreciation, and reduction of inventories. Net cash used in investing activities amounted to 178.3 billion yen ($1.67 billion), due mainly to capital expenditures for tangible fixed assets of 352.2 billion yen ($3.29 billion) in priority business areas such as plasma display panel (PDP) TVs and semiconductors, despite an increase in cash resulting from the consolidation of MEW and PanaHome. Net cash used in financing activities was 419.5 billion yen ($3.92 billion). Major factors included repurchase of the company's common stock and repayments of long-term debt. All these activities resulted in cash and cash equivalents of 1,169.8 billion yen ($10.93 billion) at the end of fiscal 2005, whereby the company maintained a healthy cash balance.

The company's consolidated total assets as of March 31, 2005 increased 618.9 billion yen to 8,056.9 billion yen ($75.30 billion), as compared to 7,438.0 billion yen at the end of the last fiscal year (March 31, 2004). The consolidation of MEW and PanaHome led to an increase in assets of 1,043.3 billion yen, while the company implemented initiatives to decrease assets, including reduction of inventories. Stockholders' equity increased 92.7 billion yen, as compared with the end of fiscal 2004, to 3,544.3 billion yen ($33.12 billion). This increase was due to an increase in retained earnings and accumulated other comprehensive income, owing to the return to the Government of the substitutional portion of the EPF that resulted in a decrease in minimum pension liability adjustments, despite an increase in treasury stock on continued repurchases of the company's own shares.

Proposed Year-end Dividend

Total dividends for fiscal 2005, including an interim dividend of 7.50 yen per common share paid in November 2004, are expected to be 15.00 yen per common share, as compared with 14.00 yen for fiscal 2004.

Outlook for Fiscal 2006

Regarding the business environment for the fiscal year 2006, ending March 31, 2006, the company currently expects to encounter severe conditions, such as ever-intensifying price declines and rising raw materials prices, including crude oil prices, as well as uncertainty regarding economic conditions in the United States, Europe and China. Under these circumstances, Matsushita views fiscal 2006 as critical to the success of its Leap Ahead 21 plan for the three-year period ending March 2007. Accordingly, Matsushita is making efforts to achieve the goals of the plan by enhancing product competitiveness and management structures. The company currently expects fiscal 2006 sales on a consolidated basis to total approximately 8,720 billion yen, mostly unchanged from the previous year. Consolidated operating profit is forecasted to increase by about 7% to approximately 330 billion yen. Consolidated income before income taxes⁵ is anticipated to increase to approximately 290 billion yen, up 17%, with net income expected to improve to about 110 billion yen, an increase of 88% from the previous fiscal year.

Similarly, on a parent company alone basis, Matsushita expects sales in fiscal 2006 to total 4,150 billion yen, approximately the same level as the previous year. Recurring profit is projected to increase by 16%, to approximately 135 billion yen, and net income is forecasted to increase 50% to approximately 110 billion yen.

⁵ Factors affecting the forecast for other income (deductions) of 40 billion yen (the difference between operating profit and income before income taxes) include business restructuring charges of 35 billion yen and other expenses of 5 billion yen.

Notes to consolidated financial statements:

1. The company's consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP).
2. In order to be consistent with generally accepted financial reporting practices in Japan, operating profit is presented as net sales less cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses. The company believes that this is useful to investors in comparing the company's financial results with those of other Japanese companies. Please refer to the accompanying consolidated statement of income and Note 5 for U.S. GAAP reconciliation.
3. The company defines "Capital investment" as purchases of property, plant and equipment on an accrual basis which reflects the effects of timing differences between acquisition dates and payment dates. The company has included the information concerning capital investment because its management uses this indicator to manage its capital expenditures and it believes that such indicator is useful to investors to present accrual basis capital investments in addition to the cash basis information in its consolidated cash flow statement.

The following table shows a reconciliation of capital investment to purchases of property, plant and equipment and intangible and other assets:

	Yen (millions)
	Fiscal year ended March 31,
	2005	2004
Purchases of property, plant and equipment shown as capital expenditures in consolidated statements of cash flows	352,203	275,544
Effects of timing difference between acquisition dates and payment dates	22,050	(4,253)
Capital investment	374,253	271,291

Edgar Filing: MATSUSHITA ELECTRIC INDUSTRIAL CO LTD - Form 6-K

Comprehensive income was reported as a gain of 219,606 million yen ($2,052 million) for fiscal 2005, and a gain of 348,285 million yen for fiscal 2004. Comprehensive income includes net income and increases (decreases) in cumulative translation adjustments, unrealized holding gains (losses) of available-for-sale securities, unrealized gains (losses) of certain derivative instruments and minimum pension liability adjustments.

5. Restructuring charges in Other income (deductions) of the consolidated statements of income for fiscal 2005 and fiscal 2004 include expenses associated with the implementation of early retirement programs at certain domestic companies. Under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, these charges are included as part of operating profit in the statement of income.

6. On April 1, 2004, the company acquired 19.2% of the issued common shares of MEW through a tender offer, of which the company had a 31.8% equity ownership until then, to obtain its controlling interest. This acquisition also resulted in another acquisition of controlling interest of PanaHome because both the company and MEW have 27% equity ownership. The acquired assets and assumed liabilities on April 1, 2004 are as shown below. As a result, the total assets at the beginning of the period increased 1,043,282 million yen, the balance that deducts 343,844 million yen, the company's new basis of investment in MEW and PanaHome upon the acquisition of additional shares, from 1,387,126 million yen, the total assets acquired.

7. Employees Pension Funds in certain of the company's subsidiaries obtained approvals from Japan's Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare (the Ministry) for exemption from the past benefit obligation with respect to the portion of the Employees Pension Funds that certain of the company's subsidiaries operated for the Government (the so-called substitutional portion), and transferred the substitutional portion to the Government in fiscal 2005. The gain of 31,509 million yen for fiscal 2005 from the transfer of the substitutional portion of the Japanese Welfare Pension Insurance is reported as other income in the consolidated statement of income.

Matsushita Electric Welfare Pension Funds and Employees Pension Funds in the company's subsidiaries obtained approval from the Ministry for exemption from the past benefit obligation with respect to the substitutional portion and transferred it to the Government in December 2003. Income related to the transfer of the substitutional portion of the Employees Pension Funds is reported as other income of 72,228 million yen for fiscal 2004 in the consolidated statement of income.

8. On April 1, 2005, Matsushita transferred 2,707 thousand shares of Matsushita Leasing & Credit Co., Ltd. (MLC) to The Sumitomo Trust & Banking Co., Ltd. (STB) pursuant to a basic agreement regarding the equity ownership of MLC concluded between the company and STB. As a result of the transfer, Matsushita now owns 34% of MLC's total issued shares. MLC (scheduled to be renamed Sumishin Matsushita Financial Services Co., Ltd. on May 1, 2005) was changed from a consolidated subsidiary to an equity method company of Matsushita as of April 1, 2005.

9. With the aim of maximizing shareholder value, the Board of Directors today approved plans to increase total cash dividends per share and own share repurchases for fiscal 2006, ending March 2006. Also, the Board of Directors today decided to adopt a policy toward large-scale purchases of Matsushita shares (ESV* Plan).

For fiscal 2006, Matsushita plans to increase total dividends per share to 20.00 yen, as compared with the planned 15.00 yen for fiscal 2005. The company will continue to repurchase the company's own shares, up to 120 million shares for a maximum of 150 billion yen in fiscal 2006, to enhance shareholder value per share.

Under the basic philosophy that shareholders should make final decisions regarding large-scale purchases of Matsushita shares, sufficient information should be provided through the Board of Directors to shareholders if a large-scale purchase is to be conducted. Under the above-mentioned basic philosophy, the Board of Directors decided to adopt a new rule applicable to large-scale purchasers who intend to acquire 20% or more of all voting rights of Matsushita. The new rules require that (i) a large-scale purchaser provide sufficient information to the Board of Directors before a large-scale purchase is to be conducted and (ii) after all required information is provided, the Board of Directors should be allowed a sufficient period of time during which it will assess, examine, negotiate, form an opinion and seek alternatives. In the event of non-compliance with such rules by a prospective large-scale purchaser, the Board of Directors may take countermeasures.

*ESV stands for Enhancement of Shareholder Value

10. Regarding consolidated segment profit, expenses for basic research and administrative expenses at the corporate headquarters level are treated as unallocatable expenses for each business segment, and are included in Corporate and eliminations.

11. The company's business segments are classified according to a business domain-based management system, which focuses on global consolidated management by each business domain, in order to ensure consistency of its internal management structure and disclosure. MEW, PanaHome and their respective subsidiaries became consolidated subsidiaries of the company on April 1, 2004. Accordingly, a new segment, MEW and PanaHome, has been added to the company's business segment classifications from this fiscal year (fiscal 2005).

Management Policy

(1) Basic Policy for Corporate Management

Since its establishment, Matsushita has operated its businesses under its basic management philosophy, which sets forth that the mission of a business enterprise is contributing to the progress and development of society and the well-being of people through its business activities, thereby enhancing the quality of life throughout the world. Matsushita, as a public entity, is committed to its relationships with all stakeholders.

(2) Basic Policy for Providing Return to Shareholders

Since the company's founding, Matsushita has managed its businesses in a manner reflecting the company's belief in the importance of profit return to shareholders. Historically, Matsushita has distributed dividends at a consistent level to shareholders. In fiscal 2005, ended March 2005, however, along with the implementation of a new mid-term growth strategy, Matsushita changed the company's policy regarding returns to shareholders, which historically emphasized a stable level of dividends, to a new policy which takes into consideration its consolidated business performance.

Specifically, Matsushita will provide return to shareholders through dividend payments and own share repurchases, upon careful consideration of consolidated cash flows.

1) Dividends:

From the perspective of return on the capital investment made by shareholders, Matsushita will, in principle, distribute profits to shareholders based on its consolidated business performance. Matsushita also aims for promoting stable and continuous growth of return to shareholders, while at the same time taking into consideration various factors including mid-term business performance, capital expenditure requirements and the company's financial condition.

2) Own share repurchases:

Matsushita will provide return to shareholders by enhancing shareholder value per share through a reduction, in effect, of the number of outstanding shares. This will be accomplished by repurchasing the company's own shares with surplus cash flows.

Edgar Filing: MATSUSHITA ELECTRIC INDUSTRIAL CO LTD - Form 6-K

In line with the policy described above, for fiscal 2005 Matsushita distributed an interim cash dividend of 7.50 yen per common share, and also plans to pay 7.50 yen per common share as the year-end cash dividend, subject to approval at the company's ordinary general meeting of shareholders to be held in June 2005. If implemented, total cash dividends for fiscal 2005 will be 15.00 yen per common share, or a dividend payout ratio of 47.0%.

For details about own share repurchases and annual dividends for fiscal 2006, ending March 2006, see separate press releases issued today, Matsushita to Execute Own Share Repurchase and Matsushita Announces Plans to Increase Dividends for Fiscal 2006.

(3) Company's Policy on Reduction of the Share Trading Unit Size

Amendments to the Japanese Commercial Code that took effect in October 2001 allow listed companies to reduce the number of shares per unit for trading (share trading unit) on stock markets in Japan. Matsushita has given careful consideration as to whether or not it should avail itself to this eased restriction, but as of today, the company believes it is too early to do so. Recognizing the importance of increased participation in capital markets by individual investors, Matsushita, over the years, has implemented various measures with individual shareholders in mind. Some of these include renewal of the company's investor relations website, more detailed business reports to shareholders and improved general shareholder meeting arrangements. Since Matsushita is aware that a reduction in the share trading unit size is an effective method for broadening its individual shareholder base, the company will continue to discuss and evaluate possible benefits resulting from a reduction in the share trading unit size.

(4) Corporate Management Strategies and Challenges

The Matsushita Group aims to achieve, through cutting-edge technologies, global excellence in 2010 by pursuing the two visions of contributing to the realization of a ubiquitous networking society and coexistence with the global environment. The company therefore views fiscal 2006 as critical to the success of the new management plan Leap Ahead 21 for the three-year period ending March 2007. Accordingly, Matsushita will make efforts aimed at achieving the goals of the plan by accelerating growth and building corporate strength.

<Major Activities Undertaken in Fiscal 2005>

As the first year of the mid-term plan, fiscal 2005 was viewed as a time for the company to strengthen management structures within each of the various business domains and implement initiatives that would result in sustainable growth. The following are results achieved in fiscal 2005.

- Matsushita aggressively launched a new line of V-products to capture top shares in high-volume markets and make a significant contribution to overall business results. At the same time, the company strengthened company-wide marketing efforts for these products. Matsushita also increased global sales of digital AV equipment, notably PDP TVs and digital cameras, primarily through simultaneous global product introductions. In home appliances, such products as unique washer/dryers with a tilted drum and oxygen enriching air conditioners enjoyed steady sales gains in Japan.

- Through collaboration activities with MEW, the two companies unified brands and product designs, opened joint showrooms and introduced a series of Collaboration V-products that incorporate black-box technologies of both companies. Matsushita and MEW also integrated overlapping businesses in the areas of electrical supplies, building materials and equipment, home appliances and industrial equipment, and reformed distribution channels to establish an optimized, customer-oriented operational structure. Through such collaboration, Matsushita will provide customers all over the world with solutions for comfortable living in the home and office.
- The company carried out structural reforms through selection and concentration of management resources into priority areas and restructuring of locations. These reforms were carried out autonomously by each business domain company. Meanwhile, efforts to reduce material procurement costs and other expenses, including a company-wide Cost Busters Project, have enhanced profitability. Matsushita made all-out efforts to reduce inventories, thereby strengthening the company's financial condition.

<Principal Initiatives for Fiscal 2006>

1. Product Strategy

Essential to Matsushita's overall product strategy are V-products. For fiscal 2006 Matsushita intends to continuously develop V-products with emphasis on the creation of black-box technologies, universal design concepts and eco-friendly innovations, with sales expected to reach 1.5 trillion yen in 67 product categories. The company will also expand simultaneous global product introductions to include more models in a wide variety of product categories. Furthermore, Matsushita will promote digital AV equipment such as flat-panel TVs, DVD recorders and digital cameras in global markets, while aggressively marketing unique washer/dryers and other high value-added products.

2. R&D and Intellectual Property Strategies

Matsushita places top priority on becoming a technology- and intellectual property-oriented company, where new products based on proprietary black-box technologies lead to enhanced business results. To this end, the company is concentrating management resources into technologies for the next decade, such as fuel cell co-generation systems and other cutting-edge fields. In fiscal 2006 Matsushita will significantly increase product development speed thanks to the new UniPhier™ system LSI. UniPhier™ is a unified platform that integrates hardware and software for a wide range of digital products. Matsushita expects this new platform to result in product R&D that is at least five times more efficient than traditional non-platform R&D. Regarding intellectual properties, the company will continue to strengthen the competitiveness of its businesses worldwide by strategically utilizing the results of R&D in the form of patent applications and patent rights on a global basis.

Table of Contents

- 26 -

3. Investment Strategy

Matsushita will continue to focus investment into strategic businesses, including semiconductors, particularly advanced system LSIs, which are the key components in digital products, and PDP TVs, for which global demand is expected to increase significantly. In semiconductors, Matsushita is investing approximately 130 billion yen from fiscal 2005 in a new factory for state-of-the-art system LSIs in Uozu, Japan, where operations are expected to begin at the end of 2005. The company is also investing some 95 billion yen from fiscal 2005 in a new PDP factory in Amagasaki, Japan, where operations are expected to begin in autumn of 2005. Including the new factory, Matsushita's total PDP production capacity will increase to 4.8 million units per year by March 2007, thereby further augmenting one of the world's largest manufacturing operations.

4. Overseas Strategy

Matsushita will continue initiatives to strengthen overseas operations, which the company views as a growth engine contributing to overall enhanced profitability. China, in particular, is key to achieving growth overseas. In this market, the company aims for sales of approximately 1 trillion yen in fiscal 2007. To achieve this goal, Matsushita is developing and launching high value-added products, placing greater emphasis on sales at high-volume retailers and augmenting the company's IT infrastructures.

5. Collaboration with MEW

Through collaboration with MEW, Matsushita will strategically utilize the management resources of both companies. Specifically, Matsushita will provide customers with solutions for comfortable living through the successive launch of Collaboration V-products and the establishment of a systems solutions business, including security and energy control management, effectively integrating the technologies, products and services of both Matsushita and MEW.

6. Strengthened Management Structure

Matsushita will implement the Next Cell Production Project to improve cost competitiveness, while minimizing inventories, thus strengthening its management structure and increasing profitability through a Second Corporate Cost Busters Project to eliminate redundancies throughout all areas.

(5) Corporate Governance, Concept and Initiatives

1. Corporate Governance Structure

[The Board of Directors and Executive Officer System]

Under its basic philosophy of contributing to society as a public entity, Matsushita has long been committed to enhancing its corporate governance. As such, it was one of the first Japanese companies to invite Outside Directors to serve on its Board of Directors, and also established an Advisory Board comprised of distinguished outside leaders. In fiscal 2004, ended March 2004, Matsushita implemented reforms to establish an optimum management and governance structure tailored to the group's new business domain-based organizational structure. Under the new structure, Matsushita has empowered each of its business domain companies through delegation of authority. At the same time, the company set up an Executive Officer System to provide for the execution of business at its various domestic and overseas group companies. This facilitates the development of optimum corporate strategies that integrate the group's comprehensive strengths. In addition, Matsushita realigned the role and structure of the Board of Directors to ensure swift and strategic decision-making, as well as the optimum monitoring of group-wide matters. Specifically, the Board of Directors can now concentrate on corporate strategies and the supervision of business domain companies, while Executive Officers handle responsibilities relating to day-to-day operations. Taking into consideration the diversified scope of its business operations, Matsushita has opted to maintain a system where Executive Officers, who are most familiar with the specifics of their respective operations, take an active part in the Board of Directors. To clarify the responsibilities of Directors and create a more dynamic organization, the company has limited the term of each Director to one year.

[Corporate Auditors and the Board of Corporate Auditors]

Pursuant to the Commercial Code of Japan and the relevant laws and ordinances, Matsushita has established a Board of Corporate Auditors, which monitors the status of corporate governance and keeps abreast of the day-to-day activities of management, including the Board of Directors. Corporate Auditors participate in shareholder meetings and Board of Directors meetings, and have legal authority to receive reports from directors, employees and accounting auditors. Full-time Senior Auditors also attend important management meetings and conduct checks in order to ensure effective monitoring. To augment the internal auditing functions in business domain companies, Matsushita has assigned Full-time Auditors at each internal divisional company. It also inaugurated regular Group Auditor Meetings to enhance their collaboration with the Corporate Auditors at Matsushita subsidiaries.

2. Internal Control Structure

[Corporate Business Ethics and Compliance]

In 1992, Matsushita formulated its Code of Conduct, a set of guidelines explaining the company's business philosophy in an easy-to-understand manner. After a revision in 1998, the Code was again amended to the Code of Conduct of the Matsushita Group in January 2005, making it more applicable to global- and group-wide operations from the standpoint of corporate social responsibility (CSR). The Code now applies to all Directors, Executive Officers, and employees of the Matsushita Group. Moreover, Directors and Executive Officers in charge of ensuring observance of the code were appointed at each group company. In February 2004, the company established a Code of Ethics for Directors and Executive Officers. Matsushita also set up a Corporate Business Ethics Hotline, enabling employees to get advice on work-related and other matters.

In March 2003, the company established a Corporate Compliance Committee chaired by the President, and composed of Directors and Corporate Auditors. It also compiled an in-house handbook, called the Corporate Compliance Guide, as a concise guidebook explaining the rules and regulations. Matsushita is making concerted efforts to increase awareness of these rules and regulations among all employees. With respect to information security, in January 2004, Matsushita established the Corporate Information Security Division as part of efforts to effectively manage information and ensure the proper education and training of all Directors, Executive Officers and employees.

[Risk Management]

Matsushita faces a wide variety of risks, and continues to reinforce its risk management capabilities accordingly. In April 2005, the company established the Global and Group (G&G) Risk Management Committee, thus reforming the framework for collecting and evaluating risk information across the group on a global basis. Under this framework, the company will establish a risk management committee to undertake the unified collection of risk-related information from each business domain company and regional headquarters. Matsushita will thus continue strengthening risk management to assure swift and appropriate responses to risk.

[Internal Controls over Financial Reporting]

Matsushita has documented appropriate systems and procedures in its operations, from the control environment up to actual internal control activities. In each business domain company, it has appointed Internal Auditing Managers, who check the compliance status and effectiveness of internal controls. These activities are supervised by the Corporate Internal Auditing Group in order to ensure the reliability of each company's financial reporting. In fiscal 2005, the company reinforced its internal controls by implementing self-checks and self-assessment programs, in addition to regular internal auditing, in each business domain company.

[Establishment of Information Disclosure Structure and Execution of Accountability]

To enhance transparency and ensure the accountability of its business, the company established the Disclosure Committee, consisting of managers from departments that handle relevant information. The Committee checks the propriety of statements and descriptions in the company's annual securities report submitted to the Japanese regulatory authorities, the annual report on Form 20-F and the annual report for all stakeholders, while confirming the appropriateness and effectiveness of disclosure controls and procedures.

[Accounting Audit]

As of March 31, 2005, the company has a contract with KPMG AZSA & Co., which is in charge of conducting accounting audits of the company.

Names of the certified public accountants in charge of accounting audits of the company and the audit corporation they are employed by are as follows:

Name of certified public accountants in charge of accounting audits of the company		Name of Audit Corporation	Consecutive years of auditing

4. Policy toward Large-scale Purchases of Matsushita Shares

With the aim of maximizing shareholder value, Matsushita implements shareholder-oriented management. The company established a new policy regarding large-scale purchases of the company's shares in light of the protection of the interests of all shareholders. If a large-scale purchase of Matsushita shares is to be conducted, Matsushita requires the prospective large-scale purchasers to provide sufficient information and to grant Matsushita's Board of Directors a sufficient period of time to assess the information so provided. The Board of Directors will assess and examine the proposed large-scale purchase for the benefit of all shareholders of Matsushita, and carefully form and disclose its opinion. The Board of Directors will also provide shareholders with information as necessary so that they may make appropriate decisions in regards to the proposed large-scale purchase. In addition, Matsushita's Board of Directors may, as it deems necessary, negotiate with prospective large-scale purchasers to improve the terms of the proposal or offer alternative plans to shareholders.

For further details, see separate press release issued today, Matsushita Announces Policy toward Large-scale Purchases of Matsushita Shares \(ESV Plan\).

 The company defines capital investment as purchases of property, plant and equipment on an accrual basis which reflects the effects of timing differences between acquisition dates and payment dates. The company has included the information concerning capital investment because its management uses this indicator to manage its capital expenditures and it believes that such indicator is useful to investors to present accrual basis capital investments in addition to the cash basis information in its consolidated cash flow statement.

The following table shows a reconciliation of capital investment to purchases of property, plant and equipment and intangible and other assets:

* The forecast for fiscal 2006 is based on the assumption that the number of common shares does not change. As announced in a press release issued today Matsushita to Execute Own Share Repurchase, the company plans to repurchase up to 120 million shares of its own stock for a maximum of 150 billion yen, from May 2, 2005 to late March 2006. If implemented, net income per common share (diluted basis) for fiscal 2006 would be approximately 50 yen.

* In order to be consistent with generally accepted financial reporting practices in Japan, operating profit is presented as net sales less cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses. The company believes that this is useful to investors in comparing the company's financial results with those of other Japanese companies.

 Factors affecting the forecast for other income (deductions) of 40 billion yen (the difference between operating profit and income before income taxes) include business restructuring charges of 35 billion yen and other expenses of 5 billion yen.

Disclaimer Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document includes forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934) about Matsushita and its Group companies (the Matsushita Group). To the extent that statements in this document do not relate to historical or current facts, they constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the current assumptions and beliefs of the Matsushita Group in light of the information currently available to it, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause the Matsushita Group's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or financial position expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Matsushita undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements after the date of this document. Investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by Matsushita in its subsequent filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The risks, uncertainties and other factors referred to above include, but are not limited to, economic conditions, particularly consumer spending and corporate capital expenditures in the United States, Europe, Japan, China, and other Asian countries; volatility in demand for electronic equipment and components from business and industrial customers, as well as consumers in many product and geographical markets; currency rate fluctuations, notably between the yen, the U.S. dollar, the euro, Asian currencies and other currencies in which the Matsushita Group operates businesses, or in which assets and liabilities of the Matsushita Group are denominated; the ability of the Matsushita Group to respond to rapid technological changes and changing consumer preferences with timely and cost-effective introductions of new products in markets that are highly competitive in terms of both price and technology; the ability of the Matsushita Group to achieve its business objectives through joint ventures and other collaborative agreements with other companies; the ability of the Matsushita Group to maintain competitive strength in many product and geographical areas; current and potential, direct and indirect restrictions imposed by other countries over trade, manufacturing, labor and operations; fluctuations in market prices of securities and other assets in which the Matsushita Group has holdings; future changes or revisions to accounting policies or accounting rules; as well as natural disasters including earthquakes and other events that may negatively impact business activities of the Matsushita Group.

Matsushita Announces Plans to Maximize Shareholder Value

Edgar Filing: MATSUSHITA ELECTRIC INDUSTRIAL CO LTD - Form 6-K

Osaka, Japan, April 28, 2005 Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd. (Matsushita [NYSE symbol: MC]), best known for its Panasonic brand, announced that with the aim of maximizing shareholder value, Matsushita has implemented a wide range of initiatives, including business restructuring and the establishment of a business domain-based organizational structure. For the year ending March 31, 2006 (fiscal 2006), which is the midpoint in Matsushita's 3-year Leap Ahead 21 plan, the company will continue to accelerate growth strategies. Furthermore, the company will proactively return profits resulting from achievement of the Leap Ahead 21 plan to shareholders. Meanwhile, Matsushita decided to adopt a policy regarding potential large-scale purchases of Matsushita shares. Specifically, prospective large-scale purchasers would be required to provide Matsushita's Board of Directors with sufficient information about such large-scale purchases, including the purpose, basis for determination of purchase price and other relevant details. The reason for adopting this policy is to provide shareholders of Matsushita with sufficient information to make appropriate decisions regarding large-scale purchases of Matsushita shares. The policy would also stipulate that sufficient time be allowed Matsushita's Board of Directors to evaluate information provided by the prospective large-scale purchaser. Matsushita will continue to implement policies that enhance transparency of the company's management, based on the basic philosophy that the final decision regarding any large-scale purchase of Matsushita shares principally rests with shareholders. In this way, Matsushita will continue to promote shareholder-oriented management, aiming to maximize shareholder value.

1. Acceleration of the Growth Strategy to Achieve Leap Ahead 21 Plan

The following are specific initiatives within the Leap Ahead 21 plan for fiscal 2006.

- 1) Establishment of a technology- and intellectual property-oriented company
- 2) Enhancement of product competitiveness through development of V-products
- 3) Aggressive strategic capital investments
- 4) Strengthening overseas businesses
- 5) Synergy benefits through collaboration between Matsushita and Matsushita Electric Works, Ltd. (MEW).

(see attachment for details about the above)

2. Proactive Return of Profits to Shareholders

In addition to carrying out initiatives within the Leap Ahead 21 plan, Matsushita will implement shareholder-oriented management by providing returns to shareholders based on consolidated business performance.

Basic Policy for Providing Return to Shareholders

Edgar Filing: MATSUSHITA ELECTRIC INDUSTRIAL CO LTD - Form 6-K

Matsushita aims to maximize shareholder value by enhancing its reputation in capital markets through the steady growth of its mid-term business performance and return of profits to shareholders, based on its consolidated business performance.

In particular, Matsushita will provide return to shareholders through dividend payments and own share repurchases, upon careful consideration of consolidated cash flows.

1) Dividends

Matsushita aims for promoting stable and continuous growth of return to shareholders, while at the same time taking into consideration various factors including mid-term business performance, capital expenditure requirements and the company's financial condition.

2) Own share repurchases

Matsushita will provide return to shareholders by enhancing shareholder value per share through a reduction, in effect, of the number of outstanding shares by way of repurchasing the company's own shares.

Return to Shareholders for Fiscal 2006, ending March 2006

1) Dividends

Matsushita plans to increase total dividends per share for fiscal 2006 to 20 yen (10 yen per share as an interim dividend and 10 yen per share for the year-end dividend), from the planned 15 yen for fiscal 2005, ended March 2005.

2) Own share repurchases

Matsushita will continue to repurchase the company's own shares to further enhance shareholder value per share. From May 2, 2005 to late March 2006, Matsushita plans to repurchase up to 120 million shares of its own stock for a maximum of 150 billion yen.

3. Policy toward Large-scale Purchases of Matsushita Shares (ESV* Plan)

With recent trends toward globalization of capital markets, corporate acquisitions are likely to increase in Japan. Under such circumstances, Matsushita believes that management with a mid- to long-term vision will maximize overall profit for shareholders, especially in the manufacturing industry, which can require 10 to 20 years to develop innovative technologies into products.

Under the basic philosophy that shareholders should make final decisions regarding large-scale purchases of Matsushita shares, Matsushita established a new policy regarding such potential purchases. The new policy outlines certain rules that the company believes are in the best interests of shareholders as a whole.

The above-mentioned rules stipulate that prospective large-scale purchasers (those who intend to acquire 20% or more of all voting rights) should provide, to Matsushita's Board of Directors, information such as an outline of the large-scale purchaser, the purpose and conditions of the large-scale purchase, the basis for determination of purchase price, funds procurement details, as well as any management policies or business plans that would be adopted after the completion of the large-scale purchase. Furthermore, the new rules require that a prospective large-scale purchaser grant Matsushita's Board of Directors a sufficient period of time (60 or 90 days) to assess the information provided. The Board of Directors will assess and examine the proposed large-scale purchase for the benefit of all shareholders of Matsushita, and subsequently disclose the opinion of the Board of Directors. Furthermore, the Board of Directors will provide shareholders with necessary information so that they may make appropriate decisions in regards to the proposed large-scale purchase. In addition, Matsushita's Board of Directors may, as it deems necessary, negotiate with prospective large-scale purchasers to improve the terms of the proposal or offer alternative plans to shareholders.

* ESV stands for Enhancement of Shareholder Value.

In the event of non-compliance with such rules by a prospective large-scale purchaser, the Board of Directors may take countermeasures, including stock splits or the issuance of stock acquisition rights, in order to protect the interests of shareholders as a whole. Matsushita today also filed a shelf registration statement with the Japanese regulatory authorities for possible issues of stock acquisition rights.

Acceleration of the Growth Strategy to Achieve Leap Ahead 21 Plan

1. Establishment of a technology- and intellectual property-oriented company

As a technology- and intellectual property-oriented company, Matsushita will continue to develop proprietary black-box technologies, while shifting management resources to priority R&D areas to achieve optimum results from R&D activities.

2. Enhancement of product competitiveness through development of V-products

Matsushita defines V-products as those that can attain top shares in high-volume markets and contribute to overall earnings. For fiscal 2006, Matsushita will continue to enhance V-products which include black-box technologies, eco-friendly innovations and incorporate universal design concepts. Matsushita aims for total sales of V-products in fiscal 2006 of 1.5 trillion yen for 67 product categories.

3. Aggressive strategic capital investments

Matsushita will continue to concentrate capital investment on strategic businesses, particularly plasma display panel (PDP) TVs, which are expected to contribute significantly to overall growth. As the key component in digital products, semiconductors are another focus of Matsushita's capital investment.

4. Strengthening overseas businesses

The enhancement of profitability in overseas businesses is essential to the Leap Ahead 21 plan. Matsushita places particular priority on the high-growth Chinese market, aiming for sales of 1 trillion yen in fiscal 2007, ending March 2007.

5. Synergy benefits through collaboration between Matsushita and MEW

Through collaboration with MEW, which became a consolidated subsidiary of the company in April 2004, Matsushita will combine the strengths of the two companies to provide customers with a wide range of comfortable living solutions. Matsushita also expects to achieve increased sales of approximately 100 billion yen over the two-year period of fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2007. This will be achieved by launching new Collaboration V-products, which combine technologies of both companies, as well as restructuring of overlapping businesses and distribution systems.

Matsushita Announces Policy toward

Large-scale Purchases of Matsushita Shares (ESV Plan)

Osaka, Japan, April 28, 2005 Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd. (Matsushita [NYSE symbol: MC]), best known for its Panasonic brand, today announced that its Board of Directors decided to adopt a policy toward (i) a purchase of Matsushita shares

by a group of shareholders¹ with the intent to hold 20% or more of the total voting rights² of Matsushita, or (ii) a purchase of Matsushita shares resulting in a group of shareholders holding 20% or more of the total voting rights of Matsushita (except for cases where Matsushita's Board of Directors has given consent in advance of the purchase set out in (i) or (ii) above.) A purchase of Matsushita shares set out in (i) or (ii) above shall be hereinafter referred to as a Large-scale Purchase. A person or a company that intends to conduct a Large-scale Purchase shall be hereinafter referred to as the Large-scale Purchaser. This policy shall also be hereinafter referred to as the ESV Plan³.

1. Basic Philosophy

Matsushita's Board of Directors believes that the company's shareholders should make the final decisions as to whether or not a Large-scale Purchase is acceptable. If a Large-scale Purchase is to be conducted, sufficient information should be provided through the Board of Directors to shareholders so that they may make appropriate decisions. The Board of Directors intends to assess and examine any proposed Large-scale Purchase after the information on such Large-scale Purchase is provided, and subsequently to disclose the opinion of the Board of Directors, to assist shareholders in making their decisions. The Board of Directors may negotiate with the Large-scale Purchaser or offer alternative plans to shareholders, if it is deemed necessary.

The Matsushita Group recorded consolidated net sales of 8,713.6 billion yen for fiscal 2005, ended March 31, 2005, and consists of 627 consolidated subsidiaries and 334,752 employees on a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2005. Taking into account the scale of the company's operations and the wide range of its business fields, Matsushita believes it would be helpful for shareholders to receive proper information from both the Large-scale Purchaser and the Board of Directors so that they may examine the terms of the Large-scale Purchase, including the adequacy of the purchase price. The company believes that if a Large-scale Purchase is to be conducted, shareholders should be made aware of its potential impact on the future management of the Matsushita Group, as well as management policies and business plans that the Large-scale Purchaser wishes to adopt, and the influence on other various stakeholders such as customers and employees, in order to determine whether or not the Large-scale Purchase is acceptable.

Under the basic philosophy mentioned above, Matsushita's Board of Directors has established rules concerning Large-scale Purchases of Matsushita shares (hereinafter referred to as the Large-scale Purchase Rules) as described below. The Board of Directors will require any Large-scale Purchaser to comply with these rules. If the Large-scale Purchaser does not comply with these rules, the Board of Directors intends to take certain countermeasures.

2. Large-scale Purchase Rules

Matsushita's Board of Directors believes that a Large-scale Purchaser should comply with the Large-scale Purchase Rules for the benefit of all shareholders of Matsushita. The Large-scale Purchase Rules require that (i) a Large-scale Purchaser provide sufficient information to the Board of Directors, and (ii) a Large-scale Purchaser be permitted to commence the Large-scale Purchase only after the prescribed period during which the Board of Directors assesses the Large-scale Purchase.

First, a Large-scale Purchaser is required to provide Matsushita's Board of Directors with sufficient information (hereinafter referred to as the Large-scale Purchase Information) so that the company's shareholders may make decisions and the Board of Directors may form its opinion regarding such Large-scale Purchase. The Large-scale Purchase Information includes the following:

- (1) an outline of the Large-scale Purchaser and its group;
- (2) the purposes and conditions of the Large-scale Purchase;
- (3) the basis for determination of the purchase price and funds for purchase; and
- (4) management policies and business plans which the Large-scale Purchaser intends to adopt after the completion of the Large-scale Purchase.

Since details of the Large-scale Purchase Information may vary depending on each specific Large-scale Purchase, the Board of Directors, first of all, requires the Large-scale Purchaser to submit to Matsushita a letter of intention to comply with the Large-scale Purchase Rules, specifying the name of the Large-scale Purchaser, address, governing law of incorporation, the name of the representative, contact details in Japan and an outline of the proposed Large-scale Purchase. Within five business days after receipt of such letter, the Board of Directors will deliver to the Large-scale Purchaser a list of the Large-scale Purchase Information to be initially provided by the Large-scale Purchaser. If the information initially provided by the Large-scale Purchaser is deemed insufficient as Large-scale Purchase Information, the Board of Directors may require additional information until it receives sufficient information. The Board of Directors will disclose the proposed Large-scale Purchase and all or part of the Large-scale Purchase Information submitted to the Board of Directors at the time it deems appropriate, if such disclosure is considered necessary for shareholders to make decisions.

After all the Large-scale Purchase Information is provided, Matsushita's Board of Directors should be allowed a sixty day period (in the case of the purchase of all Matsushita shares by a tender offer with cash-only (yen) consideration) or a ninety day period (in the case of any other Large-scale Purchase), depending on the difficulty level of assessment, as the period during which it will assess, examine, negotiate, form an opinion and seek alternatives (hereinafter referred to as the Assessment Period). The Large-scale Purchase, therefore, shall be commenced only after the Assessment Period has elapsed. The Board of Directors will thoroughly assess and examine the proposed Large-scale Purchase with advice from outside experts during the Assessment Period, and carefully form and disclose its opinion. As mentioned above, the Board of Directors may negotiate with the Large-scale Purchaser in order to improve the terms of the proposed Large-scale Purchase or it may offer alternative plans to shareholders, as necessary.

3. Countermeasures against non-compliance with the Large-scale Purchase Rules

If a Large-scale Purchaser does not comply with the Large-scale Purchase Rules, Matsushita's Board of Directors may take countermeasures against the Large-scale Purchaser to protect the interests of all shareholders. Countermeasures include the implementation of stock splits, issuance of stock acquisition rights or any other measures that the Board of Directors is permitted to take under the Commercial Code of Japan or other laws and the company's articles of incorporation. The Board of Directors will adopt specific countermeasures which it deems appropriate at that time. If the Board of Directors elects to make a stock split for shareholders as of a certain record date, the maximum ratio of the stock split shall be five-for-one. If the Board of Directors elects to issue stock acquisition rights in a rights offering, the outline of the issuance thereof shall be as described in the attachment hereto. If the Board of Directors elects to issue stock acquisition rights as a countermeasure, it may determine the exercise period and exercise conditions of the stock acquisition rights in consideration of the effectiveness thereof as a countermeasure.

The purpose of the Large-scale Purchase Rules is to provide an opportunity for Matsushita's shareholders to receive necessary information about the Large-scale Purchase, as well as the opinion and any alternative plans from Matsushita's Board of Directors, in order to determine whether or not the Large-scale Purchase is acceptable. Matsushita believes these rules will benefit shareholders by providing them with sufficient information to make a decision about a Large-scale Purchase that may have an impact on the management of the company. If a Large-scale Purchaser complies with the Large-scale Purchase Rules, the Board of Directors does not intend to prevent the Large-scale Purchase at its own discretion, unless it is clear that such Large-scale Purchase will cause irreparable damage or loss to Matsushita. The company believes that the establishment of the Large-scale Purchase Rules and countermeasures to be taken in the event of non-compliance with such rules are reasonable and appropriate in order to protect the legitimate interests of all Matsushita shareholders. The company recognizes that the aforementioned countermeasures may cause damage or loss, economic or otherwise, to a prospective Large-scale Purchaser who does not comply with the Large-scale Purchase Rules. Thus, the company is hereby advising in advance against commencing a Large-scale Purchase that does not comply with the Large-scale Purchase Rules.

The meeting of the Board of Directors, at which this policy was adopted, was held with all of the four Corporate Auditors of Matsushita (two of whom are outside Corporate Auditors) present. Each Corporate Auditor stated agreement with this policy on condition that this policy is duly implemented. The company amended the Articles of Incorporation in 2003, whereby the terms of office of all Directors were set for one year. Directors of Matsushita are elected at an annual general meeting of shareholders in June of each year. The terms of office of the current Directors will expire at the conclusion of the annual general meeting of shareholders to be held in June of this year. Matsushita will review whether to continue this policy at a meeting of the Board of Directors to be held after the annual general meeting of shareholders and announce its determination as soon as practicable. Matsushita's Board of Directors intends to review the Large-scale Purchase Rules from time to time for reasons including the enforcement of new Company Law in Japan, which is expected to take effect next year and any other enactments of legislation. Any such review would be conducted strictly from the viewpoint of the interests of all shareholders.

- Notes:
1. A group of shareholders means a holder (defined in Paragraph 1, Article 27-23 of the Securities and Exchange Law, including a person deemed as a holder pursuant to Paragraph 3 thereof) of shares and other securities (defined in Paragraph 1, Article 27-23 of the Securities and Exchange Law) or a person or a company who makes a purchase (defined in Paragraph 1, Article 27-2 of the Securities and Exchange Law, including a purchase made on a securities exchange market) and any joint holders (defined in Paragraph 5, Article 27-23 of the Securities and Exchange Law, including a person deemed as a joint holder pursuant to Paragraph 6 thereof) and any specially related parties (defined in Paragraph 7, Article 27-2 of the Securities and Exchange Law).
 2. The number of total voting rights shall be the number of voting rights with respect to all issued shares of Matsushita at the relevant time, excluding the shares held by Matsushita as treasury stock, the number of which appears in the latest Treasury Stock Purchase Report under the Securities and Exchange Law.
 3. ESV stands for Enhancement of Shareholder Value.

Matsushita Announces Plans to Increase Dividends for Fiscal 2006

Osaka, Japan, April 28, 2005 Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd. (Matsushita [NYSE symbol: MC]), best known for its Panasonic brand, today announced that its Board of Directors approved a plan to increase the total cash dividends per share for the current fiscal year, ending March 2006 (fiscal 2006).

Details are as follows:

1. Background

Matsushita has carried out a wide range of initiatives, including business restructuring and the establishment of a business domain-based organizational structure. Furthermore, through implementation of initiatives to achieve the goals of the company's 3-year Leap Ahead 21 plan, which began in fiscal 2005, Matsushita aims to further accelerate growth. Matsushita thus strives to maximize shareholder value and proactively provide return to shareholders, in line with its policy of shareholder-oriented management.

Based on this policy, on October 28, 2004, Matsushita announced that its Board of Directors changed the company's policy regarding returns to shareholders, which historically emphasized a stable level of dividends, to a new policy which takes into consideration consolidated business performance. Accordingly, Matsushita today announced its intention to increase total cash dividends per share for fiscal 2006, ending March 2006.

2. Dividends for Fiscal 2006

Matsushita plans to increase interim and year-end cash dividends per share for fiscal 2006 compared with the dividends for fiscal 2005, as shown below.

	Interim dividends per share	Year-end dividends per share	Total dividends per share for the fiscal year
Dividends for fiscal 2006	10.00 yen (planned)	10.00 yen (planned)	20.00 yen (planned)
(Reference) Dividends for fiscal 2005	7.50 yen	7.50 yen (planned)	15.00 yen (planned)
(Reference) Dividends for fiscal 2004	6.25 yen	7.75 yen (including 1.50 yen commemorative dividend)	14.00 yen (including 1.50 yen commemorative dividend)

3. Matsushita's Policy for Providing Return to Shareholders

Matsushita aims to maximize shareholder value by enhancing its reputation in capital markets through the steady growth of its mid-term business performance and return of profits to shareholders, based on its consolidated business performance.

In particular, Matsushita will provide return to shareholders through dividend payments and own share repurchases, upon careful consideration of consolidated cash flows.

1) Dividends:

From the perspective of return on the capital investment made by shareholders, Matsushita will, in principle, distribute profits to shareholders based on its consolidated business performance. Matsushita also aims for promoting stable and continuous growth of return to shareholders, while at the same time taking into consideration various factors including mid-term business performance, capital expenditure requirements and the company's financial condition.

2) Own share repurchases:

Matsushita will implement shareholder-oriented management by enhancing shareholder value per share through a reduction, in effect, of the number of outstanding shares. This will be accomplished by repurchasing the company's own shares with surplus cash flows.

Disclaimer Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934) about Matsushita and its Group companies (the Matsushita Group). To the extent that statements in this press release do not relate to historical or current facts, they constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the current assumptions and beliefs of the Matsushita Group in light of the information currently available to it, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause the Matsushita Group's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or financial position expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Matsushita undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements after the date of this press release. Investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by Matsushita in its subsequent filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The risks, uncertainties and other factors referred to above include, but are not limited to, economic conditions, particularly consumer spending and corporate capital expenditures in the United States, Europe, Japan, China and other Asian countries; volatility in demand for electronic equipment and components from business and industrial customers, as well as consumers in many product and geographical markets; currency rate fluctuations, notably between the yen, the U.S. dollar, the euro, Asian currencies and other currencies in which the Matsushita Group operates businesses, or in which assets and liabilities of the Matsushita Group are denominated; the ability of the Matsushita Group to respond to rapid technological changes and changing consumer preferences with timely and cost-effective introductions of new products in markets that are highly competitive in terms of both price and technology; the ability of the Matsushita Group to achieve its business objectives through joint ventures and other collaborative agreements with other companies; the ability of the Matsushita Group to maintain competitive strength in many product and geographical areas; current and potential, direct and indirect restrictions imposed by other countries over trade, manufacturing, labor and operations; fluctuations in market prices of securities and other assets in which the Matsushita Group has holdings; future changes or revisions to accounting policies or accounting rules; as well as natural disasters including earthquakes and other events that may negatively impact business activities of the Matsushita Group.

As announced in a separate press release issued today (see press release Matsushita Announces Policy toward Large-scale Purchases of Matsushita Shares [ESV Plan]), Matsushita's Board of Directors adopted a plan that outlines the rules regarding large-scale purchases of Matsushita shares. In the case of non-compliance with such rules, Matsushita may implement certain countermeasures. The issuance of stock acquisition rights is one possible countermeasure in such cases, and this shelf registration enables Matsushita to promptly issue stock acquisition rights, if it deems necessary. For further details of the ESV plan, refer to the aforementioned separate press release.

Note: ESV stands for Enhancement of Shareholder Value.
