Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 27, 2005, Surrey Bank & Trust (the Bank), the wholly owned subsidiary of Surrey Bancorp, entered into Executive Salary Continuation Agreements with Edward C. Ted Ashby, III, President and Chief Executive Officer, Pedro A. Pequeno II, Senior Vice President and Chief Lending Officer, Brenda J. Harding, Senior Vice President and Chief Operations Officer and Mark H. Towe, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Surrey Bancorp (the Agreements). The Agreements provide for certain annual payments to the named officers following retirement at age sixty-five (age sixty-seven for Ms. Harding) provided the named officer remains in the continuous employment of the Bank. These annual payments will continue until the death of the named officer. Provided there is a balance remaining in the accrued retirement account, further payments will be made to the beneficiary or estate of the named officer following the officer's death. The annual payments are $89,914 for Mr. Ashby, $88,231 for Mr. Pequeno, $16,388 for Ms. Harding and $50,827 for Mr. Towe.

Should any of the named officers die while actively employed prior to age sixty-five, the Agreements provide for a lump sum payment of the accrued retirement account balance. Upon the disability of the named officer, the Agreements provide for disability payments that will reduce the retirement benefits. If the named officer resigns or is terminated without cause (as defined in the Agreement), the officer shall be entitled to receive a lump sum payment following attainment of the stated retirement age of the accrued retirement account balance on the date of termination of employment. In the event of termination six months prior to or following a change in control of the Bank (as defined in the Agreement), the named officers will be entitled to full benefits under the Agreement upon attainment of the stated retirement age. If the named officer is terminated with cause at any time, the Agreement terminates and all benefits are forfeited.
