Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 11, 2005, the Compensation and Management Development Committee (the Committee ) of the Board of Directors of Amgen Inc. approved the First Amendment to the Amgen Inc. Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the ESPP). A description of the First Amendment follows below and the full text of the First Amendment to the ESPP is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.1.

First Amendment to the ESPP

The First Amendment to the ESPP, effective July 12, 2005, provides that an offering under the ESPP established by the Committee may provide that as soon as administratively practicable after the exercise date under an offering, the ESPP will distribute to each participant any amount remaining in his or her ESPP account because such amount is less than that required to purchase one whole share of Amgen Inc. common stock (a Residual ). Prior to this amendment, the ESPP required Residuals to be kept in a participant s account and applied toward an exercise under the next offering unless the participant withdrew from, or was not eligible to participate in, such next offering.
