DR. ATICK PROVIDES ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON RECENT STOCK SALE

MINNETONKA, MINNESOTA February 14, 2006 Dr. Joseph J. Atick, President & CEO of Identix Incorporated (Nasdaq:IDNX), provided additional information today on the Form 4 filed with the SEC last week disclosing the sale of 300,000 shares of Identix common stock in a block transaction. Dr. Atick stated that sale was made to meet personal and family financial commitments.

Dr. Atick continues to be the single largest individual shareholder of Identix with approximately 1,500,000 shares of Identix common stock owned outright, together with options to purchase approximately 1,000,000 shares of Identix common stock.

Dr. Atick commented, "I believe the combination of Identix and Viisage has the potential to create the industry's most comprehensive multi-modal biometric platform for securing and protecting personal identities, and I am confident the merger will establish a global leader in biometric security. My sale last week of approximately 10 percent of my ownership in Identix was necessary due to personal financial commitments. We are working diligently on closing this merger and remain on track to do so within our previously stated timeframe. I look forward to helping to complete the merger and to expanding and better serving each of the markets addressed by the combined company."
