Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On March 23, 2006, NOVT Corporation (formerly Novoste Corporation) (the Company) received a notice from the Nasdaq Stock Market indicating that the Company is not in compliance with the Nasdaq Stock Market's requirements for continued listing because, as a result of the previously announced sale on March 9, 2006 of the Company's vascular brachytherapy (VBT) business to Best Vascular, Inc., the Company no longer has an operating business. The sale of the Company's VBT business to Best Vascular, Inc. was approved by the Company's shareholders at a meeting held on March 7, 2006. While the notice does not by itself result in immediate delisting of the Company's common stock, the Nasdaq Stock Market has determined pursuant to Marketplace Rule 4300 providing Nasdaq with broad discretionary authority over continued inclusion of securities in Nasdaq that the Company's common stock will be delisted at the open of business on April 3, 2006.

The Nasdaq rules permit the Company to appeal the delisting determination by the Nasdaq staff to a Nasdaq Listings Qualifications Panel pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Nasdaq Marketplace rules which require the payment of certain fees to Nasdaq and the submission of a hearing request by the Company on or before March 30, 2006. However, the Company has determined that it does not satisfy the Nasdaq Stock Market's requirements for continued listing, and therefore, there is no point in expending Company time and financial resources to appeal the delisting determination.

As a result of the notice the Company received from the Nasdaq Stock Market described above, the Company expects that its common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq Stock Market at the open of business on April 3, 2006. Upon delisting, the Company's common stock will not be immediately eligible to trade on the OTC Bulletin Board or in the pink sheets and there can be no assurance that the Company's common stock will trade on the OTC Bulletin Board or in the pink sheets.
