Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On December 31, 2006, Rambus Inc. ( Rambus ) entered into an amendment (the Amendment ) to two Stock Option Agreements, each dated October 8, 2001, between Rambus and John D. Danforth, Senior Legal Advisor to Rambus. The Amendment increases the exercise price per share from $8.00 to $11.72 for outstanding, unexercised options to purchase 59,445 shares of Rambus common stock held by Mr. Danforth.

The two modified stock option grants are among those that Rambus has initially concluded appear to have been among those not fully and formally approved on the stated grant dates by the Rambus Compensation Committee so as to be among the options that will require a restatement of Rambus financial statements as previously announced by Rambus on October 19, 2006. The modified grants were dated October 8, 2001, the initial date of Mr. Danforth's employment. However, Rambus has now initially concluded that the two grants do not appear to have been fully and formally approved by the Rambus Compensation Committee until eight days later. Mr. Danforth was Rambus General Counsel from October 8, 2001 to July 27, 2006 and continues to serve as Rambus Senior Legal Advisor.

The modifications announced today do not assume and should not be read to imply that Rambus has reached any determination with respect to fault, or any final determination with respect to the stock option investigation. Both Rambus and Mr. Danforth reserve all rights either may have with respect to the stock options being repriced. Rambus investigation is ongoing, but the timing of the amendment is dictated by potential tax consequences under proposed regulations recently promulgated by the Internal Revenue Service under Internal Revenue Code Section 409A. Such proposed regulations require that Section 16 officers resolve certain option issues by the end of calendar year 2006. Mr. Danforth is Rambus only remaining employee at this time who had been a Section 16 officer at the time he received options now affected by the proposed IRS regulations. Rambus expects that other officers and employees may enter into agreements to mitigate potential Code Section 409A liability in 2007, in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service regulations affecting non-Section 16 employees with affected outstanding stock options, assuming there are no further legislative or regulatory developments.
