Item 5.1 Full Description of Material Change

The Corporation has set terms for a brokered private placement of units for gross proceeds of up to Cdn$35.0 million, expected to close on December 21, 2007. There maybe more than one closing.

Each unit, priced at Cdn$1.55, will consist of one common share and one-half of one common share purchase warrant. One whole common share purchase warrant will entitle the holder to purchase one additional common share at an exercise price of Cdn$2.00 per share for a period of 24 months from the initial closing date. The proposed private placement is subject to receiving all necessary regulatory approvals and issued securities will be subject to a four-month hold period. Scotia Capital Inc. (Scotia) will be acting as agent on the private placement in Canada while Shoreline Pacific LLC and Casimir Capital L.P. will act in the U.S. (together the Agents).

The Agents will receive a 5% commission. The Agents will also receive Agent s compensation options equal to 5% of the aggregate number of units sold pursuant to the offering. Each Agent s compensation option upon exercise will entitle the holder to acquire one unit at an exercise price of Cdn$1.70 per unit for a period of 24 months from the initial closing date. A total of 22,580,645 common shares may be issued pursuant to the private placement, and up to 11,290,322 common shares will be reserved for issuance on exercise of the warrants and 1,129,032 units for issuance on the exercise of the agent s compensation options.

Minera Andes intends to use the proceeds from the offering to fund its share of the costs at the San José project in southern Argentina, as well as for exploration drilling and completing a scoping study at Los Azules and for general corporate purposes.

Caution Concerning Forward-Looking Statements:

This press release contains certain forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, the statements regarding the Company's strategic plans, evolution of mineral resources and reserves, work programs, development plans and exploration budgets at the Company's San José Project. The forward-looking statements express, as at the date of this press release, the Company's plans, estimates, forecasts, projections, expectations or beliefs as to future events and results. Forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, and there can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate. Therefore, actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. In particular, there can be no assurance that commercial production at the San José mine will be achieved on a timely basis, or at all, that production capacity at the San José mine will be successfully increased, that resources and reserves at the San José mine will be increased or that Minera Andes will successfully raise the funds necessary to maintain its interest in the San José mine. Risks and uncertainties that could cause results or future events to differ materially from current expectations expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, factors associated with fluctuations in the market price of precious metals, mining industry risks, risks associated with foreign operations, the state of the capital markets, environmental risks and hazards, uncertainty as to calculation of mineral reserves and other risks. Reference is made to the risk factors and uncertainties described in the Company's continuous disclosure record, a copy of which is available under the Company's profile at www.sedar.com. In addition, Minera Andes' joint venture partner, a subsidiary of Hochschild Mining plc, and its affiliates do not accept responsibility for the use of project data or the adequacy or accuracy of this release.

Cautionary Note to U.S. Investors:

The United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) permits mining companies, in their filings with the SEC, to disclose only those mineral deposits with mineral reserves that a company can economically and legally extract or produce. We use certain terms in this press release, such as mineral resources, that the SEC guidelines strictly prohibit us from including in our filings with the SEC.
