Dividend equivalents on restricted stock units

The Board of Directors and the Human Resources and Compensation Committee (the HR&CC) of NYSE Euronext (the Company) have determined that holders of restricted stock units (RSUs), including holders of unvested RSUs, should be eligible to receive dividend equivalents on their RSUs that correspond to the cash dividends our shareholders receive. On or shortly after January 14, 2011, holders of RSUs received dividend equivalents paid in cash in respect of the cash dividends that we paid on December 31, 2010. Holders of RSUs also will receive dividend equivalents paid in cash in respect of any cash dividends paid in 2011 and will be eligible to receive dividend equivalents, paid in cash or shares of the Company's common stock, in respect of any cash dividends paid after 2011.

To provide for such dividend equivalents, the Company has amended its Omnibus Incentive Plan and 2006 Stock Incentive Plan (together, the Plans) and the agreements that govern the outstanding RSUs granted under the Plans. The Plans, as amended, authorize the HR&CC to determine that holders of certain stock-based awards, including RSUs, granted under the Plans are entitled to receive, currently or on a deferred basis, dividend equivalents on such awards, including unvested awards. The payment of dividend equivalents was previously limited to vested awards. The dividend equivalents may be paid in cash or shares of the Company's common stock and, if paid in shares, will count against the maximum number of shares that may be issued under the Plans. The RSU agreements, as amended, provide for the payment of dividend equivalents on the terms described in the first paragraph above.

The Company will determine, in accordance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, whether to provide any dividend equivalents in respect of any cash dividends that are paid after 2011 and, if so, whether they will be paid in cash on a current basis or in shares on a deferred basis. Dividend equivalents that are paid in shares generally will remain subject to forfeiture until the shares are issued at the same time as the shares covered by the RSUs are issued.

The Board of Directors and the HR&CC believe that these amendments to the Plans and the RSU agreements will enhance the Company's ability to attract and retain talented executives and employees and further align their interests with those of shareholders by providing them with dividend equivalent rights that are analogous to the shareholders' dividend rights.
