Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 1 and November 2, 2011, LKQ Corporation ( LKQ ) entered into interest rate swap agreements (the Swap Transactions ) involving the following notional amounts, counterparties and fixed interest rates:

1. $60,000,000 notional amount with J.P. Morgan Chase Bank, National Association at 1.1950%.
2. $60,000,000 notional amount with Bank of America N.A. at 1.1925%.
3. £50,000,000 notional amount with Bank of America N.A. at 1.3550%.

LKQ entered into the Swap Transactions to hedge the floating rate interest risk under LKQ s recently amended credit agreement. Each of the Swap Transactions has an effective date of November 30, 2011 and a maturity date of October 31, 2016. Under the terms of the Swap Transactions, LKQ is required to make monthly payments based on the fixed interest rates on the notional amounts to the counterparties while the counterparties are obligated to make monthly floating rate payments on the same notional amount to LKQ based on the one month London Interbank Offered Rate for the respective currency of each Swap Transaction s notional amount. For the U.S. Dollar denominated Swap Transactions, the interest rates are rounded up to the nearest 1/100th of 1% and calculated based on a 360-day year. The interest rates under the British Pound denominated Swap Transaction are calculated to the 5th decimal using a 365-day convention. Our actual cost of borrowing will be the fixed interest rate plus an applicable margin under the credit agreement.

Each of the Swap Transactions may be terminated by either party prior to its expiration, including as a result of LKQ s failure to deliver certain collateral to secure such Swap Transaction after the prepayment or maturity of LKQ s credit agreement. Any such early termination may result in a payment from LKQ to the counterparty or a payment to LKQ from the counterparty depending on market interest rates at the time of termination. LKQ s credit agreement matures on March 25, 2016.
