PARTS III AND IV

Certain information required by Part III was omitted from the Company's annual report on Form 10-K filed on April 9, 2012 (the "Annual Report") because at the time the Company intended to file a definitive proxy statement for its 2012 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Proxy Statement") within 120 days after the end of its fiscal year pursuant to Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. ITEM 10. DIRECTORS, EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

On September 7, 2011, pursuant to an agreement with North American Financial Holdings, Inc. (NAFH) (the Investment Agreement), the Company issued and sold to NAFH 119,900,000 shares of the Company's common stock for aggregate consideration of $217,019,000 (the Investment). NAFH's funds for the Investment came from its working capital. As a result of the Investment, NAFH currently owns approximately 90% of the voting securities of the Company. Upon closing of the Investment, R. Eugene Taylor, NAFH's Chief Executive Officer, Christopher G. Marshall, NAFH's Chief Financial Officer, and R. Bruce Singletary, NAFH's Chief Risk Officer, were named as the Company's CEO, CFO and CRO, respectively, and as members of the Company's Board of Directors. In addition, the Company's Board of Directors was reconstituted with a combination of the three aforementioned executive officers, two existing members (Martha M. Bachman and Samuel E. Lynch) and two additional NAFH-designated members (Peter N. Foss and William A. Hodges).

On January 11, 2012, NAFH changed its name to Capital Bank Financial Corp. (CBF).

As the Company's controlling shareholder, CBF has the power to control the election of the Company's directors, determine our corporate and management policies and determine the outcome of any corporate transaction or other matter submitted to the Company's shareholders for approval. CBF also has sufficient voting power to amend the Company's organizational documents. In addition, five of our seven directors, including our Chief Executive Officer, our Chief Financial Officer, and our Chief Risk Officer are affiliated with CBF.

Our Board of Directors is not divided into separate classes and each member is elected by our shareholders annually for a one-year term. Each director and executive officer will hold office until his death, resignation, retirement, removal, disqualification, or until his successor is elected (or appointed) and qualified.

Nominations of Directors

The Company does not have a nominating committee or a nominating committee charter. The Board of Directors has decided against establishing a nominating committee because its policy is to have the full Board of Directors perform the functions that might otherwise be performed by such a committee.

In identifying candidates for the Company's Board of Directors, the directors consider the composition of the board, the operating requirements of the Company and the long-term interests of the Company's shareholders. In conducting this assessment, the directors consider diversity, age, skills, and such other factors as they deem appropriate given the current needs of the board and the Company to maintain a balance of knowledge, experience and capability. The directors believe that candidates for director should have certain minimum qualifications, including being able to read and understand basic financial statements, having business experience, and having high moral character; however, they retain the right to modify these minimum qualifications from time to time. Although the Company has not adopted a formal policy with regard to the consideration of diversity in identifying candidates for the Board of Directors, the directors do consider diversity in business, industry and professional experience, differences of viewpoint, education, specific skills and perspectives. The directors believe that the consideration of diversity as a factor in selecting members of the Board of Directors will enable the Company to create an assorted Board of Directors that effectively serves the needs of the Company and the interests of its shareholders. With respect to directors who are nominated for re-election, the directors also consider the director's previous contributions to the Board of Directors.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

CBF now controls more than 50% of the Company's voting power and, as a result, the Company qualifies as a controlled company as defined in Rule 5615(c)(1) of The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. Marketplace Rules (the "Marketplace Rules"). Therefore, as of September 7, 2011, the Company is exempt from the requirements of Rule 5605(b)(1) of the Marketplace Rules with respect to the Company Board being comprised of a majority of Independent Directors, as defined by Rule 5605(a)(2) of the Marketplace Rules, and Rules 5605(d) and 5605(e) of the Marketplace Rules covering the independence of directors serving on the Compensation Committee and the Governance & Nominating Committee of the Company Board, respectively. As of the closing of the Investment on September 7, 2011, the Company no longer has a compensation committee and the Compensation Committee of CBF's Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") oversees compensation, policies and benefit plans for the Company's executive officers.

The Compensation Discussion and Analysis, which we refer to herein as the "CD&A," describes the Company's executive compensation philosophy, components and policies, including analysis of the compensation earned by the Company's named executive officers as detailed in the accompanying tables. Our discussion focuses on compensation and practices relating to our most recently completed fiscal year.

Named Executive Officers

Effective as of the closing of the Investment on September 7, 2011, the Company's new executive officers are the following: R. Eugene Taylor, President and Chief Executive Officer; Christopher G. Marshall, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; and R. Bruce Singletary, Executive Vice President and Chief Risk Officer. These individuals have not entered into employment agreements with the Company and are therefore at-will employees. None of the new executive officers receive compensation or are entitled to benefits directly from the Company, and the Company does not maintain any plans, programs or arrangements that provide change in control benefits to any of Mr. Taylor, Mr. Marshall or Mr. Singletary. The compensation of these executives is paid directly by CBF. During 2011, no amount of base salary, bonus or other compensation was paid to these executives by the Company. A portion of the base salaries and incentive compensation paid to these individuals by CBF for their service to the Company was allocated for the purpose of the disclosures herein.

Edgar Filing: GREEN BANKSHARES, INC. - Form 10-K/A

The executive officers of the Company prior to the Investment, including the named executive officers set forth below, participated in plans and programs of the Company during the portion of 2011 prior to the Investment.

The following executives were our named executive officers for 2011:

Name	Position
R. Eugene Taylor	Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
Christopher G. Marshall	Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
R. Bruce Singletary	Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer
Stephen M. Rownd	Former Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, and current Market President for Tennessee of Capital Bank
Kenneth R. Vaughn	Former Director, President and Chief Banking Officer
Michael J. Fowler	Former Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and current Senior Vice President of Capital Bank

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The Company is committed to maintaining an executive compensation program that will contribute to the achievement of the Company's business objectives. For 2011, the Company had an executive compensation program that:

fulfilled the Company's business and operating needs, conformed with its general human resource strategies and enhanced shareholder value; and enabled the Company to attract and retain the executive talent essential to the Company's achievement of its short-term and long-term business objectives while balancing the need to consider weak economic conditions and the Company's financial performance in compensation decisions.

The Company's objective is to pay its executives and other employees at rates that enable the Company to maintain a highly competent and productive staff. The Compensation Committee evaluated both performance and compensation to ensure that the Company maintains its ability to attract and retain superior employees in key positions, and that compensation provided to key employees remains competitive relative to the compensation paid to similarly situated executives of our peer companies.

Executive Compensation

In light of the economic challenges facing the Company, the Compensation Committee determined that the compensation of the named executive officers should be provided primarily in the form of base salary and that incentive compensation should be limited.

Base Salary. Base salary is designed to compensate executives based upon their experience, duties and scope of responsibility, and retain employees with a proven track record of performance. Salaries for executive positions are established using the same process as for other positions and job levels within the Company, that is, by systematically evaluating the position and assigning a salary based on comparisons with pay scales for similar positions in reasonably comparable institutions. The Compensation Committee determined not to make any adjustments to 2010 base salaries at that time, which have continued to be the base salaries for the named executive officers in 2011.

Messrs. Taylor, Marshall and Singletary's base salary was determined in connection with the founding and initial private offering of North American Financial Holdings (the predecessor to CBF) in December 2009 and their base salaries have not changed since that time.

Annual Bonus. As noted above, Messrs. Taylor, Marshall and Singletary receive compensation, including an annual bonus, from CBF. The 2011 annual bonus was determined by the Compensation Committee based on the performance of CBF and of the individual named executive officer during 2011. The Compensation Committee awarded each of Mr. Taylor, Mr. Marshall and Mr. Singletary 100% of their annual target bonus for 2011, which, in each case, was 100% of their individual annual base salary.

All Other Compensation

The following table sets forth each component of the All Other Compensation column of the Summary Compensation Table for 2011

Name	Directors Fees Paid or Earned	Amounts Accrued under Non-Compete Agreement	Temporary Living Expenses	Total
Stephen M. Rownd	$ 16,620	$	$ 9,635	$ 26,255
Kenneth R. Vaught	16,080	91,740		107,820
Michael J. Fowler			6,820	6,820

Annual Incentive Plan. The Company previously maintained an Annual Incentive Plan, that was intended to compensate executive officers for specific achievements on behalf of the Company's performance and their individual achievements, encourage the retention of key executives and other officers, and align the executive officers' interests with those of the Company's shareholders. The Board suspended the Annual Incentive Plan for 2011 due to deteriorating economic conditions and the difficulty such economic conditions would present in determining performance metrics and goals.

Non-Compete Agreement

The Company entered into a non-compete agreement with Mr. Vaught in 2004, pursuant to which the Company agreed to provide certain retirement benefits upon Mr. Vaught's ceasing to be employed by the Company. In connection with Mr. Vaught's termination of employment with the Company in August, 2011, the Company offered annual payments of $84,924 over a ten-year period (beginning after Mr. Vaught attains age 50) pursuant to the non-competition agreement. Mr. Vaught rejected the offer and elected to take legal action against the Company seeking enhanced change in control benefits under the agreement. Certain matters relating to the non-compete agreement remain in dispute, including whether the non-compete agreement remains in effect, is enforceable and whether any payments at all are due to Mr. Vaught. No other named executive officer has entered into a non-compete agreement with the Company.

Employment Agreements

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Kenneth R. Vaught in December 2007 (the "Employment Agreement"), which agreement replaced the prior employment agreement with Mr. Vaught. Under the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Vaught was entitled to an initial base salary of $237,000 as well as director fees for service on the Company's and its subsidiaries' boards of directors, life insurance, participation in Company-sponsored benefit plans, including equity-based plans and cash incentive plans, other fringe benefits and, where applicable, severance and change in control benefits.

As noted above, Mr. Vaught's employment with the Company terminated in August 2011 and, as a result of the Company's outstanding obligations under the Capital Purchase Program ("CPP") at the time that Mr. Vaught's employment was terminated, the Company was prohibited by the terms of EESA, including the June 2009 IFR, from making severance or change of control payment to Mr. Vaught. Accordingly, Mr. Vaught was not entitled to any severance or change in control benefits upon his termination of employment with the Company in August 2011.

No other named executive officer has an individual employment agreement with the Company. However, Mr. Taylor has entered into an employment agreement with CBF, which provides for base salary, annual bonus opportunity, as well as severance in the event of a termination of his employment with CBF.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

Perquisites and other personal benefits represent a small part of the Company's overall compensation package, and are offered only after consideration of business need. The Company provides executive officers with perquisites and other personal benefits that the Company believes to be reasonable and consistent with its overall compensation program to better enable the Company to attract and retain superior employees for key positions.

Personal benefits offered to executives serve a different purpose than do the other elements of executive compensation. In general, they are designed to provide a safety net of protection against the financial catastrophes that can result from illness, disability or death. Personal benefits offered to executives are largely those that are offered to the general employee population, with some variation primarily to promote tax efficiency.

Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End

There were no outstanding Equity Incentive Plan awards held by the named executive officers as of December 31, 2011.

Equity Awards under the Equity Incentive Plan. Equity compensation is intended to enhance the long-term proprietary interest in the Company on the part of the employee and others who can contribute to the Company's overall success, and to increase the value of the Company to its shareholders. Under the Green Bankshares Inc. Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Incentive Plan"), the Board of Directors has the authority to grant stock options and restricted stock to any employee or director of the Company. Equity award levels are generally determined based on market data and vary among participants based on their positions within the Company. From time to time, the Board of Directors may grant an additional award to one or more employees based on special circumstances.

The Company awards equity grants without regard to any scheduled or anticipated release of material information. The Company does not accelerate or delay equity grants in response to material information, nor does it delay the disclosure of information due to plans to make equity grants.

No equity awards were granted to named executive officers in 2011, other than 24,155 shares of restricted stock awarded to Mr. Rownd on April 28, 2011 and 30,865 shares of restricted stock awarded to Mr. Fowler on May 17, 2011. The Equity Incentive Plan was terminated on February 21, 2012.

Options Exercises and Stock Vested in 2011

None of the Company's named executive officers exercised any stock options during the year ended December 31, 2011. The following shares of restricted stock (with value in brackets) held by Messrs. Rownd, Vaught and Fowler vested in 2011.

Mr. Rownd: 42,537 shares ($51,570)

Mr. Vaught: 514 share ($1,928)

Mr. Fowler: 30,865 ($37,347)

Stock Ownership and Retention Guidelines. While the Company believes that its employees and executive officers should hold stock in the Company to better align their interests with those of our shareholders, the Company does not currently have any stock ownership or retention guidelines for its executive officers or employees.

Other Compensation Programs and Practices

Retirement Plans and Other Benefit Plans

401(k) Plan. The Green Bankshares 401(k) Retirement Plan (the "401(k) Plan") is a tax-qualified retirement savings plan pursuant to which all employees, including the named executive officers, are able to contribute on a before-tax basis up to 20% of their annual salary or the limit prescribed by the Internal Revenue Service.

Edgar Filing: GREEN BANKSHARES, INC. - Form 10-K/A

Historically the Company participated in the Safe Harbor Rule which guaranteed a 3% of eligible compensation contribution. Additionally, the Company would also historically provide a discretionary 3% contribution. All contributions are deposited into investment funds, including company stock, based on Plan participants' directions. In July 2009, the Company contributions were suspended due to poor Company performance.

The option to select the Company's stock as an investment in the 401(k) Plan was eliminated effective February 1, 2012.

Deferred Compensation Plan

Mr. Vaught participated in a non-qualified deferred compensation plan maintained by the Company, pursuant to which Mr. Vaught could elect to defer a portion of his annual income. In connection with the termination of his employment, the Company paid Mr. Vaught a lump sum payment equal to $136,585 pursuant to the terms of the deferred compensation plan. No other named executive officer participates in the non-qualified deferred compensation plan maintained by the Company.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control

As of December 31, 2011, none of the named executive officers had arrangement or agreement for severance upon a termination of employment or payments on a change in control with the Company. As previously noted, Mr. Taylor's employment agreement with CBF provides for severance upon a termination of employment CBF (with such severance payment to be made by CBF) and certain outstanding CBF equity awards held by Messrs. Taylor, Marshall and Singletary vest on a change in control.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Certain Transactions

Certain of the directors and executive officers of the Company, members of their immediate families and entities with which they are involved are customers of and borrowers from the Company. As of December 31, 2011, total loans outstanding to directors and executive officers of the Company, and their associates as a group, equaled approximately $4 million. All outstanding loans and commitments included in such transactions were made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time in comparable transactions with persons not related to the Company, and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

The Company has had, and expects to have in the future, banking transactions in the ordinary course of its business with directors, officers and principal shareholders of the Company, and their associates, on the same terms, including interest rates and collateral on loans, as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with persons not related to the Company. The Company generally considers credit relationships with directors and/or their affiliates to be immaterial and as not impairing the director's independence so long as the terms of the credit relationship are similar to other comparable borrowers. The Company presumes extensions of credit that comply with Federal Reserve Regulation O to be consistent with director independence. In other words, the Company does not consider normal, arm's-length credit relationships entered into in the ordinary course of business to negate a director's independence.

Regulation O requires such loans to be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, and following credit underwriting procedures that are no less stringent than those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions by Capital Bank with persons not related to the Company. Such loans also may not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features. Additionally, no event of default may have occurred (that is, such loans are not disclosed as nonaccrual, past due, restructured, or potential problems). The Board of Directors must review any credit to a director or his or her related interests that has become criticized in order to determine the impact that such classification has on the director's independence.

From time to time, certain relationships or transactions may arise that would be deemed acceptable and appropriate upon full disclosure, following review and approval by the Audit Committee (in accordance with NASDAQ Listing Rules) to ensure there is a legitimate business reason for the transaction and that the terms of the transaction are no less favorable to the Company that could be obtained from an unrelated person. Therefore, the Board of Directors has adopted the Policy and Procedures with Respect to Related Person Transactions, which is implemented through the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and is designed to regularly monitor the appropriateness of any significant transactions with related persons (as such term is defined by SEC rules). The policy applies to any transaction required to be disclosed under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K in which:

the Company or the Bank is a participant;

any related person (as defined in Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K) has a direct or indirect interest; and the amount involved exceeds $120,000.

The policy requires notification to the Company's Audit Committee, prior the consummation of any related person transaction, describing the related person's interest in the transaction, the material facts of the transaction, the benefits to the Company of the transaction, the availability of other sources of comparable products or services, and an assessment of whether the transaction is on terms that are comparable to the terms available to an unrelated third party or employees generally. The Audit Committee then evaluates the proposed transaction and determines whether it is a related person transaction. The Audit Committee considers all of the relevant facts and circumstances available to it including (if applicable) but not limited to:

the benefits to the Company;

the impact on a director's independence in the event the related person is a director, an immediate family member of a director or an entity in which a director is a partner, shareholder or executive officer;

the availability of other sources for comparable products or services;

the terms of the transaction; and the terms available to unrelated third parties or to employees generally.

No member of the Audit Committee is permitted to participate in any review, consideration or approval of any related person transaction with respect to which such member or any of his or her immediate family members is the related person. The Audit Committee approves only those related person transactions that are in, or are not inconsistent with, the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, as the Audit Committee determines in good faith. If the transaction has already been consummated, the Audit Committee will undergo the same analysis as it does with a proposed transaction, and if it determines that the consummated transaction is a related person transaction, it will evaluate whether the consummated related person transaction should be ratified, amended, terminated or rescinded and whether any disciplinary action is appropriate.

On September 7, 2011, CBF 119,900,000 shares of the Company's common stock for aggregate consideration of $217,019,000. As a result of the Investment, CBF currently owns approximately 90% of Company's common stock. As the Company's controlling shareholder, CBF has the power to control the election of the Company's directors, determine our corporate and management policies and determine the outcome of any corporate transaction or other matter submitted to the Company's shareholders for approval. CBF also has sufficient voting power to amend the Company's organizational documents. In addition, five of our seven directors, our Chief Executive Officer, our Chief Financial Officer, and our Chief Risk Officer are affiliated with CBF.

Edgar Filing: GREEN BANKSHARES, INC. - Form 10-K/A

The Company and its subsidiaries have had, and expect to have in the future, transactions in the ordinary course of business with directors and executive officers and members of their immediate families, as well as with principal shareholders. All loans and deposits included in such transactions were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, in the case of loans, as those prevailing for comparable transactions with non-affiliated persons. It is the belief of management that such loans neither involved more than the normal risk of collectability nor presented other unfavorable features.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires certain of the Company's officers and its directors to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Officers and directors are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file. To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of reports that were filed with the SEC, all filing requirements under Section 16(a) were complied with during 2011.

Director Independence

Because CBF holds approximately 90% of the voting power of the Company, under NASDAQ Listing Rules, the Company qualifies as a controlled company and, accordingly, is exempt from the requirement to have a majority of independent directors, as well as certain other governance requirements. However, as required under NASDAQ Listing Rules, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised entirely of independent directors. Our Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Foss, Hodges and Lynch and Ms. Bachman meet the definition of Independent Director as that term is defined in NASDAQ Listing Rules. In determining director independence, the Board considers all relevant facts and circumstances, and the Board considers the issue not merely from the standpoint of a director, but also from that of persons or organizations with which the director has an affiliation. As members of management, Messrs. Taylor, Marshall and Singletary would not be considered independent under current NASDAQ Listing Rules.

Board of Directors Committees

The Board of Directors currently has two standing committees, the Executive Committee and the Audit Committee.

Executive Committee. Subject to applicable law, the Executive Committee has the authority to exercise all powers of the Board of Directors during intervals between meetings of the board. The Executive Committee did not meet during 2011. The members of the Executive Committee for 2012 are R. Eugene Taylor (Chairman), Christopher G. Marshall and R. Bruce Singletary.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee was established by the Board of Directors to oversee the Company's accounting and financial reporting process, including the Company's internal control over financial reporting and audits of the Company's financial statements. In connection with such oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviews the results and scope of the audit and other services provided by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee also has the sole authority and responsibility to select, determine compensation of, evaluate and, when appropriate, replace the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a charter that is available on our website at www.capitalbank-us.com or free of charge upon written request to the attention of Christopher G. Marshall, Green Bankshares, 100 North Main Street, Greeneville, Tennessee 37743. During 2011, the Audit Committee met seven times.

The members of the Audit Committee for 2012 are Peter N. Foss (Chairman), William A. Hodges, Martha M. Bachman and Samuel E. Lynch. The Board of Directors, in its business judgment, has made an affirmative determination that each of Messrs. Foss, Hodges and Lynch and Ms. Bachman are Independent Directors as that term is defined by Nasdaq Listing Rules, including the special independence requirements applicable to audit committee members. The Board of Directors also has determined, in its business judgment, that Mr. Foss is an audit committee financial expert as such term is defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). For additional information regarding the Audit Committee, see Audit Committee Report below, which is incorporated into this section by reference.

The Audit Committee approved all audit and nonaudit services described above in accordance with this policy. In determining whether to approve a particular audit or permitted nonaudit service, the Audit Committee will consider, among other things, whether such service is consistent with maintaining the independence of the independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee will also consider whether the independent registered public accounting firm is best positioned to provide the most effective and efficient service to the Company and whether the service might be expected to enhance the Company's ability to manage or control risk or improve audit quality.
