Upon mutual agreement between GSI Group Inc. (the Company) and David Clarke on September 4, 2012 (the Effective Date), Mr. Clarke resigned from his position as Vice President, Group President of Laser Products business group and President of Synrad, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. There was no disagreement between the Company and Mr. Clarke at the time of Mr. Clarke's resignation from the Company.

In connection with the resignation, the Company entered into a letter agreement with Mr. Clarke. Subject to his execution and non-revocation of a general release of claims, Mr. Clarke will be entitled to receive the following payments and benefits: (i) continued payment of his base salary for one year; (ii) cash payment of $130,000, payable in two equal installments at the same times Mr. Clarke would have been entitled to receive a bonus in respect of the second half of 2012 and the first half of 2013 had he remained employed by the Company (expected to be in March 2013 and August 2013, but in no event prior to January 1, 2013 or later than December 31, 2013); and (iii) continued medical coverage, with the then-current Company premium subsidy applicable to employees, during the period beginning on the Termination Date and ending on the earlier of the first anniversary of the Termination Date and the date on which Mr. Clarke first becomes eligible for medical coverage from a new employer or service recipient. In addition, 10,000 unvested restricted stock units previously awarded to Mr. Clarke will remain outstanding after the Termination Date and become vested on the thirtieth day following the Termination Date, subject to his execution and non-revocation of a general release of claims. The letter agreement also contains customary non-disparagement provisions, and a claw-back provision in the event of Mr. Clarke's violation of the non-disparagement provisions or any other restrictive covenants set forth in the restricted stock unit awards agreements by and between the Company and Mr. Clarke.

This description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the letter agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report.
