Item 4.01 Change in Certifying Accountant

(b) New Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

On September 25, 2012, the Audit Committee of STEC, Inc. (the Company) approved the appointment of Ernst & Young (EY) as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period through September 25, 2012, neither the Company nor anyone operating on its behalf has consulted with EY regarding either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement of the type described in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K, or a reportable event involving the Company, as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K. Furthermore, EY has not provided the Company a written report or oral advice that EY concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to any accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period through September 25, 2012, EY had been engaged by the Company to provide the Company with tax services, including routine tax advice and related tax planning and advisory services in connection with the preparation of the Company's tax returns, as well as the review of the Company's quarterly tax provision calculations and transfer pricing policies. In approving the selection of EY as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the Audit Committee considered these services previously provided by EY and concluded that such services would not adversely affect the independence of EY.
