Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On June 10, 2013, The Bryn Mawr Trust Company (the Bank), which is the wholly owned subsidiary of Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation, and Francis J. Leto, Executive Vice President and General Counsel of the Bank and head of the Bank's Wealth Management Division, entered into a retention bonus agreement (the Retention Bonus Agreement). In light of Mr. Leto's position and responsibilities, and his value to the organization, the Board of Directors of the Company approved the Retention Bonus Agreement to encourage Mr. Leto to remain with the Company on a long-term basis and to add additional shareholder value. The Retention Bonus Agreement provides that, subject to certain conditions, in the event that the Bank's current Chief Executive Officer, Fredrick C. Peters, II, retires or otherwise ceases to be the Chief Executive Officer of the Bank prior to December 31, 2015, Mr. Leto will be entitled to cash payments in the aggregate amount of $300,000 (the Retention Bonus), payable in two installments as follows: (i) $150,000 payable on June 30, 2015; and (ii) $150,000 payable on December 31, 2015. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if prior to December 31, 2015 Mr. Leto resigns or his employment is terminated for cause (as defined in the Retention Bonus Agreement), he will not be entitled to receive any Retention Bonus payments not already paid. To the extent Mr. Leto's employment is terminated without cause or Mr. Leto is removed from his position as head of the Wealth Management Division without his consent, Mr. Leto will be entitled to receive in a single lump sum all then-unpaid installments in respect of the Retention Bonus within twenty (20) days following the date of such termination or removal.

The foregoing description of the Retention Bonus Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Retention Bonus Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
