As the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2013 and the Company intends to continue to conduct similar transactions in the future, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement with

Table of Contents2.3 Background, reasons for the transactions, pricing policies and the proposed Annual Caps*2.3.1 Purchase of raw materials

Background: The Company produces over 60 different types of products representing a broad range of synthetic fibres, resins and plastics, intermediate petrochemicals and petroleum products. Each of these products is created from the chemical processing of crude oil, naphtha, ethylene, propylene, aromatics and other intermediate petrochemicals. In order to ensure a steady, orderly, continuing and efficient operation of the Company, since the Company's initial public offering on 6 July 1993, the Company has been purchasing and will continue to purchase most of petrochemical raw materials (such as crude oil, naphtha, ethylene, etc.) and other materials and goods (such as spare parts) from or via Sinopec Corp. and its associates at market prices, for producing various types of products. The table below sets out the historical figures of the Company's aggregate purchases of petrochemical raw materials and other materials and goods from Sinopec Corp. and its associates for each of the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and for the six months ended 30 June 2013:

	Historical figures
	(RMB in millions)
	For the year ended		For the six months ended
	31 December	31 December	30 June
Aggregate purchases of petrochemical raw materials and other materials and goods from Sinopec Corp. and its associates	47,107	52,231	32,049

The Company entered into the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement, which included the continuing connected transaction regarding the purchase of raw materials, with Sinopec Corp. on 10 November 2010. The Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder were approved at the 2010 EGM. As at the date of this announcement, the terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder continue to have full effect and remain unchanged. Given that the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement will expire soon on 31 December 2013, meanwhile the Company intends to adjust and optimise its stocks of crude oil according to the market condition by utilising the petroleum reserve of China Petrochemical Corporation and will borrow or purchase crude oil from Sinopec Petroleum Reserve Co., Ltd. according to the Company's production plans, stocks of crude oil and estimates on market demand, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement with China Petrochemical Corporation and Sinopec Corp. so as to continue to purchase petrochemical raw materials and other materials and goods which are necessary for production material balance from or via China Petrochemical Corporation, Sinopec Corp. or its associates at market price for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Reasons for such transactions: As the Company does not possess a considerable amount of reserves of crude oil and other raw materials, it is necessary for the Company to continue to purchase raw materials to ensure continuing operation of its business. The oil and petrochemical industry in the PRC has always been subject to extensive regulations by the PRC government which implements a regulation on issuing licences to qualified crude oil business operators. The Company may only purchase crude oil from licensed crude oil suppliers. China Petrochemical Corporation, Sinopec Corp. and its associates (e.g. China International United Petroleum & Chemicals Co., Ltd and Sinopec Reserve) are licensed crude oil suppliers. In addition, China Petrochemical Corporation, Sinopec Corp. and its associates have large crude oil storage tanks and pipeline transportation facilities close to the Company's production site. The Company considers that using the pipeline facilities of China Petrochemical Corporation, Sinopec Corp. and its associates to import crude oil will ensure stable and secured supply of crude oil and reduce transportation costs of crude oil.

Table of Contents

The Company has been purchasing petrochemical raw materials (such as crude oil, naphtha, ethylene, etc.) and other materials and goods at market prices from or via Sinopec Corp. and its associates (including China International United Petroleum & Chemicals Co., Ltd., Sinopec Pipeline Transport and Storage Company and Sinopec Shanghai Gao Qiao Company, etc.). An interruption of raw materials supply from Sinopec Corp. would increase difficulty and costs of operation of the Company, and therefore definitely cause a material adverse impact on the Company's production of its petroleum and petrochemical products. The Company also intends to purchase or borrow crude oil from Sinopec Reserve by utilising the petroleum reserve of Sinopec Reserve, which allows the Company to reduce its stocks of crude oil, and to adjust and optimise its stocks of crude oil according to production plans, stock status of crude oil and estimates on market demand. The price of crude oil purchased from Sinopec Reserves will be determined with reference to the international market price of crude oil, meanwhile the fee of borrowing crude oil from Sinopec Reserves will be charged with reference to the bank interest rates with an appropriate discount.

Accordingly, the Board believes that reliability and stability of supply of raw materials is crucial to the safe, steady, long-term, fully-loaded and optimised operation of the Company and it is in the interest of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole to continue the purchase of raw materials from or via China Petrochemical Corporation, Sinopec Corp. and its associates.

Pricing: Pursuant to the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement, the purchase of petrochemical raw materials (such as crude oil, naphtha, ethylene, etc.) and other materials and goods from or via China Petrochemical Corporation, Sinopec Corp. and its associates are priced in accordance with the following pricing policies:

- (a) if there are applicable State (central and local governments) tariffs, the pricing of the Company's purchases shall follow the State tariffs; or
- (b) if there are no State tariffs, but if there are applicable State's guidance prices, the pricing of the Company's purchases shall follow the State's guidance prices; or
- (c) if there are no applicable State tariffs or State's guidance prices, the pricing of the Company's purchases shall be determined in accordance with the prevailing market prices (including any bidding prices).

The price of crude oil purchased from China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates (such as Sinopec Reserves) is determined on the basis of the average price one month before crude oil is planned for delivery from stocks (pricing month) while taking into account the premium level; the freight is determined on the basis of the average freight for the routes of China Petrochemical Corporation and Sinopec Corp. for that type of oil during the pricing month; and the exchange rate is calculated at the exchange rate on the first trading day of the month in which crude oil is planned for delivery from stocks. The fee of usage of crude oil borrowed by the Company is calculated on the basis of 70% of the costs of purchase such as CIF, miscellaneous purchase expenses, transportation expenses, insurance expenses and taxes for the same type of oil in the month of borrowing the crude oil (borrowing month), and on the basis of 90% of the interest rate for a six-month loan as announced by the PBOC during the borrowing month.

The Company will settle the payment for its raw material purchases by way of cash payments in accordance with the payment terms set out in each of the individual contracts for the purchase of such raw materials.

Annual Caps: For the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company proposed that the annual transaction values in relation to the purchase of raw materials from China Petrochemical Corporation, Sinopec Corp. and its associates shall not, in aggregate, exceed the Annual Caps of RMB85.254 billion, RMB91.444 billion and RMB94.475 billion, respectively. In 2010, the then Independent Shareholders of the Company approved the Annual Caps of RMB47.3 billion, RMB57.7 billion and RMB81.0 billion in relation to the purchase of raw materials for the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and the year ending 31 December 2013, respectively. The Annual Caps for 2011 and 2012 were not exceeded and based on the current estimate, the Company is of the view that the Annual Cap for 2013 will not be exceeded.

Table of Contents

The Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 are determined with reference to:

- (a) the previous transactions conducted and transaction amounts in respect of purchases of raw materials from or via Sinopec Corp. and its associates;
- (b) the Company's estimate of its business growth;
- (c) the Company's estimate of the increase in the price of raw materials; and
- (d) the Company's estimate of the impact of possible price fluctuations brought by geopolitical factors, fluctuation of exchange rate of US dollars and speculations on energy prices caused by speculative funds in the international capital market, apart from the price fluctuations brought by ordinary demand and supply balance.

The increase in the proposed Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 compared to the previous Annual Caps is primarily due to the Company's plans to construct new 500,000 T/Y light hydrocarbon aromatization plant, 100,000 T/Y EVA plant, 100,000 T/Y methyl methacrylate (MMA) plant, and to implement the ethylene plant upgrade project and the aromatics plant upgrade project as well as other environmentally-friendly, energy-saving technological upgrade projects. Construction and operation of the abovementioned projects will further increase the Company's demand for raw materials and goods.

2.3.2 Sale of petroleum products

Background: Transactions involving sale and purchase of petroleum products including gasoline, diesel, jet fuel and liquefied petroleum gas, etc., are subject to regulations by the PRC government which implements a regulation on issuing licences to qualified petroleum products business operators. The Company is only allowed to sell petroleum products to companies with the licenses to conduct transactions involving sale and purchase of petroleum products including gasoline diesel, jet fuel and liquefied petroleum gas, etc., Sinopec Corp. and its associates (e.g. Sinopec Marketing Company Huadong Branch) are licensed petroleum products business operators, hence, since the Company's initial public offering on 6 July 1993, the Company has been selling and will continue to sell petroleum products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates.

Sinopec Corp. was one of the Company's five largest customers for each of the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and for the six months ended 30 June 2013. The table below sets out the historical figures of the Company's aggregate sales of petroleum products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates for each of the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and for the six months ended 30 June 2013:

The Company entered into the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement, which included the continuing connected transaction regarding the sale of petroleum products, with Sinopec Corp. on 11 November 2010. The terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder were approved at the 2010 EGM. As at the date of this announcement, the terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder continue to have full effect and remain unchanged. Given that the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement will expire soon on 31 December 2013, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and the Sale Services Framework Agreement with China Petrochemical Corporation and Sinopec Corp. so as to continue the sale of petroleum products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Reasons for such transaction: Transactions involving sale and purchase of petroleum products including gasoline, diesel, jet fuel and liquefied petroleum gas, etc., are subject to regulations by the PRC government which implements a regulation on issuing licences to qualified petroleum products business operators. The Company is only allowed to sell petroleum products to companies with the licences to conduct transactions involving sale and purchase of petroleum products including gasoline diesel, jet fuel and liquefied petroleum gas, etc., Sinopec Corp. and its associates (e.g. Sinopec Marketing Company Huadong Branch) are licensed petroleum products business operators. In addition, Sinopec Corp. and its associates own widespread petroleum products sales network and possess a fairly high market share in domestic petroleum product market. Therefore, selling petroleum products via the channel of Sinopec Corp. and its associates would help the Company benefit from its solid commercial network and improve the Company's competitiveness.

Pricing: Pursuant to the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement, the sale of petroleum products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates is determined in accordance with the following pricing policies:

- (a) if there are applicable State (central and local governments) tariffs, the pricing of the Company's sales shall follow the State tariffs; or
- (b) if there are no State tariffs, but if there are applicable State's guidance prices, the pricing of the Company's sales shall follow the State's guidance prices; or
- (c) if there are no applicable State tariffs or State's guidance prices, the pricing of the Company's sales shall be determined in accordance with the prevailing market prices (including any bidding prices).

Sinopec Corp. and its associates will settle payment for their purchases of the Company's petroleum products by way of cash payments in accordance with the payment terms set out in each of the individual sales contracts for the sale of such petroleum products.

Annual Caps: For the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company proposed that the annual transaction values in relation to the sale of petroleum products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates shall not, in aggregate, exceed the Annual Caps of RMB65.479 billion, RMB75.678 billion and RMB79.586 billion, respectively. In 2010, the then Independent Shareholders of the Company approved the Annual caps of RMB36.6 billion, RMB52.0 billion and RMB75.0 billion in relation to the sale of petrochemical products for the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and the year ending 31 December 2013, respectively. The Annual Caps for 2011 and 2012 were not exceeded and based on the current estimate, the Company is of the view that the Annual Cap for 2013 will not be exceeded.

The Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 are determined with reference to:

- (a) the previous transactions conducted and transaction amounts in respect of the sale of petroleum products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates;

Table of Contents

- (b) the current prices of petroleum products and expectations on the further improvement of the State's petroleum products pricing mechanism;
- (c) the Company's estimate of the increase in international crude oil prices;
- (d) the Company's estimate of the enhancement in quality of petroleum products in China; and
- (e) the Company's estimate of the impact of possible price fluctuations brought by geopolitical factors, fluctuation of exchange rate of US dollars and speculations on energy prices caused by speculative funds in the international capital market, apart from the price fluctuations brought by ordinary demand and supply balance.

2.3.3 Sale of petrochemical products

Background: In addition to sale of petroleum products, the Company has in the past in the ordinary and usual course of its business sold certain petrochemical products, including butadiene, benzene, PX and EG etc., to Sinopec Corp. and its associates.

The table below sets forth the historical figures of the Company's total sales of its petrochemical products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates for each of the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and for the six months ended 30 June 2013:

	Historical figures

The Company entered into the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement, which included the continuing connected transaction regarding the sale of petrochemical products, with Sinopec Corp. on 11 November 2010. The terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder were approved at the 2010 EGM. As at the date of this announcement, the terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder continue to have full effect and remain unchanged. Given that the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement will expire soon on 31 December 2013, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement with China Petrochemical Corporation and Sinopec Corp. so as to continue the sale of its petrochemical products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Reasons for such transactions: The Company believes that the sale of petrochemical products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates at market price reduces the needs for a prolonged stocking of its petrochemical products in its inventory, optimises its operation, reduces impact of fluctuation of market demand to the largest extent and ensures stable profits. In addition, as the Company has already established an amicable customer-supplier relationship with Sinopec Corp., it believes that an alliance with a reputable international petrochemical corporation such as Sinopec Corp. can retain stable client and assist the development and market expansion for its products.

Pricing: Pursuant to the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement, the sale of petrochemical products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates are determined according to the following pricing policies:

- (a) if there are applicable State (central and local governments) tariffs, the pricing of the Company's sales shall follow the State tariffs; or

(b) if there are no State tariffs, but if there are applicable State's guidance prices, the pricing of the Company's sales shall follow the State's guidance prices; or

(c) if there are no applicable State tariffs or State's guidance prices, the pricing of the Company's sales shall be determined in accordance with the prevailing market prices (including any bidding prices).

Sinopec Corp. and its associates will settle payment for their purchases of the Company's petrochemical products by way of cash payments in accordance with the payment terms set out in each of the individual sales contracts for the sale of such petrochemical products.

Annual Caps: For the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company proposed the annual transaction values in relation to the sale of petrochemical products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates shall not, in aggregate, exceed the Annual Caps of RMB24.394 billion, RMB29.417 billion and RMB31.156 billion, respectively. In 2010, the then Independent Shareholders of the Company approved the Annual Caps of RMB16.1 billion, RMB17.4 billion and RMB20.9 billion in relation to the sale of petrochemical products for the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and the year ending 31 December 2013, respectively. The Annual Caps for 2011 and 2012 were not exceeded and based on the current estimate, the Company is of the view that the Annual Cap for 2013 will not be exceeded.

The Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 are determined with reference to:

- (a) the previous transactions conducted and transaction amounts in respect of the sale of its petrochemical products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates;
- (b) the Company's estimate of the increase in the costs of raw materials;
- (c) the Company's estimate of the increase in its production capacity of petrochemical products;
- (d) the Company's estimate of the increase in the market prices of petrochemical products; and
- (e) the Company's estimate of the impact of possible price fluctuations brought by geopolitical factors, fluctuation of exchange rate of US dollars and speculations on energy prices caused by speculative funds in the international capital market, apart from the price fluctuations brought by ordinary demand and supply balance.

The increase in the proposed Annual Caps for the years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 compared to the previous Annual Caps is primarily due to the increase of the production capacity of the Company and expansion of business of the Company's subsidiary, Jinshan Associated Trading.

In addition, the Company plans to construct new 100,000 T/Y EVA plant. Operation of the abovementioned project will further increase the production capacity of petrochemical products of the Company.

2.3.4 Assets and properties leasing

Background: In 2004, the Company purchased the property rights of the 16th to 28th floors of Huamin Empire Plaza, No. 728 Yan'an Road West, Shanghai, to be used as the Company's city office while part of the property was leased out. In 2007, the Company decided to lease the property to Sinopec Corp. and its associates considering their strong financial background and included the property leasing into the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sales Services Framework Agreement.

Table of Contents

The table below sets forth the historical figures of the Company's annual transaction values in relation to property leasing to Sinopec Corp. and its associates for each of the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and for the six months ended 30 June 2013:

Annual transaction values in relation to property leasing to Sinopec Corp. and its associates	23	24	12

The leased assets comprise the houses, buildings and ancillary facilities (with a total gross floor area of 18,552.7 square metres); nine storage tanks (1# to 9# storage tanks with a total volume of 460,000 cubic metres) and all ancillary facilities of the storage tanks; three jetty berths (7#, 8# and 9# berths) and the ancillary facilities; power supply and distribution facilities (including two 6KV underground cables); water supply facilities; rain and sewage system; fire safety facilities; office communications equipment; land use right (for an area of 418,939.8 square metres) and marine use right (for an area of 1,132,800 square metres), all of which are located at Chenshan Oil Depot Area and legally owned by the Company.

Through leasing the assets, it is believed that the economic contribution to the Company will be materialised to the fullest extent possible, as well as will bring reasonable rental income to the Company on a continuous basis, the Company has entered into the Existing Assets Leasing Agreement with East China Sales Company on 31 January 2013, pursuant to which the Company leases the Leased Assets to East China Sales Company with rent in aggregate be not more than RMB78,251,200 per year (including tax). The Company will include the Existing Assets Leasing Agreement into the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement.

The table below sets forth the historical figures of the Company's transaction values in relation to property leasing to East China Sales Company for the six months ended 30 June 2013:

The Company entered into the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement with Sinopec Corp. on 11 November 2010, which included the relevant continuing connected transaction regarding leasing of property. The terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder were approved at the 2010 EGM. As at the date of this announcement, the terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder continue to have full effect and remain unchanged. Given that the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement will expire soon on 31 December 2013, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement with China Petrochemical Corporation and Sinopec Corp. so as to continue the leasing of assets and properties to Sinopec Corp. and its associates for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Table of Contents

Reasons for such transactions: Part of the property is leased to Sinopec Corp. and its associates. Taking into account (i) the solid financial background and reputation of Sinopec Corp. and (ii) the fact that Sinopec Corp. is able to rent many rooms for a relatively long period of time, the Board proposed the Company to continue leasing the property to Sinopec Corp. and its associates in the future.

Chenshan Oil Depot Area came into operation in the 1970s and was previously used to store, and provide transshipment service of, low sulphur crude oil for the Company and raw materials, including C3 and C4, for Shanghai Golden Conti Petrochemical Co., Ltd. (Golden Conti Company). Since very large crude carriers (VLCC) may not be able to dock at the jetty at Chenshan Oil Depot Area which is a shallow-draft jetty with low tonnage capacity, products were transported via multiple short trips after unloading the crude oil from vessels to small boats. With the completion of the construction and the commencement of the operation of Sinopec's large deepwater crude oil terminal at Daxie Island and its Ningbo-Shanghai-Nanjing Pipeline, the transport via the Ningbo-Shanghai-Nanjing Pipeline of the crude oil procured by us has been on an increase in order to lower the transport cost and the shipping loss. Further, the completion of the construction as well as the commencement of the operation of the Company's Refinery Revamping and Expansion Project in December 2012 has enhanced our crude oil processing capacity and depth of processing and enabled the Company to move a step forward to improve its crude oil processing business with respect to inferior and heavy crude oil, and there is basically no need to use the low sulphur crude oil any longer, and accordingly the low sulphur crude oil storage function of Chenshan Oil Depot Area has been further impaired. Further, since the Refinery Revamping and Expansion Project came into operation, the refined oil production capacity of the Company has expanded over 90% compared to its original capacity with a possible increase of the refined oil production capacity of around more than 4.6 million tons on an annual basis, there is a pressing need to resolve issues relating to the transshipment and the expansion into Jiangsu and Zhejiang markets of refined oil. As East China Sales Company is a customer of the Company in respect of its sale of the refined oil products, its lease of the leased assets located at Chenshan Oil Depot Area from the Company plays a primary role in realising the transshipment of refined oil products of the Company and in tapping into Jiangsu and Zhejiang markets via Zhejiang-Suzhou Pipeline.

As a result of the renewed of the assets leasing agreement, the economic contribution arising from the large deepwater crude oil terminal at Daxie Island and Ningbo-Shanghai-Nanjing Pipeline to the Company in lowering its crude oil transport cost and shipping loss may be materialised to the fullest extent possible, and the assets of the Company may also be revitalised at the same time, which are instrumental for supporting the efforts of the Company in the transshipment of the refined oil and the expansion into the Jiangsu and Zhejiang markets as well as in bringing reasonable rental income to the Company on a continuous basis.

Pricing: Pursuant to the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Service Framework Agreement, the leasing of property to Sinopec Corp. and its associates is priced in accordance with the then market prices. The Company will generally receive rental payments in cash payments in accordance with the rental payment terms set out in the individual lease agreement.

The rental payment of the Leased Assets in Chenshan Oil Depot Area is calculated on the following basis: 1) the rental price of each of the fixed assets and marine use right which are part of the leased assets is calculated according to the relevant cost incurred plus an appropriate profit margin; 2) the annual rent for the land use right which is part of the leased assets is calculated by using the following formula in accordance with the income capitalisation approach:

$$a = V \times r / [1 - 1 / (1 + r)^n]$$

a: Net income of land use right / annual rent (assuming that the annual rent for the term of land use right in future stays the same)

V: Price of land use right (with reference to the available local land market price)

r: Capitalisation ratio (with reference to the benchmark interest rate for five-year term national debt)

n: Term of land use right in future (30 years)

Table of Contents

Annual Caps: For the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company proposed that the annual transaction values in relation to assets and properties leasing to Sinopec Corp. and its associates shall not, in aggregate, exceed the Annual Caps of RMB112 million, RMB114 million and RMB116 million, respectively. In 2010, the then Independent Shareholders of the Company approved the Annual Caps of RMB28 million, RMB31 million and RMB32 million in relation to the leasing of property for the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and the year ending 31 December 2013, respectively. In 2013, upon the approval of the Board, the rent for the Leased Assets in Chenshan Oil Depot Area shall in aggregate be not more than RMB78,251,200 per year (including tax). The Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 are determined with reference to:

- (a) the market prices of similar properties in Shanghai in the past three years;

2.3.5 Agency sale of petrochemical products

Background: In the ordinary and usual course of the Company's business, the Company has in the past entered into sale arrangements with its agents pursuant to which the agents will, on behalf of the Company, procure purchasers for the Company's petrochemical products, including resins, synthetic fiber monomers and polymers, synthetic fibers, intermediate petrochemicals, by-products of ethylene crackers and aromatics complex, as well as off-spec products related to the aforementioned five types of products, on a commission basis.

The sales agents with whom the Company entered into these ongoing arrangements include Sinopec Corp. and its associates. The table below sets forth the historical figures of the aggregate agency commissions that the Company paid to Sinopec Corp. and its associates for each of the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and for the six months ended 30 June 2013:

The Company entered into the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement with Sinopec Corp. on 11 November 2010, which included the continuing connected transaction regarding agency sale of petrochemical products. The terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder were approved at the 2010 EGM. As at the date of this announcement, the terms of the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder continue to have full effect and remain unchanged. However, as the Existing Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2013, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement with Sinopec Corp. so as to continue to appoint Sinopec Corp. and its associates as agents of the Company in respect of the agency sale of the Company's petrochemical products for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Table of Contents

Reasons for such transactions: Trading, distribution and marketing of the Company's products are important elements in the success of the business of the Company. Sinopec Corp. is one of the largest petrochemical companies in the world and has a strong global trading, distribution and marketing network. The Company considers that by appointing Sinopec Corp. and its associates as its sales agents, it will benefit from Sinopec Corp.'s experience, expertise and strong global network, increase the sales of its petrochemical products, avoid peers competition and further improve the Company's bargaining position with customers.

Pricing: Pursuant to the Renewed Mutual Product Supply and Sale Services Framework Agreement, the commissions payable to Sinopec Corp. and its associates in connection with the agency sale of the Company's petrochemical products are determined on the prevailing market commission rates for agency sale of the Company's petrochemical products.

The Company will pay the commissions by way of cash payments generally on a monthly basis.

Annual Caps: For the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company proposes the annual agency commission payable to Sinopec Corp. and its associates for sale of the Company's petrochemical products shall not, in aggregate, exceed the Annual Caps of RMB283 million, RMB305] million and RMB309 million, respectively. In 2010, the then Independent Shareholders of the Company approved the Annual Caps of RMB290 million, RMB310 million and RMB390 million in relation to the annual agency sale of the Company's petrochemical products for the two years ended 31 December 2011 and 2012 and the year ending 31 December 2013, respectively. The Annual Caps for 2011 and 2012 were not exceeded and based on the current estimate, the Company is of the view that the Annual Cap for 2013 will not be exceeded.

The Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 are determined with reference to:

- (a) the previous transactions conducted and transaction amounts in respect of agency sale of petrochemical products through Sinopec Corp. and its associates;
- (b) the Company's estimate of the increase in petrochemical product prices resulting from the increase in international crude oil prices; and
- (c) the Company's estimate of its increase in production capacity.

The Company plans to construct new 100,000 T/Y EVA plant. Operation of the abovementioned project will increase the production capacity of petrochemical products of the Company. Accordingly, the Company expects the agency sale of its petrochemical products to increase as a result.

2.3.6 Provision of construction, installation and engineering design services

Background: In order to upgrade and optimize existing products and processes and to develop and improve new technology, products, processes and equipment relating to its business, the Company maintains several technology development centers and research institutes. The detailed engineering and implementation of such designs are carried out by external service providers.

Since the Company's initial public offering on 6 July 1993, the Company has from time to time obtained, in the ordinary and usual course of its business, construction, installation and engineering design services from external service providers including China Petrochemical Corporation Ningbo Engineering Company Limited and China Petrochemical Corporation Shanghai Engineering Company Limited, both of which are subsidiaries of China Petrochemical Corporation. In September 2012, Sinopec Corp. consolidated its refinery engineering business and set up Sinopec Engineering (Group) Co., Ltd. (Sinopec Engineering), and refinery engineering corporations including China Petrochemical Corporation Ningbo Engineering Company Limited and China Petrochemical Corporation Shanghai Engineering Company Limited became the subsidiaries of Sinopec Engineering.

The Company entered into the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement with China Petrochemical Corporation on 11 November 2010, which included the continuing connected transaction regarding construction, installation and engineering design with China Petrochemical Corporation. The terms of the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder were approved at the 2010 EGM. As at the date of this announcement, the terms of the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder continue to have full effect and remain unchanged. Given that the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement will expire soon on 31 December 2013, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement with China Petrochemical Corporation so as to continue to obtain construction, installation and engineering design services from China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Reasons for such transactions: The Company believes that China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates have consistently been able to meet the Company's stringent demands for highly technical design, as well as construction and installation specifications and timely delivery of services of good quality. As the Company considers that having reliable and co-operative service providers are important and beneficial to the Company, obtaining services from China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates allows the Company to ensure timely completion of its future projects while maintaining the requisite quality. In addition, obtaining construction, installation and engineering design services from China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates will minimize the risk of leakage of intellectual property and trade secrets to third parties in the process of providing such services.

Pricing: Pursuant to the Renewed Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement, the fees payable to China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates in relation to the provision of construction, installation and engineering design services are priced according to the prevailing market prices (including any bidding prices) for such services.

The Company will settle the fees by way of cash payments in accordance with the payment terms set out in each of the individual service contracts for the provision of such services.

Annual Caps: For the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company proposed that the annual fees payable in relation to the provision of construction, installation and engineering design services by China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates shall not, in aggregate, exceed the Annual Caps of RMB668 million, RMB1,593 million and RMB1,824 million, respectively. In 2010, the then Independent Shareholders of the Company approved Annual Caps of RMB665 million, RMB640 million and RMB420 million in relation to the provision of construction, installation and engineering design services for the two years ended 31 December 2011, 2012 and the year ending 31 December 2013, respectively. The Annual Caps for 2011 and 2012 were not exceeded and based on the current estimate, the Company is of the view that the Annual Cap for 2013 will not be exceeded.

Table of Contents

The Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 are determined with reference to:

- (a) the previous transactions conducted and transaction amounts in respect of the provision of construction, installation and engineering design services by China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates;
- (b) the Company's estimate of the construction, installation and engineering design services costs which are required to satisfy its existing and future development; and
- (c) the Company's estimate of the increase in the market prices of construction, installation and engineering design services based on the historical economic data and data in relation to the future economic growth in the PRC.

The increase in the proposed Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 compared to the previous Annual Caps is primarily due to the Company's plans to construct new 500,000 T/Y light hydrocarbon aromatization plant, 100,000 T/Y EVA plant, 100,000 T/Y methyl methacrylate (MMA) plant, and to implement the aromatics plant upgrade project and the ethylene plant upgrade project as well as other environmentally-friendly, energy-saving technological upgrade projects. Construction of the abovementioned projects will significantly increase the cost of construction, installation and engineering design. According to the Company's current project investment plan, the capital expenditure for the abovementioned projects during the years of 2014, 2015 and 2016 are expected to be over RMB800 million, 3,200 million and 5,100 million, respectively. The implementation of the abovementioned projects are subject to the approval of relevant PRC government authorities.

2.3.7 Provision of petrochemical industry insurance agency services

The terms of the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder were approved at the 2010 EGM. As at the date of this announcement, the terms of the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder continue to have full effect and remain unchanged. Given that the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement will expire soon on 31 December 2013, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement with China Petrochemical Corporation so as to continue to obtain petrochemical industry insurance services from China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Table of Contents

Reasons for such transactions: Captive insurance has been widely adopted in the petrochemical industry. The Ministry of Finance has already granted approval for China Petrochemical Corporation to provide captive insurance services to its affiliates. The Company believes that maintaining a suitable insurance coverage over the Company's operation is important and will minimize the Company's risk exposure. Obtaining insurance services from China Petrochemical Corporation allows the Company to secure essential insurance coverage over its operation and is therefore beneficial to the Company.

Pricing: Pursuant to the Renewed Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement, the premiums payable to China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates in relation to the provision of petrochemical industry insurance services are priced according to the relevant administrative measures promulgated by the Ministry of Finance and China Petrochemical Corporation which provided that such premiums should be calculated based on the fixed asset value and the inventory of the Company.

The Company will pay the insurance premiums by way of cash payments.

Annual Caps: For the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company proposed that the annual insurance premiums payable to China Petrochemical Corporation and its associates in relation to the provision of petrochemical industry insurance services shall not, in aggregate, exceed the Annual Caps of RMB180 million, RMB190 million and RMB200 million, respectively. In 2010, the then Independent Shareholders of the Company approved the Annual Caps of RMB135 million, RMB141 million and RMB174 million in relation to the provision of petrochemical industry insurance services for the two years ended 31 December 2011, 2012 and the year ending 31 December 2013, respectively. The Annual Caps for 2011 and 2012 were not exceeded and based on the current estimate, the Company is of the view that the Annual Cap for 2013 will not be exceeded.

The Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 are determined with reference to:

- (a) the previous transactions conducted and transaction amounts in respect of the provision of petrochemical industry insurance services by China Petrochemical Corporation;
- (b) the Company's estimate of the growth in the value of its facilities in view of the Company's existing and future development; and
- (c) the Company's estimate of the increase in the market prices for the provision of petrochemical industry insurance services in the PRC.

The implementation of the following projects is expected to expand the asset size of the Company and therefore increase the premium of insurance:

revamping and expansion of aromatics plant

installation of 500,000 T/Y light hydrocarbon aromatization

100,000 T/Y EVA plant

100,000 T/Y Methyl methacrylate (MMA) plant etc.

The Company entered into the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement, which included the continuing connected transaction regarding the provision of financial services, with China Petrochemical Corporation on 11 November 2010. The terms of the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder were approved at the 2010 EGM. As at the date of this announcement, the terms of the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement and the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder continue to have full effect and remain unchanged. Given that the Existing Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement will expire soon on 31 December 2013, the Board proposed the Company to enter into the Renewed Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement with China Petrochemical Corporation so as to continue to obtain financial services from Sinopec Finance for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

The major financial services obtained by the Company from Sinopec Finance include loans, receipts and payments on behalf of the Company and discounted services. Company does not use fixed deposit services. When the Company obtains a loan from Sinopec Finance, it will usually retain part of the loan in Sinopec Finance for settlement purposes.

Since no guarantee is required for the loans provided by Sinopec Finance, and these loans will be used as financial aids under normal commercial terms, the matter is exempted from the reporting, announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements according to 14A.65 (4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. The loans are obtained from Sinopec Finance under normal commercial terms which are not less favourable than those terms of Chinese commercial banks for loans.

Reasons for such transactions: The Company considers that having reliable and co-operative financial services are important to its business as the nature of the Company's business means that transactions often involve payment of large sums of money. The ability to obtain timely financial services, such as loan facilities, discounting services and so forth is essential to the Company. The financial services provided by Sinopec Finance have always been for the benefit of the Company and are, in the Company's opinion, generally on no less favourable terms as compared to the terms offered by other financial institutions.

Pricing: The fees and charges payable by the Company to Sinopec Finance under the Renewed Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement will be determined by reference to the applicable fees and charges specified by the PBOC and the CBRC for the relevant services from time to time, and if neither the PBOC nor the CBRC has specified a fee or charge for a particular service, then the services will be provided by Sinopec Finance on terms no less favorable than terms available from the commercial banks in China.

The Company will settle the fees and charges by way of cash payments in accordance with the payment terms set out in each of the individual financing agreements to be entered into with Sinopec Finance for the provision of such financial services.

Table of Contents

Annual Caps: For the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company proposed the annual fees payable to Sinopec Finance in relation to the provision of financial services shall not, in aggregate, exceed the Annual Caps of RMB300 million for each of the three years, respectively. The Annual Caps for 2011 and 2012 were not exceeded and based on the current estimate, the Company is of the view that the Annual Cap for 2013 will not be exceeded.

The Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 are determined with reference to:

- (a) the previous transactions conducted and transaction amounts in respect of the provision of financial services by Sinopec Finance Company Limited;
- (b) the Company's estimate of its business growth;
- (c) the Company's volume of transactions involving the use of financial services; and
- (d) the Company's estimate of the increase in the market prices of financial services.

The increase in the proposed Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 compared to the previous Annual Caps is primarily due to the Company's plans to implement the aromatics plant upgrade project and the ethylene plant upgrade project, and to construct new 500,000 T/Y light hydrocarbon aromatization plant, 100,000 T/Y EVA plant, 100,000 T/Y methyl methacrylate (MMA) plant and other environmental-friendly, energy-saving technological upgrade projects.
