Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 5, 2013, CLARCOR Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into a Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with General Electric Company, a New York corporation (GE), pursuant to which the Company would acquire the Air Filtration business of GE's Power and Water division (the Business) through the acquisition of certain assets and the assumption of certain liabilities related to the Business, as well as the acquisition of the stock of a subsidiary of GE. The purchase price payable by the Company under the Purchase Agreement would be $265 million in cash, subject to adjustment based on the working capital of the Business as of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement (the Closing).

The Purchase Agreement contains various representations and warranties and covenants by the parties to such agreement and related indemnification obligations. The Closing is expected to occur in the fourth quarter of 2013 and is subject to certain closing conditions, including the expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended.

The foregoing summary of the proposed transaction and the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Purchase Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

The Purchase Agreement has been included to provide stockholders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, GE or the Business. The representations, warranties, and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement were made solely for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Purchase Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to stockholders. Stockholders should not rely on the representations, warranties, or covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, GE or the Business. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.
