Introduction

Sam Zell & David Helfand Have Joined Corvex/Related's Slate of Nominees

Mr. Zell is willing to serve as Chairman of the Board, if so appointed by the new Board

Mr. Zell is the current Chairman of Equity Residential, Equity LifeStyle Properties, Covanta Holding Corporation and Anixter International Inc. and the former Chairman of Equity Office Properties

Trust (formerly the largest REIT
in
U.S.)

Mr. Helfand is willing to serve as Commonwealth's CEO, if so appointed by the new Board

Mr. Helfand is Co-President of EGI and has previously served as Executive Vice President and Chief Investment Officer of Equity Office Properties Trust and President and CEO of Equity LifeStyle Properties

Mr. Zell and Mr. Helfand bring exceptional investment, real estate and public company credentials to an already highly qualified slate of nominees

(1)
Mr. Zell and Mr. Helfand plan to bring to the Company their highly qualified and experienced management team to execute on a value-driven strategy and utilize their expertise in turning around underperforming assets

(1)
Detailed biographies are included in the Appendix

Sam Zell is recognized as a founding father of today's public real estate industry after creating three of the most successful REITs in history: Equity Office Properties Trust (EOP), Equity Residential (EQR), and Equity LifeStyle Properties (ELS)

The Choice Is Clear

Commonwealth Shareholders Have a Choice Between Two Paths

The Portnoys

path of conflicted external management, value destruction, and the absence of accountability, with which CWH shareholders are all too familiar

OR

Sam Zell's path of aligned internal management and accountability that fosters

incentives

critical
building a successful company focused on
long-term creation of shareholder value

CWH has underperformed for years due to a severe misalignment of interests in an external management structure through which the Portnoys effectively control CWH despite owning virtually no stock, with the fees they pay themselves through RMR being their only meaningful economic interest in the Company

Not surprisingly, CWH's stock generated a cumulative total return of a mere 7% over a nearly 16-year

span

In glaring contrast, Sam Zell's track record speaks for itself: Mr. Zell created 3 of the most successful REITs in history

As evidenced in the chart on the following page, we believe Mr. Zell's chairmanship of EOP, EQR, ELS has unquestionably maximized value for shareholders over the same 16-year period in which CWH generated 7% returns

We believe the choice could not be more clear

The Choice Is Clear: Alignment of Interests & Accountability Board & Management Focused on Increasing Shareholder Value Sam Zell and David Helfand fully support efforts to maximize value at CommonWealth for all shareholders
and see an attractive opportunity at CommonWealth

uniquely suited to their expertise in leading public real estate companies and in turning around underperforming assets.
Their philosophy includes:

core operating principle
aligning interests between company
leadership
and

conviction that an internal management structure promotes incentives
build successful
companies
long-run creation
shareholder
value, while external
management
structures are suboptimal given inherent conflicts of interest

A belief
shareholders
deserve good

governance, transparency
and accountability from company leadership

A belief

public company's fiduciary responsibility
to its shareholders
is paramount

Led by Sam Zell, our highly qualified nominees offer shareholders a choice to elect an accountable and properly aligned board charged with being their advocate

6

The Choice Is Clear: Good Governance

With Good Governance Shareholders Will Always Have A Choice

We are concerned about any attempts to preclude shareholder rights, and our companies are free of such impediments.

-Sam Zell, Corvex/Related Press Release, February 11, 2014

With good corporate governance, shareholders will be able to hold their board

managers

accountable

without having
to spend exorbitant sums litigating
right
to do so if shareholders

disapprove
our slate s
performance, they can simply nominate to replace them at the next Annual Meeting

The core governance principles below are necessary underpinnings to good governance:
Annual elections for all Trustees beginning at the 2014 Annual Meeting (no staggered board)

Plurality vote for contested elections

A conventional notification process for trustee nominations and other important Company i.e., elimination of unreasonably burdensome ownership/holding period requirements and other procedural roadblocks

No changes to these provisions without a shareholder vote business
