EXPLANATORY NOTE

Pursuant to a registration statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-132713) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) on March 24, 2006, Neonode Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company” or “Registrant”), registered a total of 1,500,000 shares of its common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Common Stock”), reserved for sale pursuant to the Company’s 2006 Equity Incentive Plan (“2006 Plan”). In accordance with Rule 416 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), the registered amount under the 2006 Plan decreased to 300,000 shares when the Company amended its certificate of incorporation on March 30, 2007 to effect a reverse stock split pursuant to which every five shares of outstanding common stock was reclassified into one share of common stock.

On August 10, 2007, the Company’s stockholders approved an amendment to the 2006 Plan, pursuant to which the number of shares of Common Stock reserved for sale thereunder was increased by 1,000,000 shares to an aggregate of 1,300,000 shares (the “First Amendment”). As a consequence of the First Amendment, the Company registered an additional 1,000,000 shares pursuant to a registration statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-150346) filed with the Commission on April 21, 2008. On that registration statement on Form S-8 (File No. 33-150346), the Company also registered 2,117,332 shares of Common Stock reserved for sale pursuant to the 2007 Neonode Stock Option Plan (The “2007 Plan”). In accordance with Rule 416 under the Securities Act, the registered amount under the 2006 Plan decreased to 52,000 shares and the registered amount under the 2007 Plan decreased to 84,693 shares when the Company amended its certificate of incorporation on March 25, 2011 to effect a reverse stock split pursuant to which every twenty-five shares of outstanding common stock was reclassified into one share of common stock.

On January 30, 2012, the Company’s Board of Directors approved an amendment to the 2006 Plan, pursuant to which the number of shares of Common Stock reserved for sale thereunder was increased by 2,000,000 shares to an aggregate of 2,052,000 shares (the “Second Amendment”). This Registration Statement covers the additional 2,000,000 shares of Common Stock reserved for sale under the 2006 Plan as a consequence of the Second Amendment. Although this Registration Statement does not cover any increase in shares under the 2007 Plan, any previously registered but unsold shares under the 2007 Plan continue to be covered by this Registration Statement.

Pursuant to General Instruction E of Form S-8, this Registration Statement incorporates by reference the contents of the registration statements on Form S-8 filed by the Company on March 24, 2006 and April 21, 2008 as referenced above (File Nos. 333-132713 and 333-150346) except as amended hereby.

Item 6. Indemnification Of Directors And Officers

The Company is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (“DGCL”) provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any persons who are, or are threatened to be made, parties to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation), by reason of the fact that such person was an officer, director, employee or agent of such corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such person as an officer, director, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation’s best interests and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was illegal. No indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him or her against the expenses which such officer or director has actually and reasonably incurred. The Company’s Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide for the indemnification of directors and officers of the Company to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duties as a director, except for liability:

- for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit;
- for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- for improper payment of dividends or redemptions of shares; or
- for any breach of a director’s duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders.

As permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL, the Company’s Bylaws provide that (i) the Company is required to indemnify its directors and executive officers to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, (ii) the Company may, in its discretion, indemnify other officers, employees and agents as set forth in the DGCL, (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, the Company is required to advance all expenses incurred by its directors and executive officers in connection with a legal proceeding (subject to certain exceptions), (iv) the rights conferred in the Company’s Bylaws are not exclusive, (v) the Company is authorized to enter into indemnification agreements with its directors, officers, employees and agents, and (vi) the Company may not retroactively amend its Bylaws provisions relating to indemnity.

The Company has entered into agreements with its directors and officers that require the Company to indemnify such persons against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts that such person becomes legally obligated to pay (including expenses of a derivative action) in connection with any proceeding, whether actual or threatened, to which any such person may be made a party by reason of the fact that such person is or was the Company's director or officer or any of the Company's affiliated enterprises. The Company's obligation to indemnify its officers and directors is subject to certain limitations set forth in the indemnification agreements. The indemnification agreements also set forth certain procedures that will apply in the event of a claim for indemnification thereunder.

At present, there is no pending litigation or proceeding involving any of the Company's directors, officers or key employees as to which indemnification is being sought nor is the Company aware of any threatened litigation that may result in claims for indemnification by any of its officers or directors.

The Company has an insurance policy covering its officers and directors with respect to certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act or otherwise.

The above discussion of the DGCL and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by such statutes, Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.
