PART I

ITEM 1.

BUSINESS

General

We are a growth company seeking to increase our revenues through acquisitions. Our strategy reflects our management and Board’s current philosophy which we began implementing upon the change in control that was completed in September 2016. Our acquisition and development target strategy include companies that have developed a “new way of doing business” in mature, well-developed industries experiencing changes due to new technology; companies that may become profitable or more profitable through efficiency and reduction of costs; companies whose business is related to our core business in the commercial and defense industries; and companies that will enhance our overall revenues. We plan to substantially increase our gross revenues in the foreseeable future.

We operate as a holding company with operations conducted primarily through our subsidiaries. We conduct our activities in a manner so as not to be deemed an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”). Generally, this means that we do not invest or intend to invest in securities as our primary business and that no more than 40% of our total assets will be invested in investment securities as such term is defined in the Investment Company Act. We are a diversified holding company owning subsidiaries engaged in the following operating businesses: commercial and defense solutions, commercial lending, cryptocurrency blockchain mining and advanced textile technology. We also maintain a large investment in Avalanche International, Corp., which does business as MTIX International.

Originally, we were primarily a solution-driven organization that designed, developed, manufactured and sold high-grade customized and flexible power system solutions for the medical, military, telecom and industrial markets. Although we are actively seeking growth through acquisitions, we will continue to focus on high-grade and custom product designs for the commercial, medical and military/defense markets, where customers demand high density, high efficiency and ruggedized products to meet the harshest and/or military mission critical operating conditions.

We have operations located in Europe through our wholly-owned subsidiary, Digital Power Limited (“DP Limited”), Salisbury, England, which operates under the brand name of “Gresham Power Electronics” (“Gresham”). DP Limited designs, manufactures and sells power products and system solutions mainly for the European marketplace, including power conversion, power distribution equipment, DC/AC (Direct Current/Active Current) inverters and UPS (Uninterrupted Power Supply) products. Our European defense business is specialized in the field of naval power distribution products.

On November 30, 2016, we formed Digital Power Lending, LLC (“DP Lending”), a wholly-owned subsidiary. DP Lending provides commercial loans to companies throughout the United States to provide them with operating capital to finance the growth of their businesses. The loans range in duration from six months to three years, DP Lending operates under California Finance Lending License #60DBO-77905.

On June 2, 2017, we purchased 56.4% of the outstanding equity interests of Microphase Corporation (“Microphase”). Microphase is a design-to-manufacture original equipment manufacturer (“OEM”) industry leader delivering world-class radio frequency (“RF”) and microwave filters, diplexers, multiplexers, detectors, switch filters, integrated assemblies and detector logarithmic video amplifiers (“DLVA”) to the military, aerospace and telecommunications industries. Microphase is headquartered in Shelton, Connecticut.

On April 25, 2017, we formed Coolisys Technologies, Inc. (“Coolisys”), a wholly-owned subsidiary. Coolisys operates its existing businesses in the customized and flexible power system solutions for the medical, military, telecom, commercial and industrial markets, other than the European markets which are primarily served by DP Limited, in Coolisys. We intend to reorganize our corporate structure to make Digital Power North American operations, operated by our subsidiary Gresham, and Microphase, a subsidiary of Coolisys and as such an indirect subsidiary of ours.

On September 1, 2017, Coolisys acquired all of the outstanding membership interests in Power-Plus Technical Distributors, LLC, a California limited liability company (“Power-Plus”). Power-Plus is an industrial distributor of value added power supply solutions, UPS systems, fans, filters, line cords, and other power-related components. In addition to its current business, Power-Plus will serve as an extended sales organization for our overall flexible power system solutions.

On December 31, 2017, Coolisys entered into a share purchase agreement with Micronet Enertec Technologies, Inc. (“MICT”), a Delaware corporation, Enertec Management Ltd., an Israeli corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of MICT (“EML”), and Enertec Systems 2001 Ltd. (“Enertec”), an Israeli corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of EML, pursuant to which Coolisys acquired Enertec. Enertec is Israel’s largest private manufacturer of specialized electronic systems for the military market. On May 23, 2018, Coolisys completed its acquisition of Enertec.

On May 23, 2018, DP Lending entered into and closed a securities purchase agreement to acquire 98.1% of I.AM, Inc. (“I.AM”), for a purchase price of $981. I.AM owns and operates the Prep Kitchen brand restaurants located in the San Diego area. I.AM owed DP Lending $1,715,330 in outstanding principal, pursuant to a loan and security agreement, between I.AM and DP Lending, that I.AM used to acquire the restaurants.

We are a Delaware corporation, initially formed in California in 1969 and reincorporated in Delaware in 2017. We are located at 201 Shipyard Way, Suite E Newport Beach, CA 92663. Our phone number is 510-657-2635 and our website address is www.dpwholdings.com.

Recent Events

On September 18, 2017, the Board of Directors of Digital Power Corporation voted unanimously to recommend a number of proposals to be voted upon at its annual meeting (the “Meeting”), including a proposal to approve a change in domicile from California to Delaware (the “Reincorporation”). On December 27, 2017, Digital Power Corporation approved the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) providing for the merger (the “Merger”) of Digital Power Corporation with and into its wholly owned subsidiary DPW Holdings, Inc. (the “Company” or “DPW”). The Reincorporation, was approved at the Meeting, which was held on December 28, 2017.

The Reincorporation was consummated on December 29, 2017 pursuant to the Merger Agreement, whereby Digital Power Corporation merged with and into the Company with the Company as the surviving corporation operating as DPW Holdings, Inc. Following the Merger, the Company’s corporate existence is governed by the laws of the State of Delaware.

Upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and resulting Reincorporation, the daily business operations of the Company continued as they were conducted by Digital Power Corporation immediately prior to the Reincorporation and the officers and directors of Digital Power Corporation became the officers and directors of the Company, except that Milton C. Ault III become the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and Amos Kohn remained as its President.

In January 2018, we formed Super Crypto Mining, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary, which recently changed its name to Digital Farms, Inc. (“DFI”). DFI was established to operate our newly formed cryptocurrency business, which is pursuing a variety of digital currency. We mine the top three cryptocurrencies for our own account. These cryptocurrencies include Bitcoin, Litecoin and Ethereum.

On January 25, 2018, we issued two 5% promissory notes, each in the principal face amount of $2.5 million for an aggregate debt of $5 million to two institutional investors. The proceeds from these two promissory notes were used to purchase 1,000 Antminer S9s (“Miners”) manufactured by Bitmain Technologies, Inc. in connection with our crypto mining operations. We received delivery of the Miners on February 1, 2018.

On February 27, 2018, we entered into a sales agreement with H.C. Wainwright & Co., LLC (“HCW”) to sell shares of our common stock, having an aggregate offering price of up to $50 million from time to time, through an “at the market offering” program (the “HCW ATM Offering”) under which HCW acted as sales agent. Through September 23, 2018, when the HCW ATM Offering was terminated we had received net proceeds of approximately $18,059,187 through the sale of 1,062,096 shares of our common stock through the HCW ATM Offering. The offer and sale of the shares through the ATM Offering were made pursuant to our then effective “shelf” registration statement on Form S-3 and an accompanying base prospectus contained therein (Registration Statement No. 333-222132) filed with the SEC on December 18, 2017, amended on January 8, 2018, and declared effective by the SEC on January 11, 2018, and a prospectus supplement related to the HCW ATM Offering, dated February 27, 2018.

On May 23, 2018, DP Lending entered into and closed a securities purchase agreement with I. AM, Inc. (“I. AM”), David J. Krause and Deborah J. Krause. Pursuant to the securities purchase agreement, I. AM sold to DP Lending, 981 shares of common stock for a purchase price of $981, representing, upon the closing, 98.1% of I. AM’s outstanding common stock. I. AM owns and operates the Prep Kitchen brand restaurants located in the San Diego area. I. AM owed DP Lending $1,715,330 in outstanding principal, pursuant to a loan and security agreement, between I. AM and DP Lending, which I. AM used to acquire the restaurants. The purchase agreement provides that, as I. AM repays the outstanding loan to DP Lending in accordance with the loan agreement, DP Lending will on a pro rata basis transfer shares of common stock of I. AM to David J. Krause, up to an aggregate of 471 shares.

On October 10, 2018, DPW Holdings Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an At-The-Market Issuance Sales Agreement (the “Sales Agreement”) with Wilson-Davis & Co., Inc., as sales agent (the “Agent”) to sell shares of its Common Stock, having an aggregate offering price of up to $25,000,000 (the “Shares”) from time to time, through an “at the market offering” program (the “WDCO ATM Offering”). Through April 1, 2019, when the WDCO ATM Offering was discontinued, we had received net proceeds of $6,050,499 through the sale of 5,163,751 shares of our common stock through the WDCO ATM Offering. The offer and sale of the shares through the WDCO ATM Offering were made pursuant to our then effective “shelf” registration statement on Form S-3 and an accompanying base prospectus contained therein (Registration Statement No. 333-222132) filed with the SEC on December 18, 2017, amended on January 8, 2018, and declared effective by the SEC on January 11, 2018, and a prospectus supplement related to the WDCO ATM Offering, dated October 15, 2018.

On March 14, 2019, the stockholders approved a proposal permitting the Board of Directors to effect a reverse stock split (the “Reverse Split”) of our issued and outstanding Common Stock. Thereafter, on March 14, 2019, the Board of Directors approved the Reverse Split with a ratio of one for twenty. The Reverse Split did not affect the number of authorized shares of Common Stock or their par value per share. As a result of the Reverse Split, the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding was reduced from 126,025,767 to 6,301,289. The Reverse Split became effective in the State of Delaware on March 14, 2019. Beginning on March 18, 2019, the Common Stock traded on the NYSE American on a split-adjusted basis. All references to Common Stock in this Annual Report have been retroactively restated.

On March 29, 2019, we entered into an underwriting agreement with A.G.P./Alliance Global Partners (the “Underwriter”), pursuant to which we agreed to issue and sell an aggregate of (a) 2,855,500 shares of Common Stock (the “Shares”) together with warrants to purchase 2,855,500 shares of Common Stock and (the “Common Warrants”) and (b) pre-funded warrants to purchase up to 12,700,000 shares of its Common Stock (the “Pre-Funded Warrants”) together with a number of Common Warrants to purchase 12,700,000 shares of common stock (the “April 2019 Offering”). The Shares were sold to the purchasers at the public offering price of $0.44 per share (the “Offering Price”). The Common Warrants were sold at a public offering price of $0.01 per Common Warrant. The Pre-Funded Warrants were offered to each purchaser whose purchase of the Shares and the Common Warrant in the April 2019 Offering would otherwise result in the purchaser, together with its affiliates and certain related parties, beneficially owning more than 4.99% of outstanding Common Stock immediately following the consummation of April 2019 Offering, in lieu of the Shares. The purchase price of each Pre-Funded Warrant equaled the Offering Price, minus $0.01, and the exercise price of each Pre-Funded Warrant equaled $0.01 per share.

Strategy

Our strategy to increase revenues through acquisitions was developed after a review of our current business. While we continue to maintain our core business of power system solutions for the military/aerospace, medical and industrial-telecommunication industries, we have determined that significant organic growth in these industries will be challenging due to our limited releases of new products offerings, insufficient sales and marketing force as a result of deferring research and development of new products because of limited working capital, and lack of financial size in industries traditionally dominated by more large, well established and capitalized power system solution companies.

Therefore, we believe that the best strategy for us and our stockholders is to invest in our core business to support releases of advanced new power technologies and to expand our customer base and market share in our major markets. To support the organic growth, we have hired a number of additional personnel and are investing to enhance our product offerings with state of the art technology. While we implement our new organic growth strategy, we are focusing on finding and acquiring companies that have developed new technology but have been unable to exploit the technology because the lack of capital; companies that are run inefficiently due to the lack of experience or mismanagement; companies that can benefit from our expertise in the commercial and defense industries or companies that enhance our overall revenues. Further, as discussed below, we have made an investment in Avalanche which acquired the rights to a cost effective and environmentally friendly material synthesis technology for textile applications.

As a result of this strategy of revenue growth through acquisitions, we have hired a number of additional personnel and consultants to assist in identifying, analyzing, negotiating and acquiring potential companies and we will need to raise a substantial amount of capital for acquisitions and for supporting our infrastructure. We may invest in and continue to invest in companies that may experience losses until they can be integrated with our operations or until our cost reduction and efficiency changes can be implemented. Because of our increase in infrastructure expenses and investing in companies that demonstrate revenue potential but are initially incurring losses, we anticipate continuing to experience losses in the near future until revenues from these acquisitions exceed our expenses.

Led by our Chairman and CEO, Milton “Todd” Ault III, we seek to find undervalued companies and disruptive technologies with a global impact. We also use a traditional methodology for valuing stocks that primarily looks for deeply depressed prices. Upon making an investment, we often become actively involved in the companies we seek to acquire. That activity may involve a broad range of approaches, from influencing the management of a target to take steps to improve stockholder value, to acquiring a controlling interest or outright ownership of the target company in order to implement changes that we believe are required to improve its business, and then operating and expanding that business. Mr. Ault relies heavily on Mr. William B. Horne, the Company’s Vice Chairman and CFO, to provide analysis and guidance on all acquisition targets and throughout the acquisition process.

During the next several years, we see a favorable opportunity to follow an activist strategy that centers on the purchase of target stock and the subsequent removal of any barriers that might interfere with a friendly purchase offer from a strong buyer. Alternatively, in appropriate circumstances, we or our subsidiaries may become the buyer of target companies, adding them to our portfolio of operating subsidiaries, thereby expanding our operations through such opportunistic acquisitions. We believe that the companies that we target for our activist activities are undervalued for many reasons, often including inexperienced management. Unfortunately for the individual investor, in particular, and the economy, in general, many poor management teams are often unaccountable and very difficult to remove.

Core Business – Power Systems Solutions

We provide the highest density, highest efficiency and high-grade flexibility power supply products and systems. We provide full custom, standard and modify-standard product solutions and value-added services to diverse industries and markets including military/aerospace, medical and industrial- telecommunications. We believe that our solutions leverage a combination of low leakage power emissions, very high-power density with superior power efficiency, flexible design leveraging customize firmware and short time to market.

Our strategy is to be the supplier of choice to companies, including OEMs, that require high-quality power system solutions where custom design, superior product, high quality, time to market and very competitive prices are critical to business success. We believe that we provide advanced custom product design services to deliver high-grade products that reach a high level of efficiency and density and can meet rigorous environmental requirements. Our customers benefit from a direct relationship with us that supports all of their needs for designing and manufacturing power solutions and products. By implementing our advanced core technology, including process implementation in integrated circuits, we can provide cost reductions to our customers by replacing their existing power sources with our custom design cost-effective products. Our target market segments include the industrial telecommunication, medical, and military/aerospace industries.

Custom Power System Solution. We provide high-grade custom power system solutions to several customers in multiple industry segments. Our custom solution technology includes full Digital Signal Processing (“DSP”) control, digital load sharing intelligent power management and customizable firmware. The products feature high power density, special layout and multiple outputs to meet each of our customers’ unique requirements. We combine our power design capabilities with the latest circuit designs to provide complete power solutions for virtually any plausible need. In the design of custom power solutions, we work closely with our customers’ engineering teams to develop mechanical enclosures to ensure 100% compatibility with any hosted platform.

Our standard contract for custom power solutions includes a multi-year high-volume production forecast that allows us to secure long-term production guarantees (and therefore possible savings on manufacturing costs for volume orders) while providing an environment that promotes the development of our intellectual property (“IP”) portfolio. We believe that this business model provides an incentive to our customers to be committed to high-volume production orders.

High-Grade Flexibility Series Power Supply Product. We offer our feature rich based power rectifiers that support flexible configuration and high-grade design implementation. This includes innovative designs and implementation including DSP control for Power Factor Correction (“PFC”) and DC/DC, synchronous rectifier outputs under DSP control, two phase PFC, hot pluggable, current sharing and other features. While some of our customers have special requirements that include a full custom design, other customers may require only certain electrical changes to standard power supply products, such as modified output voltages, unique status and control signals, and mechanical repackaging tailored to fit the specific application. We offer a wide range of standard and modified standard products that can be easily integrated with any platform across our diversified market segments.

Value-Added Services. In addition to our custom solutions and high-grade flexibility series proprietary products that we offer, we also provide value-added services to OEMs. We incorporate an OEM's selected electronic components, enclosures, cable assemblies and other compliance components into our power system solutions to produce a power subassembly that is compatible with the OEM's own equipment and specifically tailored to meet the OEM's needs. We purchase parts and components that the OEM itself would otherwise attach to, or integrate with, our power systems, and provide the OEM with the integration and installation service, thus eliminating the need for complex, time-consuming and costly system integration. We believe that this value-added service is well suited to those OEMs that wish to reduce their vendor base and minimize their investment in manufacturing, which would lead to increased fixed costs. Given access to these value-added services, the OEMs do not need to build assembly facilities to manufacture their own power sub-assemblies and thus are not required to purchase individual parts from many vendors.

Markets

We sell our custom power system solutions, high-grade flexibility series power supply products and value-added services to customers in a diverse range of commercial and defense industries and markets throughout the world, with an emphasis on North America and Europe. Our current customer base consists of approximately 220 companies, some of which are served through our partner channels. We serve the North American power electronics market primarily through our domestic wholly owned subsidiary Digital Power Corporation, whereas the European marketplace is served through DPL, another wholly-owned subsidiary.

We sell products to our OEM customers through direct sales or through our sales channels, including our manufacturers' representatives and distributors. Our sales strategy is to identify and focus on strategic accounts. This strategy allows us to maintain a close and direct relationship with such accounts, which positions us as the supplier of choice for these customers' challenging, innovative and demanding new product requirements. In striving for additional market share, we simultaneously seek to strengthen our traditional sales channels of manufacturer representatives and distributors. We plan to continue to build more channels and increase our market share through 2019.

Commercial Customers. We serve global commercial markets including medical, telecom, and industrial companies. Our products are used in a variety of applications and operate in a broad range of systems where customers require mission critical power reliability and occasionally extreme environmental conditions.

Military/Defense Customers. We have developed a broad range of rugged product solutions for the military and defense market, featuring the ability to withstand harsh environments. These ruggedized product solutions, which include both custom modifications and full custom designs, are designed for combat environments and meet the requirements of our defense customers. We manufacture our military products through a domestic manufacturer that complies with US International Traffic in Arms Regulations ("ITAR") and is certified to perform such manufacturing services. We are compliant with the ITAR regulations and are an approved vendor for the U.S. Air Force, Navy and Army.

At the core of every military electronic system is a power supply. Mission critical systems require rugged high performance power platforms that will operate and survive the harsh environmental conditions placed upon such systems. Our power supplies, which include the following, function effectively in these severe military environments, including Missiles – Ground-to-Air, Air-to-Air and Sea-to-Air; Naval – Naval power conversion and distribution; Mobile and Ground Communications – Active Protection, Communications and Navigation; Artillery – Gyro modular azimuth position and navigation system; Surveillance, test equipment; and UAV (Unmanned Aerial Vehicle) – Very lightweight power systems.

Our military products meet the relevant defense standards MIL-STD in accordance with the Defense Standardization Program Policies and Procedures. Space, weight, output power, electromagnetic compatibility, power density and multiple output requirements are only part of the challenges that any military power supply design faces. With many decades of experience, our engineering teams meet these tough challenges. Our power supplies are a critical component of many major weapon systems worldwide.

Our wholly-owned subsidiary DPL develops and manufactures some military and defense products mainly being deployed in international naval fleets.

Digital Power Limited (Gresham Power Electronics)

Digital Power Limited, our wholly-owned subsidiary organized and headquartered in Salisbury, United Kingdom, designs, manufactures, and distributes switching power supplies, uninterruptible power supplies and power conversion and distribution equipment frequency converters for the commercial and military markets, under the name Gresham. Frequency converters manufactured by Gresham are used by naval warships to convert their generated 60-cycle electricity supply to 400 cycles. This 400-cycle supply is used to power their critical equipment such as gyro, compass, and weapons systems. Gresham also designs and manufactures transformer rectifiers for naval use. Typically, these provide battery supported back up for critical DC systems, such as machinery and communications. In addition, higher power rectifiers are used for the starting and servicing of helicopters on naval vessels, and Gresham now supplies these as part of overall helicopter start and servicing systems. We believe that Gresham products add diversity to our product line, provide greater access to the United Kingdom and European markets, and strengthen our engineering and technical resources.

Microphase Corporation

Microphase designs, manufactures and sells microwave electronics components for radar, electronic warfare (“EW”) and communication systems. Such components include radio frequency (“RF”) and microwave filters, diplexers, multiplexers, detectors, switch filters, integrated assemblies and detector logarithmic video amplifiers (“DLVAs”). Microphase’s customers are comprised of the U.S. military and allied militaries, and contractors to the U.S. military including prime contractors and sub-contractors. Microphase’s recent technology innovations are used in many significant U.S. Government defense programs, including the Polaris submarine, the F-16, the F-35 and the Predator drone. Other notable programs in which Microphase’s products were used include the Atlas Missile, Vanguard Missile, Polaris Missile System, SHRIKE Missile, ARM Missile, Patriot Missile System, THAAD (or Terminal High Altitude Area Defense), the Samos, Tiros, and Currier Space Probes, the B-1 Bomber, the FB-111, EA-6B, F-14, F-16, F-18, JAS Gripen fighter, and the F-35 joint strike fighter plane, and more recently drone programs including the Predator, the Reaper and the Shadow.

Microphase’s advanced technology products enable the ultra-sensitive detection and high precision video amplification that are necessary in order to accurately recover the signals and facilitate use of the information received. These products include:

- filters that sort and clarify microwave signals, including multiplexers that are a series of filters combined in a single package;

 - solid state amplifiers that amplify microwave signals;

- detectors and limiters that are semiconductor devices for detection of radar signals and protection of receivers from damage from high power signals and jamming;

 - detector log video amplifiers that are fully integrated, ruggedized, “mil-spec” signal detection systems;

- integrated assemblies that combine multiple functions from a range of components and devices, including

 - transmitters, receivers, filters, amplifiers, detectors, and other functionality into single, efficient, high performance, multifunction assemblies;

 - electronic test and measurement probes;

 - universal test and measurement test platforms and fixtures; and

 - utility probes and antenna probes.

Manufacturing and Testing

Consistent with our strategy of focusing on custom design products and high-grade flexibility series products, we aim to maintain a high degree of flexibility in our manufacturing through the use of strategically focused contract manufacturers. We select contract manufacturers to ensure that they will meet our near-term cost, delivery, and quality goals. In addition, we believe these relationships will eventually give us access to new markets and beneficial cross-licensing opportunities. The competitive nature of the power supply industry has placed continual downward pressure on selling prices. In order to achieve our low-cost manufacturing goals with labor-intensive products, we have entered into manufacturing agreements with certain contract manufacturers domestically and in Asia.

We are continually improving our internal processes, while monitoring the processes of our contract manufacturers, to ensure the highest quality and consistent manufacturing of our power solutions. We test all of our products under stress operating conditions per defined test procedures we developed as part of the production process. This approach ensures that our customers can use our power supplies right out of the box. Customer specific testing services are offered with custom designed test stands to simulate operation within our customer applications.

Compliance with international safety agency standards is critical in every application, and power solutions play a major role in meeting these compliance requirements. Our safety engineers and quality assurance teams help ensure that our custom products are designed to meet all safety requirements and are appropriately documented to expedite safety approval processes.

Regulatory Requirements

We and our contract manufacturing partners are required to meet applicable regulatory, environmental, emissions, safety and other requirements where specified by the customer and accepted by us or as required by local regulatory or legal requirements. The products that we market and sell in Europe may be subject to the 2003 European Directive on Restriction of Hazardous Substances (“RoHS”), which restricts the use of six hazardous materials in the manufacturing of certain electronic and electrical equipment, as well as the 2002 European Directive on Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment (“WEEE”), which determines collection, recycling and recovery goals for electrical goods. In July 2006, our industry began phasing in RoHS and WEEE requirements in most geographical markets with specific emphasis on consumer-based products. We believe that RoHS and WEEE-compliant components may be subject to longer lead-times and higher prices as the industry transitions to these new requirements.

Some of our products are subject to ITAR regulation and restrictions, which is administered by the U.S. Department of State. ITAR controls not only the export of certain products specifically designed, modified, configured or adapted for military systems, but also the export of related technical data and defense services and foreign production. We obtain required export licenses for any exports subject to ITAR. Compliance with ITAR may require a prolonged period of time; if the process of obtaining required export licenses for products subject to ITAR is delayed, it could have a materially adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and operating results. Further, additional restrictions or charges may in the future be imposed by the United States or any other foreign country. In addition, from time to time, we enter into defense contracts to supply technology and products to foreign countries for programs that are funded and governed by the U.S. Foreign Military Financing program.

Sales and Marketing

We market our products directly through our internal sales force as well as through our channel partners including independent manufacturer representatives and distributors. Each manufacturing representative promotes our products in a particular assigned geographic territory. Generally, the manufacturing representatives have the opportunity to earn exclusive access to all potential customers in the assigned territory as a result of achieving their marketing and sales goals as defined in the representative agreement. Our manufacturer representative agreements provide for a commission equal to 5% of gross sales of new “design-in” and 1.75% to 2.0% of gross sales for retention, payable after products are shipped to the customer in the assigned territory. Typically, either we or the manufacturing representatives are entitled to terminate the manufacturing representative agreement upon 30 days’ written notice.

We provide comprehensive collateral including product data sheets, participation in trade shows, and our websites, www.digipwr.com and www.microphase.com. We use our website to emphasize our capabilities and marketing direction. All products specifications are uploaded onto our websites and accessible to the marketplace. We will continue to enhance our websites by adding more features and functionalities, such as e-commerce, that will allow our customers to make direct purchases through our website. Our future promotional activities will likely include advertising in industry-specific publications, as well as public relations for our new products.

Engineering and Technology

Our engineering and product development efforts are primarily directed toward developing new products in connection with custom product design and modification of our standard power systems to provide a broad array of individual models.

Our new custom product solutions are driven by our ability to provide to our customers advanced technology that meets their product needs and supports special operation and environmental requirements, with a short turnaround time and a very competitive price point. We believe that we are successfully executing our strategic account focus, as evidenced by the award of second and third generation product development contracts from some of these customers. Our standard contract for custom power solutions includes a multi-year high-volume production forecast that could allow us to secure long-term production guarantees while providing an environment that promotes the development of our IP portfolio.

We also outsource some of our product development projects to engineering partners in order to achieve the best technological and product design results for the targeted application customer requirements. When required, we also modify standard products to meet specific customer requirements, including, but not limited to, redesigning commercial products to meet MIL-STD requirements for military applications based on commercial off the shelf (“COTS”) products and for other customized product requirements, when applicable. We continually seek to improve our product power density, adaptability, and efficiency, while attempting to anticipate changing market demands for increased functionality, such as PFC controlled DSP, customized firmware and improved EMI (electromagnetic interference) filtering. We continue to attempt to differentiate all of our products from commodity-type products by enhancing, modifying and customizing our existing product portfolio, using our engineering integrating laboratory located in California.

Competition

The power system solutions industry is highly fragmented and characterized by intense competition. Our competition includes hundreds of companies located throughout the world, some of which have advantages over us in terms of labor and component costs, and some of which may offer products superior or comparable in quality to ours. Many of our competitors, including Bel Fuse, Artesyn Embedded Technologies, TDK-Lambda, Delta Electronics, Murata and Mean-Well Power Supplies, have substantially greater fiscal and marketing resources and geographic presence than we do. If we are successful in increasing our revenues, competitors may notice and increase competition efforts with our customers. We also face competition from current and prospective customers who may decide to internally design and manufacture power supplies needed for their products. Furthermore, certain larger OEMs tend to contract only with larger power supply manufacturers.

We anticipate in the current economic situation, that additional competitors may enter into strategic alliances or even acquisitions. Competition could thus become more problematic if consolidation trends in the electronics industry continue and some of the OEMs to which we sell our products are acquired by larger OEMs. To remain competitive, we must continue to compete favorably on the basis of value by providing reliable manufacturing, offering customer-driven engineering services including custom design and manufacturing, continuously improving quality and reliability levels, and offering flexible and reliable delivery schedules.

We believe that our power system solutions and advanced technology is superior to our competitors' power supplies mainly because they use the latest power technology processing and controls which make these power supplies highly customized and efficient. The power-to-volume ratio, makes our power solutions more compact compared to what is offered by our competitors and is suitable in custom infrastructures to meet our customers' requirements.

Another advantage of our power system solutions product line is based on the "Flexible" series that employs adjustable power range and a selectable number of output product design platforms. We believe we have a competitive position with our targeted customers that need a high-quality, compact product, which can be readily modified to meet the customer's unique requirements. We have designed the base model power system platform so that it can be quickly and economically modified and adapted to the specific power needs of any hosting platform or OEM. This "flexibility" approach has allowed us to provide samples of modified power systems to OEM customers only a few days after initial consultation, an important capability given the emphasis placed by OEMs on "time to market." It also results in very low non-recurring engineering ("NRE") expenses. Because of reduced NRE expenses, we do not generally charge our OEM customers for NRE related to tailoring a power system to a customer's specific requirements. We believe this gives us an advantage over our competitors, many of which charge their customers for NRE expenses.

The markets in which Microphase operates is also highly competitive and sensitive to technological advances. Many of Microphase's competitors are larger than it is and maintain higher levels of expenditures for research and development. Principal competitive factors in Microphase's markets are product quality and reliability; technological capabilities; service; past performance; ability to develop and implement complex, integrated solutions; ability to meet delivery schedules; the effectiveness of third-party sales channels in international markets; and cost-effectiveness.

In the RF Communications market, principal competitors for filter components products include K& L Microwave, a Dover company located in Salisbury, MD; RS Microwave, a privately held company headquartered in Butler, NJ; Lorch Microwave of Salisbury, MD, a member of the Smith Group, a global technology company listed on the London Stock Exchange; and Delta Diversified Products, a private company based in Arizona.

In the Video amplifier segment, principal competitors for Detector Log Video Amplifier Sensor products include American Microwave Corporation, a privately held company headquartered in Frederick, MD; Akon Inc., a privately held company based in San Jose, CA; Planar Monolithics Industries, a privately held company based in Frederick, MD; L-3 Narda-Miteq, a subsidiary of L-3 Communications Inc., a publicly traded company based in New York, NY; and Signal Technology, a subsidiary of Crane Co., a publicly traded company based in Stamford, CT.

Raw Materials

The raw materials for power supplies principally consist of electronic components. These raw materials are available from a variety of sources, and thus we are not dependent on any one supplier. We generally allow our subcontractors to purchase components based on orders received or forecasts to minimize our risk of unusable inventory. To the extent necessary, we may allow them to procure materials prior to orders received to obtain shorter lead times and to achieve quantity discounts following a risk assessment. In addition, we have decided to directly procure certain long lead-time electronic components in an effort to reduce our lead-time.

Many raw material vendors have reduced capacities, closed production lines and, in some cases, discontinued operations. As a result, some materials are no longer available to support some of our products requiring us to search for cross materials or, in certain circumstances, redesign some of our products to conform to currently available materials.

Intellectual Property

We rely upon a combination of trade secrets, industry expertise, confidential procedures, and contractual provisions to protect our intellectual property. We believe that because our products are continually updated and revised, obtaining patents would be costly and not beneficial. However, in the future, as we continue to develop unique core technology, we may seek to obtain patents for some of the core technology. On July 10, 2012, our trademark, “DP Digital Power Flexible Power” was registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

In conjunction with our majority acquisition of Microphase, we concluded that because of the industry recognition of the Microphase trademark and trade name, which has been around for nearly 60 years, the tradename and trademark represented a significant intellectual property asset.

Research and Development

During the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, we spent approximately $1,430,538 and $1,119,745, respectively, on research and development.

Employees

As of December 31, 2018, we had 248 employees located in the United States, the United Kingdom and Israel, of whom 73 were engaged in engineering and product development, 10 in sales and marketing, 134 in general operations and 31 in general administration and finance. All but 3 of these employees are employed on a full-time basis. None of our employees is currently represented by a trade union. We consider our relations with our employees to be good.

ITEM 1A.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves significant risks. You should carefully consider the following risks and all other information set forth in this Annual Report before deciding to invest in our common stock. If any of the events or developments described below occurs, our business, financial condition and results of operations may suffer. In that case, the value of our common stock may decline and you could lose all or part of your investment.

You should consider each of the following risk factors and any other information set forth in this Annual Report and the other reports filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), including the Company’s financial statements and related notes, in evaluating the Company’s business and prospects. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones that impact on the Company’s operations and business. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company, or that the Company currently considers immaterial, may also impair its business or operations. If any of the following risks actually occurs, the Company’s business and financial condition, results or prospects could be harmed. Please also read carefully the section “Forward-Looking Statements” at the beginning of this Annual Report.

Risks Related to Our Company

We have historically incurred significant losses and our financial situation creates doubt whether we will continue as a going concern.

We have historically experienced operating and net losses and anticipate continuing to experience such losses in the future. For the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, we had an operating loss of $19,605,456 and $5,983,045 and net losses of $32,982,201 and $10,895,049, respectively. As of December 31, 2018 and 2017, we had a working capital deficiency of $18,445,302 and $2,234,695, respectively. There are no assurances that we will be able to achieve a level of revenues adequate to generate sufficient cash flow from operations or obtain additional financing through private placements, public offerings and/or bank financing necessary to support our working capital requirements. To the extent that funds generated from any private placements, public offerings and/or bank financing are insufficient, we will have to raise additional working capital. No assurance can be given that additional financing will be available, or if available, will be on acceptable terms. These conditions raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. If adequate working capital is not available we may be forced to discontinue operations, which would cause investors to lose their entire investment.

We expect to continue to incur losses for the foreseeable future and need to raise additional capital to continue business development initiatives and to support our working capital requirements. For example, in March 2017, we were awarded a 3-year, $50 million purchase order by MTIX Ltd. (“MTIX”) to manufacture, install and service the Multiplex Laser Surface Enhancement (“MLSE”) plasma-laser system. We believe that the MLSE purchase order will be a source of revenue and generate significant cash flows for us. However, if we are unable to raise additional capital, we may be required to curtail operations and take additional measures to reduce costs, including reducing our workforce, eliminating outside consultants and reducing legal fees in order to conserve cash in amounts sufficient to sustain operations and meet our obligations. As a result of these financing uncertainties, during the year ended December 31, 2018, we recognized that our dependence on ongoing capital requirements to fund our operations raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. Our ongoing capital requirements have only increased since then, meaning that substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern remains and will likely do so for the foreseeable future.

We will need to raise additional capital to fund our operations in furtherance of our business plan.

Until we are profitable, we will need to quickly raise additional capital in order to fund our operations in furtherance of our business plan. The proposed financing may include shares of common stock, shares of preferred stock, warrants to purchase shares of common stock or preferred stock, debt securities, units consisting of the foregoing securities, equity investments from strategic development partners or some combination of each. Any additional equity financings may be financially dilutive to, and will be dilutive from an ownership perspective to our stockholders, and such dilution may be significant based upon the size of such financing. Additionally, we cannot assure that such funding will be available on a timely basis, in needed quantities, or on terms favorable to us, if at all.

Our limited operating history makes it difficult to evaluate our future business prospects and to make decisions based on of our historical performance.

Although our executive officers have been engaged in the industries in which we operate for varying degrees of time, we did not begin operations of our current business until recently. We have a very limited operating history in our current form, which makes it difficult to evaluate our business on the basis of historical operations. As a consequence, it is difficult, if not impossible, to forecast our future results based upon our historical data. Reliance on our historical results may not be representative of the results we will achieve, and for certain areas in which we operate, principally those unrelated to defense contracting, will not be indicative at all. Because of the uncertainties related to our lack of historical operations, we may be hindered in our ability to anticipate and timely adapt to increases or decreases in sales, product costs or expenses. If we make poor budgetary decisions as a result of unreliable historical data, we could be less profitable or incur losses, which may result in a decline in our stock price.

We have an evolving business model, which increases the complexity of our business.

Our business model has evolved in the past and continues to do so. In prior years we have added additional types of services and product offerings and in some cases we have modified or discontinued those offerings. We intend to continue to try to offer additional types of products or services, and we do not know whether any of them will be successful. From time to time we have also modified aspects of our business model relating to our product mix. We do not know whether these or any other modifications will be successful. The additions and modifications to our business have increased the complexity of our business and placed significant strain on our management, personnel, operations, systems, technical performance, financial resources, and internal financial control and reporting functions. Future additions to or modifications of our business are likely to have similar effects. Further, any new business or website we launch that is not favorably received by the market could damage our reputation or our brand. The occurrence of any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on our business.

We are a holding company whose subsidiaries are given certain degree of independence and our failure to integrate our subsidiaries may adversely affect our financial condition.

We have given our subsidiary companies and their executives a certain degree of independence in decision-making. On the one hand, this independence may increase the sense of ownership at all levels, on the other hand it has also increased the difficulty of the integration of operation and management, which has resulted in increased difficulty of management integration. In the event we are not able to successfully manage our subsidiaries this will result in operating difficulties and have a negative impact on our business.

Our independent auditors have expressed doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. If we do not continue as a going concern, investors will lose their entire investment.

In its report on our financial statements included in this Annual Report, our independent auditors have expressed doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. Our ability to continue as a going concern is an issue raised as a result of ongoing operating losses and a lack of financing commitments then in place to meet expected cash requirements. Our ability to continue as a going concern is subject to our ability to generate a profit and/or obtain necessary funding from outside sources, including obtaining additional funding from the sale of our securities, increasing sales or obtaining loans and grants from various financial institutions where possible. If we do not continue as a going concern, investors will lose their entire investment.

Our inability to successfully integrate new acquisitions could adversely affect our combined business; our operations are widely disbursed.

Our growth strategy through acquisitions is fraught with risk. On June 2, 2017, we acquired a majority interest in Microphase and on May 23, 2018 we acquired Enertec Systems 2001 Ltd. (“Enertec”). Our strategy and business plan is dependent on our ability to successfully integrate Microphase’s, Enertec’s and our other acquisition’s operations. In addition, while we are based in Newport Beach, CA, Microphase’s operations are located in Shelton, Connecticut, Enertec’s operations are located in Karmiel, Israel and DP Limited’s (doing business as Gresham Power Electronics) operations are located in Salisbury, England. These distant locations and others that we may become involved with in the future will stretch our resources and management time. Further, failure to quickly and adequately integrate all of these operations and personnel could adversely affect our combined business and our ability to achieve our objectives and strategy. No assurance can be given that we will realize synergies in the areas we currently operate.

If we make any additional acquisitions, they may disrupt or have a negative impact on our business.

We have plans to eventually make additional acquisitions beyond Microphase and Enertec. Whenever we make acquisitions, we could have difficulty integrating the acquired companies’ personnel and operations with our own. In addition, the key personnel of the acquired business may not be willing to work for us. We cannot predict the effect expansion may have on our core business. Regardless of whether we are successful in making an acquisition, the negotiations could disrupt our ongoing business, distract our management and employees and increase our expenses. In addition to the risks described above, acquisitions are accompanied by a number of inherent risks, including, without limitation, the following:

- difficulty of integrating acquired products, services or operations;
- potential disruption of the ongoing businesses and distraction of our management and the management of acquired companies;
- difficulty of incorporating acquired rights or products into our existing business;
- difficulties in disposing of the excess or idle facilities of an acquired company or business and expenses in maintaining such facilities;
- difficulties in maintaining uniform standards, controls, procedures and policies;

- potential impairment of relationships with employees and customers as a result of any integration of new management personnel;
- potential inability or failure to achieve additional sales and enhance our customer base through cross-marketing of the products to new and existing customers;
- effect of any government regulations which relate to the business acquired; and
- potential unknown liabilities associated with acquired businesses or product lines, or the need to spend significant amounts to retool, reposition or modify the marketing and sales of acquired products or the defense of any litigation, whether or not successful, resulting from actions of the acquired company prior to our acquisition.

Our business could be severely impaired if and to the extent that we are unable to succeed in addressing any of these risks or other problems encountered in connection with these acquisitions, many of which cannot be presently identified, these risks and problems could disrupt our ongoing business, distract our management and employees, increase our expenses and adversely affect our results of operations.

No assurance of successful expansion of operations.

Our significant increase in the scope and the scale of our operations, including the purchase price of $55.52, a price that is 85% of the average closing price immediately prior to the date the merger agreement, then Capital Title may terminate the merger agreement unless either (i) the parties agree to adjust the mixture of cash and LandAmerica common stock to be paid as merger consideration or (ii) LandAmerica elects to pay all of the merger consideration in cash. LandAmerica nevertheless may elect to pay all of the merger consideration in cash in such a situation even if Capital Title does not intend to terminate the merger agreement.

Appraisal Rights (page 38)

Under Delaware law, Capital Title stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. Any Capital Title stockholder of record who objects to the merger may elect to have his or her shares of Capital Title common stock appraised under the procedures of Delaware law and to be paid the fair value of his or her shares. The appraised value will not include any value arising from the merger, but may include a fair rate of interest. It is possible that the fair value determined may be more or less than the merger consideration. These procedures require, among other things, that a dissenter:

file with Capital Title a written demand for appraisal of the stockholder's shares prior to the vote on the merger proposal; not vote in favor of the merger; and continuously hold his or her Capital Title common stock through the effective time of the merger.

If you fail to comply with any of these conditions and the merger is completed, you will lose your appraisal rights with respect to your shares of Capital Title common stock. See the relevant sections of Delaware law attached as Annex D to this proxy statement.

Capital Title Recommendation (page 43)

The board of directors of Capital Title believes that the merger is fair to Capital Title's stockholders and in their best interests. Capital Title's board unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Opinion of Capital Title's Financial Advisor (page 43)

Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin delivered a written opinion to the Capital Title board of directors that, as of March 24, 2006, the merger consideration is fair to the common stockholders of Capital Title from a financial point of view. We have attached this opinion to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. You should read this opinion completely to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin in providing its opinion.

Accounting Treatment (page 60)

The merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 62)

We expect that the merger will be a taxable transaction to Capital Title's stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, you will recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger in an amount equal to the amount of cash or the fair market value of LandAmerica shares you receive, less your adjusted tax basis in the Capital Title common stock you surrender in the merger. Stockholders will also be required to file certain information with their federal income tax returns and to retain certain records with regard to the merger.

The discussion of United States federal income tax consequences set forth above is for general information only and does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax effects that may apply to a holder of Capital Title common stock. Stockholders of Capital Title are strongly urged to consult their tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the merger, including the application and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

The Stockholder Meeting (page 30)

The special meeting of Capital Title's stockholders will be held on [], 2006 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at 4909 East McDowell Road, Phoenix, Arizona 85008. At the special meeting, you will be asked:

to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (See Proposal I); and to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the meeting to approve the matter to be considered by the stockholders at the meeting (See Proposal II).

Record Date; Vote Required (pages 31 and 32)

You can vote at the special meeting of Capital Title stockholders if you owned shares of Capital Title common stock at the close of business on the record date, which is [], 2006. On that date, Capital Title had [] shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. You can cast one vote on each proposal for each share of Capital Title common stock that you owned on that date.

Table of Contents

The approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of Capital Title's outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting.

Approval of the adjournment of the meeting requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present or represented at the meeting, whether or not a quorum is present.

Voting Agreement (page 53)

In connection with the merger agreement, the directors and executive officers of Capital Title entered into a voting agreement with LandAmerica and CTG Acquisition Corporation, which generally requires such directors and executive officers to vote FOR the merger. As of [], 2006, the record date, the directors and executive officers beneficially owned [] outstanding shares of Capital Title common stock. These shares represented approximately []% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Capital Title common stock on the record date.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 54)

The obligations of LandAmerica and Capital Title to complete the merger depend on a number of conditions being met. These include:

Capital Title's stockholders' approval of the merger agreement and the related transactions; and approval of the merger by the necessary federal and state regulatory authorities.

Where the law permits, either of us could choose to waive a condition to our obligation to complete the merger although that condition has not been satisfied. We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Regulatory Approvals (page 58)

The merger cannot be completed unless it is approved by various state insurance regulatory authorities and other governmental and banking agencies and the applicable filing requirements and waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1974 and the related rules and regulations have been satisfied.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1974 has expired, but we have not yet received all of the required approvals. While we do not know of any reason why we would not be able to obtain the necessary approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will receive them.

Termination of the Merger Agreement; Expenses (page 56)

LandAmerica and Capital Title can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if the Capital Title stockholders have approved it. Also, either of us can decide, without the consent of the other, to terminate the merger agreement in a number of other situations, including:

the final denial of a required regulatory approval;

the failure of Capital Title to obtain the required stockholder vote;

an unremedied breach of the merger agreement by the other party, so long as the party that is seeking to terminate the merger agreement has not itself breached the merger agreement; or the failure to complete the merger by December 31, 2006, so long as the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement has not, as a result of its breach of the merger agreement, caused the failure to complete the merger.

Table of Contents

In addition, LandAmerica can decide to terminate the merger agreement if Capital Title breaches certain terms of the merger agreement relating to the seeking of approval of the merger by the Capital Title's stockholders. Capital Title, on the other hand, can decide to terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the merger is less than or equal to $55.52, a price that is 85% of the average closing price immediately prior to the date the merger agreement, unless either (i) the parties agree to adjust the mixture of cash and LandAmerica common stock to be paid as merger consideration or (ii) LandAmerica elects to pay all of the merger consideration in cash.

The merger agreement also provides that, if (i) Capital Title terminates the merger agreement in order to pursue an alternative offer from another party and such a transaction consummates within one year from the termination of the merger agreement, (ii) an offer from another party has been made and Capital Title consummates such a transaction within one year of (A) either party's termination of the merger agreement due to a failure to consummate the merger by December 31, 2006, (B) either party's termination of the merger agreement if the required vote of Capital Title's stockholders was not obtained at the special meeting of Capital Title's stockholders, or (C) LandAmerica's termination of the merger agreement due to Capital Title's uncured breach of the merger agreement, which breach would result in a failure of any of the closing conditions to the merger or (iii) LandAmerica terminates the merger agreement due to Capital Title's unremedied breach of certain terms of the merger agreement relating to the seeking of approval of the merger by Capital Title's stockholders, Capital Title will pay LandAmerica a termination fee of $15.0 million.

Waiver and Amendment (page 57)

We may jointly amend the merger agreement, and each of us may waive our right to require the other party to adhere to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger that Differ from the Interests of Capital Title Stockholders (page 51)

Some of the directors and officers of Capital Title have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as stockholders of Capital Title. These interests exist because of, among other things, employment agreements that Donald R. Head and Mark C. Walker have entered into with Capital Title, rights of the directors and officers of Capital Title to indemnification and insurance following the merger and the vesting of outstanding stock options and warrants.

The members of Capital Title's board of directors knew about these additional interests and considered them when they approved the merger agreement and the merger.

Stock Options and Warrants (page 61)

Capital Title has agreed to contribute any cash proceeds from the exercise of any outstanding options and warrants to purchase Capital Title common stock that occur prior to the effective time of the merger to the cash component of the merger consideration. This contribution will offset the cash payments to be paid by LandAmerica for the additional shares of Capital Title common stock that will be issued upon the exercise of such options and warrants. Any such outstanding options and warrants that are not exercised prior to the effective time of the merger will expire and be cancelled at that time.

LandAmerica's dividend policy anticipates the payment of quarterly dividends in the future. The declaration and payment of dividends to holders of LandAmerica common stock will be at the discretion of the board of directors, will be subject to contractual restrictions contained in LandAmerica's loan agreement, as described below, and will be dependent upon LandAmerica's future earnings, financial condition, capital requirements and other factors.

Because LandAmerica is a holding company, its ability to pay dividends depends largely on the earnings of, and cash flow available from, its subsidiaries. Certain of LandAmerica's title insurance subsidiaries are subject to regulations that require the maintenance of minimum amounts of statutory surplus. Under these regulations, a portion of the net assets of these subsidiaries is not available for dividends, loans or advances to LandAmerica. In addition, certain of LandAmerica's title insurance subsidiaries are subject to regulations that restrict the amount of dividends that can be paid to LandAmerica without prior regulatory approval. In March 2006, LandAmerica initiated the process of redomesticating its three principal title insurance subsidiaries to the State of Nebraska, subject to receipt of all required regulatory approvals. These title insurance subsidiaries are currently domiciled in Pennsylvania, Virginia and Arizona. LandAmerica may pursue redomestication of certain other of its title insurance subsidiaries in the future. At the time the redomestication of any title insurance subsidiary becomes effective, the ability of that subsidiary to pay dividends to LandAmerica will be governed by Nebraska laws and regulations rather than its former state of domicile.

In addition to regulatory restrictions, LandAmerica's ability to declare dividends is subject to restrictions under a revolving credit agreement, as amended, between LandAmerica and a syndicate of banks led by SunTrust Bank, that generally limit the aggregate amount of all cash dividends and stock repurchases by LandAmerica to 50% of its cumulative consolidated net income arising after December 31, 2002. As of December 31, 2005, approximately $123.8 million was available for the payment of dividends by LandAmerica under the revolving credit agreement. Management of LandAmerica does not believe that the restrictions contained in the revolving credit agreement will, in the foreseeable future, adversely affect its ability to pay cash dividends at the current dividend rate.

The following table sets forth historical per share market values for LandAmerica common stock and Capital Title common stock (i) on March 28, 2006, the last trading day prior to public announcement of the merger agreement, and (ii) on [], 2006 the most recent practicable date before the printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus. The table also shows the equivalent pro forma market value of Capital Title common stock on March 28, 2006 and [], 2006, assuming an election and/or receipt of stock consideration.

The equivalent pro forma market value of Capital Title common stock is obtained by multiplying the historical market price of LandAmerica common stock by the applicable exchange rate. For purposes of determining the equivalent pro forma market value and the applicable exchange rate, we have assumed that the average closing price of a share of LandAmerica common stock is equal to the historical market price on March 28, 2006 and [], 2006. Accordingly, the pro forma market value (i) on March 28, 2006 is determined by multiplying $67.08 by the exchange rate of 0.122, and (ii) on [], 2006 is determined by multiplying $[] by the exchange rate of 0.122.

The historical market prices represent the last sale prices on or before the dates indicated. The average closing price of LandAmerica common stock used to determine the exchange rate and the market price may be higher or lower than the closing prices of LandAmerica common stock on the dates shown in the table and, therefore, the market value of the LandAmerica common stock that you receive may be higher or lower than the equivalent pro forma market value shown in the table.

	Historical Market Price		Capital Title Group, Inc. Equivalent Pro Forma Market Value
	LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc.	Capital Title Group, Inc.
March 28, 2006	$ 67.08	$ 6.02	$ 8.18
[], 2006	$ []	$ []	$ []

In the event that the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the merger multiplied by the initial exchange rate of 0.122 is more than $8.25, then the exchange rate will be adjusted so that it reflects at the time of the merger a value of $8.25 per share of Capital Title common stock. In the event the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the merger multiplied by the initial exchange rate of 0.122 is less than $7.75, then the exchange rate will be adjusted so that it reflects at that time a value of $7.75 per share of Capital Title common stock.

Once the merger is completed, there will be no further public market for Capital Title common stock.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE UNAUDITED PER SHARE DATA

We have summarized below historical per share information for LandAmerica and Capital Title and additional information as if the companies had been combined for the periods shown, which we refer to as pro forma information. The pro forma information is based upon the assumption that all options and warrants to purchase shares of Capital Title common stock are exercised, that the total number of shares of Capital Title common stock outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger will be 33,510,763 and that the LandAmerica average closing price will be $67.08, the same as the closing price of LandAmerica common stock on the last trading day preceding the public announcement of the merger agreement, such that the exchange rate would be 0.122 shares of LandAmerica common stock for each share of Capital Title common stock.

The exchange rate of 0.122 of a share is used for illustrative purposes only and the actual exchange rate to be used in the merger may differ from the exchange rate used for illustrative purposes. For a description of the manner in which the exchange rate may be adjusted, see Merger Consideration beginning on page 33.

We expect that both LandAmerica and Capital Title will incur merger and integration charges as a result of the merger. We also anticipate that the merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that may include reduced operating expenses. The information set forth below, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, may not reflect all of these anticipated financial expenses and does not reflect any of these anticipated financial benefits and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had our companies been combined during the periods presented.

The information in the following table is based on, and you should read it together with, the historical financial information and the notes thereto for LandAmerica and Capital Title incorporated by reference into, or contained in, this proxy statement/prospectus.

respective Annual Report on Form 10-K as of and for the year ended December 31, 2005. The pro forma combined amounts for the three months ended March 31, 2006 have been developed from the unaudited consolidated financial statements of LandAmerica and Capital Title contained in each company's respective Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2006. The annual and quarterly reports of LandAmerica and Capital Title for the periods ended December 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006, respectively, are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

- (2) Shares used to calculate unaudited pro forma combined earnings per share were computed by adding 0.8 million shares assumed to be issued in the merger in exchange for the outstanding Capital Title shares at December 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006, respectively, to LandAmerica's weighted average shares outstanding for the respective periods.
- (3) The pro forma combined earnings per share reflects the impact of the cash consideration and additional borrowings of approximately $100 million and the related amortization of associated debt issue costs, which resulted in pre-tax decrease to investment income of $3.7 million and $1.1 million and an increase to interest expense of $6.9 million and $1.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 and three months ended March 31, 2006, respectively. LandAmerica has calculated the cost of the borrowings needed to complete the transaction using an interest rate of approximately 6.75% per annum. The final financing of the cash portion of the transaction may differ from these preliminary adjustments. The cost of the borrowings may be different based on changes in market rates and LandAmerica may choose to repay any such additional borrowings with cash from operations, net securities maturities or future market borrowings.
- (4) The pro forma combined net book value per share is computed by dividing the pro forma combined shareholders' equity by the pro forma number of shares of LandAmerica common stock outstanding as of December 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006, respectively, assuming the merger had occurred as of that date. The pro forma book value includes a non-recurring compensation charge of $3.0 million after taxes in connection with the acceleration of Capital Title's unvested stock options which will be fully exercised upon completion of the merger.
- (5) The Capital Title pro forma combined equivalent data is calculated by multiplying the pro forma combined data amounts by the exchange ratio of 0.122 shares of LandAmerica's common stock for each share of Capital Title common stock converted in the merger.

- (1) The consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003, 2002 and 2001 and quarter ended March 31, 2005, were restated as a result of management's identification of an error in the liability for policy and contract claims (claims reserve) calculation. The cumulative effect of the error as of December 31, 2001 was an increase to stockholders' equity of $13.8 million. LandAmerica has determined when a new claims system was implemented in 1999, there was a misinterpretation of the data in a new report generated from the new system that caused data regarding claims paid to be reported to its actuaries without the appropriate reduction for recoveries. See Note 1 to the Consolidated Financial Statements in LandAmerica's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 and Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 for information related to the restatement.

- (3) In 2004, LandAmerica (1) incurred litigation settlement costs of $9.2 million, or $5.9 million after taxes, (2) amended its pension plan effective December 31, 2004 to cease future accruals resulting in a curtailment gain of $4.8 million, or $3.1 million after taxes, (3) recorded exit and termination costs of $6.5 million, or $4.2 million after taxes, and (4) recorded title plant impairments of $5.0 million, or $3.2 million after taxes.
- (4) In 2003, LandAmerica recorded exit and termination costs of $0.3 million or $0.2 million after taxes. Additionally, LandAmerica recorded title plant impairments of $4.9 million, or $3.2 million after taxes.
- (5) In 2002, LandAmerica recorded exit and termination costs of $13.4 million or $8.7 million after taxes.
- (6) In 2001, LandAmerica reassessed the carrying value of intangibles and capitalized software, which resulted in charges to earnings of $51.4 million, or $32.9 million after taxes.
- (7) Results for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 included an asset write-off of $9.7 million, or $6.3 million after taxes, primarily related to the sale of LandAmerica's headquarters building.

- (1) Appraisal service revenue was a new revenue stream in 2004, resulting from providing appraisal services to customers through Nationwide, Capital Title's subsidiary acquired in 2004.
- (2) The availability of net operating loss carryforwards resulted in a lower tax provision in 2001 than would be expected based on statutory income tax rates. The net operating loss carryforwards were fully utilized in 2001.
- (3) Preferred stock was non-convertible and could be redeemed after 2023 for $17.5 million. The preferred stock had an 8% cumulative dividend, payable quarterly. This preferred stock was redeemed for $17.5 million on January 2, 2006 with a portion of the proceeds from a secondary offering completed in November 2005.
- (4) Represents the percentage of title insurance premiums from policies Capital Title issued through its insurance underwriting subsidiary, which was acquired in September 2002. This percentage declined in 2004 resulting from the acquisition of Nationwide Appraisal, which had historically utilized third-party title insurance underwriters exclusively for the title policies it issued. During 2004, United Capital Title Insurance Company, Capital Title's title insurance underwriter, commenced efforts to become licensed in additional states in order to capture more of the premiums resulting from title policies it issues.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully read and consider the following risk factors concerning LandAmerica, Capital Title and the merger before you decide whether to vote to approve the merger and/or the other matters to be considered and voted upon at the stockholder meeting.

Risks Associated with the Merger

Capital Title will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees, partners, regulators and customers may have an adverse effect on Capital Title and potentially on LandAmerica. These uncertainties may impair Capital Title's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is consummated, and could cause customers and others that deal with Capital Title to defer decisions concerning Capital Title, or to seek to change existing business relationships with Capital Title. Employee retention may be particularly challenging during the pendency of the merger, as employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with LandAmerica. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with LandAmerica, LandAmerica's business following the merger could be harmed. In addition, the merger agreement restricts Capital Title from making certain acquisitions and taking other specified actions until the merger occurs. These restrictions may prevent Capital Title from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. See "Conduct of Business Pending the Merger" beginning on page 59 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to Capital Title.

Completion of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all governmental authorizations, consents, orders and approvals, including the required approvals from various state banking and insurance regulators. Capital Title and LandAmerica have filed (or will promptly file) all of the required applications or notices necessary to complete the merger with each of the applicable regulatory authorities. Neither Capital Title nor LandAmerica can be sure as to whether or when regulatory approval will be obtained or that the regulatory approval will be obtained without conditions. Such conditions may delay completion of the merger, exposing you to the risks and uncertainties described above for a longer period of time, or may be detrimental to Capital Title or LandAmerica.

The shares of LandAmerica common stock to be received by Capital Title stockholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from the shares of Capital Title common stock.

Capital Title stockholders will become LandAmerica stockholders and their rights as stockholders will be governed by the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of LandAmerica and Virginia corporate law. The rights associated with Capital Title common stock are different from the rights associated with LandAmerica common stock. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "Comparative Rights of Stockholders" beginning on page 72 for a discussion of the different rights associated with LandAmerica common stock.

Capital Title stockholders may receive merger consideration that is inconsistent with their elections.

Although Capital Title stockholders will be able to elect to receive cash or LandAmerica common stock for each of their shares, the merger agreement provides that, except in certain situations, 80% of the total number of outstanding Capital Title shares will receive cash and 20% will receive a portion of a share of LandAmerica common stock. Because of this limitation, if you elect to receive cash, your election may be re-allocated if the total cash elections exceed 80% of the total number of shares of Capital Title common stock at the time of the merger. Conversely, if you elect to receive LandAmerica common stock, your election may be re-allocated if the total stock elections exceed 20% of the total number of shares of Capital Title common stock at the time of the merger.

Table of Contents

In addition, in the event that the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the merger is less than or equal to $55.52, a price that is 85% of the average closing price immediately prior to the date the merger agreement, then Capital Title may terminate the merger agreement unless either (i) the parties agree to adjust the mixture of cash and stock to be paid as merger consideration or (ii) LandAmerica elects to pay all of the merger consideration in cash. LandAmerica nevertheless may elect to pay all of the merger consideration in cash in such a situation even if Capital Title does not intend to terminate the merger agreement.

For a more detailed description of the merger consideration, see Merger Consideration beginning on page 33.

Fluctuations in the trading price of LandAmerica common stock after the exchange rate has been set will change the value of the shares of LandAmerica common stock you receive in the merger.

Once the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the merger is determined and the exchange rate is set, the market value of the LandAmerica common stock that you receive in the merger will increase or decrease depending on the direction of the price movement of the LandAmerica common stock. Also, after the merger, the market value of LandAmerica common stock may decrease and be lower than the LandAmerica average closing price used in calculating the exchange rate in the merger.

The integration of the operations of LandAmerica and Capital Title may be more difficult than anticipated.

LandAmerica and Capital Title expect the combined company to realize cost savings and other financial and operating benefits from the merger, but there can be no assurance regarding when or the extent to which the combined company will be able to realize these benefits. The merger involves the integration of certain operations of two companies that have previously operated independently from each other. The companies have a number of systems, many of which may be dissimilar, which must be integrated or, in some places, replaced. Additionally, both companies rely on key employees and difficulties in integrating Capital Title and LandAmerica could adversely affect employee satisfaction and turnover. Difficulties associated with integrating LandAmerica and Capital Title would have an adverse effect on LandAmerica's ability to realize the expected financial and operational benefits of the merger.

The merger with Capital Title may distract management of LandAmerica from its other responsibilities.

The acquisition of Capital Title could cause the management of LandAmerica to focus its time and energies on matters related to the acquisition that otherwise would be directed to the business and operations of LandAmerica. Any such distraction on the part of management, if significant, could affect its ability to service existing business and develop new business and adversely effect the business and earnings of LandAmerica.

Capital Title's stockholders will have less influence as stockholders of LandAmerica than as stockholders of Capital Title.

Capital Title's stockholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Capital Title and on other matters affecting Capital Title. When the merger occurs, each Capital Title stockholder that receives shares of LandAmerica common stock will become a stockholder of LandAmerica with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than the stockholder's percentage ownership of Capital Title. In fact, the former stockholders of Capital Title as a group will own approximately []% of the outstanding shares of LandAmerica immediately after the merger. Because of this, Capital Title's stockholders will have less influence on the management and policies of LandAmerica than they now have on the management and policies of Capital Title.

Directors and officers of Capital Title have interests in the merger that differ from the interests of non-director or non-management stockholders.

Some of the directors and officers of Capital Title have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as stockholders of Capital Title generally. These interests exist because of, among other things, employment agreements that Donald R. Head and Mark C. Walker have entered into with Capital Title, rights of the directors and officers of Capital Title to indemnification and insurance following the merger and the vesting of outstanding stock options and warrants. Although the members of each of LandAmerica's and Capital Title's board of directors knew about these additional interests and considered them when they approved the merger agreement and the merger, you should understand that some of the directors and officers of Capital Title will receive benefits or other payments in connection with the merger that you will not receive. See Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 51.

Risks Related to the Business of LandAmerica

LandAmerica's results of operations and financial condition are susceptible to changes in mortgage interest rates and general economic conditions.

The demand for LandAmerica title insurance and other real estate transaction products and services is dependent upon, among other things, the volume of commercial and residential real estate transactions, including mortgage refinancing transactions. The volume of these transactions has historically been influenced by factors such as interest rates and the state of the overall economy. When interest rates are increasing or during an economic downturn or recession, real estate activity typically declines and LandAmerica tends to experience lower revenue and profitability. Foreign hostilities could change the demand for real estate transactions. The cyclical nature of LandAmerica's business has caused fluctuations in revenue and profitability in the past and is expected to do so in the future. In addition, changes in interest rates may have an adverse impact on our return on invested cash, the market value of its investment portfolio and interest paid on its bank debt.

LandAmerica's operating revenue for the year ended December 31, 2005 increased by 12.3 percent over the prior year, primarily due to a favorable mortgage interest rate environment and strong commercial transactions. While in 2005 mortgage interest rates continued to remain at relatively low levels, LandAmerica has experienced a decline in refinancing transactions since the third quarter of 2003 when mortgage interest rates began to moderately increase. For fiscal year 2006, LandAmerica expects that the level of refinancing transactions will be substantially below the levels experienced in recent years.

LandAmerica is subject to government regulation.

LandAmerica is subject to federal and state laws and regulations that are administered and enforced by insurance regulators and other governmental authorities. These laws and regulations are generally intended for the protection of policyholders and consumers rather than security holders. The nature and extent of these laws and regulations vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, and their applicability varies from subsidiary to subsidiary, but typically involve:

prior approval of the acquisition and control of an insurance company or of any company controlling an insurance company;

regulation of certain transactions, including dividend payments, entered into by an insurance company with any of its affiliates;

approval of premium rates for insurance;

standards of solvency and minimum amounts of capital surplus that must be maintained;

limitations on types and amounts of investments;

Table of Contents

restrictions on the size of risks that may be insured by a single company;

licensing of insurers, agents, inspectors, appraisers, home warranty, loan subservicing and other companies and/or employees and independent contractors;

deposits of securities for the benefit of policyholders;

approval of policy forms;

methods of accounting;

establishing reserves for losses and loss adjustment expenses;

regulation of underwriting, marketing and business practices;

regulation of reinsurance;

regulation of escrow accounts;

regulation regarding the use of personal information; and filing of annual and other reports with respect to financial condition and other matters.

Centennial Bank, a California industrial bank LandAmerica acquired in November 2003, is subject to regulation and supervision by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the California Department of Financial Institutions. Banking regulations are intended primarily to protect depositors and the federal deposit insurance funds and not shareholders. Regulatory requirements affect, among other things, LandAmerica's banking subsidiary's practices, capital level, investment practices, dividend policies and growth.

These laws and regulations are subject to change and may impede, impose burdensome conditions on, or cause rate adjustments or other actions that could materially and adversely affect LandAmerica's business, operating results and financial condition. In addition, state regulatory examiners perform periodic examinations of insurance companies. LandAmerica can make no assurances regarding the potential impact of state or federal laws, regulations, policies or interpretations that may change the nature or scope of title insurance or other regulation.

Heightened regulatory scrutiny of LandAmerica and the title insurance industry could materially and adversely affect its business, operating results, and financial condition.

LandAmerica is and has in the past been subject to information requests and subpoenas from various regulatory authorities relating to investigations of our business practices and the title insurance industry. Multiple states are specifically investigating captive reinsurance, a practice where the reinsurer is owned by another entity who helps place the initial request for title insurance. The Government Accountability Office is studying the title insurance product, market, pricing, business practices, and potential regulatory changes. Multiple states have announced their intent to examine pricing levels and competition in the title insurance industry with a view to determining whether prices are too high, and if so, to implement rate reductions. Rate reductions for LandAmerica title insurance products could result in decreased levels of revenue. If LandAmerica fails to reduce its staffing and other costs to a level consistent with decreased revenues, there could be a material and adverse effect on its business, operating results, and financial condition. Any restrictions imposed or actions taken by states with respect to

LandAmerica or the title insurance industry in general may adversely affect LandAmerica's business, operating results, and financial condition.

LandAmerica may not be able to fuel its growth through acquisitions.

LandAmerica's growth has been facilitated by acquisitions, which may or may not be available on acceptable terms in the future, and which, if consummated, may or may not be advantageous to LandAmerica. While LandAmerica expects to continue making acquisitions or entering into joint ventures as part of our long-term business strategy to expand the services it provides and their distribution, no assurances can be given that it will do so or that it will continue to acquire businesses at the levels previously experienced. LandAmerica may not be able to identify suitable acquisition candidates or complete acquisitions on satisfactory terms. LandAmerica's competitors also have adopted the strategy of expanding and diversifying through acquisitions, and as a result, it may be forced to pay more to acquire companies.

LandAmerica's inability to integrate and manage successfully its acquired businesses could adversely affect its business, operating results, and financial condition.

LandAmerica's acquisitions and joint ventures may or may not be outside of our traditional business operations. The process of integrating any acquired business involves a number of special risks, including its inexperience in managing businesses that provide products and services beyond its traditional business; new regulatory requirements; diversion of management's attention; failure to retain key acquired personnel (resulting from changes in compensation, reporting relationships, future prospects, or the direction of the business); increased costs to improve managerial, operational, financial and administrative systems; legal liabilities; amortization of acquired intangible assets; and failure in the implementation of controls, procedures and policies appropriate for a larger public company that the acquired business lacked prior to acquisition. In addition, there can be no assurance that acquired businesses will achieve anticipated levels of revenue, earnings or performance. LandAmerica's failure to manage acquisitions successfully could materially and adversely affect its business, operating results, and financial condition.

Regulatory non-compliance, fraud or defalcations by LandAmerica's title insurance agents or employees could adversely affect its business, operating results, and financial condition.

LandAmerica's title insurance agents are entities that often represent more than one title insurance underwriter and operate their businesses independently, but subject to various underwriting guidelines from their title underwriter(s). In addition to potential liability on policies written by LandAmerica agents, governmental authorities or litigants may seek to assign liability to LandAmerica for the actions of its agents in circumstances where they were acting outside the scope of their authority as agents. In certain circumstances, LandAmerica may incur losses for the fraud, defalcation, regulatory noncompliance and other misconduct of its agents and employees. To the extent that any loss is substantial, there could be a material adverse effect on its business, operating results, and financial condition.

Competition in LandAmerica's industry affects its revenue.

The business of providing real estate transaction products and services is very competitive. Competition for residential title insurance business is based primarily on price and quality of service. With respect to national and regional mortgage lenders, service quality includes a large distribution network and the ability to deliver a broad array of real estate services quickly, efficiently and through a single point of contact. Competition for commercial title business is based primarily on price, service, expertise in complex transactions and the size and financial strength of the insurer. Title insurance underwriters also compete for agents on the basis of service and commission levels. Although LandAmerica is one of the largest providers of real estate transaction products and services in the United States, four other companies—FNT, The First American Corporation, Old Republic International Corporation and Stewart Information Services, Inc.—have the size, capital base and agency networks to compete effectively with its products and services. In addition, some of LandAmerica's competitors may have, or will have in the future, greater capital and other resources than it. Competition among the major providers of real estate transaction products and services and any new entrants could materially and adversely affect LandAmerica's business, operating results, and financial condition.

Significant industry changes and new product and service introductions require timely and cost-effective responses.

As a national provider of real estate transaction products and services, LandAmerica participates in an industry that is subject to significant change, frequent new product and service introductions and evolving industry standards. In addition, alternatives to traditional title insurance, such as lien protection products, have emerged in recent years. LandAmerica believes that our future success will depend on its ability to anticipate changes in technology and customer preferences and to offer products and services that meet evolving standards on a timely and cost-effective basis. The development and implementation of new products and services may require significant capital expenditures and other resources. There is a risk that customers may not accept LandAmerica's new product and service offerings and LandAmerica may not successfully identify new product and service opportunities nor develop and introduce new products and services in a timely and cost-effective manner. In addition, products and services that LandAmerica's competitors and other real estate industry participants develop or introduce may render certain of its products and services obsolete or noncompetitive. LandAmerica licenses software and technology from third parties, including some competitors, and incorporate it into or sell it in conjunction with LandAmerica's own software products, some of which is critical to the operation of LandAmerica's business. If any of the third party software vendors were to change product offerings, increase prices or terminate our licenses, LandAmerica might need to seek alternative vendors and incur additional internal or external development costs to ensure continued performance of its products. Such alternatives may not be available on attractive terms, or may not be as widely accepted or as effective as the software provided by LandAmerica's existing vendors. If the cost of licensing or maintaining these third party software products or other technology significantly increases, LandAmerica's gross margin levels could significantly decrease. Further, LandAmerica's third party vendors may not have the capacity to develop and support software and systems that are necessary to process large volumes of transactions. In addition, interruption in functionality of LandAmerica's products could adversely affect future sales of licenses and services. Advances in technology could also reduce the useful lives of its products, preventing it from recovering fully its investment in particular products and services. As a result, LandAmerica's inability to anticipate industry changes and to respond with competitive and profitable products and services could materially and adversely affect its business, operating results, and financial condition.

LandAmerica's litigation risks include substantial claims by large classes of claimants.

From time to time LandAmerica is involved in litigation arising in the ordinary course of its business. In addition, LandAmerica currently is and has in the past been subject to claims and litigation not arising in the ordinary course of business from large classes of claimants seeking substantial damages. Material pending legal proceedings not arising in the ordinary course of business are disclosed in LandAmerica's filings with the SEC. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 81. An unfavorable outcome in any class action suit or other claim, inquiry, investigation or litigation against LandAmerica could have a material adverse effect on its business, operating results, and financial condition.

Key accounting and essential product delivery systems are concentrated in a few locations.

LandAmerica's corporate headquarters, accounting and technology operations are concentrated in Richmond, Virginia, and at its agency services center located in Louisville, Kentucky. These critical business operations are subject to interruption by natural disasters, fire, power shortages, and other events beyond our control. Although LandAmerica is upgrading its disaster recovery functionality and has prepared a business continuity plan, a catastrophic event that results in the destruction or disruption of any of its critical business operations or systems could severely affect its ability to conduct normal business operations and, as a result, there could be a material and adverse effect on its business, operating results, and financial condition.

Provisions of LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws, its shareholder rights plan and applicable state corporation and insurance laws could limit another party's ability to acquire LandAmerica and could deprive stockholders of the opportunity to obtain a takeover premium for shares of common stock owned by them.

Table of Contents

Provisions in LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws may make it difficult for another company to acquire it and for stockholders to receive any related takeover premium for its common stock. These provisions include, among other things:

a staggered board of directors in which the board of directors is divided into three classes, with one class elected each year to serve a three year term;

the absence of cumulative voting in the election of directors;

the removal of directors only for cause and only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80 percent of the outstanding shares entitled to vote;

a vote of at least 80 percent of the outstanding shares entitled to vote is required for the approval of a merger or consolidation with, or a sale, lease or exchange of substantially all our assets to, any shareholder that directly or indirectly owns or controls 10 percent or more of the voting power of LandAmerica; and the ability of LandAmerica's board of directors to issue up to 4,800,000 shares of preferred stock, the terms of which may be determined by its board of directors at the time of issuance without further action by stockholders. The issuance of any preferred stock could materially and adversely affect the rights of holders of its common stock and could reduce the value of its common stock. In addition, specific rights granted to future holders of preferred stock could be used to restrict its ability to merge with, or sell assets to, a third party. The ability of its board of directors to issue preferred stock could delay, discourage, prevent or make it more difficult or costly to acquire LandAmerica or effect a change in control in its board of directors.

In addition, LandAmerica's board of directors has adopted a shareholder rights plan that could result in substantial dilution to persons or groups that acquire beneficial ownership of, or announce a tender offer for, 20 percent or more of its common stock. In connection with the rights plan, the board of directors has issued rights that attach to each share of common stock and authorized the issuance of 200,000 shares of Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock. The stockholder rights plan expires on August 20, 2007.

The laws of Virginia also contain provisions designed to deter certain takeovers of Virginia corporations. The "affiliated transaction" provisions of Virginia law prohibit, subject to certain exceptions, a Virginia corporation from engaging in specified transactions with the beneficial owner of more than 10 percent of any class of the corporation's voting securities for a period of three years following the date upon which the shareholder acquires the requisite number of securities. The types of transactions covered by the law include certain mergers, share exchanges, material dispositions of corporate assets not in the ordinary course of business, dissolutions, reclassifications and recapitalizations.

Other provisions of Virginia corporation law generally deny voting rights to shares of a public corporation acquired in a "control share" acquisition, which is an acquisition by any person of beneficial ownership of shares that meet or exceed a specified threshold percentage (20%, 33 1/3% or 50%) of the total votes entitled to be cast for the election of directors, unless approved by a majority vote of all outstanding shares other than those held by the acquiring person. Although LandAmerica's articles of incorporation currently makes these provisions inapplicable to acquisitions of shares of its common stock, these provisions could become applicable in the future if an amendment to the articles of incorporation is approved by LandAmerica's board of directors and stockholders.

Many state insurance regulatory laws intended primarily for the protection of policyholders contain provisions that require advance approval by state agencies of any change in control of an insurance company or insurance holding company that is domiciled (or, in some cases, doing business) in that state. Under such current laws, any future transaction that would constitute a change in control would generally require approval by the state insurance departments of Arizona, California, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

Table of Contents

Such a requirement could have the effect of delaying or preventing certain transactions affecting the control or the ownership of our common stock, including transactions that could be advantageous to LandAmerica shareholders.

LandAmerica's future success depends on its ability to continue to attract and retain qualified employees.

LandAmerica's success depends upon its ability to continue to attract and retain highly skilled technical, managerial, sales and marketing personnel. If its efforts in these areas are not successful, its costs may increase, development and sales efforts may be hindered and its customer service may suffer. Although LandAmerica invest significant resources in recruiting and retaining employees, there is intense competition for personnel in the title insurance industry. From time to time, LandAmerica experiences difficulties in locating enough highly qualified candidates in desired geographic locations, or with required industry-specific expertise.

LandAmerica's conduct of business in foreign markets creates financial and operational risks and uncertainties that may materially and adversely affect its business, operating results, and financial condition.

LandAmerica currently provides title insurance and other real estate transaction products and services in foreign countries. As of March 31, 2006, LandAmerica conducted business in a number of foreign markets, including Mexico, Canada, the Caribbean, Latin America, and Europe. In certain countries where LandAmerica does business, its products and services have a limited history and are not well-established. As a result, market acceptance of its products and services is uncertain, and LandAmerica may not be able to successfully implement its business plan. Government regulations may determine how LandAmerica operates in various countries, which could limit its growth and strategy plans. LandAmerica's foreign businesses are subject to potential changes in political and economic conditions in the local markets in which they operate, which could adversely affect their performance. LandAmerica is also subject to foreign taxes in the countries in which it operates, and changes in tax laws or the interpretation of tax laws may reduce its earnings or may increase its tax cost.

In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, Capital Title will request banks, brokers and other record holders to send proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of the Capital Title common stock and secure their voting instructions, if necessary. Capital Title will reimburse those record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. If necessary, Capital Title also may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from our stockholders, either personally or by telephone, the Internet, telegram, fax, letter or special delivery letter. Finally, Capital Title has retained a professional proxy solicitation firm, The Altman Group, Inc., to assist it in soliciting proxies. Capital Title will pay a retainer fee in the amount of $6,500 for such services, and Capital Title will also reimburse them for all costs and expenses in connection with this solicitation.

Record Date and Voting Rights

In accordance with Delaware law, Capital Title's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and The Nasdaq National Market rules, Capital Title has fixed [], 2006 as the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Accordingly, you are only entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting if you were a record holder of Capital Title common stock at the close of business on the record date. At that time, [] shares of Capital Title common stock were outstanding, held by [] holders of record. To have a quorum that permits the conduct of business at the special meeting, a majority of the shares of Capital Title common stock issued and outstanding on the record date must be present, whether in person or through the prior submission of a proxy. You are entitled to one vote for each outstanding share of Capital Title common stock you held as of the close of business on the record date.

Holders of shares of Capital Title common stock present in person at the special meeting but not voting, and shares of Capital Title common stock for which proxies indicating that their holders have abstained, will be counted as present at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum for transacting business is present. Shares held in street name that have been designated by brokers on proxy cards as not voted (so-called broker non-votes) will not be counted as votes for or against any proposal. These broker non-votes, however, will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

Vote Required

The approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of Capital Title s outstanding shares entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Approval of the adjournment of the meeting requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented at the meeting, whether or not a quorum is present.

Because approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Capital Title common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against these matters. Accordingly, Capital Title s board of directors urges you to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Capital Title beneficially owned approximately [] shares of Capital Title common stock, entitling them to exercise approximately []% of the voting power of the Capital Title common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each director and executive officer of Capital Title has executed a voting agreement that provides he will vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The board of directors of Capital Title has approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The Capital Title board believes that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are fair to, and are in the best interests of, Capital Title and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

PROPOSAL I APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS

This summary of the material terms and provisions of the merger agreement and the voting agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to such documents. The merger agreement and a form of the voting agreement are attached as Annex A and Annex B, respectively, to this proxy statement/prospectus. We incorporate these documents into this summary by reference.

Merger

Subject to satisfaction or waiver of all conditions in the merger agreement, CTG Acquisition Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of LandAmerica, will merge with and into Capital Title. Upon completion of the merger, Capital Title will continue as the surviving corporation as a wholly-owned subsidiary of LandAmerica.

Merger Consideration

Each share of Capital Title common stock will be converted in the merger into either:

$8.00 in cash; or

0.122 of a share of LandAmerica common stock, subject to adjustment, which we refer to as the exchange rate.

The exchange rate of 0.122 of a share of LandAmerica common stock was determined by dividing $8.00 by the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement, but is subject to adjustment as more fully described below. To determine the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock at any given time, the average of the daily closing prices of LandAmerica's common stock for the 15 trading days immediately preceding such time is used. The exchange rate will be adjusted, if necessary, to ensure that the value of the portion of a share of LandAmerica common stock received will be no more than $8.25 and no less than $7.75 based on the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the merger. In particular, the exchange rate will be adjusted as follows:

in the event that the average closing price immediately preceding the effective time of the merger multiplied by the exchange rate of 0.122 is more than $8.25, then the exchange rate will equal $8.25 divided by the average closing price immediately preceding the effective time of the merger; or in the event that the average closing price immediately preceding the effective time of the merger multiplied by the exchange rate of 0.122 is less than $7.75, then the exchange rate will equal $7.75 divided by the average closing price immediately preceding the effective time of the merger.

The following table illustrates the manner in which the exchange rate will be determined based on the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

If the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock is:	Then the exchange rate is:
Less than $63.53	More than 0.122; will be the portion of a share of LandAmerica common stock that has a value equal to $7.75 based on the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock.
From $63.53 to $67.62	0.122 of a share of LandAmerica common stock.
Greater than $67.62

Less than 0.122; will be the portion of a share of LandAmerica common stock that has a value equal to $8.25 based on the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock.

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth information regarding the amount of the exchange rate and the value of the LandAmerica common stock based upon various assumptions as to the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and the per share value of the cash component of the merger consideration:

LandAmerica Average Closing Price	Exchange rate	Value of Stock Consideration Per Share Based on LandAmerica Average Closing Price(1)	Cash Consideration Per Share
Less than $63.53	More than 0.122	$7.75	$8.00
From $63.53 to $67.62	0.122	From $7.75 to $8.25	$8.00
Greater than $67.62	Less than 0.122	$8.25	$8.00

- (1) Calculated by multiplying the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock by the resulting exchange rate. The actual value of the shares at the time LandAmerica stock certificates are delivered or the shares become available may be more or less than the amounts shown due to fluctuations in the market price of LandAmerica common stock between the effective time of the merger and the date of delivery.

The exchange rate and the $8.00 per share cash component of the merger consideration also are subject to appropriate adjustment if the number of shares of Capital Title common stock outstanding on a fully-diluted basis exceeds 33,510,763 at the effective time of the merger. The exchange rate also will be appropriately adjusted if, between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger, certain changes occur in the outstanding shares of capital stock of LandAmerica or securities convertible, exercisable or exchangeable into capital stock of LandAmerica (including by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or similar change) or a record date with respect to any such event shall occur during such period.

The amount and nature of the merger consideration was established through arm's-length negotiations between LandAmerica and Capital Title and their respective advisors and reflects the balancing of a number of countervailing factors. The total amount of the merger consideration reflects a price both parties concluded was appropriate. See "Background of the Merger" beginning on page 40. LandAmerica expects it will fund approximately 50% of the cash portion of the merger consideration from available cash and 50% from additional borrowings.

We cannot assure you that the current fair market value of LandAmerica common stock or Capital Title common stock will be equivalent to the fair market value of LandAmerica common stock or Capital Title common stock on the effective date of the merger.

Cash or Common Stock Election; Transmittal of Shares

Each person who, at the effective time of the merger, is a record holder of shares of Capital Title common stock will be entitled, with respect to each of such person's shares, to make an unconditional election on or prior to the election deadline, which is 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on the date that is five business days following the effective time of the merger, with respect to the cash or LandAmerica common stock that such holder elects to receive for each of his or her shares of Capital Title common stock. If the merger occurs, Capital Title will promptly make a public announcement of this fact.

Each election form will permit holders to make one of the following elections:

to elect to receive shares of LandAmerica common stock with respect to some or all of such holder's shares of Capital Title common stock;

to elect to receive cash with respect to some or all of such holder's shares of Capital Title common stock; or to indicate that such holder makes no election, and thus has no preference, with respect to some or all of such holder's shares of Capital Title common stock.

Table of Contents

Each of the beneficial owners of shares held of record by a bank, trust company, broker, dealer or other recognized nominee record holder will notify its respective nominee record holder of its election through proper instructions and documentation to be provided by the record holder. Nominee record holders who hold shares of Capital Title common stock on behalf of multiple beneficial owners will indicate how many of such shares that they hold made any of the three elections.

All elections must be made on the election form furnished to you in a separate mailing, or on a facsimile of the election form. Elections may be made by holders of Capital Title common stock by delivering the election form and the other required documents to the exchange agent, which is Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (formerly EquiServe Trust Company). For an election to be effective, an election form must be properly completed, signed and submitted in the return envelope and received by Computershare by the election deadline, and accompanied by:

the certificates representing the shares of Capital Title common stock as to which the election is being made or an appropriate guarantee of delivery of such certificates as set forth in such election form from a firm which is a member of a registered national securities exchange or of the NASDAQ or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States, provided such certificates are in fact delivered to the exchange agent within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution of such guarantee of delivery;

a properly completed and signed letter of transmittal, which you will receive in a separate mailing along with the election form; and if you are an affiliate (as such term is used in Rule 145 under the Securities Act) of Capital Title, a properly completed and signed affiliate letter.

LandAmerica has the discretion, which it may delegate to the exchange agent, to determine whether any election form has been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked and to disregard immaterial defects in the election form. The good faith decision of LandAmerica (or the exchange agent) in such matters will be conclusive and binding. Neither LandAmerica nor the exchange agent is under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in an election form submitted to the exchange agent. The exchange agent will also be making the computations required by the merger agreement, and all such computations will be conclusive and binding on the holders of Capital Title common stock in the absence of manifest error.

An election form may be changed if the record holder effectively revokes such holder's election form in accordance with the procedures described on the election form and a new election form for such holder is received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions you receive from your broker to change or revoke your vote.

A stockholder who does not submit an election form to the exchange agent prior to the election deadline, including a holder who submits and then revokes such holder's election form and does not re-submit an election form that is timely received by the exchange agent, or a holder who submits an election form without the other required documents, will be deemed to have indicated that such holder makes no election with respect to his or her shares of Capital Title common stock.

LandAmerica and Capital Title will use their reasonable best efforts to mail or otherwise make available an election form and letter of transmittal to all persons who have become stockholders of Capital Title between the record date and the effective time of the merger.

Allocation and Proration Procedures

The merger agreement provides that the mixture of the aggregate merger consideration that LandAmerica will pay to the stockholders of Capital Title will be 20% in the form of shares of LandAmerica common stock and 80% in the form of cash. Because of this limitation, if you elect to receive cash, your election may be re-allocated if the total cash elections exceed 80% of the total number of shares of Capital Title common stock at the time of the merger. Conversely, if you elect to receive LandAmerica common stock, your election may be re-allocated if the total stock elections exceed 20% of the total number of shares of Capital Title common stock at the time of the merger. If you make no election, then you will receive (i) cash if the number of stock elections exceed the 20% limitation, (ii) stock if the number of cash elections exceed the 80% limitation or (iii) if neither limitation is exceeded, cash or LandAmerica common stock based on the amount of each such type of consideration remaining after allocations are made to shares of Capital Title common stock that made an election.

The allocations and prorations of the elections that the stockholders of Capital Title common stock may make are described in detail in this section, and summarized in the following table. All percentages are based on the number of shares of Capital Title common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Percentage of Elections	Effect on Elections for Cash Consideration	Effect on Elections for Stock Consideration	Effect on No Elections
Stock elections exceed 20%	no adjustment	pro rata adjustments to each election to adjust total stock consideration down to 20% to receive stock and cash	right to receive cash
	right to receive		right
	cash, as elected
Cash elections exceed 80%	pro rata adjustments to each election to adjust total cash consideration down to 80% to receive stock and cash	no adjustment	right to receive stock
		stock, as elected
Stock elections are less than or equal to 20% and cash elections are less than or equal to 80%	no adjustment	no adjustment	right to receive cash and stock right to receive	right to receive
	cash, as elected	stock, as elected

Within ten business days after the election deadline, the exchange agent, as directed by LandAmerica, will effect the allocation among holders of Capital Title common stock to receive shares of LandAmerica common stock or cash, in accordance with the election forms, as follows:

If the aggregate number of shares of Capital Title common stock with respect to which cash elections have been made exceeds the aggregate number of shares of Capital Title common stock that may be converted into the right to receive the aggregate amount of cash consideration (the Aggregate Cash Shares), then:

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which a stock election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive stock;

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which no election shall have been made (or deemed to have been made) shall be converted into the right to receive stock; and

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which a cash election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive: (x) the amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (A) the per share cash consideration and (B) a fraction (the Cash Fraction), the numerator of which shall be the Aggregate Cash Shares, and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate number of Capital Title shares with respect to which cash elections shall have been made, and (y) the number of LandAmerica shares equal to the product of (A) the per share stock consideration and (B) a fraction equal to one minus the Cash Fraction.

Table of Contents

If the aggregate number of shares of Capital Title common stock with respect to which stock elections have been made exceeds the aggregate number of shares of Capital Title common stock that may be converted into the right to receive the aggregate amount of LandAmerica common stock consideration (the Aggregate Stock Shares), then:

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which a cash election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive cash;

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which a no election shall have been made (or deemed to have been made) shall be converted into the right to receive cash; and

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which a stock election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive: (x) the number of LandAmerica shares equal to the product of (A) the per share stock consideration and (B) a fraction (the Stock Fraction), the numerator of which shall be the Aggregate Stock Shares, and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate number of shares of Capital Title common stock with respect to which stock elections shall have been made, and (y) the amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (A) per share cash consideration and (B) a fraction equal to one minus the Stock Fraction.

In the event that neither of the above scenarios is applicable, then:

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which a cash election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive cash;

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which a stock election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive stock; and

each share of Capital Title common stock with respect to which no election shall have been made (or deemed to have been made) (the Non-Electing Shares), if any, shall be converted into the right to receive: (x) an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (A) the per share cash consideration and (B) a fraction (the Non-Election Fraction), the numerator of which shall be the excess of (1) the Aggregate Cash Shares over (2) the sum of the aggregate number of Capital Title shares with respect to which a cash election shall have been made, and the denominator of which shall be the excess of (1) the aggregate number of shares of Capital Title stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than dissenting shares and shares held by Capital Title or its subsidiaries) over (2) the sum of the aggregate number of Capital Title shares with respect to which a cash election and a stock election shall have been made; and (y) the number of LandAmerica shares equal to the product of (A) the per share stock consideration and (B) a fraction equal to one minus the Non-Election Fraction.

In the event that the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the merger is less than or equal to $55.52, a price that is 85% of the average closing price immediately prior to the date the merger agreement, then Capital Title may terminate the merger agreement unless either (i) the parties agree to adjust the mixture of cash and stock to be paid as merger consideration or (ii) LandAmerica elects to pay all of the merger consideration in cash. LandAmerica nevertheless may elect to pay all of the merger consideration in cash in such a situation even if Capital Title does not intend to terminate the merger agreement.

Manner and Basis of Converting Shares; Procedure; No Fractional Shares; Effect on Certificates

After properly surrendering Capital Title stock certificates to Computershare Trust Company, the LandAmerica exchange agent, each Capital Title stockholder will receive in exchange therefor cash to which such holder is entitled, certificates evidencing the number of whole shares of LandAmerica common stock to which such holder is entitled, any cash which may be payable in lieu of a fractional share of LandAmerica common stock, and any dividends or other distributions with respect to LandAmerica common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger.

Each holder of shares of Capital Title common stock exchanged pursuant to the merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of LandAmerica common stock shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the product of (i) such fractional part of a share of LandAmerica common stock multiplied by (ii) the average closing price of a share of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

After the effective time of the merger, each certificate formerly representing Capital Title common stock, until so surrendered and exchanged, will evidence only the right to receive, pursuant to an election to which such holder is entitled to make, the cash and the number of whole shares of LandAmerica common stock that the holder is entitled to receive in the merger, any cash payment in lieu of a fractional share of LandAmerica common stock and any dividend or other distribution with respect to LandAmerica common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger. The holder of such unexchanged certificate will not be entitled to receive payment of any dividends or distributions payable on the LandAmerica common stock until the certificate has been exchanged. Subject to applicable laws, following surrender of such certificates, such dividends and distributions, together with any cash payment in lieu of a fractional share of LandAmerica common stock, will be paid without interest.

Appraisal Rights

Under Delaware law, Capital Title stockholders who comply with the applicable requirements of Delaware law will have the right to receive an appraisal of the value of their shares of Capital Title common stock in connection with the merger. We have included a copy of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law relating to appraisal rights as Annex D to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Under Delaware law, Capital Title stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. Any Capital Title stockholder of record who objects to the merger may elect to have his or her shares of Capital Title common stock appraised under the procedures of Delaware law and to be paid the fair value of his or her shares. The appraised value will not include any value arising from the merger, but may include a fair rate of interest. It is possible that the fair value determined may be more or less than the merger consideration.

Capital Title stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must comply with the provisions of Section 262 of Delaware General Corporation Law in order to perfect their rights. Capital Title will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures required to be followed by a Capital Title stockholder in order to dissent from the merger and perfect his or her appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Under Section 262, Capital Title is required to notify stockholders not less than 20 days before the special meeting to vote on the merger that appraisal rights will be available. A copy of Section 262 must be included with that notice.

THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS CONSTITUTES CAPITAL TITLE S NOTICE TO ITS STOCKHOLDERS OF THE AVAILABILITY OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 262 OF THE DELAWARE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW.

If you wish to consider exercising your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of Section 262 contained in Annex D. If you fail to timely and properly comply with the requirements of Section 262, your appraisal rights under Delaware law may be lost. If you elect to demand appraisal of your shares of Capital Title common stock, you must satisfy each of the following conditions:

You must deliver to Capital Title a written demand for appraisal of your shares before the vote is taken on the merger agreement at the special meeting. This written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote abstaining from or voting against the merger. Voting against or failing to vote for the merger by itself does not constitute a demand for appraisal under Section 262;

You must not vote in favor of the merger. A vote in favor of the merger, by proxy or in person, will constitute a waiver of your appraisal rights in respect of the shares so voted and will nullify any previously filed written demands for appraisal; and

You must continuously hold your Capital Title common stock through the effective time of the merger. If you fail to comply with any of these conditions and the merger is completed, you will lose your appraisal rights with respect to your shares of Capital Title common stock. All demands for appraisal should be addressed to:

Capital Title Group, Inc.

14648 North Scottsdale Road, Suite 125

Scottsdale, Arizona 85254

Attention: Corporate Secretary

and should be executed by, or on behalf of, the record holder of the shares of Capital Title common stock. The written demand must identify the Capital Title stockholder and state that the stockholder intends to demand appraisal of his or her shares of Capital Title common stock.

Within 10 days after the effective time of the merger, Capital Title must give written notice that the merger has been completed to each Capital Title stockholder who has properly sent a written demand for appraisal and who did not vote in favor of the merger.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, either Capital Title or any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the shares held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal. Capital Title has no obligation to file such a petition in the event there are dissenting stockholders. If a petition is not filed within the 120-day period, all appraisal rights relating to Capital Title common stock will terminate.

At any time within 60 days after the effective time of the merger, any dissenting stockholder may withdraw the demand for appraisal. If a Capital Title stockholder withdraws his or her demand, the stockholder will only be entitled to receive the cash consideration of $8.00 per share of Capital Title common stock. Any attempt to withdraw an appraisal demand more than 60 days after the effective time of the merger will require the written approval of the surviving corporation. Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, any stockholder who has complied with Section 262 will be entitled, upon written request, to receive a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of Capital Title common stock with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received.

If a dissenting stockholder duly files a petition for appraisal with the Delaware Chancery Court and the petition is served on Capital Title, then Capital Title must file with the Delaware Chancery Court within 20 days after being served such petition a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached. After notice to dissenting stockholders, the Delaware Chancery Court is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and who are entitled to the appraisal rights.

The Delaware Chancery Court may require the stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings. If any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Delaware Chancery Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder. After determination of the stockholders entitled to appraisal rights, the Delaware Chancery Court will appraise the shares of Capital Title common stock and determine a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid. Once the fair value is determined, Capital Title will pay all dissenting stockholders the appraised value of their shares together, with interest accrued thereon during the pendency of the proceeding, upon surrender by such holders of the certificates representing such shares.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding may be determined by the Delaware Chancery Court and charged to the parties as the Delaware Chancery Court deems equitable under the circumstances. Upon application of a dissenting stockholder, the Delaware Chancery Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal.

Any stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights will not, after the effective time of the merger, be entitled to vote his or her shares for any purpose or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to such shares (other than with respect to payment as of a record date prior to the effective time of the merger).

In view of the complexity of Section 262, Capital Title stockholders who may wish to dissent from the merger and pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal advisors. Failure to take any required step in connection with exercising appraisal rights may result in the termination or waiver of such rights.

Background of the Merger

The board of directors of Capital Title in recent years considered the business of, and the prospects for, Capital Title, and, because it perceived the market value of Capital Title's Common Stock to be undervalued, studied various strategic alternatives for increasing stockholder value. Among the strategic alternatives considered was a potential sale or merger of Capital Title to either a strategic or financial buyer. Capital Title engaged Miller Capital Corporation (Miller) to act as its financial advisor in connection with any possible strategic alternative and Miller has advised Capital Title in that regard.

Capital Title has, from time to time, had conversations, and engaged in negotiations, with other companies which have expressed interest in a possible acquisition of, or merger with, Capital Title. Such other companies have included strategic buyers and private equity investors. Negotiations with such companies, other than LandAmerica, did not result in an agreement to purchase Capital Title. The following is a brief discussion of certain events leading up to the contacts between Capital Title and LandAmerica and the contacts and negotiations that have occurred between Capital Title and LandAmerica.

Beginning in early 2005, Capital Title's Board of Directors began serious discussions with Miller regarding soliciting interest of third parties in a potential sale or other transaction involving Capital Title. In connection with its evaluation of strategic alternatives, on February 18, 2005, the Board of Directors authorized Miller to seek indications of interest in a potential transaction for the acquisition of Capital Title.

From February 18, 2005 to May 18, 2005, Miller began contacting various potential transaction partners, including companies in the insurance industry, financial investors and potential strategic investors. During this time, Miller had initial discussions with respect to a potential acquisition of Capital Title with numerous potential transaction partners. As part of this process, on May 11, 2005, a representative of Miller met with a potential purchaser to discuss an acquisition of Capital Title.

On May 20, 2005, a representative of Miller attended a meeting of Capital Title's board of directors and updated the board with respect to various discussions and negotiations Miller had engaged in with various parties interested in pursuing a transaction with Capital Title. The board of directors reviewed materials prepared by Miller regarding various transaction alternatives and background information on potential transaction partners. Representatives of Capital Title's legal counsel, Squire, Sanders & Dempsey L.L.P. (which we refer to as Squire Sanders) attended this meeting and discussed various legal issues with respect to a potential transaction including regulatory approvals, due diligence and fiduciary duties of members of the board.

At the end of this meeting, the Capital Title board authorized Miller, Capital Title's executive officers and Squire Sanders to engage in negotiations regarding the sale of Capital Title with the potential transaction partner Miller had met with on May 11, 2005. Additionally, the board formed a special committee of the board of directors, chaired by Stephen A McConnell, to retain a firm to provide a fairness opinion in connection with any potential merger.

From May 20, 2005 to May 25, 2005, Miller, Capital Title's executive officers and Squire Sanders engaged in discussions and negotiations with a potential transaction partner, its financial advisors and legal counsel regarding a merger with Capital Title. As a result of these discussions, on May 25, 2005, the parties entered into a letter of intent with respect to the sale of Capital Title through a merger transaction.

The letter of intent provided for the parties to engage in negotiations of definitive merger agreements as well as conduct due diligence with respect to the transaction. Based on certain assumptions and conditions and subject to the completion of due diligence, the entering into definitive merger agreements and various potential adjustments, the letter of intent called for potential cash consideration of between $7.25 and $8.00 per share of Capital Title common stock.

On June 16, 2005, the special committee of the Capital Title board engaged Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin Financial Advisors, Inc. (Houlihan Lokey) to provide a fairness opinion with respect to any merger transaction.

From May 25, 2005 until June 30, 2005, the parties and their financial and legal advisors attempted to negotiate final merger terms including definitive agreements. As a result of these discussions, however, the parties were unable to reach final agreement and the parties terminated their discussions on June 30, 2005.

On July 14, 2005, a representative of Miller attended a meeting of the Capital Title board of directors and updated the board with respect to the termination of the previous negotiations and various strategic alternatives.

On January 4, 2006, representatives of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW) contacted a representative of Miller to inquire if Capital Title would entertain a merger, sale or joint venture arrangement with their client in the title industry.

On January 5, 2006, a conference call was held with KBW representatives, LandAmerica's Chief Financial Officer, G. William Evans, its Executive Vice President-Business Development, Jeffrey D. Vaughan and a Miller representative. It was concluded after the conference call that a follow up meeting would be scheduled on January 29, 2006, in Phoenix, Arizona to further discuss the various options of a sale, merger or joint venture relationship. On the 29th of January 2006, LandAmerica's President and Chief Executive Officer, Theodore L. Chandler, Jr., Mr. Evans, and Mr. Vaughan and Capital Title's Chief Executive Officer Donald R. Head, and its Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer Mark C. Walker and a Miller representative met to discuss the various opportunities.

On February 1, 2006, Capital Title retained Miller Capital Markets, LLC, (MCM) an affiliate of Miller Capital Corporation, as its exclusive investment banker to assist in negotiations and to advise the board of Capital Title regarding any potential transaction.

On February 1, 2006, Capital Title and LandAmerica entered into a confidentiality disclosure agreement in order to facilitate due diligence with respect to a potential merger transaction, following which the parties exchanged certain non-public information. Between February 1, 2006 and February 27, 2006, representatives from Capital Title and LandAmerica, including their respective financial and legal advisors, negotiated the terms of a potential merger.

Officers of Capital Title and its advisors negotiated various items, including the proposed purchase price with LandAmerica until a mutually satisfactory, nonbinding letter of intent was negotiated. A meeting of the board of directors of Capital Title was held on February 10, 2006 to review the proposal from LandAmerica. After consideration of the LandAmerica offer and various alternative strategic possibilities, the Capital Title board of directors concluded that the LandAmerica transaction was in the best interests of Capital Title's stockholders, and it unanimously voted to accept the LandAmerica proposal. On February 27, 2006, Capital Title and LandAmerica executed a nonbinding term sheet providing for the negotiation and documentation of a definitive agreement to merge Capital Title with a subsidiary of LandAmerica for merger consideration of approximately $251.4 million, or $8.00 per share, subject to various adjustments.

On March 2, 2006, the special committee of the board of Capital Title engaged Houlihan Lokey to provide a fairness opinion with respect to the LandAmerica transaction.

On March 10, 2006, LandAmerica furnished to Capital Title a draft of a proposed merger agreement. Between March 10 and March 28, 2005, various discussions also took place between Williams Mullen, counsel to LandAmerica, and Squire Sanders, counsel to Capital Title, to negotiate and draft the definitive merger agreement as well as the voting agreement. During this time LandAmerica continued its diligence review on Capital Title, and the various officers and personnel of each company met or communicated to discuss in greater detail the business operations of Capital Title, including Capital Title's agreements with third parties, its employees and its plans for conduct of its business through consummation of the proposed merger.

On the afternoon of March 24, 2006, the Capital Title board of directors met with senior management and its financial and legal advisors to review the proposed merger. At that meeting, Capital Title's management provided an update on the status of discussions. Squire Sanders reviewed with the Capital Title board of directors the material terms of the proposed merger agreement. Representatives of MCM and Miller discussed the transaction and various alternatives. Houlihan Lokey gave a financial presentation and orally delivered its opinion as to the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to Capital Title stockholders subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion. The board of directors asked questions of Houlihan Lokey regarding its diligence review and analysis. After discussion and consideration of the factors described under Capital Title's Reasons for the Merger and the Capital Title Board's Recommendation, the Capital Title board of directors unanimously voted to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and to call a special meeting of the stockholders to vote on the approval of the merger agreement.

Later that evening, Houlihan Lokey delivered its written opinion to the board of Capital Title as to the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to Capital Title stockholders. A copy of the Houlihan Lokey opinion is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C.

On March 27, 2006, the LandAmerica board of directors met with its financial advisors and senior management to review the proposed merger. At that meeting, LandAmerica's management summarized Capital Title's business and the material terms of the proposed merger agreement and discussed the various rationales for the proposed merger. KBW presented its fairness opinion and described for and discussed with the LandAmerica board the analysis it conducted in reaching its conclusion. After discussion and consideration of the factors described under LandAmerica's Reasons for the Merger, the LandAmerica board of directors determined that the proposed merger was in the best interest of LandAmerica and its stockholders and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Between March 24, 2006 and March 28, 2006, the parties continued to negotiate minor revisions to the documentation. On the morning of March 28, 2006, the parties entered into the definitive merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. Before the market opened on the morning of March 29, 2006, the parties publicly announced that they had entered into a definitive merger agreement.

Capital Title's Reasons for the Merger and the Capital Title Board's Recommendation

The board of directors of Capital Title believes that the merger is in the best interest of Capital Title and its stockholders, and unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends the approval of the merger agreement by Capital Title stockholders. In reaching this decision, the board of directors of Capital Title consulted with Capital Title management and with Capital Title's financial and legal advisors and considered a variety of factors, including the following material factors:

Capital Title's business plan as an independent company in the context of its assessment of Capital Title's business, operations, financial position, personnel and prospects;

the implications of the merger for all of Capital Title's constituents including its stockholders, employees, suppliers, customers, creditors and other with whom it deals;

a review of the possible alternatives to a sale of Capital Title, including the prospects of continuing to operate Capital Title as an independent company. The board considered the value to the stockholders of these alternatives, the timing and likelihood of achieving value from these alternatives, and the possibility that Capital Title's future stock price might not have a value greater than the consideration to be paid in the merger;

the presentation by Houlihan Lokey, its analysis of the value of Capital Title and its opinion dated as of March 24, 2006 that, as of the date of the opinion, the merger consideration was fair from a financial point of view to the stockholders of Capital Title taken as a whole;

the ability to complete the merger, including, in particular, the likelihood of obtaining regulatory approval and the provisions of the merger agreement regarding LandAmerica's and Capital Title's obligations to pursue the regulatory approvals;

the terms of the merger agreement, as negotiated, including Capital Title's ability to respond to, and to accept, an unsolicited alternative offer if consistent with the board of director's fiduciary responsibilities and the requirement that it pay a termination fee in those circumstances;

the current and prospective environment in which Capital Title operates, including economic conditions and the competitive environment of the industry; and the interest of Capital Title's officers and directors that are different from or in addition to the interests of Capital Title stockholders generally; and the judgment and advice of Capital Title's senior management.

The above summary of the information considered and the factors discussed by the board of directors of Capital Title is not meant to be exhaustive, but includes the material matters considered by the board of directors. In reaching its determination to approve the merger agreement, the board of directors of Capital Title did not assign any relative or specific weight to the factors, and individual directors may have considered various factors differently. The board of directors of Capital Title considered all of the factors as a whole and considered the factors in their totality to be favorable to and to support the decision to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that Capital Title's stockholders approve it. The Capital Title board of directors relied on the experience and expertise of Houlihan Lokey, its financial advisor, for quantitative analysis of the financial terms of the merger.

Opinion of Capital Title s Financial Advisor

The board of directors of Capital Title formed a special committee for the purpose of retaining a financial advisor to render an opinion to its board of directors as to whether the consideration to be received by the stockholders of Capital Title in the proposed merger is fair to the stockholders of Capital Title from a financial point of view.

The special committee of the board of directors retained Houlihan Lokey Howard and Zukin Financial Advisors, Inc. (Houlihan Lokey) pursuant to a letter agreement dated March 2, 2006, based upon its experience in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, recapitalizations and similar transactions. Houlihan Lokey is a nationally investment banking firm that is recognized for its expertise in providing financial advisory services and rendering fairness opinions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, business valuations and securities valuations for a variety of regulatory and planning purposes, recapitalizations, financial restructurings and private placements of debt and equity securities.

At the meeting of Capital Title's board of directors on March 24, 2006, Houlihan Lokey made a presentation to the board in which it outlined its analysis of the proposed transaction. During this meeting, Houlihan Lokey reviewed with the board of directors certain financial analyses summarized below, and rendered its oral opinion (which was followed by the rendering of a written opinion later that day) to the board of directors that, on the basis of its analysis summarized below and subject to the limitations and assumptions described in its opinion and summarized below, as of March 24, 2006, the consideration to be received by the common stockholders of Capital Title in the transaction was fair to them from a financial point of view. We refer to the opinion issued by Houlihan Lokey on March 24, 2006 as the Houlihan Lokey opinion in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The full text of the Houlihan Lokey opinion, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, general procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Houlihan Lokey in rendering the Houlihan Lokey opinion is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the Houlihan Lokey opinion in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Houlihan Lokey opinion. Capital Title stockholders are urged to read the Houlihan Lokey opinion carefully and in its entirety. The Houlihan Lokey opinion is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to any Capital Title stockholder as to whether or not to support the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any Capital Title stockholder as to how to vote on any matter relating to the transaction. The Houlihan Lokey opinion was furnished solely to the Capital Title board of directors for the purpose of evaluating the transaction.

While Houlihan Lokey rendered its opinion and provided certain analyses to Capital Title's board of directors, the Houlihan Lokey opinion did not address: (i) the underlying business decision of Capital Title, Capital Title's board, its security holders or any other party to proceed with or effect the merger, (ii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the merger not expressly addressed in its opinion, (iii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the merger to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Capital Title or any other party other than those set forth in its opinion, (iv) the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Capital Title or any other party or the effect of any other transaction in which Capital Title or any other party might engage, (v) the tax or legal consequences of the merger to either Capital Title, their respective security holders, or any other party, (vi) whether any security holder should vote in favor of the merger, (vii) the mix of merger consideration that any of Capital Title's stockholders elect to receive in connection with the merger, or (viii) how LandAmerica shares will trade once the merger is effectuated.

The terms of the transaction, including the type and amount of the consideration, were determined through negotiations between Capital Title and LandAmerica and were approved by the board of directors of each corporation. The decision to enter into the transaction was solely that of the board of directors and Houlihan Lokey has not expressed an opinion as to the merits of the decision by Capital Title to engage in the transaction. The Houlihan Lokey opinion and the presentation of Houlihan Lokey to the board of directors were only one of a number of factors taken into consideration by the board of directors in making its determination to approve the transaction.

As compensation to Houlihan Lokey for its services in connection with the rendering of the Houlihan Lokey opinion, Capital Title agreed to pay Houlihan Lokey a fee of $175,000 for its services. No portion of the Houlihan Lokey fee was contingent upon the conclusions reached in the Houlihan Lokey opinion. In addition, regardless of whether the transaction is consummated, Capital Title agreed to indemnify Houlihan Lokey and related persons against certain liabilities, including liabilities under federal securities laws that arise out of the engagement of Houlihan Lokey, and to reimburse Houlihan Lokey for its reasonable expenses.

For purposes of the Houlihan Lokey opinion, Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that there has been no material change in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Capital Title or LandAmerica since the date of the most recent financial statements provided to Houlihan Lokey, and that there is no information or facts that would make the information reviewed by it incomplete or misleading. For purposes of the Houlihan Lokey opinion, Houlihan Lokey also relied upon and assumed that neither Capital Title nor LandAmerica is party to any material pending transaction (other than the merger), including, without limitation, any external financing, recapitalization, acquisition or merger, divestiture or spin-off. Further, Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed that the final forms of all draft documents identified above would not differ in any material respect from such draft documents to the extent that any such difference would affect the financial benefits to the common stockholders of Capital Title resulting from the transactions contemplated thereby.

For purposes of the Houlihan Lokey opinion, Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (a) the representations and warranties of all parties to the draft Merger Agreement dated March 21, 2006 identified above and all other related documents and instruments that are referred to therein are true and correct, (b) each party to all such agreements will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party, (c) all conditions to the consummation of the merger will be satisfied without waiver thereof, and (d) the merger will be consummated in a timely manner in accordance with the terms set forth in the agreements provided to Houlihan Lokey, without any adjustment to the aggregate merger consideration (through offset, reduction, indemnity claims, post-closing purchase price adjustments or otherwise). For purposes of the Houlihan Lokey opinion, Houlihan Lokey also relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that all governmental, regulatory, and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained and that no delay, limitations, restrictions or conditions will be imposed that would result in the disposition of any material portion of the assets of Capital Title or LandAmerica, or otherwise have an adverse effect on Capital Title or LandAmerica or the expected benefits of the merger.

Furthermore, Houlihan Lokey was not requested to make, and did not make, any physical inspection or independent appraisal or evaluation of any of the assets, properties or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Capital Title or any other party, nor was Houlihan Lokey provided with any such appraisal or evaluation. Furthermore, Houlihan Lokey undertook no independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities, to which Capital Title or LandAmerica is a party or may be subject, or of any governmental investigation of any possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which Capital Title or LandAmerica is a party or may be subject. The Houlihan Lokey opinion made no assumption concerning, and therefore did not consider, the potential effects of any such litigation, claims or investigations or possible assertions of claims, outcomes or damages arising out of any such matters.

Houlihan Lokey was not requested to, and did not, (a) initiate any discussions with, or solicit any indications of interest from, third parties with respect to the merger or any alternatives to the merger, (b) negotiate the terms of the merger, or (c) advise any committee of the board of directors or any other party with respect to alternatives to the merger. The Houlihan Lokey opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of the Houlihan Lokey opinion. Houlihan Lokey did not undertake, and is under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring after the date thereof. Houlihan Lokey did not consider, nor express any opinion with respect to, the prices at which the common stock of LandAmerica has traded or may trade subsequent to the disclosure or consummation of the merger. Houlihan Lokey further assumed that the common stock of LandAmerica to be issued in the merger to the stockholders of Capital Title will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and is therefore not readily susceptible to summary description. In reaching its conclusion as to the fairness of the consideration to be received by the common stockholders of Capital Title and in its presentation to Capital Title's board of directors, Houlihan Lokey did not rely on any single analysis or factor described above, assign relative weights to the analyses or factors considered by it, or make any conclusion as to how the results of any given analysis, taken alone, supported its opinion. Accordingly, Houlihan Lokey believes that its analyses and summary set forth herein must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and of the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors, or portions of this summary, could create an incomplete, misleading and/or inaccurate view of the processes underlying the conclusions set forth in the Houlihan Lokey opinion. In its analysis, Houlihan Lokey made numerous assumptions with respect to LandAmerica, the proposed merger, industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters. The estimates contained in such analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Additionally, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities of Capital Title are not appraisals. Accordingly, such analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses used by Houlihan Lokey in connection with the delivery of the Houlihan Lokey opinion to the board of directors. The financial analyses summarized below were based upon market prices as of March 22, 2006 unless otherwise noted. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order fully to understand the financial analyses used by Houlihan Lokey, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Accordingly, the analyses listed in the tables and described below must be considered as a whole. Consideration of any portion of such analyses and the factors considered, without consideration of all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying the Houlihan Lokey opinion.

Public Market Approach

Houlihan Lokey reviewed the historical market price of Capital Title's common stock over selected periods during the previous 12 months and reviewed publicly available SEC filings, news articles, and press releases relating to Capital Title. Over the 12 months prior to the Houlihan Lokey opinion, Houlihan Lokey observed that the market price of Capital Title's common stock was within a trading range between a low of $5.19 per share and a high of $8.28 per share. Houlihan Lokey presented the stock trading information contained in the following table for the period ended March 22, 2006:

Closing price on March 22, 2006	$	6.11
5 day closing average	$	6.25
15 day closing average	$	6.34
30 day closing average	$	6.31
Trading average since secondary offering (November 15, 2005)	$	6.02
52 week average	$	6.53
52 week range	$	5.19 - $8.28

Applying the per share trading information, Houlihan Lokey computed the market value of Capital Title's equity as of March 15, 2006, using the treasury method:

(Amounts in millions, except price per share)

	As of 03/22/06	30 Trading Day Average	90 Trading Day Average	Pricing of Secondary Offering 11/15/2005
Stock Price	$ 6.11	$ 6.31	$ 6.03	$ 6.00
Diluted Shares Outstanding	30.740	30.828	30.704	30.690
Market Value of Equity	$ 187.824	$ 194.597	$ 185.160	$ 184.142

Table of Contents

Based on this public market approach, Houlihan Lokey indicated that the per share value of Capital Title's common stock was between $6.00 and $6.31 per share and that the total equity value of Capital Title's equity was between $184.1 million and $194.6 million.

Market Multiple Approach

Houlihan Lokey compared financial information and valuation ratios relating to Capital Title to corresponding data and ratios from six publicly traded companies Houlihan Lokey deemed reasonably comparable to Capital Title. Houlihan Lokey deemed the selected companies to be comparable to Capital Title based on the industry in which Capital Title operates and its principal competitors. The group of comparable companies was Fidelity National Financial, Inc., First American Corporation, LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc., Stewart Information Services, Investors Title Company and Old Republic International Corporation.

Houlihan Lokey calculated certain financial ratios of the comparable companies based on the most recent publicly available information, including multiples of: (i) enterprise value to latest twelve months earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (which is referred to as EBITDA in this proxy statement/prospectus) and enterprise value to next fiscal year projected EBITDA, (ii) ratio of stock price to book value for the last twelve months and for the next fiscal year projected ratio of stock price to book value (iii) ratio of stock price to net income for the last twelve months and for the next fiscal year projected ratio of stock price to net income. Enterprise value is calculated by adding an entity's book value of existing net debt and preferred stock to its market value of equity.

The analysis showed that the multiples exhibited by the comparable companies were as follows:

	Enterprise Value/ EBITDA Latest Twelve Months	Price / Book Value Latest Twelve Months	Price/ Net Income Latest Twelve Months
Low	4.6x	0.90x	7.0x
High	7.0x	2.07x	9.7x
Median	4.8x	1.28x	8.2x
Mean	5.2x	1.33x	8.2x
Capital Title	4.5x	1.69x	8.7x
	Next Fiscal Year(1)	Next Fiscal Year(1)	Next Fiscal Year(1)
Low	5.1x	0.90x	9.5x
High	7.9x	2.07x	10.6x
Median	7.1x	1.28x	10.4x
Mean	6.7x	1.33x	10.2x
Capital Title(2)	4.4x	1.69x	8.3x

(1) Projected financial figures gave consideration to several analyst reports.

(2) Next Fiscal Year multiple derived from Capital Title estimate.

Houlihan Lokey derived equity value indications for Capital Title by applying a range of EBITDA multiples of 4.5x to 5.0x, a range of Net Income multiples of 8.5x to 9.5x and a range of book value multiples of 1.50x to 1.75x to latest twelve months operating results to projected next fiscal year operating results. In making these calculations, Houlihan Lokey took into account book value, outstanding debt and company estimates of the value of an investment in an unconsolidated affiliate and the remaining proceeds of $16.1 million resulting from a secondary offering by Capital Title in November 2005 and the redemption of Capital Title's outstanding preferred stock in January 2006.

The resulting indications of the equity value of Capital Title ranged from approximately $6.45 per share to $7.43 per share and a total equity value range of $199.246 million to $232.020 million.

Table of Contents

No company utilized in the comparable company analysis is identical to Capital Title. In evaluating the peer group, Houlihan Lokey made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters. These other matters include the impact of competition on the business of Capital Title and the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of Capital Title or in the industry or financial markets in general.

Premiums Analysis

Houlihan Lokey analyzed premiums paid for control in change of control transactions within Capital Title's industry during 2005 and noted that the 30-day mean and median premium for such transactions was 32.1% and 25.4% respectively. Houlihan Lokey then compared such industry premiums to the 30.9% premium, based on the Capital Title share price as of March 22, 2006, above the value that will be paid for Capital Title stock based on an $8.00 per share consideration price in connection with the proposed merger.

Comparable Transaction Approach

Houlihan Lokey reviewed eight merger and acquisition transactions that it deemed comparable to the merger. It selected these transactions by applying the following criteria:

transactions involving companies with primary SIC codes (industry-based codes assigned by the SEC) similar to that of Capital Title;

transactions in which the company being acquired had a business that Houlihan Lokey deemed similar to Capital Title's;

transactions announced since January 1, 2003; and transactions that were not share repurchases or acquisitions of a minority interest.

The following is a list of the comparable transactions, which Houlihan Lokey used in its analysis:

Announced	Seller	Unit Sold	Target Business Description	Buyer
07/25/05	Monroe Title Insurance Corporation		Provides title insurance services in New York.	Stewart Title Insurance Company
07/12/05	First Montana Title Co.		Provides title insurance services.	FMT of Billings LLS
05/09/05	Liberty Settlement Services		Provides title insurance services.	Silverado Financial Inc.

Houlihan Lokey calculated for each of the selected transactions: the ratio of enterprise value to EBITDA, the ratio of price to net income, and the ratio of price to book value. Houlihan Lokey compared the resulting multiples of selected valuation data to multiples derived from the implied range of values payable in the merger.

After observing certain quantitative and qualitative characteristics of the above eight comparable transactions including, but not limited to, size, profitability and business description, Houlihan Lokey selected multiples of enterprise value to EBITDA in the range of 4.5x to 5.0x, multiples of price to net income in the range of 8.0x to 9.0x, and multiples of price to book value in the range of 2.00x to 2.50x for the latest twelve months. While no one factor was determinative in the analysis, the quantitative considerations of the publicly-traded target companies involved in the selected transactions included an equity value range of $2.7 million to $165 million. The chart below summarizes the comparable transaction approach:

(figures in millions, except for ratios and percentages)

	Equity Price	Enterprise Value	Enterprise Value/ EBITDA	Price/ Earnings	Price/ Book Value	Earnings Margin
Low	$ 2.7	$ 2.7	4.4x	7.7x	2.18x	11.1%
High	$ 165.3	$ 168.2	8.3x	17.6x	2.18x	11.1%
Median	$ 26.3	$ 25.7	4.8x	9.2x	2.18x	11.1%
Mean	$ 48.9	$ 49.4	5.8x	10.9x	2.18x	11.1%

Based on the comparable merger transaction analysis, the indicated enterprise value ranges for Capital Title were between $6.93 and $8.18 per share and a total equity value of between $215.246 million and $257.020 million.

In evaluating the precedent transactions, Houlihan Lokey made judgments and assumptions regarding industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, such as the impact of competition on Capital Title and the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition and prospects of Capital Title or the industry or in the financial markets in general.

Houlihan Lokey's Conclusion

Based on the aforementioned methodologies together with adjustments that Houlihan Lokey deemed appropriate, Houlihan Lokey concluded that the consideration of $8.00 per share as provided for in the merger is within the range of the indications of value resulting from Houlihan Lokey's analyses described above. Accordingly, Houlihan Lokey determined that, based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the Houlihan Lokey opinion, and in reliance thereon, as of the date of the Houlihan Lokey opinion, the consideration to be received by the common stockholders of Capital Title in the merger is fair to them from a financial point of view.

LandAmerica's Reasons for the Merger

On March 27, 2006, the board of directors of LandAmerica determined that the merger was in the best interests of LandAmerica and its stockholders after considering a number of factors, including the following:

Capital Title's current structure, operating and growth strategies and historic results of operations;

The opportunities to add scale to LandAmerica's business, particularly in the residential sale and resale business, and strengthen its underwriting business;

The ability to add a strong management team with a proven track record in revenue and earnings growth;

Edgar Filing: DPW Holdings, Inc. - Form 10-K

The expectation that synergies will produce annual run rate pretax cost reductions of approximately $12 million within one year after the closing of the merger;

The structure and terms of the merger, including the amount and type of the merger consideration to be paid by LandAmerica;

The expected accretion to the earnings per share of LandAmerica common stock and increased return on equity in the first year following the merger and in future periods;

Keefe, Bruyette & Wood's financial analysis and opinion to LandAmerica's board that, as of March 27, 2006, and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, the merger consideration to be paid by LandAmerica is fair from a financial point of view to LandAmerica; and

The potential risks and mitigating factors, including:

the potential diversion of management resources from operational matters and the opportunity costs associated with the merger prior to the completion or abandonment of the merger;

the risk that the merger will not be consummated despite the parties efforts to cause it to occur;

the risk that the potential benefits of the merger would not be realized;

the short term vulnerability to talent loss;

the risks of integration; and the concentration of customers in Capital Title's lender services group.

The foregoing discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but LandAmerica believes it addresses the material factors considered by the LandAmerica board of directors in its consideration of the merger, including factors that may support the merger as well as factors that may weigh against it. In view of the variety of factors and the amount of information considered, the LandAmerica board of directors did not believe it practical to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, and did not make specific assessments of, specific factors considered in reaching its determination.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of Capital Title's management have interests in the merger in addition to their interests as stockholders of Capital Title. These interests are described below. In each case, the board of directors of Capital Title was aware of and considered these potential interests, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Employment and Other Agreements for Certain Executive Officers of Capital Title

In conjunction with the merger agreement, two executive officers of Capital Title, Donald R. Head and Mark C. Walker, have agreed to enter into new employment agreements with Capital Title. These agreements will not be effective until the effective time of the merger. Until the effective time of the merger, Mr. Head's and Mr. Walker's current employment agreements will remain in full force and effect.

The new employment agreement with Donald R. Head is for a period of one (1) year, to take effect at the effective time of the merger. The agreement provides for Mr. Head to serve as the surviving company's Chief Executive Officer. The employment agreement may be terminated by the surviving company for cause (as defined in the agreement), including upon (i) willful and substantial misconduct in the performance of his business duties, (ii) conviction for any felony or any misdemeanor involving fraud, theft, embezzlement, forgery or moral turpitude, (iii) material breach of the agreement, (iv) commission of dishonest acts or fraudulent conduct or (iv) violation of LandAmerica's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. Under the terms of this employment agreement, Mr. Head will receive an annual base salary of $300,000, but will not be eligible for any bonus. Under Mr. Head's current employment agreement with Capital Title, Mr. Head is entitled to receive certain severance benefits in the event of a merger by Capital Title. In exchange for his agreement to waive his rights to these severance payments under his current employment agreement, the surviving company will pay Mr. Head a lump sum in the amount of $600,000 upon termination of his current employment agreement.

The new employment agreement with Mark C. Walker is for a period of two years, to take effect at the effective time of the merger. The agreement provides for Mr. Walker to serve as the surviving company's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Under the terms of this employment agreement, Mr. Walker will receive an annual base salary of $250,000. The merger agreement also provides that LandAmerica will maintain for a period of six years after completion of the merger Capital Title's current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, or policies of at least the same coverage and amount and containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous than the current policy, with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, except that LandAmerica is not required to incur annual premium expense in excess of $290,000.

Voting Agreement

The following is a summary of the material terms of the voting agreement and is qualified by reference to the complete text of the form of voting agreement, which is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and attached to this proxy statement as Annex B.

In connection with the merger agreement, the directors and executive officers of Capital Title entered into a voting agreement with LandAmerica and CTG Acquisition Corporation. As of [], 2006, the record date, the directors and executive officers of Capital Title owned [] outstanding shares of Capital Title common stock. These shares represented approximately []% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Capital Title common stock on the record date.

Waiver of Rights and Restriction on Transfer

Under the voting agreement, the stockholders have agreed to waive their dissenters' rights with respect to the merger.

Additionally, these stockholders have agreed not to:

offer to sell, sell, transfer, pledge, or otherwise dispose of or transfer any interest in or encumber with any lien any of their shares, options or warrants or any rights associated therewith;

grant any proxies or power of attorney or enter into a voting agreement, voting trust or other arrangement with respect to any of their shares, options or warrants;

enter into any contract, option or other arrangement with respect to the direct or indirect acquisition, sale, assignment or other transfer of any interest in or voting of any securities of Capital Title.

Voting of Shares

Under the voting agreement, these stockholders irrevocably and unconditionally agreed to vote or cause to be voted at any meeting of the stockholders of Capital Title, or in connection with any written consent of Capital Title's stockholders, those shares which they continue to own through the date of the special meeting of the stockholders of Capital Title and any additional shares acquired by them prior to the record date of the special meeting as follows:

in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement; and against any:

action or agreement that would result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation of Capital Title under the merger agreement;

extraordinary corporate transaction involving Capital Title or any of its subsidiaries, other than the merger;

sale, lease or transfer of a material amount of assets, or a reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution or liquidation, of Capital Title or any of its subsidiaries;

change in the present capitalization of Capital Title or amendment to its articles of incorporation, bylaws or corporate structure or business; and other action that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to materially impede or delay, postpone or adversely affect the consummation of the merger.

These stockholders have also granted LandAmerica an irrevocable proxy and appointed any designee of LandAmerica to act as the stockholders agent and attorney-in-fact and to vote their shares until the termination of the voting agreement. Notwithstanding the provisions of the voting agreement to the contrary, nothing in the voting agreement limits the rights and obligations of a stockholder in his capacity as a director or officer of Capital Title from taking any action consistent with his fiduciary duties and no such action taken in that capacity will be deemed to be a breach of the voting agreement.

Termination of Voting Agreement

The voting agreement will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the termination of the merger agreement, (ii) the written agreement of LandAmerica and Capital Title to terminate the voting agreement and (iii) the date the merger becomes effective.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated in writing at any time prior to the effective date of the merger, whether before or after approval by Capital Title's stockholders, upon approval by the board of directors of each of LandAmerica and Capital Title.

Either of LandAmerica or Capital Title, without the consent of the other, may terminate the merger agreement:

if any governmental authority that must grant approval to LandAmerica or Capital Title, respectively, has denied approval of the merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any governmental authority of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final and nonappealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

if the stockholders of Capital Title fail to approve the merger at the special meeting; in the event of a material breach (not cured within 45 days after written notice or that cannot be cured within such time period) of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement by the non-terminating party, which breach would result in a failure of a condition to closing, so long as the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement; or the failure to complete the merger by December 31, 2006, so long as the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement has not, as a result of its breach of the merger agreement, caused the failure to complete the merger.

LandAmerica also may terminate the merger agreement if the board of directors of Capital Title:

Edgar Filing: DPW Holdings, Inc. - Form 10-K

fails to include a recommendation to its stockholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

breaches the obligations set forth in the merger agreement relating to obtaining stockholder approval; or in a manner adverse to LandAmerica, withdraws, modifies or qualifies, or proposes to withdraw, modify or qualify, its recommendation, takes any public action or makes any public statement in connection with the Capital Title stockholders meeting inconsistent with such recommendation,

Table of Contents

recommends any alternative proposal made by another party to acquire a significant interest of Capital Title, or resolves to take any such action.

Capital Title also may terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of LandAmerica common stock immediately prior to the merger is less than or equal to $55.52, a price that is 85% of the average closing price immediately prior to the date the merger agreement, unless either:

the parties agree to adjust the mixture of cash and stock to be paid as merger consideration; or LandAmerica elects to pay all of the merger consideration in cash.

Effect of Termination; Termination Fee

If the merger agreement is validly terminated, it will become void without any liability on the part of any party unless such party intentionally breached any provision of the merger agreement. However, certain provisions of the merger agreement, including, among others, those provisions relating to expenses and termination fees, will continue in effect notwithstanding the termination of the merger agreement.

Capital Title has agreed to pay a termination fee to LandAmerica equal to $15.0 million if:

Capital Title terminates the merger agreement in order to pursue an offer from another party and a transaction with such party is consummated within one year from the termination of the merger agreement;

an offer from another party has been made and Capital Title consummates a transaction with such party within one year of either party's termination of the merger agreement due to a failure to consummate the merger by December 31, 2006 or to obtain approval of the merger by the stockholders of Capital Title, or

LandAmerica's termination of the merger agreement due to Capital Title's breach of the merger agreement; or LandAmerica terminates the merger agreement due to Capital Title's breach of certain terms of the merger agreement relating to seeking the approval of the merger by the Capital Title's stockholders (unless the failure to seek approval was a result of the occurrence of a material adverse effect at LandAmerica).

Waiver and Amendment

Prior to the effective time of the merger, any provision of the merger agreement may be (i) waived by the party benefiting by the provision, except any provision that, if not satisfied, would result in a violation of law or regulation, or (ii) amended or modified by an agreement in writing between the parties to the extent permitted by law.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

LandAmerica has agreed to indemnify the directors and officers of Capital Title after the merger and to obtain directors and officers liability insurance for the directors and officers of Capital Title as described under Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger Indemnification of Directors and Officers beginning on page 52.

Acquisition Proposals

Capital Title has agreed that it and its subsidiaries will not, and that it will cause its and its subsidiaries' officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors not to, solicit, initiate, encourage, take any action or facilitate the submission of a third party's (other than LandAmerica's) proposal to acquire the stock or assets of Capital Title or other business combination transactions with Capital Title, unless the Capital Title board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with and consideration of the advice of outside counsel, that the failure to enter into such discussions or negotiations or resolving to accept such acquisition proposal, would constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to stockholders under applicable law. Capital Title shall give LandAmerica 10 days written notice before it recommends a third party proposal to Capital Title's stockholders. Such notice shall advise LandAmerica that Capital Title intends to recommend the third party proposal to its stockholders and the reasons for such recommendation. If the board of directors of Capital Title is obligated by its fiduciary duties to accept a third party proposal that it believes is superior to LandAmerica's offer set forth in the merger agreement, Capital Title is obligated to pay to LandAmerica a termination fee equal to $15.0 million. See Effect of Termination; Termination Fee beginning on page 57.

Closing Date; Effective Time

The merger will become effective on the date and at the time the certificate of merger has been accepted for filing with the Delaware Secretary of State. Unless otherwise agreed upon by LandAmerica and Capital Title, the effective time of the merger will occur no later than the third business day following the later to occur of (i) the effective date (including expiration of any applicable waiting period) of the last required consent of any regulatory authority having authority over the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement and (ii) the date on which the stockholders of Capital Title approve the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Regulatory Approvals

Under the merger agreement, LandAmerica and Capital Title have agreed to cooperate to obtain all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents and approvals from any governmental authority necessary to complete the merger. The required regulatory approvals include approvals under United States antitrust laws and regulations as well as by various state insurance regulators and state banking regulators, as described below.

Antitrust Laws. Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the related rules, the proposed merger may not be completed until required notifications and information have been furnished to the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and the specified waiting period has expired. On April 20, 2006, each of Capital Title and LandAmerica made filings with the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and the applicable waiting period expired on May 22, 2006.

At any time before or after the consummation of the merger, the Department of Justice or the Federal Trade Commission could take action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the consummation of the merger or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of Capital Title and LandAmerica. At any time before or after the consummation of the merger, and notwithstanding that the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act waiting period has expired, any state could take action under state antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest. This action could include seeking to enjoin the consummation of the merger or seeking divestiture of Capital Title or businesses of Capital Title or LandAmerica.

State Insurance and Banking Laws and Regulations. Capital Title and LandAmerica are subject to extensive regulation under state insurance laws and regulations. Capital Title, LandAmerica and their subsidiaries hold registrations, approvals, licenses or permits in each jurisdiction in which they conduct business. In each of these jurisdictions, regulatory requirements must be complied with in order for us to complete the merger. Generally, regulatory authorities have broad discretion in denying or granting approvals.

In connection with the merger, Capital Title and LandAmerica must seek the approval of the California Insurance Commissioner, as well as insurance regulators in Arizona, Nevada, and Pennsylvania. Additionally, consents will also be needed from state banking regulatory authorities relating to escrow agency licenses of Capital Title subsidiaries in Arizona and Nevada. The merger cannot take place until the necessary regulatory approvals have been received and any waiting periods required by law have expired. Capital Title and LandAmerica have filed (or will promptly file) all of the required applications or notices necessary to complete the merger with each of the applicable regulatory authorities. We cannot be sure whether or when regulatory approval will be obtained or that the regulatory approval will be obtained without conditions that are detrimental to Capital Title or LandAmerica.

Third-party Approvals. Capital Title is a party to a number of loan agreements, lease agreements and other agreements. The completion of the merger may require that Capital Title obtain the consent of, or waiver from, the other parties to certain of those agreements. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Capital Title has agreed to use its commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain all consents, approvals and waivers from third parties necessary for completion of the merger. LandAmerica's obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon Capital Title obtaining such third party consents, approvals or waivers.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

Prior to the effective time of the merger, Capital Title has agreed to:

conduct its business in the usual, regular and ordinary course consistent with past practice;

use its reasonable best efforts to maintain and preserve its business organization, employees, goodwill with customers and advantageous business relationships and retain the services of its officers and key employees; continue its executive and organization liability insurance policy; and except as required by law or regulation, take no action that would adversely affect or materially delay any consent from any regulatory authority or other approvals required for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or Capital Title's or LandAmerica's ability to perform its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement.

Capital Title also agreed in the merger agreement not to take, or to permit any of its subsidiaries to take, certain actions until the merger became effective, without the written consent of LandAmerica. Capital Title agreed not to:

change, delete or add any provision of or to the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Capital Title;

except for the issuance of Capital Title common stock pursuant to the terms of the options and warrants outstanding as of the date of the merger agreement, change the number of shares of the authorized, issued or outstanding capital stock of Capital Title, including any issuance, purchase, redemption, split, combination or reclassification thereof, or issue or grant any option, warrant, call, commitment, subscription, right or agreement to purchase relating to the authorized or issued capital stock of Capital Title;

declare, set aside or pay any dividend or other distribution with respect to the outstanding capital stock of Capital Title, except for certain scheduled quarterly cash dividends that are consistent with past practices;

incur any material liabilities or material obligations, whether directly or by way of guaranty, including any obligation for borrowed money, or whether evidenced by any note, bond, debenture or similar instrument, except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice (provided, however, that the aggregate obligations for borrowed money do not exceed $18,000,000);

Edgar Filing: DPW Holdings, Inc. - Form 10-K

except in certain exigent circumstances, make any capital expenditures individually in excess of $25,000, or in the aggregate in excess of $350,000, other than pursuant to binding commitments existing on December 31, 2005 that have been disclosed to LandAmerica and other than expenditures necessary to maintain existing assets in good repair;

sell, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of any real property or interest therein;

except as disclosed to LandAmerica, (i) pay any bonuses to any executive officer except pursuant to the terms of an enforceable written employment agreement; (ii) enter into any new, or amend or extend in any respect any existing, employment, consulting, non-competition or independent contractor agreement with any person; (iii) alter the terms of any existing incentive bonus or commission plan; (iv) adopt any new or amend in any material respect any existing employee benefit plan, except as may be required by law; (v) grant any general increase in compensation to its employees as a class or to its officers except for non-executive officers in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices and policies or except in accordance with the terms of an enforceable written agreement; (vi) grant any material increase in fees or other increase in compensation or in other benefits to any of its directors; or (vii) effect any change in any material respect in retirement benefits to any class of employees or officers, except as required by law;

enter into or extend any material agreement, lease or license relating to real property, personal property or data processing having a term of more than three years or payments exceeding $10,000 per month;

acquire the assets or equity securities of any person or acquire direct or indirect control of any person, other than in connection with (i) any internal reorganization or consolidation involving existing subsidiaries of Capital Title, which has been approved in advance in writing by LandAmerica or (ii) foreclosures in the ordinary course of business;

take any action that is intended or may reasonably be expected to result in any of the mutual conditions to the merger not being satisfied (See Conditions of the Merger beginning on page 54);

purchase or otherwise acquire any investment securities for its own account having an average remaining life to maturity greater than one year; or commence any cause of action or proceeding other than in accordance with past practice or settle any action, claim, arbitration, complaint, criminal prosecution, demand letter, governmental or other examination or investigation, hearing, inquiry or other proceeding against Capital Title or any of its subsidiaries for material money damages or material restrictions upon any of their operations.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Capital Title, as of the completion of the merger, will be recorded at their fair values and the excess of purchase price over the fair value of net assets will be allocated to goodwill. Financial statements of LandAmerica issued after the consummation of the merger will reflect such values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical position or results of operations of Capital Title. The operating results of Capital Title will be reflected in LandAmerica's consolidated financial statements from and after the date the merger is consummated.

Management and Operations after the Merger

No changes in the management of LandAmerica will occur as a result of the merger. The surviving corporation following the merger will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of LandAmerica, and Donald R. Head and Mark C. Walker will serve as the surviving corporation's Chief Executive Officer and Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, respectively. Additionally, Mr. Head will become an executive vice president of LandAmerica.

Resales of LandAmerica Common Stock

The shares of LandAmerica common stock to be issued to stockholders of Capital Title under the merger agreement will have been registered under the Securities Act and will be freely tradeable without restriction by holders who will not be affiliates of LandAmerica after the merger and who were not deemed to be affiliates of Capital Title under the Securities Act on the date of the special meeting.

Table of Contents

All directors and executive officers of Capital Title are considered affiliates of Capital Title for this purpose. They may resell shares of LandAmerica common stock received in the merger only if the shares are registered for resale under the Securities Act or an exemption is available. They may resell under the safe harbor provisions of Rule 145 under the Securities Act or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act. Each Capital Title director and each other person deemed to be an affiliate will enter into an agreement with LandAmerica providing that the person will not transfer any shares of LandAmerica common stock received in the merger, except in compliance with the Securities Act. We encourage any such person to obtain advice of securities counsel before reselling any LandAmerica common stock.

Effect of the Merger on Stock Options and Warrants

Capital Title has agreed to contribute the proceeds from the exercise of any outstanding stock options and warrants to purchase Capital Title common stock prior to the effective time of the merger to the cash component of the merger consideration. This contribution will offset the cash payments to be paid by LandAmerica for the additional shares of Capital Title common stock that will have been issued upon the exercise of such options and warrants.

Capital Title also has agreed to provide a notice of cancellation to holders of all of its outstanding stock options and warrants for Capital Title common stock, and thus cancel such warrants, prior to or at the effective time of the merger. Any such outstanding options and warrants that are not exercised prior to the effective time of the merger will expire and be cancelled at that time.

Under the terms of Capital Title's 1996 Stock Option Plan (which provides for the grant of options to employees) and Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan (which provides for the grant of options to non-employee directors), the board of directors may, in connection with a merger of Capital Title, determine to give all option holders the right to exercise any option issued under the plans, including options which are not yet vested. The board of directors of Capital Title has determined to give all holders of outstanding options under these plans this right. The board is obligated under the terms of each plan to notify option holders that all outstanding options under the plan will be exercisable for a period of at least 30 days, running from the date of this notice. Accordingly, the board will notify each option holder that their options will be fully exercisable for a period of at least 30 days from the date of notice sometime prior to the consummation of the merger. The board of directors plans to have this exercise period to terminate as close as possible to, or on, the anticipated effective date of the merger. All outstanding options and rights to exercise any options under the 1996 Stock Option Plan and the Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan will terminate upon the end of the exercise period.

As of May 12, 2006, 194,672 warrants to purchase Capital Title common stock were outstanding. All are currently exercisable in accordance with their terms. Under the terms of the warrants, in the case of a merger of Capital Title, holders of warrants are entitled to 20 days prior notice of any record date relating to determining rights to vote on the merger. Additionally, in connection with any such merger whereby stockholders of Capital Title will be entitled to receive cash or shares or other property as merger consideration, each warrant holder shall also have the right to receive, upon exercise of its warrant, the merger consideration. Under the terms of the warrants, the holders of warrants must exercise their warrants at least five calendar days prior to the effective date of a merger (which is referred to in the warrants as the Extraordinary Transaction Election Date). If the holder of a warrant does not exercise its warrants prior to this Extraordinary Transaction Election Date, the warrant will terminate as of that date and the holder will forfeit all of its rights under the warrants.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following summary sets forth the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the holders of Capital Title common stock. The tax consequences under state, local and foreign laws are not addressed in this summary. The following summary is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and court decisions in effect as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Such a change could affect the continuing validity of this summary. No assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below.

The following summary addresses only stockholders who are citizens or residents of the United States who hold their Capital Title common stock as a capital asset. It does not address all the tax consequences that may be relevant to particular stockholders in light of their individual circumstances or to stockholders that are subject to special rules, including, without limitation: financial institutions; tax-exempt organizations; S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities (or an investor in an S corporation, partnership or other pass-through entities); insurance companies; mutual funds; dealers in stocks or securities, or foreign currencies; foreign holders; a trader in securities who elects the mark-to-market method of accounting for the securities; persons that hold shares as a hedge against currency risk, a straddle or a constructive sale or conversion transaction; holders who acquired their shares pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan; holders of Capital Title stock options, stock warrants or debt instruments; and holders subject to the alternative minimum tax.

No ruling has been, or will be, sought from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Opinions of counsel are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service.

Consequences to Capital Title Stockholders

In General. It is expected that the merger will be a fully taxable transaction (rather than a tax-free reorganization) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Consequently, a holder of Capital Title common stock will generally recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger in an amount equal to the amount of cash plus the fair market value (determined at the time of the exchange) of LandAmerica common stock received by such holder, less the holder's adjusted tax basis in the Capital Title common stock surrendered in the merger.

Except as discussed below, any gain or loss recognized by a holder of Capital Title common stock as a result of the merger will be a capital gain or loss if the Capital Title common stock is held as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code. To the extent that cash or LandAmerica stock is considered to be received in exchange for services or property, other than solely for Capital Title common stock, such holder may be required to recognize gain at ordinary income tax rates.

Taxation of Capital Gain. Any capital gain recognized by a holder of Capital Title common stock under the above discussion will be long-term capital gain if the holder has held the Capital Title common stock for more than twelve months at the time of the exchange. In the case of a non-corporate holder, that long-term capital gain may be subject to a maximum federal income tax of 15%. Short-term capital gains are taxed at ordinary income tax rates. The deductibility of capital losses may be subject to certain limitations.

Basis in LandAmerica Common Stock. Each holder's tax basis in LandAmerica common stock received in the merger will be the fair market value of the stock at the time of the exchange.

Holding Period of LandAmerica Common Stock. The holding period of LandAmerica common stock received in the merger will begin at the time of the exchange.

Backup Withholding and Reporting Requirements

Holders of Capital Title common stock, other than certain exempt recipients, may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28%. However, backup withholding will not apply to any holder who either (a) furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that he or she is not subject to backup withholding by completing the substitute Form W-9 that will be included as part of the election form and the transmittal letter, or (b) otherwise proves to LandAmerica and its exchange agent that the holder is exempt from backup withholding.

Holders of Capital Title common stock may be required to file certain information with their federal income tax returns and to retain certain records with regard to the merger.

Appraisal Rights

Under Delaware law, holders of Capital Title common stock have the right to dissent from the merger and receive payment in cash for the fair market value of their Capital Title common stock. See Appraisal Rights beginning on page 38. If a holder of Capital Title common stock receives a cash payment upon the exercise of such appraisal rights, the holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the amount of cash received, less the holder's adjusted tax basis in the Capital Title common stock. Holders of Capital Title common stock who exercise appraisal rights are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

The discussion of U.S. federal income tax consequences set forth above is for general information only and does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax effects that may apply to a holder of Capital Title common stock. We strongly encourage stockholders of Capital Title to consult their tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the merger, including the application and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

See "Where You Can Find More Information" for information on how to obtain copies.

Terms

The holders of LandAmerica common stock are entitled to one vote for each share on all matters voted on by stockholders, including elections of directors. Except as otherwise required by law or provided in any resolution adopted by the board of directors with respect to any series of preferred stock, the holders of common stock possess all voting power. LandAmerica's articles of incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors. Subject to any preferential rights of any outstanding series of preferred stock created by the board of directors from time to time, the holders of common stock are entitled to such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the board of directors from funds available for dividends. Upon liquidation of LandAmerica, holders of the common stock are entitled to receive pro rata all of the assets available for distribution to such holders.

Preemptive Rights

No holder of any share of common stock or preferred stock has any preemptive right to subscribe to any of LandAmerica's securities.

Preferred Share Purchase Rights

Each outstanding share of common stock has associated with it one Preferred Share Purchase Right. Each Right entitles the registered holder to purchase from LandAmerica one one-hundredth of a share of Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock at an exercise price of $85, subject to adjustment. The terms of the Rights are set forth in an Amended and Restated Rights Agreement, dated August 20, 1997, between LandAmerica and Wachovia Bank, N.A. as Rights Agent, as amended by the First Amendment to Amended and Restated Rights Agreement, dated December 11, 1997, between LandAmerica and Wachovia, and the Second Amendment to Amended and Restated Rights Agreement, dated June 1, 1999, between LandAmerica, Wachovia and State Street Bank and Trust Company, as successor Rights Agent, and the Third Amendment to Amended and Restated Rights Agreement, dated July 26, 2000, between LandAmerica and State Street. The following summary of certain terms of the Preferred Share Purchase Rights is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amended and Restated Rights Agreement, as amended, which is on file with the SEC.

The Rights will become exercisable only if a person or group of affiliated or associated persons has acquired beneficial ownership of, or has announced a tender offer for, 20% or more of the outstanding shares of LandAmerica's common stock. Under certain circumstances, the board of directors may reduce this threshold percentage to not less than 10%. If a person or group of affiliated or associated persons has acquired beneficial ownership of, or has announced a tender offer for, the threshold percentage, each Right will entitle the registered holder, other than such person or group, to buy, at the then current exercise price of the Right, shares of common stock or Series A Preferred Stock having a market value equal to twice the exercise price of the Right. If LandAmerica is acquired in a merger or other business combination, each Right will entitle the registered holder, other than such person or group, to purchase, at the then current exercise price of the Right, securities of the surviving company having a market value equal to twice the exercise price of the Right. The Rights will expire on August 20, 2007, and LandAmerica may redeem or exchange them at any time before they become exercisable.

Until the Rights become exercisable, they are evidenced by the common stock certificates and are transferred only with such certificates.

Certain Provisions of LandAmerica's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws contain provisions which may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control of LandAmerica. The articles of incorporation and bylaws provide:

for division of the board of directors into three classes, with one class elected each year to serve a three-year term;

that directors may be removed only for cause and only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; and that a vacancy on the board of directors shall be filled by the remaining directors.

LandAmerica's articles of incorporation also provides that the holders of capital stock of LandAmerica may alter, amend or repeal provisions of the bylaws only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matter. LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws require advance notification for a stockholder to bring business before a stockholders' meeting or to nominate a person for election as a director. The articles of incorporation and bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of holders of any series of preferred stock, special meetings of stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board or a majority of the total number of directors which the board of directors would have if there were no vacancies. Special meetings of the stockholders may not be called by the stockholders. The business permitted to be conducted at any special meeting of stockholders is limited to the business brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the board of directors.

LandAmerica's articles of incorporation also contain an affiliated transaction provision. The affiliated transaction provision provides that, in the event that holders of common stock are entitled to vote on certain transactions, a supermajority of at least 80% of all the votes that the holders of common stock are entitled to cast shall be required for the approval of such transactions. Such supermajority approval would be required for:

a merger or consolidation involving any Interested Stockholder (as defined below), at the record date for determining stockholders entitled to vote; and a sale, lease or exchange of substantially all of LandAmerica's assets or property to or with an Interested Stockholder, or for the approval of a sale, lease or exchange of substantially all of the assets or property of an Interested Stockholder to or with LandAmerica.

For the purpose of the affiliated transaction provision, an Interested Stockholder means any person or entity who directly or indirectly owns or controls 10% or more of the voting power of LandAmerica. In addition, LandAmerica's articles of incorporation provides that the same 80% vote shall be required for the approval of certain transactions including a reclassification of securities, recapitalization or other transaction designed to decrease the number of holders of common stock after any person or entity has become an Interested Stockholder. However, the supermajority approval requirement does not apply to any transaction that is approved by the board of directors prior to the time that the Interested Stockholder becomes an Interested Stockholder.

The shares of common stock and preferred stock authorized by LandAmerica's articles of incorporation provide the board of directors with as much flexibility as possible in using such shares for corporate purposes.

However, these additional shares may also be used by the board of directors to deter future attempts to gain control of LandAmerica. The board of directors has sole authority to determine the terms of any series of the preferred stock, including voting rights, conversion rates and liquidation preferences. As a result of the ability to fix voting rights for a series of preferred stock, the board of directors has the power to issue a series of preferred stock to persons friendly to management. Such an issuance could be used by the board of directors in an attempt to block a post-tender offer merger or other transaction by which a third party seeks a change in control of LandAmerica.

The foregoing provisions of LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws are intended to prevent inequitable stockholder treatment in a two-tier takeover. These provisions are also intended to reduce the possibility that a third party could effect a sudden or surprise change in majority control of the board of directors without the support of the incumbent board of directors, even if such a change were desired by or would be beneficial to a majority of the stockholders. As a result, such provisions may have the effect of discouraging certain unsolicited offers for LandAmerica's capital stock.

Liability and Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Article 10 of Chapter 9 of Title 13.1 of the Code of Virginia permits a Virginia corporation to indemnify any director or officer for reasonable expenses incurred in any legal proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding, if the director or officer furnishes the corporation a written statement of his good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct prescribed by the Virginia Code, and furnishes the corporation with a written undertaking to repay any funds advanced if it is ultimately determined that the director has not met the relevant standard of conduct. In addition, a corporation is permitted to indemnify a director or officer against liability incurred in a proceeding if a determination has been made by the disinterested members of the board of directors, special legal counsel or stockholders that the director or officer conducted himself or herself in good faith and otherwise met the required standard of conduct. In a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any matter as to which an director or officer is adjudged to be liable to the corporation, except for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director or officer has met the relevant standard of conduct. In any other proceeding, no indemnification shall be made if the director or officer is adjudged liable to the corporation on the basis that he improperly received a personal benefit. Corporations are given the power to make any other or further indemnity, including advance of expenses, to any director or officer that may be authorized by the articles of incorporation or any bylaw made by the stockholders, or any resolution adopted, before or after the event, by the stockholders, except an indemnity against willful misconduct or a knowing violation of the criminal law. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, indemnification against the reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer is mandatory when he or she entirely prevails in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is a party because he or she is or was a director or officer.

As permitted by the Virginia Stock Corporation Act, LandAmerica's articles of incorporation contains provisions that indemnify its directors and officers to the full extent permitted by Virginia law and seek to eliminate the personal liability of directors and officers for monetary damages to LandAmerica or its stockholders for breach of their fiduciary duties, except to the extent such indemnification or elimination of liability is prohibited by the Virginia Stock Corporation Act. These provisions do not limit or eliminate the rights of LandAmerica or any stockholder to seek an injunction or any other non-monetary relief in the event of a breach of a director's or officer's fiduciary duty. In addition, LandAmerica's articles of incorporation provides for the indemnification of both directors and officers for expenses incurred by them in connection with the defense or settlement of claims asserted against them in their capacities as directors and officers.

The purpose of these provisions is to assist LandAmerica in retaining qualified individuals to serve as directors by limiting their exposure to personal liability for serving as such. LandAmerica has limited its exposure to liability for indemnification of directors and officers by purchasing directors and officers liability insurance coverage.

Table of Contents

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of LandAmerica, or of an affiliate pursuant to LandAmerica's articles of incorporation or otherwise, the board of directors has been advised that, in the opinion of the Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

Affiliated Transactions

Article 14 of Chapter 9 of Title 13.1 of the Code of Virginia contains provisions governing Affiliated Transactions. Affiliated Transactions include certain mergers and share exchanges, material dispositions of corporate assets not in the ordinary course of business, any dissolution of the corporation proposed by or on behalf of an Interested Stockholder (as defined below), or reclassifications, including reverse stock splits, recapitalizations or mergers of the corporation with its subsidiaries which have the effect of increasing the percentage of voting shares beneficially owned by an Interested Stockholder by more than 5%. For purposes of the Act, an Interested Stockholder is defined as any beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of the voting securities of a Virginia corporation.

Subject to certain exceptions discussed below, the provisions governing Affiliated Transactions require that, for three years following the date upon which any stockholder becomes an Interested Stockholder, a Virginia corporation cannot engage in an Affiliated Transaction with such Interested Stockholder. This prohibition is subject to the approval of the Affiliated Transaction by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the voting shares of the corporation, other than the shares beneficially owned by the Interested Stockholder, and by a majority (but not less than two) of the Disinterested Directors. A Disinterested Director means, with respect to a particular Interested Stockholder, a member of a corporation's board of directors who (i) was a member before the later of January 1, 1988 and the date on which an Interested Stockholder became an Interested Stockholder and (ii) was recommended for election by, or was elected to fill a vacancy and received the affirmative vote of, a majority of the Disinterested Directors then on the board. At the expiration of the three-year period, these provisions require approval of Affiliated Transactions by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the voting shares of the corporation, other than those beneficially owned by the Interested Stockholder.

The principal exceptions to the special voting requirement apply to Affiliated Transactions occurring after the three-year period has expired and require either that the transaction be approved by a majority of the Disinterested Directors or that the transaction satisfy certain fair price requirements of the statute. In general, the fair price requirements provide that the stockholders must receive the highest per share price for their shares as was paid by the Interested Stockholder for his shares or the fair market value of their shares, whichever is higher. They also require that, during the three years preceding the announcement of the proposed Affiliated Transaction, all required dividends have been paid and no special financial accommodations have been accorded the Interested Stockholder unless approved by a majority of the Disinterested Directors.

None of the foregoing limitations and special voting requirements applies to an Affiliated Transaction with an Interested Stockholder whose acquisition of shares making such person an Interested Stockholder was approved by a majority of the corporation's Disinterested Directors. These provisions were designed to deter certain takeovers of Virginia corporations. In addition, the statute provides that, by affirmative vote of a majority of the voting shares other than shares owned by any Interested Stockholder, a corporation may adopt, by meeting certain voting requirements, an amendment to its articles of incorporation or bylaws providing that the Affiliated Transactions provisions shall not apply to the corporation. LandAmerica has not adopted such an amendment.

Control Share Acquisitions

The Virginia Stock Corporation Act also contains provisions regulating certain control share acquisitions, which are transactions causing the voting strength of any person acquiring beneficial ownership of shares of a public corporation in Virginia to meet or exceed certain threshold percentages (20%, 33 1/3% or 50%) of the total votes entitled to be cast for the election of directors. Shares acquired in a control share acquisition have no voting rights unless: (i) the voting rights are granted by a majority vote of all outstanding shares other than those held by the acquiring person or any officer or employee director of the corporation, or (ii) the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation provide that these Virginia law provisions do not apply to acquisitions of its shares. The acquiring person may require that a special meeting of the stockholders be held to consider the grant of voting rights to the shares acquired in the control share acquisition. LandAmerica's articles of incorporation makes these provisions inapplicable to acquisitions of its shares.

COMPARATIVE RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS

The rights of LandAmerica's stockholders are governed by the Virginia Stock Corporation Act and LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws. The rights of Capital Title's stockholders are governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law and Capital Title's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Following the merger, the rights of Capital Title's stockholders that receive LandAmerica common stock will be governed by the Virginia Stock Corporation Act and the articles and bylaws of LandAmerica. This summary does not purport to be a complete discussion of, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, Capital Title's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws, Virginia law and Delaware law.

LandAmerica

LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws provide that the board of directors shall fix the number of directors from time to time by resolution, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock to elect directors under specified circumstances. Capital Title

Capital Title's certificate of incorporation provides that the board of directors shall consist of no less than three but no more than nine directors. Currently, seven individuals serve on the board of directors of Capital Title.

Cumulative Voting for Directors

Cumulative voting entitles each stockholder to cast an aggregate number of votes equal to the number of voting shares held, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. Each stockholder may cast all of his or her votes for one nominee or distribute them among two or more nominees, thus permitting holders of less than a majority of the outstanding shares of voting stock to achieve board representation. Where cumulative voting is not permitted, holders of all outstanding shares of voting stock of a corporation elect the entire board of directors of the corporation, thereby precluding the election of any directors by the holders of less than a majority of the outstanding shares of voting stock. Virginia and Delaware law both provide that stockholders do not have the right to cumulate votes for directors unless the articles of incorporation so provide.

LandAmerica

LandAmerica's stockholders do not have a right to cumulative voting in the election of directors because the articles of incorporation do not provide for such a right.

Capital Title

Capital Title's stockholders do not have a right to cumulative voting in the election of directors because the certificate of incorporation does not provide for such a right.

Anti-Takeover Provisions Business Combinations

LandAmerica

Virginia law contains provisions limiting affiliated transactions. Affiliated transactions include certain mergers and share exchanges, material dispositions of corporate assets not in the ordinary course of business, any dissolution of the corporation proposed by or on behalf of an interested stockholder (defined as any beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of the voting securities of a Virginia corporation), or reclassifications, including reverse stock splits, recapitalizations or mergers of the corporation with its subsidiaries which have the effect of increasing the percentage of voting shares beneficially owned by an interested stockholder by more than 5%.

Subject to certain exceptions, the provisions governing affiliated transactions require that, for three years following the date upon which any stockholder becomes an interested stockholder, a Virginia corporation cannot engage in an affiliated transaction with such interested stockholder. This prohibition is subject to the approval of the affiliated transaction by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the voting shares of the corporation, other than the shares beneficially owned by the interested stockholder, and by a majority (but not less than two) of the disinterested directors. A disinterested director means, with respect to a particular interested stockholder, a member of a corporation's board of directors who (i) was a member before the later of January 1, 1988 and the date on which an interested stockholder became an interested stockholder and (ii) was recommended for election by, or was elected to fill a vacancy and received the affirmative vote of, a majority of the disinterested directors then on the board. At the expiration of the three-year period, these provisions require approval of affiliated transactions by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the voting shares of the corporation, other than those beneficially owned by the interested stockholder.

The principal exceptions to the special voting requirement apply to affiliated transactions occurring after the three-year period has expired and require either that the transaction be approved by a majority of the disinterested directors or that the transaction satisfy certain fair price requirements of the statute. In general, the fair price requirements provide that the stockholders must receive the highest per share price

Delaware law generally prohibits a corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder (generally, one who beneficially owns 15% or more of the voting power) for a period of three years following the date that the stockholder became an interested stockholder unless:

prior to that time the corporation's board of directors approved either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;

upon completion of the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, subject to specified adjustments, or at or subsequent to that time, the business combination is approved by the corporation's board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of stockholders by the affirmative vote of at least 66²/₃% of the outstanding voting stock that is not owned by the interested stockholder.

The three-year prohibition on business combinations with an interested stockholder does not apply under certain circumstances, including business combinations with a corporation that does not have a class of voting stock that is:

listed on a national securities exchange;

authorized for quotation on the Nasdaq Stock Market; or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders;

unless, in each case, this result was directly or indirectly caused by the interested stockholder or from a transaction in which a person became an interested stockholder.

The term "business combination" is defined to include a wide variety of transactions, including mergers, consolidations, sales or other dispositions of 10% or more of a corporation's assets and various for their shares as was paid by the interested stockholder for his shares or the fair market value of their shares, whichever is higher. They also require that, during the three years preceding the announcement of the proposed affiliated transaction, all required dividends have been paid and no special financial accommodations have been accorded the interested stockholder unless approved by a majority of the disinterested directors.

None of the foregoing limitations and special voting requirements applies to an affiliated transaction with an interested stockholder whose acquisition of shares making such person an interested stockholder was approved by a majority of the corporation's disinterested directors.

In addition to Virginia law, LandAmerica's articles of incorporation include an affiliated transaction provision, which provides that, in the event that holders of common stock are entitled to vote on certain transactions, a supermajority of at least 80% of all the votes that the holders of common stock are entitled to cast shall be required for the approval of such transactions. This supermajority approval would be required for a merger or consolidation involving any interested stockholder, or for a transaction between LandAmerica and an interested stockholder for substantially all of the assets of either party.

Interested stockholder means any person or entity who directly or indirectly owns or controls 10% or more of the voting power of LandAmerica. In addition, the articles of incorporation provide that the same 80% vote shall be required for the approval of certain transactions including a reclassification of securities, recapitalization or other transaction designed to decrease the number of holders of common stock after any person or entity has become an interested stockholder. However, the supermajority approval requirement does not apply to any transaction that is approved by the board of directors prior to the time that the interested stockholder becomes an interested stockholder.

LandAmerica's articles of incorporation provide that the provisions of Virginia law that regulate certain control share acquisitions do not apply. Control share acquisitions are transactions causing the voting strength of any person acquiring beneficial ownership of shares of a public corporation in Virginia to meet or other transactions that may benefit an interested stockholder.

Stockholder Action Without a Meeting

LandAmerica

Virginia law provides that action required or permitted by law to be taken at a stockholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if the action is taken by all the stockholders entitled to vote on the action, in which case no action by the board of directors would be required.

Capital Title

Delaware law provides that, unless otherwise provided in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws are silent as to stockholder action without a meeting. Accordingly, Virginia law would govern.

Capital Title's certificate of incorporation provides for stockholder action without a meeting consistent with Delaware law.

Calling Special Meetings of Stockholders

LandAmerica

LandAmerica's articles of incorporation and bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of preferred stock holders, special meetings of stockholders may be called only by the chairman of the board or a majority of the total number of directors which the board of directors would have if there were no vacancies. The notice must contain specific items as delineated in LandAmerica's bylaws.

Capital Title

Capital Title's bylaws provide that a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by the chairman of the board of directors, the board of directors or by the holders of not less than one-fourth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. Vote Required for Amendments to Articles

LandAmerica

Virginia law provides that a corporation's articles of incorporation may be amended upon approval of the amendment by the affirmative vote of the holders of more than two thirds of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to be cast in each voting group. Each voting group must approve the amendment. The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater or lesser vote.

LandAmerica's articles of incorporation provide that, unless the articles of incorporation require a greater vote, any amendment to the articles requiring stockholder approval under Virginia law shall be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote. Any amendment to the following provisions of the articles of incorporation requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of voting stock, voting together as a class:

the provisions governing the removal of directors;

the provision governing the amendment of the bylaws;

the provision governing the calling of a special stockholder meeting;

the provisions governing the approval of certain interested stockholder transactions;

Vote Required for Certain Transactions

Virginia law provides that a merger, sale of substantially all of a company's assets or similar transaction may be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of more than two thirds of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to be cast in each voting group.

Capital Title's certificate of incorporation does not alter the requirements under Delaware law to amend the certificate of incorporation. Accordingly, Delaware law would govern.

affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matter. Furthermore, under Delaware law, unless otherwise provided in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, approval of the stockholders of a surviving corporation in a merger is not required if: (1) the agreement of merger does not amend in any respect the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation, (2) the shares outstanding immediately before the effectiveness of the merger are not changed by the merger and (3) either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation and no shares, securities or obligations convertible into this stock are to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, or the authorized unissued shares or the treasury shares of common stock of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, plus those initially issuable upon conversion of any other shares, securities or obligations to be issued or delivered under the plan do not exceed 20% of the shares of common stock of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately prior to the merger.

PROPOSAL II ADJOURNMENT OF THE MEETING

In the event that there are not sufficient votes to constitute a quorum or approve the matters to be considered at the time of the special meeting, the merger agreement and the transaction contemplated thereby could not be approved unless the special meeting was adjourned to a later date or dates in order to permit further solicitation of proxies. In order to allow proxies that have been received at the time of the meeting to be voted for an adjournment, if necessary, Capital Title has submitted the question of adjournment to its stockholders as a separate matter for their consideration. The board of directors of Capital Title recommend that its stockholders vote FOR the adjournment proposal. If it is necessary to adjourn a meeting, no notice of such adjourned meeting is required to be given to the company's stockholders, other than an announcement at the special meeting of the place, date and time to which the meeting is adjourned, if the meeting is adjourned for 30 days or less.

The board of directors of Capital Title recommend that you vote FOR approval of this proposal.

B. Board Determinations. The respective boards of directors of Parent, Merger Sub and Company have each determined that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby are consistent with, and will further, their respective business strategies and goals, and are in the best interests of their respective shareholders and, therefore, have approved the Merger, this Agreement, the plan of merger contained in this Agreement and the other transactions contemplated hereby, as applicable, and Parent has approved the Merger, this Agreement and the plan of merger contained in this Agreement as the sole shareholder of Merger Sub.

(a) Subject to the provisions hereof, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into Company pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware, and Company shall be the surviving corporation (sometimes hereinafter referred to as Surviving Corporation when reference is made to it after the Effective Time of the Merger). Subject to the provisions hereof, Merger Sub and Company shall file with the Delaware Secretary of State a Certificate of Merger in accordance with all applicable legal requirements. ARTICLE 2

BASIS AND MANNER OF CONVERSION; MANNER OF EXCHANGE

Section 2.1 Conversion of Company Shares. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of a holder of Company Shares:

(a) Each Parent Share that is issued and outstanding at the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall remain unchanged by the Merger. Each Company Share held by Company as treasury stock or by any of its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time shall be cancelled, and no payment shall be made in respect thereof.

(b) Subject to Sections 2.1(a), 2.1(c), 2.1(e), 2.2, 2.3, 2.5 and 2.6, each Company Share issued and outstanding immediately before the Effective Time shall be converted into, and shall be canceled in exchange for, the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof:

(i) a fraction, rounded to the nearest one thousandth, of a Parent Share equal to A divided by B where A shall equal $8.00 and where B shall equal the Parent Average Price as of the date of this Agreement (the Exchange Ratio); provided, however, if the Parent Average Price as of the Effective Time multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (the Effective Time Stock Value) is: (A) more than $8.25, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted so that the Effective Time Stock Value shall equal $8.25; or (B) less than $7.75, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted so that the Effective Time Stock Value shall equal $7.75 (the Per Share Stock Consideration); or

(ii) cash in the amount of $8.00 (the Per Share Cash Consideration).

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the aggregate Merger Consideration shall be composed of 20% Parent Shares and 80% cash (the Consideration Mix); provided, however, (x) Company may terminate this Agreement if the Parent Average Price as of the Effective Time is equal to or less than 85% of the Parent Average Price as of the date of this Agreement, unless (i) Parent and Company mutually agree to alter the Consideration Mix or (ii) Parent elects to pay 100% of the Merger Consideration in cash, and (y) Parent may elect to pay 100% of the Merger Consideration in cash if the Parent Average Price as of the Effective Time is equal to or less than 85% of the Parent Average Price as of the date of this Agreement.

(d) After determining the aggregate amount of Merger Consideration in accordance with Sections 2(b) and (c), a determination shall be made as to the total amount of cash to be paid as Merger Consideration, excluding amounts deposited for Dissenting Shares pursuant to Section 2.4(a) (the Aggregate Cash Consideration) and the total number of Parent Shares to be paid as Merger Consideration (the Aggregate Stock Consideration).

(e) In the event the number of outstanding Company Shares on a fully-diluted basis immediately before the Effective Time exceeds the number of outstanding Company Shares on a fully-diluted basis specified in Section 3.2, then the dollar amounts specified in Section 2.1(b)(i) and (ii) shall be adjusted by multiplying such dollar amounts by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of outstanding Company Shares on a fully-diluted basis specified in Section 3.2 and the denominator of which shall be the number of outstanding Company Shares on a fully-diluted basis immediately before the Effective Time.

Section 2.2 Election and Allocation Procedures.

(a) Subject to the allocation and election procedures set forth in this Section 2.2, each record holder (or beneficial owner through appropriate and customary documentation and instructions) of Company Shares immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be entitled (i) to elect to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of each such Company Share entirely in cash (a Cash Election), (ii) to elect to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of each such Company Share entirely in Parent Shares (a Stock Election), or (iii) to indicate that such record holder has no preference as to the receipt of cash or Parent Shares with respect to such holder's Company Shares (a Non-Election); and any Cash Election, Stock Election or Non-Election shall be referred to herein as an Election); provided, however, that no holder of Dissenting Shares shall be entitled to make an Election. All such Elections shall be made on a form furnished by Parent for that purpose (a Form of Election) and reasonably satisfactory to Company. If more than one certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding Company Shares (a Certificate) shall be surrendered in accordance with Section 2.2(f) hereof for the account of the same holder, the number of Parent Shares, if any, to be issued to such holder in exchange for the Certificates which have been surrendered in accordance with Section 2.2(f) hereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Company Shares represented by all of the Certificates surrendered for the account of such holder. Holders of record of Company Shares who hold such Company Shares as nominees, trustees or in other representative capacities may submit multiple Forms of Election, provided that such nominee, trustee or representative certifies that each such Form of Election covers all Company Shares held for a particular beneficial owner.

(b) If the aggregate number of Company Shares with respect to which Cash Elections have been made exceeds the aggregate number of Company Shares that may be converted into the right to receive the Aggregate Cash Consideration (the Aggregate Cash Shares), then:

(i) each Company Share with respect to which a Stock Election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration;

(ii) each Company Share with respect to which a Non-Election shall have been made (or deemed to have been made) shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration; and

(iii) each Company Share with respect to which a Cash Election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive: (x) the amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (A) the Per Share Cash Consideration and (B) a fraction (the Cash Fraction), the numerator of which shall be the Aggregate Cash Shares, and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate number of Company Shares with respect to which Cash Elections shall have been made, and (y) the number of Parent Shares equal to the product of (A) the Per Share Stock Consideration and (B) a fraction equal to one minus the Cash Fraction.

(c) If the aggregate number of Company Shares with respect to which Stock Elections have been made exceeds the aggregate number of Company Shares that may be converted into the right to receive the Aggregate Stock Consideration (the Aggregate Stock Shares), then:

(i) each Company Share with respect to which a Cash Election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration;

(ii) each Company Share with respect to which a Non-Election shall have been made (or deemed to have been made) shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration; and

(iii) each Company Share with respect to which a Stock Election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive: (x) the number of Parent Shares equal to the product of (A) the Per Share Stock Consideration and (B) a fraction (the Stock Fraction), the numerator of which shall be the Aggregate Stock Shares, and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate number of Company Shares with respect to which Stock Elections shall have been made, and (y) the amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (A) the Per Share Cash Consideration and (B) a fraction equal to one minus the Stock Fraction.

(d) In the event that neither Section 2.2(b) nor Section 2.2(c) is applicable, then:

(i) each Company Share with respect to which a Cash Election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration;

(ii) each Company Common Share with respect to which a Stock Election shall have been made shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration; and

(iii) each Company Common Share with respect to which a Non-Election shall have been made (or deemed to have been made) (the Non-Electing Shares), if any, shall be converted into the right to receive: (x) an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (A) the Per Share Cash Consideration and (B) a fraction (the Non-Election Fraction), the numerator of which shall be the excess of (1) the Aggregate Cash Shares over (2) the sum of the aggregate number of Company Shares with respect to which a Cash Election shall have been made, and the denominator of which shall be the excess of (1) the aggregate number of shares of Company Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Dissenting Shares and shares to be cancelled in accordance with Section 2.1(a)) over (2) the sum of the aggregate number of Company Shares with respect to which a Cash Election and a Stock Election shall have been made; and (y) the number of Parent Shares equal to the product of (A) the Per Share Stock Consideration and (B) a fraction equal to one minus the Non-Election Fraction.

(e) A Form of Election and a letter of transmittal shall be included with or mailed contemporaneously with each copy of the Proxy Statement mailed to stockholders of Company in connection with the Company Shareholders Meeting (as hereinafter defined). Parent and Company shall each use its reasonable best efforts to mail or otherwise make available the Form of Election and a letter of transmittal to all persons who become holders of Company Shares during the period between the record date for Company Shareholders Meeting and the Effective Time.

(f) Elections shall be made by holders of Company Shares by delivering the Form of Election to the Exchange Agent (as hereinafter defined). To be effective, a Form of Election must be properly completed, signed and submitted to and received by the Exchange Agent by no later than 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Standard) on the date that is five (5) Business Days following the Effective Time (the Election Deadline), and accompanied by (1)(x) the Certificates representing Company Shares as to which the election is being made or (y) an appropriate guarantee of delivery of such Certificates as set forth in such Form of Election from a firm which is a member of a registered national securities exchange or of the NASDAQ or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States, provided such Certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent within three NYSE trading days after the date of execution of such guarantee of delivery (a Guarantee of Delivery), (2) a properly completed and signed letter of transmittal and (3) if applicable, a properly completed and signed affiliate letter in the form of Exhibit 5.7. Failure to deliver Certificates covered by any Guarantee of Delivery within three NYSE trading days after the date of execution of such Guarantee of Delivery shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made Cash Election or Stock Election. Parent will have the discretion, which it may delegate in whole or in part to the Exchange Agent, to determine whether Forms of Election have been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked and to disregard immaterial defects in Forms of Election. The good faith decision of Parent (or the Exchange Agent) in such matters shall be conclusive and binding. Neither Parent nor the Exchange Agent will be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in a Form of Election submitted to the Exchange Agent. A Form of Election with respect to Dissenting Shares shall not be valid. The Exchange Agent shall also make all computations contemplated by Sections 2.2(b), 2.2(c) and 2.2(d) above and all such computations shall be conclusive and binding on the holders of Company Shares in the absence of manifest error. Any Form of Election may be changed or revoked prior to the Election Deadline. In the event a Form of Election is revoked prior to the Election Deadline, Parent shall, or shall cause the Exchange Agent to, cause the Certificates representing Company Shares covered by such Form of Election to be promptly returned without charge to the Person submitting the Form of Election upon written request to that effect from such Person.

(g) For the purposes hereof, a holder of Company Shares who does not submit a Form of Election which is received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline (including a holder who submits and then revokes his or her Form of Election and does not resubmit a Form of Election which is timely received by the Exchange Agent), or who submits a Form of Election without the other documents required by Section 2.2(f), shall be deemed to have made a Non-Election. Holders of Dissenting Shares shall not be entitled to make an Election and shall not be deemed to have made a Non-Election; the rights of such holders of Dissenting Shares shall be determined in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL and as provided in Section 2.6 hereof. If any Form of Election is defective in any manner such that the Exchange Agent cannot reasonably determine the election preference of the stockholder submitting such Form of Election, the purported Cash Election or Stock Election set forth therein shall be deemed to be of no force and effect and the stockholder making such purported Cash Election or Stock Election shall, for purposes hereof, be deemed to have made a Non-Election.

Section 2.3 Fractional Shares; Adjustment.

(a) No certificate or scrip representing fractional Parent Shares shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a stockholder of Parent. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of Company Shares exchanged pursuant to the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a Parent Share (after taking into account all Certificates delivered by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a Parent Share multiplied by the Parent Average Price at the Effective Time.

(b) If at any time during the period between the date hereof and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of Parent or securities convertible, exercisable or exchangeable into capital stock of Parent shall occur, including by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any dividend or distribution thereon (other than regular quarterly cash dividends, the grant of capital stock or securities convertible, exercisable or exchangeable into capital stock of Parent pursuant to any equity compensation plan or arrangement of Parent, or the conversion, exercise or exchange of securities in the capital stock of Parent pursuant to the terms and conditions of any security of Parent issued and outstanding as set forth Parent's most recent 10-K) or a record date with respect to any of the foregoing shall occur during such period, the number of Parent Shares constituting part of the Merger Consideration shall be appropriately adjusted to provide to the holders of the Parent Shares and Company Shares the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to the consummation of such event.

Section 2.4 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. Parent shall designate Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (formerly EquiServe Trust Company, N.A.), or such other company as Parent and Company may mutually agree, to act as the exchange agent (the Exchange Agent) for purposes of conducting the election procedure and the exchange procedure described in this Article 2. At or immediately prior to the Effective Time, (i) Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, for exchange or payment in accordance with this Section 2.4, through the Exchange Agent, (A) certificates evidencing the total number of Parent Shares to be issued in the Merger, (B) the Aggregate Cash Consideration, less the amount deposited pursuant to Section 2.4(a)(ii), (C) any cash necessary to pay amounts due pursuant to Section 2.3(a) and (D) the Per Share Cash Consideration amount for each Dissenting Share and

(ii) Company shall deposit with the Exchange Agent all monies received by it after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Effective Time due to the exercise of the Company Options and the Company Warrants (such certificates for Parent Shares and such cash being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund). The Exchange Agent shall, pursuant to irrevocable instructions in accordance with this Article II, deliver the Parent Shares and cash contemplated to be issued pursuant to this Article II out of the Exchange Fund. Except as contemplated by Section 2.4(e), Section 2.4(f) or Section 2.7 hereof, the Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Exchange Procedures. Upon surrender of a Certificate to the Exchange Agent together with a duly executed letter of transmittal prior to the Election Deadline, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive promptly, but in no event later than fifteen (15) Business Days following the Effective Time in exchange therefor a certificate representing that number of whole Parent Shares and/or cash which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of this Article II (after giving effect to any required withholding tax). Until surrendered as contemplated by Section 2.2(f), each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration and unpaid dividends and distributions thereon, if any, as provided in this Article II. If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition to such payment that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such payment shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other taxes required as a result of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as Parent may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver, in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate, the proper amount of the Merger Consideration as if such Certificates were properly surrendered in accordance herewith, together with any unpaid dividends and distributions on any such Parent Shares, as contemplated by this Article II and such Certificate shall thereafter be deemed to have been properly surrendered for all purposes hereunder.

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. Whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared by Parent in respect of the Parent Shares, the record date for which is at or after the Effective Time, that declaration shall include dividends or other distributions in respect of all Parent Shares issuable pursuant to this Agreement. No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to Parent Shares constituting part of the Merger Consideration shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder, until such Certificate is surrendered as provided in this Section 2.4. Following such surrender, there shall be paid, without interest, to the Person in whose name the Parent Shares have been registered (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date at or after the Effective Time previously paid or payable on the date of such surrender with respect to such whole Parent Shares, less the amount of any withholding taxes that may be required thereon, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date subsequent to surrender, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date at or after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date subsequent to surrender payable with respect to such whole Parent Shares, less the amount of any withholding taxes which may be required thereon.

(d) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Shares. As of the Effective Time, all Company Shares shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a Certificate representing any such Company Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive, upon surrender of such Certificate, the Merger Consideration subject, however, to Company's obligation to pay any dividends set forth on Disclosure Schedule 3.9(a) that are declared in accordance therewith before the Effective Time. As of the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of Company shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers on Company's stock transfer books of Company Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Parent for any reason, they shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this Section 2.4.

(e) Return of Merger Consideration. Upon demand by Parent, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to Parent any portion of the Merger Consideration deposited with the Exchange Agent pursuant to this Section 2.4 that remains undistributed to holders of Company Shares one year after the Effective Time. Holders of Certificates who have not complied with this Section 2.4 prior to such demand shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of any claim to the Merger Consideration and dividends or distributions, if any, in respect thereof.

(f) Withholding Rights. Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration and amounts payable pursuant to the Company Options and the Company Warrants (and any dividends or distributions thereon) otherwise payable hereunder to any Person such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under any provision of federal, state, local or foreign income tax law. To the extent that Parent so withholds those amounts and pays such amounts over to the applicable taxing authorities, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Company Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Parent.

Section 2.5 Company Stock Options and Warrants.

(a) As of the Effective Time, all rights with respect to Company Shares issuable pursuant to the exercise of the Company Options and the Company Warrants, which are outstanding and not exercised immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, shall expire and be canceled as of the Effective Time without any action on the part of the holder thereof and no consideration paid therefor.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all reasonable actions that are necessary or appropriate to give effect to the transactions contemplated by Section 2.5(a). Without in any manner limiting the foregoing sentence, prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall procure from each holder of Company Options and Company Warrants, and shall deliver to Parent at the Closing, to the extent required by the terms of the applicable Company Options and Company Warrants to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, an executed acknowledgment of the treatment and disposition of such holder's Company Options and Company Warrants and that each such holder of Company Options and Company Warrants no longer has any rights under any such Company Option or Company Warrant.

Section 2.6 Shares of Dissenting Shareholders.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, any Company Shares that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and that are held by stockholders who shall not have voted in favor of the Merger and who shall have demanded properly in writing appraisal of such shares in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL and who object to the Merger and comply with all provisions of the DGCL concerning the right of such person to dissent from the Merger and demand appraisal of such shares (collectively, the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into or represent the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Such stockholders shall be entitled to receive the amounts determined in accordance with the provisions of such Section 262. If, after the Effective Time, any such holder effectively withdraws the demand for appraisal or fails to preserve such right to appraisal, in either case pursuant to the DGCL, such Dissenting Shares shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into and to have become exchangeable for, as of the Effective Time, the right to receive, without any interest thereon, the Per Share Cash Consideration.

(b) Any payments relating to Dissenting Shares shall be made solely by the Surviving Corporation from amounts set aside pursuant to Section 2.4(a)(i)(D) or from other sources, and Company shall not make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle with, the holders of Dissenting Shares without the prior consent of Parent. Company shall give Parent prompt notice of any demands received by Company for the payment of fair value for Dissenting Shares, and Parent shall have the right to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to Dissenting Shares.

Section 2.7 Laws of Escheat. If any of the consideration due or other payments to be paid or delivered to the holders of Company Shares is not paid or delivered within the time period specified by any applicable laws concerning abandoned property, escheat or similar laws, and if such failure to pay or deliver such consideration occurs or arises out of the fact that such property is not claimed by the proper owner thereof, Parent shall be entitled to dispose of any such consideration or other payments in accordance with applicable laws concerning abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Any other provision of this Agreement notwithstanding, none of Company, Parent, Merger Sub, the Exchange Agent, nor any other Person acting on their behalf shall be liable to a holder of Company Shares for any amount paid or property delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to and in accordance with any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

As of their respective dates, all Parent SEC Reports complied as to form in all material respects with the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto. No executive officer of Parent has failed in any respect to make the certifications required of him or her under Section 302 or 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

Section 4.6 Legal Proceedings, Etc. Except as set forth on Disclosure Schedule 4.6 hereto, or as disclosed in any filing by Parent with the SEC and made available to Company hereunder, there is no pending or, to the Knowledge of Parent, threatened legal, administrative, arbitral or other proceedings, claims, actions, causes of action or governmental investigations of any nature against Parent or any of its Affiliates challenging the validity or propriety of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or which would be required to be reported by Parent pursuant to Item 103 of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC.

Section 4.7 Regulatory Matters. Parent has filed all reports, registrations and statements, together with any amendments required to be made with respect thereto, that it was required to file since December 31, 2002 with the Regulatory Authorities and each other applicable Governmental Authority, and have paid all fees and assessments due and payable in connection therewith. Except as disclosed in the most recent Form 10-K of Parent and in other public disclosures, there is no (i) pending or, to Parent's Knowledge, threatened Regulatory Authority or Governmental Authority proceeding, enforcement action or, to Parent's Knowledge, investigation into the business disclosures or operations of Parent, or (ii) unresolved violation, comment or exception by any Regulatory Authority or Governmental Authority with respect to any report or statement relating to any examinations or inspections of Parent, except for such events that would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent. Parent has no Knowledge of any fact, and has not agreed to any circumstance, that would materially impede or delay receipt of any Consent from any Regulatory Authorities referred to in this Agreement.

Section 4.8 No Default. Parent, Merger Sub and each of the other Subsidiaries of Parent are neither in default under nor in violation of any provision of their charter or articles of organization, bylaws, or any promissory note, indenture, evidence of indebtedness or security therefor, contract, agreement, commitment, arrangement, lease, insurance policy or other instrument to which it is a party, by which its respective assets, business, or operations may be bound or affected, or under which it or its respective assets, business or operations receives benefits, and there has not occurred any event that, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default.

Section 4.9 Accounting Records and Controls.

(a) Except as set forth in Parent's most recent Form 10-K filed with the SEC, the records, systems, controls, data and information of Parent are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of Parent or its accountants (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any non-exclusive ownership and non-direct control that would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the system of internal accounting controls described below in this Section 4.9. Parent (x) has implemented and maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Exchange Act) designed to ensure that material information relating to Parent, including its consolidated Subsidiaries, is made known to the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of Parent by others within those entities, and (y) has disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the date hereof, to Parent's outside auditors and the audit committee of Parent's Board of Directors (i) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act) which are reasonably likely to adversely affect Parent's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information and (ii) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in Parent's internal control over financial reporting. These disclosures were made in writing by management to Parent's auditors and audit committee and a copy has previously been made available to Company.

(b) Except as set forth in Parent's most recent Form 10-K filed with the SEC, since December 31, 2005, (i) through the date hereof, neither Parent nor, to the knowledge of the officers of Parent, any director, officer, employee, auditor, accountant or representative of Parent has received or otherwise had or obtained knowledge of any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim, whether written or oral, regarding the accounting or auditing practices, procedures, methodologies or methods of Parent or its internal accounting controls, including any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim that Parent has engaged in questionable accounting or auditing practices, and (ii) no attorney representing Parent, whether or not employed by Parent, has reported evidence of a material violation of securities laws, breach of fiduciary duty or similar violation by Parent or any of its officers, directors, employees or agents to the Board of Directors of Parent or any committee thereof or to any director or officer of Parent.

Section 4.10 Consents and Approvals. Except for (i) the filing with the SEC and declaration of effectiveness of the Form S-4 registration statement contemplated by Section 7.3, (ii) the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to the DGCL, (iii) any consents, authorizations, approvals, filings or exemptions in connection with compliance with the rules and regulations of any applicable SRO, or that are required under any insurance industry regulations and other similar laws, (iv) approval of listing of such Parent common stock on the NYSE, (v) filings required under the HSR Act, (vi) the Banking Regulatory Consents, (vii) the Insurance Regulatory Consents, and (viii) such consents, waivers, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings the failure of which to be obtained or made would not, individually or in the aggregate, have or be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Parent or Merger Sub to perform their obligations under this Agreement or consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, no consents or approvals of or filings or registrations with any Governmental Authority are necessary to be obtained or made by Parent or Merger Sub in connection with the consummation by Parent of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No consents or approvals of or filings or registrations with any Governmental Authority are necessary in connection with the execution and delivery by Parent of this Agreement.

Section 4.11 Form S-4; Proxy Statement. None of the information to be supplied by Parent or its Subsidiaries in the Form S-4 and the Proxy Statement that is included therein will, at the time of the mailing of the Proxy Statement and any amendments or supplements thereto, and at the time of the Company Shareholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Form S-4 will comply as to form in all material respects with all applicable law, including the provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, except that no representation is made by Parent with respect to information supplied by Company for inclusion therein.

Section 4.12 Financial Advisors. No actions have been taken by Parent that would give rise to any valid claim against any party hereto for a brokerage commission, finder's fee or other like payment with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, excluding the fee to be paid to Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc.

Section 4.13 Absence of Undisclosed Liabilities. Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries had at December 31, 2005, or has incurred since that date through the date hereof, any liabilities or obligations (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of any nature, except (i) liabilities, obligations or contingencies that

(A) are accrued or reserved against in the financial statements of Parent in its 2005 Form 10-K or reflected in the notes thereto or (B) were incurred in the ordinary course of business, (ii) liabilities, obligations or contingencies that (A) would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent, or (B) have been discharged or paid in full prior to the date hereof, and (iii) liabilities, obligations and contingencies that are of a nature not required to be reflected in the consolidated financial statements of Parent and its Subsidiaries prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

Section 4.14 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Since December 31, 2005, Parent has conducted its business only in the ordinary course, and since such date there has not been any event, change or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent.

Section 4.15 Contracts.

(a) As of the date of this Agreement, neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to or bound by any contract, arrangement, commitment or understanding (whether written or oral) (i) which is a material contract (as such term is defined in Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K of the SEC) to be performed after the date of this Agreement that has not been filed or incorporated by reference in the Parent SEC Documents, or (ii) which materially restricts the ability of Parent or the surviving corporation to engage in any line of business. Each contract, arrangement, commitment or understanding of the type described in clause (i) of this Section 4.15(a) is referred to herein as a Parent Contract (for purposes of clarification, each material contract (as such term is defined in Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K of the SEC) to be performed after the date of this Agreement, whether or not filed with the SEC, is a Parent Contract).

(b) (i) Each Parent Contract is valid and binding on Parent and any of its Subsidiaries that is a party thereto, as applicable, and in full force and effect (subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally, and general equitable principles (whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law)), (ii) Parent and each of its Subsidiaries has in all material respects performed all obligations required to be performed by it to date under each Parent Contract, except where such noncompliance, either individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent, and (iii) neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries has Knowledge of, or has received notice of, the existence of any event or condition which constitutes, or, after notice or lapse of time or both, will constitute, a material default on the part of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries under any such Parent Contract, except where such default, either individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent.

Section 4.16 Ownership of Company Capital Stock. As of the date of this Agreement, Parent and Merger Sub do not beneficially own any shares of Company capital stock.

ARTICLE 5

COVENANTS AND AGREEMENTS

Section 5.1 Conduct of the Business of Company and its Subsidiaries.

(a) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time of the Merger, Company shall and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) conduct its business in the usual, regular and ordinary course consistent with past practice, (ii) use its reasonable best efforts to maintain and preserve intact for itself and for Parent its business organization, employees, goodwill with customers and advantageous business relationships and retain the services of its officers and key employees (except to the extent that the pending Merger encourages officers or employees to leave), (iii) renew its executive and organization liability insurance policy or, if such policy cannot be renewed, exercise its option to extend coverage under such policy for claims made after the end of the policy period, and (iv) except as required by law or regulation, take no action which would adversely affect or materially delay the ability of Company or Parent to obtain any Consent from any Regulatory Authority or other approvals required for the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement (except in Connection with an Alternative Proposal).

(b) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time of the Merger, except as required by law or regulation, Company shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, without the prior written consent of Parent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld:

(i) change, delete or add any provision of or to the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of Company;

(ii) except for the issuance of Company Shares pursuant to the terms of the Company Options and the Company Warrants outstanding as of the date of this Agreement, change the number of shares of the authorized, issued or outstanding capital stock of Company, including any issuance, purchase, redemption, split, combination or reclassification thereof, or issue or grant any option, warrant, call, commitment, subscription, right or agreement to purchase relating to the authorized or issued capital stock of Company, declare, set aside or pay any dividend or other distribution with respect to the outstanding capital stock of Company, except as set forth on Disclosure Schedule 3.9(a);

(iii) incur any material liabilities or material obligations, whether directly or by way of guaranty, including any obligation for borrowed money, or whether evidenced by any note, bond, debenture, or similar instrument, except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice (provided, however, that in no event shall the aggregate obligations for borrowed money exceed $18,000,000);

(iv) make any capital expenditures individually in excess of $25,000, or in the aggregate in excess of $350,000 other than pursuant to binding commitments existing on December 31, 2005 and disclosed in Disclosure Schedule 5.1(b)(iv) and other than expenditures necessary to maintain existing assets in good repair;

(v) sell, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of any Company Real Property or interest therein;

(vi) except as disclosed in Disclosure Schedule 5.1(b)(vi), pay any bonuses to any executive officer except pursuant to the terms of an enforceable written employment agreement; enter into any new, or amend or extend in any respect any existing, employment, consulting, non-competition or independent contractor agreement with any Person; alter the terms of any existing incentive bonus or commission plan; adopt any new or amend in any material respect any existing employee benefit plan, except as may be required by law; grant any general increase in compensation to its employees as a class or to its officers except for non-executive officers in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices and policies or except in accordance with the terms of an enforceable written agreement; grant any material increase in fees or other increase in compensation or in other benefits to any of its directors; or effect any change in any material respect in retirement benefits to any class of employees or officers, except as required by law;

(vii) enter into or extend any material agreement, lease or license relating to real property, personal property or data processing having a term of more than three years or payments exceeding $10,000 per month;

(viii) acquire the assets or equity securities of any Person or acquire direct or indirect control of any Person, other than in connection with (A) any internal reorganization or consolidation involving existing Company Subsidiaries which has been approved in advance in writing by Parent or (B) foreclosures in the ordinary course of business;

(ix) take any action that is intended or may reasonably be expected to result in any of the conditions to the Merger set forth in Article 7 not being satisfied;

(x) purchase or otherwise acquire any investment securities for its own account having an average remaining life to maturity greater than one (1) year; or

(xi) commence any cause of action or proceeding other than in accordance with past practice or settle any action, claim, arbitration, complaint, criminal prosecution, demand letter, governmental or other examination or investigation, hearing, inquiry or other proceeding against Company or any of its Subsidiaries for material money damages or material restrictions upon any of their operations.

Notwithstanding anything stated in Section 5.1(b)(iv) to the contrary, Company may make certain purchases in exigent circumstances without Parent's prior consent, but (A) only in those rare situations in which there is no time to obtain Parent's prior consent and it is likely that Company will suffer a material loss in the absence of such emergency action, and (B) subject to notification of Parent within 24 hours after Company has committed itself to such purchase.

Section 5.2 Current Information. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time of the Merger or the time of termination or abandonment of this Agreement, Company will cause one or more of its designated representatives to confer on a regular and frequent basis with representatives of Parent and to report the general status of the ongoing operations of Company. Company will promptly notify Parent if it discovers that any of its, or its Subsidiaries', representations or warranties in Article 3 were untrue on the date hereof or become untrue as the result of subsequent events and of any material change in the normal course of business or the operations or the properties of Company or any of its Subsidiaries, any governmental complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated) affecting Company or any of its Subsidiaries, the institution or the threat of material litigation, claims, threats or causes of action involving Company or any of its Subsidiaries, and will keep Parent fully informed of such events. Company will furnish to Parent, promptly after the preparation and/or receipt by Company thereof, copies of its unaudited periodic financial statements for the applicable periods then ended, and such financial statements, upon delivery to Parent, be treated, for purposes of Section 3.3 hereof, as among the Financial Statements of Company.

Section 5.3 Access to Properties; Personnel and Records.

(a) For so long as this Agreement shall remain in effect, Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, permit Parent or its agents full access, during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice, to the properties of Company and its Subsidiaries and shall disclose and make available, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to disclose and make available, (together with the right to copy) to Parent and to its internal auditors, loan review officers, attorneys, accountants and other representatives, all books, papers and records relating to the assets, stock, properties, operations, obligations and liabilities of Company and its Subsidiaries, including all books of account (including the general ledger), tax records, minute books of directors and shareholders' meetings, organizational documents, bylaws, contracts and agreements, filings with any regulatory agency, examination reports, correspondence with regulatory or taxing authorities, documents relating to assets, titles, abstracts, appraisals, consultant's reports, plans affecting employees, securities transfer records and shareholder lists, and any other assets, business activities or prospects in which Parent may have a reasonable interest, and Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to provide Parent and its representatives access to the work papers of Company's accountants.

(b) All information furnished by the parties hereto pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as the sole property of the party providing such information until the consummation of the Merger contemplated hereby and, if such transaction shall not occur, the party receiving the information shall return to the party which furnished such information, all documents or other materials containing, reflecting or referring to such information, shall use its best efforts to keep confidential all such information, and shall not directly or indirectly use such information for any competitive or other commercial purposes. The obligation to keep such information confidential shall continue for five years from the date the proposed transactions are abandoned but shall not apply to (i) any information which (A) the party receiving the information was already in possession of prior to disclosure thereof by the party furnishing the information, (B) was then available to the public, or (C) became available to the public through no fault of the party receiving the information; or (ii) disclosures pursuant to a legal requirement or in accordance with an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or regulatory agency; provided, however, the party which is the subject of any such legal requirement or order shall use its best efforts to give the other party at least ten Business Days prior notice thereof so that such other party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy, and provided further, in the event such other party is unable to obtain a protective order or such other remedy, the party that is subject to such legal requirement shall furnish only that portion of such information which it is advised by counsel is legally required and shall use best efforts to insure that confidential treatment will be accorded such information. Each party hereto acknowledges and agrees that a breach of any of their respective obligations under this Section 5.3 would cause the other irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law, and that, accordingly, each is entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief for the enforcement thereof in addition to damages or any other relief available at law. In addition, that certain Confidentiality Agreement between Parent and Company, dated February 1, 2006 (the Confidentiality Agreement), shall remain in full force and effect (unless any terms therein conflict with this Agreement, in which case the terms of this Agreement shall prevail) until the Termination of this Agreement or the Effective Time, whichever shall occur first.

Section 5.4 Shareholder Approval.

(a) Company shall take all steps necessary to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders (the Company Shareholders Meeting), to be held as soon as practicable after the date on which the Form S-4 becomes effective, for the purpose of voting upon the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. Except as permitted by Section 5.4(b) below, the Board of Directors of Company shall recommend approval and adoption of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby (the Company Recommendation), shall include such recommendation in the Proxy Statement and shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain the approval of this Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company Shares entitled to vote thereon at the Company Shareholders Meeting (the Company Shareholder Approval). Unless permitted by Section 5.4(b) below, neither the Board of Directors of Company nor any committee thereof shall (i) withdraw, modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in any manner adverse to Parent, the approval of this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or the Company Recommendation (any of the foregoing, a Change in the Company Recommendation), or (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Alternative Transaction. For purposes of this Agreement, a Change in the Company Recommendation shall include any approval or recommendation (or public proposal to approve or recommend) by the Board of Directors of Company or any committee thereof of an Alternative Transaction, or any failure by the Board of Directors of Company to recommend against an Alternative Transaction within the ten (10) Business Day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act. In the event that Parent determines that additional time may be required in order to seek the vote of Company shareholders required to obtain the Company Shareholder Approval, Company will delay, postpone or adjourn the Company Shareholders Meeting as requested by Parent.

(b) Prior to obtaining the Company Shareholder Approval, if the Board of Directors of Company has not breached the provisions of Section 5.5, the Board of Directors of Company may effect a Change in the Company Recommendation, if and only to the extent that the Board of Directors of Company determines in good faith (after consulting with outside legal counsel) that failure to effect such Change in the Company Recommendation would violate the fiduciary duties of Company Board of Directors under Delaware corporation law; provided, that, prior to taking any such action, Company has given Parent (orally and in writing) notice at least ten (10) Business Days prior to such change, which notice advises Parent of the decision of the Board of Directors of Company to take such action, including the reasons therefor.

(c) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent the Board of Directors of Company from complying with Rules 14d-9 or 14e-2 under the Exchange Act with regard to an Alternative Transaction; provided, however, that any such disclosure that relates to a Alternative Transaction (other than a stop, look and listen letter or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act) shall be deemed to be a Change in Company Recommendation (and, for the avoidance of doubt, any such Change in Company Recommendation shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5.4(b)) unless the Board of Directors of Company reaffirms the Company Recommendation in such disclosure.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, (i) this Agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of Company for the purpose of voting on the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Company of such obligation, and (ii) Company shall not submit to the vote of its shareholders any Alternative Proposal, shall not enter into any contract or agreement providing for any Alternative Transaction and shall not permit the consummation of any Alternative Transaction.

Section 5.5 No Solicitation.

(a) None of Company, or any of its Subsidiaries, or any officer, director, employee, agent or representative (including any financial advisor, attorney or other representative) of Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate, encourage, facilitate (including by way of furnishing information) or take any other action designed to facilitate any inquiries or proposals regarding any merger, share exchange, consolidation, sale of assets, sale of shares of capital stock (including by way of a tender offer) or similar transactions involving Company or any of its Subsidiaries that, if consummated, would constitute an Alternative Transaction (any of the foregoing inquiries or proposals being referred to herein as an Alternative Proposal), (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding an Alternative Transaction or (iii) enter into any agreement regarding any Alternative Transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors of Company shall be permitted, prior to the meeting of Company shareholders to be held pursuant to Section 5.4, and following at least 24 hours prior notice to Parent, and subject to compliance with the other terms of this Section 5.5 and to first entering into a confidentiality agreement with the Person proposing such Alternative Proposal on terms substantially similar to, and no less favorable to Company than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement, to consider and participate in discussions and negotiations with respect to a bona fide Alternative Proposal received by Company, if and only to the extent that and so long as the Board of Directors of Company reasonably determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that failure to do so would cause it to violate its fiduciary duties.

(b) As used in this Agreement, Alternative Transaction means any of (i) a transaction pursuant to which any Person (or group of Persons) (other than Parent or its Affiliates), directly or indirectly, acquires or would acquire more than 25% of the outstanding shares of Company common stock, Series A Cumulative Preferred Stock or outstanding voting power or of any new series or new class of preferred stock that would be entitled to a class or series vote with respect to the Merger, whether from Company or pursuant to a tender offer or exchange offer or otherwise, (ii) a merger, share exchange, consolidation or other business combination involving Company (other than the Merger), (iii) any transaction pursuant to which any Person (or group of Persons) (other than Parent or its Affiliates) acquires or would acquire control of assets (including for this purpose the outstanding equity securities of Subsidiaries of Company and securities of the entity surviving any merger or business combination including any of Company's Subsidiaries) of Company representing more than 25% of the fair market value of all the assets, net revenues or net income of Company, taken as a whole, immediately prior to such transaction, or (iv) any other consolidation, business combination, recapitalization or similar transaction involving Company, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, as a result of which the holders of shares of Company immediately prior to such transactions do not, in the aggregate, own at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock and the outstanding voting power of the surviving or resulting entity in such transaction immediately after the consummation thereof in substantially the same proportion as such holders held the shares of Company common stock immediately prior to the consummation thereof.

(c) Company shall notify Parent promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after receipt of any Alternative Proposal, or any material modification of or material amendment to any Alternative Proposal, or any request for nonpublic information relating to Company or any of its Subsidiaries or for access to the properties, books or records of Company or any of its Subsidiaries by any Person or entity that informs Company that it is considering making, or has made, an Alternative Proposal. Such notice to Parent shall be made orally and in writing, and shall indicate the identity of the Person making the Alternative Proposal or intending to make or considering making an Alternative Proposal or requesting nonpublic information or access to the books and records of Company or any of its Subsidiaries, and the material terms of any such Alternative Proposal or modification or amendment to an Alternative Proposal. Company shall keep Parent fully informed, on a current basis, of any material changes in the status and any material changes or modifications in the terms of any such Alternative Proposal, indication or request. Company shall also promptly, and in any event within 24 hours, notify Parent, orally and in writing, if it enters into discussions or negotiations concerning any Alternative Proposal in accordance with this Section 5.5.

(d) Company shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing discussions or negotiations with any Persons (other than Parent) conducted heretofore with respect to any of the foregoing. Company agrees not to release any third party from the confidentiality and standstill provisions of any agreement to which Company is or may become a party, and shall immediately take all steps necessary to terminate any approval that may have been heretofore given under any such provisions authorizing any Person to make an Alternative Proposal.

(e) Company shall ensure that the officers, directors and all employees, agents and representatives (including any financial advisors, attorneys or other representatives) of Company and its Subsidiaries are aware of the restrictions described in this Section 5.5 as reasonably necessary to avoid violations thereof. It is understood that any violation of the restrictions set forth in this Section 5.5 by any officer, director, employee, agent or representative (including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other retained representative) of Company or any of its Subsidiaries, at the direction or with the consent of Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or otherwise as a result of the failure of Company or any of its Subsidiaries to meet their respective obligations hereunder, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Section 5.5 by Company.

Section 5.6 Notice of Deadlines. Disclosure Schedule 5.6 lists the deadlines for extensions or terminations of any material leases, agreements or licenses (including specifically real property leases and data processing agreements) to which Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party.

Section 5.7 Affiliates. No later than thirty days following the execution of this Agreement, Company shall deliver to Parent a letter identifying all Persons who are, at the time this Agreement is submitted for approval to the shareholders of Company, affiliates of Company for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. In addition, Company shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to cause each Person who is identified as an affiliate in the letter referred to above to deliver to Parent not later than thirty days prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, a written agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit 5.7 providing that such Person will not sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of Company Shares held by such Person, except as contemplated by such agreement or this Agreement, and will not sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of the Parent Shares to be received by such Person upon consummation of the Merger except in compliance with applicable provisions of the Securities Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder. Parent shall not be required to maintain the effectiveness of any registration statement under the Securities Act for the purposes of resale of Parent Shares by such Persons.

Section 5.8 Maintenance of Properties. Company will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, maintain its properties and assets in satisfactory condition and repair for the purposes for which they are intended, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

Section 5.9 Consents to Assign and Use Leased Premises; Extensions.

(a) With respect to the leases disclosed in Disclosure Schedule 3.15(b), Company will obtain all Consents necessary to transfer and assign all right, title and interest of Company to Merger Sub and to permit the use and operation of the leased premises by Merger Sub on such terms as are reasonably acceptable to Parent.

(b) At the election of Parent, with respect to each lease disclosed in Disclosure Schedule 3.15(b) that expires on or prior to December 31, 2006, Company shall take, or shall cause to be taken, all steps reasonably requested by Parent to negotiate extensions of such leases on such terms as are reasonably acceptable to Parent.

Section 5.10 Conforming Accounting and Reserve Policies. At the request of Parent, Company shall immediately prior to Closing establish and take such reserves and accruals as Parent reasonably shall request to conform Company's accounting policies to the policies of Parent, provided however, such requested conforming adjustment shall not be taken into account as having a Material Adverse Effect on Company and further provided that no adjustment will be made that does not conform to generally accepted accounting principles. No adjustment shall violate any law, rule or regulation applicable to Company.

Section 5.11 Publicity. Except as otherwise required by law or the rules of the NYSE or the NASDAQ, so long as this Agreement is in effect, neither Parent nor Company shall, or shall permit any of their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates to, issue or cause the publication of any press release or other public announcement with respect to, or otherwise make any public statement concerning, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. In the event such press release, public statement or public announcement is required by law, the announcing party will give the other party advance notice of such and provide a copy of the proposed release, statement or announcement to the other party.

Section 5.12 Warrant Cancellation and Reserve of Exercise Proceeds. Contemporaneously with the mailing of the Proxy Statement, Company agrees to send the appropriate notice under the Company Warrant agreements so that any Company Warrants not exercised prior to the Effective Time shall be cancelled. Company shall set aside and reserve all monies to be deposited pursuant to Section 2.4(a)(ii) until deposited with the Exchange Agent.

Section 5.13 Option Cancellation and Reserve of Exercise Proceeds. Contemporaneously with the mailing of the Proxy Statement, Company agrees to send the appropriate notice under the Company Option agreements (or plans) so that any Company Options not exercised prior to the Effective Time shall be cancelled. Company shall set aside and reserve all monies to be deposited pursuant to Section 2.4(a)(ii) until deposited with the Exchange Agent.

Section 5.14 Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) For a period of six years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation (or any successor to the Surviving Corporation) shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present and former officers and directors of the Company and its Subsidiaries, and persons who become any of the foregoing prior to the Effective Time, against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, fees and expenses (including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel and judgments, fines, losses, claims, liabilities and amounts paid in settlement (provided that any such settlement is effected with the written consent of Parent or the Surviving Corporation, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld)) arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time to the full extent permissible under applicable provisions of the DGCL and the terms of the Company's articles of organization or by-laws; provided, however, that in the event any claim or claims are asserted or made within such six-year period, all rights to indemnification in respect of any such claim or claims shall continue until disposition of any and all such claims.

- (c) by either Parent or Company, if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before December 31, 2006, unless the failure of the Closing to occur by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in this Agreement;

(d) by either Parent or Company (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein), if there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement by the non-terminating party, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of the conditions set forth in Article 8 or Article 9, as the case may be, and which is not cured within 45 days following written notice to the party committing such breach or by its nature or timing cannot be cured within such time period;

(e) by Parent, if the Board of Directors of Company shall have (i) failed to include the Company Recommendation in the Form S-4, (ii) breached its obligations under Section 5.4, or (iii) in a manner adverse to Parent, (x) withdrawn, modified or qualified, or proposed to withdraw, modify or qualify, the Company Recommendation, (y) taken any public action or made any public statement in connection with the Company Shareholders Meeting inconsistent with such recommendation or (z) recommended any Alternative Proposal (or, in the case of this clause (iii), resolved to take any such action), whether or not permitted by the terms hereof;

(f) by Company as permitted by Section 2.1(c); or

(g) by either Parent or Company if the Company Shareholder Approval has not been obtained by reason of failure to obtain the required vote at the Company Shareholders Meeting.

The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to clause (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) or (g) of this Section 10.1 shall give written notice of such termination to the other party in accordance with Section 11.4, specifying the provision or provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is effected.

Section 10.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination and abandonment of this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1 of this Agreement, the Agreement shall terminate and have no effect, except that (i) the provisions of this Section 10.2, Section 10.5, Section 10.6 and Article 11 of this Agreement shall survive any such termination and abandonment, and (ii) neither Company nor Parent shall be released from liability for damages arising out of its intentional breach of any provision of this Agreement.

The representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered by Parent or Merger Sub, or Company shall not survive the Effective Time of Merger, except that any representation, warranty or agreement in any agreement, contract, report, opinion, undertaking or other document or instrument delivered hereunder in whole or in part by any Person other than Parent, Merger Sub, Company (or directors and officers thereof in their capacities as such) shall survive the Effective Time of Merger; provided that no representation or warranty of Parent, Merger Sub or Company contained herein shall be deemed to be terminated or extinguished so as to deprive Parent or Merger Sub, on the one hand, and Company, on the other hand, of any defense at law or in equity which any of them otherwise would have to any claim against them by any Person, including, without limitation, any shareholder or former shareholder of either party. No representation or warranty in this Agreement shall be affected or deemed waived by reason of the fact that Parent, Merger Sub or Company and/or its representatives knew or should have known that any such representation or warranty was, is, might be or might have been inaccurate in any respect.

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Parent, Merger Sub and Company are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (as amended from time to time, the Merger Agreement), which provides, among other things, that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions therein, Merger Sub shall merge with and into Company, whereupon the separate existence of Merger Sub shall cease, and Company shall be the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the Merger); and

WHEREAS, as a condition to the willingness of Parent and Merger Sub to enter into the Merger Agreement, and as inducement and in consideration therefore, each Shareholder has agreed to enter into this Agreement.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Nature of Agreement. This Agreement is intended to qualify as a voting agreement entered into and in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of Section 218(c) of the Delaware Corporation Law, as amended.

2. Representations and Warranties of the Shareholders.

Each Shareholder represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub, severally as to himself and with respect to his Shares, as follows:

(a) Such Shareholder's Shares constitute all of the shares of Common Stock beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by such Shareholder or for his benefit. (b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Shareholder does not, and the performance by such Shareholder of its obligations hereunder will not, constitute a violation of, conflict with, result in a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would result in a default) under, or result in the creation of any Lien on any of such Shareholder's Shares under (i) any contract, commitment, agreement, understanding, arrangement or restriction of any kind to which such Shareholder is a party or by which such Shareholder is bound or (ii) any judgment, writ, decree, order or ruling applicable to such Shareholder.

(c) Such Shareholder has full power to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by such Shareholder and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of such Shareholder, enforceable against such Shareholder in accordance with its terms.

(d) Such Shareholder has the unqualified right and authority (i) to vote (or cause to be voted) the Shares that are beneficially owned by him for the matters addressed in Section 6(a) below and (ii) to grant the proxy to vote on such matters pursuant to Section 6(b) below.

(e) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the performance by such Shareholder of its obligations hereunder will (i) violate any order, writ, injunction or judgment applicable to such Shareholder or (ii) violate any law, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to such Shareholder or require any consent, authorization or approval of, filing with or notice to, any court, administrative agency or other governmental body or authority.

3. Transfer of the Shares.

During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise provided herein, no Shareholder shall (a) offer to sell, sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of or transfer any interest in or encumber with any Lien any of such Shareholder's Shares, (b) deposit such Shareholder's Shares into a voting trust, enter into a voting agreement or arrangement with respect to such Shares or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect to such Shares, or (c) enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or undertaking with respect to the direct or indirect acquisition or sale, assignment or other disposition of or transfer of any interest in or the voting of any shares of Common Stock or any other securities of Company.

4. No Solicitation.

Each Shareholder agrees that he or she shall not, and he shall use all reasonable efforts to cause his respective agents and representatives not to, take any action that Company would be prohibited from taking pursuant to Section 5.5 of the Merger Agreement.

5. Waiver of Dissenters Rights.

Each Shareholder hereby irrevocably waives any dissenters rights with respect to the Merger that such Shareholder may have.

6. Voting of Shares; Irrevocable Proxy.

(a) During the term of this Agreement, each Shareholder, in his capacity as such, hereby agrees at any annual, special or adjourned meeting of the shareholders of Company, however called, or in connection with any written consent of the shareholders of Company, such Shareholder shall vote (or cause to be voted) each of his Shares (1) in favor of the Merger, the execution and delivery by Company of the Merger Agreement and the approval and adoption of the terms thereof; and (2) except as otherwise agreed to in writing in advance by Parent, against the following actions (other than the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement): (i) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would result in a breach in any respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Company contained in the Merger Agreement or of any Shareholder contained in this Agreement, (ii) any extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving Company or its subsidiaries; (iii) a sale, lease

(b) Each Shareholder hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints Parent and any designee of Parent, and each of them as his sole and exclusive and true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact, with full power of substitution, to vote or act by written consent with respect to the Shares beneficially held by him as indicated in Section 6(a) above, to the same extent and with the same effect as the Shareholder might or could do under any applicable laws or regulations governing the rights and powers of shareholders of a Delaware corporation. This proxy shall become effective as of the date hereof and shall expire upon termination of this Agreement. This proxy is coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable and binding upon any and all transferees of the Common Stock so long as it remains in effect pursuant to the terms hereof. This proxy/power of attorney shall survive the dissolution, bankruptcy, death or incapacity of each Shareholder. Each Shareholder will take such further action as may be necessary to effect the foregoing and hereby revokes any proxy previously granted by such Shareholder with respect to such Shareholder's Common Stock. The proxy given herein is limited to the matters addressed in Section 6(a) above, and nothing herein shall be deemed to constitute a proxy to vote on any matter that is not addressed in Section 6(a).

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, nothing contained in this Agreement shall limit the rights and obligations of the Shareholder in his capacity as a director or officer of the Company from taking any action consistent with his fiduciary duties as a director or officer of the Company, and no action taken by the Shareholder in any such capacity shall be deemed to constitute a breach of any provision of this Agreement.

7. Enforcement of the Agreement.

Each Shareholder acknowledges that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that Parent and Merger Sub will be entitled (i) to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and (ii) to specifically enforce the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which it is entitled at law or in equity.

9. Termination.

This Agreement will terminate upon the earliest to occur of (a) the mutual consent of Parent and Company, (b) the effective time of the Merger, or (c) the date on which the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms. Upon termination of this Agreement, all obligations of the parties hereto shall terminate except to the extent that any such party has committed a material breach of this Agreement prior to such termination.

No such waiver, amendment or supplement shall be effective unless in writing signed by the party or parties sought to be bound thereby. Any waiver by any party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate as or be construed to be a waiver of any other breach of such provision or of any breach of any other provision of this Agreement. The failure of a party to insist upon strict adherence to any term of this Agreement or one or more sections hereof shall not be considered a waiver or deprive that party of the right thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to that term or any other term of this Agreement.

(c) This Agreement contains the entire agreement among Parent, Merger Sub and the Shareholders with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements among Parent, Merger Sub and the Shareholders with respect to such matters. We understand that Capital Title Group, Inc. ("Capital Title" or the "Company") intends to enter into an agreement and plan of merger with LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc. ("LFG" or "LandAmerica") whereby Capital Title shall be merged with and into a newly formed merger subsidiary of LFG (the "Merger"). In connection with the Merger, and subject to the Consideration Mix (defined herein) and the election procedures (as to which procedures we are expressing no opinion) set forth in the Merger Agreement (defined herein), each share of the Company's common stock issued and outstanding shall be canceled in exchange for the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof:

(i) a fraction (or the "Exchange Ratio"), rounded to the nearest one thousandth, of LFG's common stock equal to A divided by B where A shall equal $8.00 and where B shall equal the average closing price of LFG's common stock for the 15 days prior to the date of the Merger Agreement (the "Average Price"); however the Exchange Ratio is subject to certain adjustments in the event that the Average Price is greater than $8.25 or less than $7.75 at the effective time of the Merger (the "Per Share Stock Consideration"); or

(ii) cash in the amount of $8.00 (the "Per Share Cash Consideration").

The Per Share Stock Consideration and the Per Share Cash Consideration are collectively referred to herein as the Merger Consideration. We further understand that the Merger Agreement sets forth that the aggregate Merger Consideration shall be composed of 20% LFG common shares and 80% cash (the "Consideration Mix"); subject to certain adjustments based upon the Average Price. The Merger and LFG's payment of the Merger Consideration are referred to herein as the "Transaction" .

You have requested that Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin Financial Advisors, Inc. ("Houlihan Lokey") provide an opinion (the "Opinion") to the Board of Directors of Capital Title (the "Board") of Capital Title as to whether, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by the Company's common shareholders in connection with the Transaction is fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view.

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all data, material and other information (including, without limitation, the financial forecasts and projections) furnished, or otherwise made available, to us, discussed with or reviewed by us, or publicly available, and do not assume any responsibility with respect to such data, material and other information. In addition, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the financial forecasts and projections have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial results and condition of the Company and we express no opinion with respect to such forecasts and projections, including the Synergies, or the assumptions on which they are based. We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that there has been no material change in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of the Company or LandAmerica since the date of the most recent financial statements provided to us, and that there is no information or facts that would make the information reviewed by us incomplete or misleading. We have also assumed that neither the Company nor LandAmerica is party to any material pending transaction, including, without limitation, any external financing, recapitalization, acquisition or merger, divestiture or spin-off (other than the Transaction).

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (a) the representations and warranties of all parties to the Merger Agreement identified in item 5 above and all other related documents and instruments that are referred to therein are true and correct, (b) each party to all such agreements will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party, (c) all conditions to the consummation of the Transaction will be satisfied without waiver thereof, and (d) the Transaction will be consummated in a timely manner in accordance with the terms set forth in the agreements provided to us, without any adjustment to the aggregate Merger Consideration (through offset, reduction, indemnity claims, post-closing purchase price adjustments or otherwise). We have also relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that all governmental, regulatory, and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained and that no delay, limitations, restrictions or conditions will be imposed that would result in the disposition of any material portion of the assets of the Company or LandAmerica, or otherwise have an adverse effect on the Company or LandAmerica or the expected benefits of the Transaction. In addition, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final forms of the draft agreements identified above will not differ in any material respect from such draft agreements to the extent that any such difference would affect the financial benefits to the common stockholders of the Company from the Transaction.

Furthermore, we have not been requested to make, and have not made, any physical inspection or independent appraisal or evaluation of any of the assets, properties or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or any other party, nor were we provided with any such appraisal or evaluation. Furthermore, we have undertaken no independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities, to which the Company or LandAmerica is a party or may be subject, or of any governmental investigation of any possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which the Company or LandAmerica is a party or may be subject. With your consent, this Opinion makes no assumption concerning, and therefore does not consider, the potential effects of any such litigation, claims or investigations or possible assertions of claims, outcomes or damages arising out of any such matters.

We have not been requested to, and did not, (a) initiate any discussions with, or solicit any indications of interest from, third parties with respect to the Transaction or any alternatives to the Transaction, (b) negotiate the terms of the Transaction, or (c) advise any committee of the Board, the Board of Directors or any other party with respect to alternatives to the Transaction. This Opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Except as set forth in our engagement letter, we have not undertaken, and are under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this Opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring after the date hereof. We have not considered, nor are we expressing any opinion herein with respect to, the prices at which the common stock of LandAmerica has traded or may trade subsequent to the disclosure or consummation of the Transaction. We have assumed that the common stock to be issued in the Transaction to the shareholders of the Company will be listed on the NYSE.

This Opinion is furnished for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of Capital Title in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and is not intended to, and does not, confer any rights or remedies upon any other person, and is not intended to be used, and may not be used, for any other purpose, without our express, prior written consent. This Opinion is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to any security holder as to how such security holder should vote with respect to tender of their shares in connection with the Transaction. This Opinion may not be disclosed, reproduced, disseminated, quoted, summarized or referred to at any time, in any manner or for any purpose, nor shall any references to Houlihan Lokey or any of its affiliates be made by any recipient of this Opinion, without the prior written consent of Houlihan Lokey. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Opinion may be disclosed and reproduced, and references to Houlihan Lokey may be made, in proxy materials to be delivered to the stockholders of the Company in connection with their approval of the Merger, to the extent required in order to comply with applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In the ordinary course of business, certain of our affiliates may acquire, hold or sell, long or short positions, or trade or otherwise effect transactions, in debt, equity, and other securities and financial instruments (including bank loans and other obligations) of the Company, LandAmerica and any other party that may be involved in the Transaction.

We have not been requested to opine as to, and this Opinion does not address: (i) the underlying business decision of the Board, the Company, their respective security holders or any other party to proceed with or effect the Transaction, (ii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Transaction not expressly addressed in this Opinion, (iii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Transaction to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or any other party other than those set forth in this Opinion, (iv) the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company or any other party or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company or any other party might engage, (v) the tax or legal consequences of the Transaction to either the Company, their respective security holders, or any other party, (vi) whether any security holder should vote in favor of the Transaction, (vii) the mix of Merger Consideration that any of the Company's shareholders elect to receive in connection with the Transaction, or (viii) how LandAmerica shares trade once the Transaction is effectuated. Furthermore, no opinion, counsel or interpretation is intended in matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice. It is assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations have been or will be obtained from the appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, we have relied, with your consent, on advice of the outside counsel and the independent accountants to the Company, the Board, and on the assumptions of the management of the Company as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters with respect to the Company, LandAmerica and the Transaction.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and in reliance thereon, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by the common shareholders of the Company in the Transaction is fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view.

Annex D

DELAWARE CODE ANNOTATED

8 DEL. C. SEC. 262

§ 262. Appraisal rights.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

Table of Contents

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Article 10 of Chapter 9 of Title 13.1 of the Code of Virginia permits a Virginia corporation to indemnify any director or officer for reasonable expenses incurred in any legal proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding, if the director or officer furnishes the corporation a written statement of his good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct prescribed by the Virginia Code, and furnishes the corporation with a written undertaking to repay any funds advanced if it is ultimately determined that the director has not met the relevant standard of conduct. In addition, a corporation is permitted to indemnify a director or officer against liability incurred in a proceeding if a determination has been made by the disinterested members of the board of directors, special legal counsel or stockholders that the director or officer conducted himself or herself in good faith and otherwise met the required standard of conduct. In a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any matter as to which a director or officer is adjudged to be liable to the corporation, except for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director or officer has met the relevant standard of conduct. In any other proceeding, no indemnification shall be made if the director or officer is adjudged liable to the corporation on the basis that he improperly received a personal benefit. Corporations are given the power to make any other or further indemnity, including advance of expenses, to any director or officer that may be authorized by the articles of incorporation or any bylaw made by the shareholders, or any resolution adopted, before or after the event, by the shareholders, except an indemnity against willful misconduct or a knowing violation of the criminal law. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, indemnification against the reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer is mandatory when he or she entirely prevails in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is a party because he or she is or was a director or officer.

As permitted by the Virginia Stock Corporation Act, our Articles of Incorporation contains provisions that indemnify our directors and officers to the full extent permitted by Virginia law and seek to eliminate the personal liability of directors and officers for monetary damages to us or our shareholders for breach of their fiduciary duties, except to the extent such indemnification or elimination of liability is prohibited by the Virginia Stock Corporation Act. These provisions do not limit or eliminate the rights of us or any shareholder to seek an injunction or any other non-monetary relief in the event of a breach of a director's or officer's fiduciary duty. In addition, our Articles of Incorporation provide for the indemnification of both directors and officers for expenses incurred by them in connection with the defense or settlement of claims asserted against them in their capacities as directors and officers.

The purpose of these provisions is to assist us in retaining qualified individuals to serve as directors by limiting their exposure to personal liability for serving as such. We have limited our exposure to liability for indemnification of directors and officers by purchasing directors and officers liability insurance coverage.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of us, or of an affiliate of us pursuant to our Articles of Incorporation or otherwise, the Board of Directors has been advised that, in the opinion of the Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.
- (c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
