Item 2.04. Triggering Events that Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement

On January 5, 2007, TWL Corporation (“TWL”) determined that it could not pay certain obligations as and when they shall become due and payable. TWL’s inability to meet its obligations as they become due represents an event of default under, and accelerates its payment obligations in connection with, the 15% senior secured convertible debenture (the “Debenture”) causing it to become due and payable immediately, together with interest and other amounts owing in respect thereof. Specifically, TWL’s determination with respect to the Debenture is as follows:

Accrued interest of $337,500, due January 1, 2007 on the Debenture in the principal amount of $4,500,000, and as of January 10, 2007 a late fee at the rate of 18% on the accrued interest in the amount of $3,750.

TWL is currently negotiating to extend the terms of this debt instrument; however, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to extend such term with the investor.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Index of Exhibits.

None.
