GOL and Copa Airlines announce Code-share

Passengers will have more flight and connection options between Brazil, Panama and the Americas

São Paulo, August 17, 2005 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), Brazil's low-fare, low-cost airline, today announced a code-share agreement with Copa Airlines. The Company expects operations to begin on August 24th; with sales scheduled to begin on August 19th. The partnership aims at offering more flights and connection options between Brazil and Panama, including several points across the Americas, through the Hub of the Americas, a direct flight distribution center located at Tocumen International Airport (Panama), which serves 30 destinations in 20 countries.

The first phase of the agreement will connect GOL flights from Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo with Copa Airlines flights, from São Paulo (Brazil) to Hub of the Americas (Panama). Additional phases will increase the number of cities in Brazil served by the code-share.

This agreement allows GOL to begin offering flights from Brazil to Panama, including connections with Copa flights to several destinations from the Panamanian city. A passenger traveling to Brazil on one of Copa's flights will have the option to connect from Guarulhos airport (São Paulo) and Galeão (Rio de Janeiro) to all the cities served by GOL. The agreement promises to strengthen commercial and tourist relations between the two countries, says Wilson Maciel, GOL's Planning and IT Vice-President.

We are very pleased to partner with GOL and believe our passengers will benefit from these connection options in Brazil. GOL is an excellent partner, with a leadership position in Brazil and an innovative service, says Dan Gunn, Vice-President of Planning of Copa Airlines in Panama.
