Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Report of independent registered

public accounting firm

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated statement of financial position of Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras and its subsidiaries as of September 30, 2013, the related condensed consolidated statement of income, of cash flows and of comprehensive income for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2013 and September 30, 2012 and the condensed statement of changes in shareholders' equity for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2013. This interim financial information is the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying condensed consolidated interim financial information for it to be in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

We have previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2012, and the related consolidated statements of income, of comprehensive income, of cash flows (not presented herein) and of shareholders' equity for the year then ended, and in our report dated February 4, 2013, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2012, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated balance sheet from which it has been derived.

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)

1. The Company and its operations

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras is dedicated, directly or through its subsidiaries (referred to jointly as “Petrobras” or “the Company”) to prospecting, drilling, refining, processing, trading and transporting crude oil from producing onshore and offshore oil fields and from shale or other rocks, as well as oil products, natural gas and other liquid hydrocarbons. In addition, Petrobras carries out energy related activities, such as research, development, production, transport, distribution and trading of all forms of energy, as well as any other correlated or similar activities. The Company’s head office is located in Rio de Janeiro – RJ, Brazil.

2. Basis of preparation of interim financial information

The consolidated interim financial information has been prepared and is being presented in accordance with IAS 34 – Interim Financial Reporting as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). The information is presented in U.S. dollars.

This interim financial information presents the significant changes which occurred in the period, avoiding repetition of certain notes to the financial statements previously reported. Hence it should be read together with the Company’s annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012, which include the full set of notes.

Petrobras has selected the U.S. Dollar as its presentation currency. The financial statements have been translated from the functional currency (Brazilian Real) into the presentation currency (U.S. Dollar) in accordance with IAS 21 - The effects of changes in foreign exchange rates. All assets and liabilities are translated into U.S. dollars at the closing rate at the date of the financial statements; income and expenses, as well as the cash flows are translated into U.S. dollars using the average exchange rates prevailing during the year. All exchange differences arising from the translation of the consolidated financial statements from the functional currency into the presentation currency are recognized as cumulative translation adjustments (CTA) within accumulated other comprehensive income in the consolidated statements of changes in shareholders’ equity.

The cumulative translation adjustments were set to nil at January 1, 2009 (the date of transition to IFRS).

The consolidated interim financial information was approved and authorized for issue by the Company’s Board of Directors in a meeting held on October 25, 2013.

2.1. Accounting estimates

The preparation of the interim financial information requires the use of estimates and assumptions for certain assets, liabilities and other transactions. These estimates include: oil and gas reserves, pension and medical benefits liabilities, depreciation, depletion and amortization, decommissioning costs, provisions for legal proceedings, fair value of financial instruments, present value adjustments of trade receivables and payables from relevant transactions and income taxes. Notwithstanding Management uses assumptions and judgments that are reviewed periodically, the actual results could differ from these estimates.

2.2. New and amended standards adopted by the Company

New and amended standards issued by the IASB were effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2013 and were adopted by the Company as set out in note 4.17 (New standards and interpretations) of our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)

The amended version of IAS 19 – Employee benefits eliminated the option to defer actuarial gains and losses (corridor approach) and requires net interest to be calculated by applying the discount rate used for measuring the obligation to the net benefit asset or liability.

The impact of the adoption of the amended standard on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012 is an increase in net actuarial liability of US$10,325 (US$6,118 at January 1, 2012), an increase in deferred tax assets of US$3,009 (US$1,637 at January 1, 2012) and a decrease of US$7,316 in the shareholders' equity (US$4,481 at January 1, 2012), as set out below:

(*) As presented for the period ended December 31, 2012.

The adoption of the remaining new and amended standards had no material impact on the financial statements of the Company.

3. Basis of consolidation

The consolidated interim financial information includes the quarterly information of Petrobras, its subsidiaries and special purpose entities.

There were no significant changes in the consolidated entities in the nine-month period ended September 30, 2013.

The main acquisitions, disposal of assets and legal mergers are presented in note 9.

4. Summary of significant accounting policies

The same accounting policies and methods of computation were followed in this consolidated interim financial statements as those followed in the preparation of the annual financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2012, except for the adoption of new standards and revisions, as described in note 2.2.

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)

9. Acquisitions, disposal of assets and legal mergers

9.1. Acquisition of assets

Araucária Nitrogenados S.A.

On June 1, 2013, Petrobras started to control Araucária Nitrogenados S.A. (FAFEN-PR), under an agreement to acquire all shares of the company executed with Vale S.A. on December 18, 2012. The transaction was approved by the Brazilian Antitrust Regulator (CADE) on May 15, 2013.

The transaction price consideration was US$ 234 which will be settled through Petrobras' leasing income from mineral rights for properties operated by Vale in Sergipe. The assessment of the fair value of assets and liabilities is ongoing and will be completed within 12 months from the date control of the company was granted.

Termoaçu

On May 14, 2013, Petrobras entered into a contractual arrangement with Neoenergia to acquire its 23.13% interest in the share capital of Termoaçu.

Petrobras increased its interest in Termoaçu to 100% as from the completion of the transaction, which was subject to the approval of Agência Nacional de Energia Elétrica – ANEEL, obtained on June 14, 2013 and consent of Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica – CADE, obtained on August 14, 2013. The total consideration received, after price adjustments, was US$74.

The fair value measurements of the acquired identifiable assets and liabilities will be concluded within 12 months.

9.2. Disposal of assets

Brasil PCH

On June 14, 2013, Petrobras entered into an agreement with Cemig Geração e Transmissão S.A. for the disposal of its entire equity interest in Brasil PCH S.A., equivalent to 49% of the voting stock, for a total consideration of US$304.

The completion of the transaction is subject to the approval of Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica - CADE and consent of Agência Nacional de Energia Elétrica – ANEEL.

Due to the approval of the transaction by the Board of Directors of the Company, on September 30, 2013 the carrying amount of Petrobras' interest in Brasil PCH was classified as an asset held for sale under current assets.

Formation of joint venture to operate in Exploration and Production (E&P) in Africa

On June 14, 2013, the Board of Directors of Petrobras approved the agreement between Petrobras International Braspetro B.V. (PIBBV), a subsidiary of Petrobras, and BTG Pactual E&P B.V, a subsidiary of Banco BTG Pactual S.A., to form a joint venture to operate in the exploration and production of oil and gas in Africa, comprised of assets in Angola, Benin, Gabon, Namibia, Nigeria and Tanzania.

BTG Pactual E&P B.V. acquired 50% of the joint-venture shares of Petrobras Oil & Gas B.V. (PO&G), previously held by PIBBV, for the total amount of US$ 1,548. The transaction was concluded on June 28, 2013 and the Company recognized earnings of US$921, as set out below:

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)

Gain on disposal of assets	751
Fair value measurement of remaining assets	751
Impairment of investments in Angola and Tanzania	(581)
	921
Effects on Profit or Loss:
Other operating income (expenses), net	751

As the transaction is subject to approval by the governments of Angola and Tanzania, relatively to the assets located in those countries, at September 30, 2013 the carrying amount of the disposed investments was classified as held for sale, under current assets.

The partnership's investment in PO&G was classified as a joint venture, therefore unconsolidated, reflecting the corporate structure and the terms of the shareholders' agreement, signed on June 28, 2013.

Companhia Energética Potiguar

On August 16, 2013, Petrobras entered into an agreement with Global Participações Energia S.A. to dispose of its 20% interest in the voting capital of Companhia Energética Potiguar at a consideration of US$ 16, subject to contractual adjustments.

The approval by Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica – CADE was obtained on September 25, 2013 and the transaction is expected to be concluded by October 31, 2013.

Due to the conditions for approval, on September 30, 2013 the carrying amount of Petrobras' interest was classified as held for sale under current assets.

Coulomb field – USA

On August 16, 2013, the Board of Directors of Petrobras approved the disposal by Petrobras America Inc., a subsidiary of Petrobras International Braspetro B.V. (PIBBV), of its 33% interest in the Coulomb field, located at the Mississippi Canyon block 613 (MC 613) at a consideration of US$ 184. Shell Offshore Inc., operator and holder of a 67% interest in the field, exercised its purchase preference.

After the price adjustment established in the farm-out agreement and the costs associated with the asset, a gain of US$ 121, net, was recognized when the transaction was concluded, on September 27, 2013.

Petroquímica Innova S.A.

On August 16, 2013, the Board of Directors of Petrobras approved the disposal of 100% of the share capital of Petroquímica Innova S.A. (Innova) to Videolar S.A. and its controlling shareholder, at a consideration of US$ 369, subject to price adjustment before the transaction is concluded.

The transaction was approved in an Extraordinary General Meeting held on September 30, 2013 and its conclusion is subject to certain conditions, including the approval by Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica – CADE.

Due to the pending conditions set out above, on September 30, 2013 the assets and associated liabilities involved in the transaction were classified as held for sale.

BC-10 Block - Parque das Conchas

On August 16, 2013, the Board of Directors approved the disposal of the Company's interest in the BC-10 block, representing 35% of the joint-venture and 35% of Tambá BV – an equipment supplier, at a consideration of US$ 1.54 billion.

The transaction is subject to approval by Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica – CADE and Agência Nacional de Petróleo, Gás e Biocombustíveis – ANP.

Due to the pending conditions for conclusion, on September 30, 2013 the assets and associated liabilities involved in the transaction were classified as held for sale.

Petrobras Colombia Limited (PEC)

On September 13, 2013, the Board of Directors of Petrobras approved the disposal of 100% of the share capital of Petrobras Colombia Limited (PEC), a subsidiary of Petrobras International Braspetro B.V. (PIBBV), for Perenco Colombia Limited, at a consideration of US$ 380, subject to price adjustment before the closing of the transaction.

The transaction is subject to ordinary conditions, including approval by Agência Nacional de Hidrocarburos – ANH.

Due to the pending conditions for conclusion, on September 30, 2013 the assets and associated liabilities involved in the transaction were classified as held for sale.

9.3. Noncurrent assets held for sale

12.2. Concession for exploration of oil and natural gas - Onerous Assignment Agreement (“Cessão Onerosa”)

At September 30, 2013, the Company’s intangible assets include US$ 33,546 related to the Onerous Assignment agreement, entered into in 2010 by Petrobras, the Federal Government (assignor) and the Agência Nacional de Petróleo, Gás Natural e Biocombustíveis - ANP (regulator and inspector), granting the Company the right to carry out prospection and drilling activities for oil, natural gas and other liquid hydrocarbons located in blocks in the pre-salt area (Franco, Florim, Nordeste de Tupi, Entorno de Iara, Sul de Guará and Sul de Tupi), limited to the production of five billion barrels of oil equivalent in up to 40 years and renewable for a further five years upon certain conditions having been met.

The agreement establishes that at the time of the declaration of commerciality for the areas there will be a review of volumes and prices, based on independent technical appraisal reports.

If the review determines that the value of acquired rights are greater than initially paid, the Company may be required to pay the difference to the Federal Government, or may proportionally reduce the total volume of barrels acquired in the terms of the agreement. If the review determines that the value of the acquired rights are lower than initially paid by the Company, the Federal Government will reimburse the Company for the difference by delivering cash or bonds, subject to budgetary regulations.

Once the effects of the aforementioned review become probable and can be reliably measured, the Company will make the respective adjustments to the purchase prices of the rights.

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)

The agreement also establishes a compulsory exploration program for each one of the blocks and minimum commitments related to the acquisition of goods and services from Brazilian suppliers in the exploration and development stages, which will be subject to certification by the ANP. In the event of non-compliance, the ANP may apply administrative sanctions pursuant to the terms in the agreement.

Based on drilling results obtained so far, expectations regarding the production potential of the areas are being confirmed and the Company will continue to develop its investment program and activities as established in the agreement.

13. Exploration for and evaluation of oil and gas reserves

The exploration and evaluation activities include the search for oil and gas from obtaining the legal rights to explore a specific area until the declaration of the technical and commercial viability of the reserves.

Movements on capitalized costs directly associated with exploratory wells pending determination of proved reserves and the balance of amounts paid for obtaining rights and concessions for exploration of oil and natural gas (capitalized acquisition costs) are set out in the table below:

17.2. Receivables from the electricity sector

At September 30, 2013, the Company had US$ 2,078 of receivables from the Brazilian electricity sector (US$ 1,937 at December, 31, 2012), of which US$ 1,574 were classified to non-current assets following negotiations occurred in 2013.

The Company supplies fuel to thermoelectric power plants located in the northern region of Brazil, which are direct or indirect subsidiaries of Eletrobras, the Federal Government electric energy company. Part of the costs for supplying fuel to these thermoelectric power stations is borne by the Fuel Consumption Account (Conta de Consumo de Combustível - CCC), managed by Eletrobras.

Collections of amounts related to fuel supply to Independent Power Producers (Produtores Independentes de Energia - PIE), which are companies created for the purpose of generating power exclusively for Amazonas Distribuidora de Energia S.A. - AME, a direct subsidiary of Eletrobras rely directly on AME, which transfers funds to the Independent Power Producers.

In March 2013 a private instrument of debt acknowledgement was signed by AME, having Eletrobras as a guarantor. The amount of US$ 422 will be paid in 60 successive monthly installments of US$ 7, indexed to the SELIC interest rate.

The Company continuous to vigorously pursue an agreement to recover these receivables in full and partial payments have been made. The balance of these receivables at September 30, 2013 was US$ 1,896 (US$ 1,723 at December 31, 2012), of which US$ 1,236 was past due (US$ 1,451 at December 31, 2012).

The Company also has electricity supply contracts with AME signed in 2005 by its subsidiary Breitener Energética S.A., which, pursuant to the terms of the agreements, are considered a finance lease of the two thermoelectric power plants, since the contracts determine that the power plants should be returned to AME at the end of the agreement period with no residual value (20-year term), among other contractual provisions. The balance of these receivables was US$ 182 (US$ 214 at December, 31, 2012) none of which was overdue.

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

*(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)17.3. Petroleum and Alcohol accounts - Receivables from Federal Government

At September 30, 2013, the balance of receivables related to the Petroleum and Alcohol accounts was US$ 374 (US$ 409 at December 31, 2012). Pursuant to Provisional Measure 2,181 of August 24, 2001, the Federal Government may settle this balance by using National Treasury Notes in an amount equal to the outstanding balance, or allow the Company to offset the outstanding balance against amounts payable to the Federal Government, including taxes payable, or both options.

The Company has provided all the information required by the National Treasury Secretariat (Secretaria do Tesouro Nacional - STN) in order to resolve disputes between the parties and conclude the settlement with the Federal Government.

Following several negotiation attempts at the administrative level, the Company filed a lawsuit in July 2011 to collect the receivables.

17.4. Compensation of employees and officers

Petrobras' key management short-term compensation (which comprises salaries and other short-term benefits) in the nine-month period ended September 30, 2013 was US$ 4.1, referring to seven officers and ten board members (US$ 4.6 in the nine-month period ended September 30, 2012 referring to seven officers and ten board members).

In the nine-month period ended September 30, 2013 the compensation of board members and officers for the consolidated Petrobras group amounted to US$ 20.3 (US$ 20.3 in the nine-month period ended September 30, 2012).

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

*(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)28. Provisions for legal proceedings, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

The Company is a defendant in numerous legal proceedings involving tax, civil, labor, corporate and environmental issues, as a result of its normal course of business. Based on legal advice and management's best estimates, the Company reviews whether it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligations.

28.1. Provisions for legal proceedings

The Company has recognized provisions for the best estimate of the costs of proceedings for which it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required and that can be reasonably estimated. These proceedings are mainly comprised of labor claims, withholding of income taxes for securities issued outside Brazil, losses and damages resulting from the cancellation of an assignment of excise tax (IPI) credits to a third party and fishermen seeking indemnification from the Company for a January 2000 oil spill in the State of Rio de Janeiro.

The Company has provisions for legal proceedings, in the amounts set out below:

Non-current liabilities	09.30.2013	12.31.2012
Labor claims	496	336
Tax claims	457	341
Civil claims	566	514
Environmental Claims	21	63
Other claims	8	11
	1,548	1,265

	09.30.2013	12.31.2012
Opening Balance	1,265	1,088
New provisions	565	647
Payments made	(160)	(440)
Accruals and charges	61	99
Others	(46)	(26)
Cumulative translation adjustment	(137)	(103)
Closing Balance	1,548	1,265

28.2. Judicial Deposits

Judicial deposits made in connection with legal proceedings and guarantees are set out in the table below according to the nature of the corresponding lawsuits:

Non-current assets	09.30.2013	12.31.2012
Labor	829	869
Tax	1,235	1,117
Civil	545	638

28.3. Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liabilities for which the likelihood of loss is considered to be possible are not recognized in the financial statements but are disclosed unless the expected outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is considered remote.

The estimated contingent liabilities for legal proceedings for which the likelihood of loss is considered to be possible is set out in the table below.

Nature	Estimate
Tax	27,545
Civil - General	2,336
Labor	2,019
Civil - Environmental	1,251
Others	7
	33,158

A brief description of the nature of the main contingent liabilities (tax and civil) are set out in the tables below:

28.4. Joint Ventures – Frade field

In November 2011, an oil spill occurred in the Frade field located in the Campos Basin, which was operated by Chevron Brasil. Petrobras has a 30% interest in the Frade joint venture.

The Federal Public Attorney's office filed a lawsuit claiming US$ 10 billion in environmental damages against Chevron Brasil, Chevron Latin America Marketing LLC and Transocean Brasil Ltda., which operated the rig at the time of this spill.

In April 2012, a new lawsuit was filed by the Federal Public Attorney's Office against Chevron and Transocean, following new seabed leaks in the Frade field identified by underwater images. In this suit, a further US$ 10 billion is claimed as compensation for damages to the public.

The Federal Public Attorney's Office reviewed the claims and proposed a Conduct Adjustment Term (CAT) in the amount of US$ 43, which was signed by Chevron Brasil, Chevron Latin America Marketing LLC, Transocean Brasil Ltda. and the Federal Public Attorney's Office, as well as by IBAMA and ANP as intervening parties.

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)

On September 27, 2013, the CAT was approved by the federal court where the two lawsuits of US$ 10 billion were filed, and as a result, both were dismissed. The CAT will become effective once formal adjudication of the two lawsuits is complete. Due to its 30% ownership interest in the Frade consortium, Petrobras may be contractually obligated to pay 30% of the total contingencies related to the incidents that occurred in the Frade field, although the Company is not part of the lawsuits or the CAT.

28.5. Contingent assets

28.5.1. Legal proceeding in the United States - P-19 and P-31

In 2002, Braspetro Oil Service Company (Brasoil) and Petrobras obtained a favorable decision in related lawsuits filed before U.S. courts by the insurance companies United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company and American Home Assurance Company in which they were seeking to obtain (since 1997 and regarding Brasoil) a judicial order exempting them from their payment obligations under the performance bond related to platforms P- 19 and P-31, and seeking reimbursement from Petrobras for any amounts for which they could ultimately be held liable in the context of the execution proceedings of such performance bond.

On July 21, 2006, the U.S. courts issued an executive decision, conditioning the payment of the amounts owed to Brasoil to a definitive dismissal of the legal proceedings involving identical claims that are currently in course before Brazilian courts.

Brasoil, Petrobras and the insurance companies already pleaded the dismissal of the Brazilian legal proceedings but their definitive dismissal is awaiting the hearing of an appeal filed by the platforms' shipbuilding company before the Superior Court for Non-Constitutional Matters (STJ).

The Company is intensifying actions taken, in an attempt to settle this lawsuit. The amount of damages claimed is approximately US$ 245.

29. Guarantees for concession agreements for petroleum exploration

The Company has guarantees for the Minimum Exploration Programs established in the concession agreements for exploration of areas by the Agência Nacional de Petróleo, Gás Natural e Biocombustíveis ("ANP") in the total amount of US$ 3,158, of which US$ 2,817 are still in force, net of commitments that have been undertaken. The guarantees comprise crude oil from previously identified producing fields, pledged as security, for US$ 2,036 and bank guarantees in the amount of US$ 781.

30. Risk management and derivative instruments

The Company is exposed to a variety of risks arising from its operations: market risk (including price risk related to crude oil and oil products), foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and liquidity risk.

30.1. Risk management

The objective of the overall risk management policy of the Company, which considers all positions held and their respective risks in the analysis and decisions made, is to achieve an appropriate balance between growth, increased return on investments and risk exposure level, which can arise from its normal activities or from the context within which the Company operates, so that, through effective allocation of its physical, financial and human resources it may achieve its strategic goals.

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

*(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)30.2. Market risk*30.2.1. Risk management of price risk (related to crude oil and oil products)

Petrobras does not use derivative instruments to hedge exposures to commodity price cycles related to products purchased and sold to fulfill operational needs.

Derivatives are used as hedging instruments to manage the price risk of certain transactions carried out abroad, which are usually short-term transactions similar to commercial transactions.

The main risk management techniques used by the Company to manage price risk of crude oil and oil products, in the transactions carried out abroad are operating Cash Flow at Risk (CFAR), Value at Risk (VAR) and Stop Loss.

c) Embedded derivatives – sale of ethanol

On March 8, 2013 the Company entered into an agreement to amend the ethanol sale contract, modifying prices and quantities. The selling price of each future ethanol shipment will be based on the price of ethanol in the Brazilian market (ESALQ) plus a spread. The amended agreement therefore no longer has a derivative instrument measured as an embedded derivative.

30.2.2. Foreign exchange risk management

The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk from its assets and liabilities, arising from the price levels and volatility of currency markets.

Petrobras seeks to identify and manage foreign exchange risk in an integrated manner, by recognizing and creating “natural hedges”, benefiting from the correlation between income and expenses. To mitigate short-term exchange risk exposure arising from transactions involving income and expenses in different currencies, the Company uses natural hedges by choosing the currency in which to hold cash, such as the Brazilian Real, US dollar or other currency.

Foreign exchange risk is managed based on the net exposure and reviewed periodically to support the Executive Board. The Company can use derivative instruments to hedge certain liabilities, minimizing foreign exchange exposure.

a) Hedge Accountingi) Cash Flow Hedge involving the Company's future exports

Effective mid-May 2013, the Company formally documented and designated hedging relationships to account for the effects of the existing natural hedge between a portion of its obligations denominated in U.S. dollars and a portion of its future export revenues in U.S. dollars, relative to foreign currency rates risk. The foreign currency rates risk is related to the spot rates and the hedged future exports are those considered highly probable.

On September 30, 2013, there were principal amounts of long-term debt exposed to foreign currency risks related to the Brazilian Real vs. U.S. dollar spot rate designated as hedging instruments.

The Company has prepared formal documentation in order to support the designation, including an explanation of how the designation of the hedging relationship is aligned with the Company's Risk Management Policy objective and strategy, identification of the hedging instrument, the hedged transactions, the nature of the risk being hedged and an analysis which demonstrates that the hedge is expected to be highly effective. The Company reassesses the prospective and retrospective effectiveness of the hedge on an ongoing basis comparing the foreign currency component of the carrying amount of the hedging instruments and of the highly probable future exports (spot-rate method).

The hedging relationships qualify for cash flow hedge accounting, which permits gains and losses arising from the effect of changes in the foreign currency exchange rate on derivative and non-derivative hedging instruments not to be immediately recognized in profit or loss, but be reclassified from equity to profit or loss in the same periods during which the future exports occur, thus allowing for a more appropriate presentation of the results for the period reflecting the strategy in the Company's Risk Management Policy.

ii) Cash flow hedge involving swap contracts - Yen vs. Dollar

In September 2006 the Company entered into a cross currency swap to fix in U.S. dollars the payments related to bonds denominated in Japanese yen. The Company does not intend to settle these contracts before the maturity. The relationship between the derivative and the loan qualify as cash flow hedge and hedge accounting is applied.

The effective portion of changes in fair value, assessed on a quarterly basis, are recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income, in the shareholders' equity and reclassified to profit or loss in the periods when the hedged transaction item affects profit or loss.

c) Sensitivity analysis for foreign exchange risk on financial instruments

The Company has assets and liabilities subject to foreign exchange risk. The main exposure involves the Brazilian Real, relative to the U.S. dollar. Foreign exchange risk arises on financial instruments that are denominated in a currency other than the Brazilian Real. Assets and liabilities of foreign subsidiaries, denominated in a currency other than the Brazilian Real are not included in the sensitivity analysis set out below when transacted in a currency equivalent to their respective functional currencies.

The probable scenario, computed based on external data, as well as the stressed scenarios (a 25% and a 50% change in the foreign exchange rates) are set out below:

	(544)		24	(136)	(273)
	(15,960)		58	(3,955)	(7,784)

(*) The probable scenario was computed based on the following changes for September, 30, 2013: Real x Dollar – a 2.51% appreciation of the Dollar relative to the Real / Dollar x Yen – a 3.89% depreciation of the Yen / Dollar x Euro: a 1.61% depreciation of the Euro / Dollar x Pound Sterling: a 0.74% depreciation of the Pound Sterling / Dollar x Peso: a 2.97% depreciation of the Peso. The data were obtained from the Focus Report of the Central Bank of Brazil and from Bloomberg.

The impact of foreign exchange depreciation / appreciation does not jeopardize the liquidity of the Company in the short term due to the balance between liabilities, assets, revenues and future commitments in foreign currency, since most of its debt mature in the long term.

30.2.3. Interest rate risk management

The Company is mainly exposed to interest rate risk related to changes in the LIBOR rate, arising from debt issued in foreign currency and to changes in the Brazilian long-term interest rate (TJLP), arising from debt issued in Brazilian Real. An increase in interest rates causes a negative impact in the Company's finance expense and its financial position.

The Company considers that exposure to interest rate risk does not cause a significant impact and therefore, preferably does not use derivative financial instruments to manage interest rate risk, except for specific situations encountered by certain companies of the Petrobras group.

a) Main transactions and future commitments hedged by interest rate derivatives

Swap contracts

Floating-to-fixed swap (Libor USD) vs. Fixed rate (USD)

In November 2010 the Company entered into an interest rate swap, in order to exchange a floating interest rate for a fixed rate, aiming at eliminating the mismatch between the cash flows of assets and liabilities from investment projects. The Company does not intend to settle the operation before the maturity date, and therefore, adopted hedge accounting for the relationship between the finance debt and the derivative.

30.3. Credit risk

Petrobras is exposed to the credit risk arising from commercial transactions and from cash management, related to financial institutions and to credit exposure to customers. Credit risk is the risk that a customer or financial institution will fail to pay amounts due, relating to outstanding receivables or to financial investments, guarantees or deposits with financial institutions.

Credit risk management in Petrobras is a portion of its financial risk management, which is performed by the Company's officers, under a corporate policy of risk management. The Credit Commissions are, each, composed of executive Managers for Risk Management, Finance and Commercial Department.

The purpose of the Credit Commissions is to analyze credit management issues, relating to granting and managing credit; to encourage integration between the units that compose the Credit Commissions; and to identify recommendations to be applied in the units involved or to be submitted to the appreciation of higher jurisdictions.

Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras

Consolidated notes to the financial statements

(Expressed in millions of US Dollars, unless otherwise indicated)

The credit risk management policy is part of the Company's global risk management policy and aims at reconciling the need for minimizing exposure to credit risk and maximizing the result of commercial and financial transactions, through an efficient credit analysis process and efficient credit granting and management processes.

The Company manages credit risk by applying quantitative and qualitative parameters that are appropriate for each of the market segments in which it operates.

The Company's commercial credit portfolio is much diversified and the credits granted are divided between clients from the domestic market and from foreign markets.

Credit granted to financial institutions is spread among the major international banks rated by the international rating agencies as Investment Grade and highly-rated Brazilian banks.

The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented mainly by the balance of accounts receivable and derivative financial instruments outstanding.

30.4. Liquidity risk

The Company's liquidity risk is represented by the possibility of a shortage of funds, cash or another financial asset in order to settle its obligations on the established dates.

The liquidity risk management policy adopted by the Company provides that the maturity of its debt continues to be lengthened, exploring the funding opportunities available in the domestic market and being significantly active in the international capital markets by broadening the investor's base in fixed income.

Petrobras finances its working capital through a centralized cash management for the group and by assuming short-term debt, which is usually related to commercial transactions, such as export credit notes and advances on foreign exchange contracts. Investments in non-current assets are financed through long-term debt, such as bonds issued in the international market, funding from credit bureaus, financing and pre-payment of exports, development banks in Brazil and abroad, and lines of credit with national and international commercial banks.

A maturity analysis of the long-term debt, including face value and interest payments is set out in the table below:

Maturity

2013	6,226
2014	8,786
2015	12,291

2016	15,569

Balance at September 30, 2013	152,804
Balance at December 31, 2012	136,068

30.5. Financial investments (derivative financial instruments)

Operations with derivatives are, both in the domestic and foreign markets, earmarked exclusively for the exchange of indices of the assets that comprise the portfolios, and their purpose is to provide flexibility to the managers in their quest for efficiency in the management of short-term financial assets.

The market values of the derivatives held in the exclusive investment funds at September 30, 2013 are set out below:

31. Fair value of financial assets and liabilities

Fair values are determined based on market prices, when available, or, in the absence thereof, on the present value of expected future cash flows. The fair values of cash and cash equivalents, trade accounts receivable, short term debt and trade accounts payable are the same as their carrying values. The fair values of other long-term assets and liabilities do not differ significantly from their carrying amounts.

At September 30, 2013, the estimated fair value for the Company's long term debt was US$ 106,667 and was computed based on the prevailing market rates for operations that have similar nature, maturity and risk to the contracts recognized and it may be compared to the carrying amount of US$ 104,258.

The hierarchy of the fair values of the financial assets and liabilities, recorded on a recurring basis, is set out below:

Libra block auction results

On October 21, 2013, the joint venture comprised of Petrobras (10%), Shell (20%), Total (20%), CNPC (10%) and CNOOC (10%) was the winner in the first Pre-Salt bidding round for the Libra block held by the Brazilian National Petroleum Agency - Agência Nacional do Petróleo, Gás Natural e Biocombustíveis (ANP). As a result of the bid, Petrobras' definite interest in the joint venture will be 40%, with proportionate rights and obligations.

The exploration and production agreement for the block will be a production sharing agreement, as established by Law n. 12,351 enacted December 2010.

The winning consortium offered 41.65% of the profit oil for the Federal Government. A signature bonus in the amount of US$ 7 billion is to be paid in a single payment, US$ 3 billion of which payable by Petrobras, related to its share in the consortium.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
