São Paulo, Brazil, April 13, 2018 - GPA [B3: PCAR4; NYSE: CBD] announces its sales performance in the first quarter of 2018 (1Q18). All comparisons are with the same period in 2017, except where stated otherwise. In the financial statements of GPA, on March 31, 2018, due to the ongoing divestment of the interest held by GPA in Via Varejo S.A. as announced in the material fact notice of November 23, 2016, the operations of Via Varejo are treated as discontinued operations and hence the comments below do not include Via Varejo's performance.

1Q18 SALES

- Total gross revenue up 7.6% to R$12.3 billion, driven by growth in volume
- In the same-store basis, gross sales growth was 4.8% (2.8% excluding the calendar effect)
- The quarter was affected by continued food deflation of -4.0%

Assaí:

§ Gross sales totaled R$5.5 billion, increasing 25.0%.The additional sales of R$1 billion was driven by 20 store openings and the same-store sales growth ex calendar effect of 9.9% (5.1% excluding conversions);

§ The banner continues to capture the effects of the successful strategy, surpassing in yet another quarter same-store growth of 12% in volume and 8% in clients;

§ The 17 Extra stores converted into Assaí continued to maintain revenue growth of around 2.5 times;

§ In the period, Assaí registered market share gains of 3.8 points, according to Nielsen, with a sustainable level of commercial competitiveness;

§ The Passaí Card is already available at all the stores and 205,000 cards issued by the end of March. Average issue rate is around 50,000 cards per month;

§ A new Assaí store was inaugurated in Itabaiana, Sergipe. Currently, four new stores are under construction and one is undergoing conversion, in line with the strong pace of expansion set for the year.

Multivarejo:

§ Total gross sales amounted to R$6.8 billion, affected by food deflation and the closure of Extra Hiper stores converted into Assaí. Same-store sales grew 0.7%:

At the end of December 2017, there was a fire at the refrigerated products Distribution Center, which supplied 496 stores in the meat and perishables categories (around 13% of sales). The estimated loss in sales is approximately R$200 million for the product stockout effect in January and February.

§ As of March, adjustments made in the commercial strategy reverted the negative trend from January and February. As a result, same-store sales growth in March reached 11.8% (3.9% excluding the calendar effect).

The main factors that contributed to the best performance were:

- More dynamic promotions on commemorative dates such as Women’s Day and Consumer Week;
- Greater visibility of promotions at stores, with more horizontal promotions and reduction of stockout;
- Reinforcement of loyalty program with the launch of “My Rewards” in the same app as “My Discount”, which already has over 5 million downloads;
- Normalization of DC operations and store supply in March.

(1) Includes Extra Hiper stores converted to Assaí, which in 1Q18 contributed 200 bps to Food and 480 bps to Assaí.

(2) In 1Q18, the calendar effect (effect of Easter and one additional Saturday) was 200 bps at GPA Food, with 270 bps at Multivarejo and 90 bps at Assaí.

§ The Extra Hiper performance was driven by Easter (same-store volume growth of 6.9% in March). In addition, non-food categories continued with a double-digit evolution, but at a lower level due to a tough comparison basis;

§ The Extra Superformat has performed below the others banners. Reversing this trend is one of Multivarejo's priorities. The pilot project of converting 20 stores to a model more closely adhering to the target audience's profile, is in the final stage of definition;

§ The Pão de Açúcar banner benefited from the growth of seasonal categories (+9.1% of same-store volume in March), as well as the relaunch of the "Collect & Win" campaign;

§ E-commerce presented a double-digit evolution, mainly driven by the Delivery Express implemented in approximately 50 stores;

§ Proximity format registered a better trend of volume in March due to promotions reactivation.

Evolution of stores

In the quarter, a new Assaí store was inaugurated in Itabaiana, Sergipe. In addition, four Extra Hiper stores were closed for conversion into Assaí, as well as four Extra drugstores, one Extra Super store and one gas station.
