PROXY STATEMENT

FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD

Wednesday, June 6, 2012, 1 p.m. local time

SOLICITATION AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

This proxy statement is being provided to shareholders of record of the Company as of April 11, 2012 in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors for use at the annual meeting of the shareholders to be held on Wednesday, June 6, 2012.

The accompanying proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the board of directors of Omega Flex, Inc., hereinafter referred to as "Omega Flex" or the "Company". The cost of the solicitation of proxies will be borne entirely by the Company. Regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies by personal interview, mail or telephone and may request brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of the stock held of record by such intermediaries. Broadridge Investor Communication Solutions has been retained by the Company to assist in the distribution of proxy materials and the solicitation of proxies by mail, for an estimated fee of $2,900, plus expenses to be paid by the Company. This proxy statement and the enclosed form of proxy are first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 27, 2012.

If a proxy is voted pursuant to the instructions in the notice of internet availability, the shares represented will be voted at the annual meeting and where a choice is specified, will be voted in accordance with the specification made. Proxies may be revoked at any time prior to voting by (1) executing and delivering a later dated proxy to the secretary of the Company at or before the annual meeting, (2) voting in person at the annual meeting or (3) giving written notice of revocation to the secretary of the Company at or before the annual meeting.

PROPOSALS FOR SHAREHOLDERS VOTE

The following proposals are being submitted to the shareholders for a vote to approve or disapprove these measures. Please read each of the proposals carefully before voting your shares.

Proposal 1 - Election of Directors

Pursuant to the Company's amended and restated articles of incorporation, our board of directors is divided into three classes, with members of each class holding office for staggered three-year terms (in all cases, subject to the election and qualification of their successor, resignation or removal). Unless authority to vote for the election of any or all of the nominees is withheld by marking the proxy to that effect, the persons named in the proxy will vote to elect David K. Evans, David W. Hunter and Stewart B. Reed as Class 1 directors for a term expiring at the 2015 annual meeting of shareholders. Proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of persons than the number of nominees named. Each of the nominees is currently a Class 1 director whose term expires at the 2012 annual meeting of shareholders. All of the nominees have indicated their willingness to serve if elected, but if any should be unable or unwilling to stand for election, proxies may be voted for a substitute nominee designated by our board of directors.

The nominees for directors for a three-year term expiring at the 2015 annual meeting of shareholders (Class 1 Directors) are:

David K. Evans

Age 57

Director of Omega Flex since 1996

David W. Hunter

Age 83

Director of Omega Flex since 2005

Stewart B. Reed

Age 64

Director of Omega Flex since 2005

For complete biographical information concerning each of the three Class 1 directors, please refer to the information under the caption "Directors Background Information"

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE THREE NOMINEES LISTED ABOVE AS DIRECTORS.

Proposal 2 - Approval of the Omega Flex, Inc. Executive Incentive Plan

On April 4, 2012, our Board of Directors unanimously approved the Omega Flex, Inc. Executive Incentive Plan (the Incentive Plan) and directed that the Incentive Plan be submitted to our shareholders at the annual meeting. Shareholder approval of this Incentive Plan will allow bonuses paid under the Incentive Plan to qualify as deductible performance-based compensation within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The purpose of the Incentive Plan is to motivate certain executives to achieve goals relating to the performance of Omega Flex or one of its business units or other objectively determinable goals and to reward them when those objectives are satisfied.

Description of the Executive Incentive Plan

This is a summary of the principal features of the Incentive Plan. This summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the provisions of the Incentive Plan, which is attached hereto as Appendix A. Capitalized terms used in this summary that are not defined will have the meanings defined in the Incentive Plan.

Eligibility. Participants in the Incentive Plan are executive officers and key employees who are chosen solely at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. As of April 4, 2012, there are three executive officers who will participate in the Incentive Plan for the 2012 fiscal year. Because our executive officers are eligible to receive awards under the Incentive Plan, our executive officers have an interest in this proposal. No person is automatically entitled to participate in the Incentive Plan in any Incentive Plan year. We may also pay discretionary bonuses, or other types of compensation, outside of the Incentive Plan.

Purposes. The purposes of the Incentive Plan are to motivate the participants to achieve goals relating to the performance of Omega Flex or one of its business units or other objectively determinable goals and to reward them when those objectives are satisfied, thereby increasing stockholder value and the success of Omega Flex by motivating executives to perform to the best of their abilities and to achieve its objectives. If certain requirements are satisfied, bonuses issued under the Plan may qualify as deductible performance-based compensation within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code).

Administration. The Incentive Plan will be administered by the Compensation Committee, consisting of no fewer than two independent members of the Board.

Determination of Awards. Under the Incentive Plan, participants will be eligible to receive awards based upon the attainment and certification of certain performance criteria established by the Compensation Committee. The performance criteria the Compensation Committee may choose from may include one or more of the following: annual revenue; cash position; earnings per share; net income; operating cash flow; operating margins; operating income; return on assets; return on equity; return on sales; total stockholder return; or other performance objectives.

The performance criteria may be based on absolute target numbers or growth in one or more such categories compared to a prior period, and may differ for each participant. The measures that constitute performance criteria may, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee, be based on pro forma numbers excluding extraordinary or one-time expenses or credits, such as restructuring expenses, extraordinary tax events, stock option expensing or the like. The performance measures may also, as the Committee specifies, either include or exclude the effect of payment of the bonuses under the Incentive Plan or any other bonus plan of the Company. Performance criteria may apply to Omega Flex or to one of our business units. Any other performance objectives must relate to an objective that is objectively determinable within the meaning of Code Section 162(m).

Our Compensation Committee may provide that attainment of a performance goal shall be measured by adjusting the evaluation of performance goal performance to exclude (i) any extraordinary non-recurring items as described in Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 30 and/or in management's discussion and analysis of financial conditions and results of operations appearing in our annual report to stockholders for the applicable year, or (ii) the effect of any changes in accounting principles affecting Omega Flex's or a business unit's reported results.

Our Compensation Committee retains the discretion to reduce or eliminate any award that would otherwise be payable pursuant to the Incentive Plan.

For our 2012 fiscal year, the Compensation Committee granted target awards under the Incentive Plan to two executive officers, including the CEO, based on earnings before interest and taxes ("EBIT"). These 2012 fiscal year bonuses are intended to qualify as deductible performance-based compensation under Code Section 162(m).

Payment of Awards. All awards will be paid in cash as soon as is practicable following determination of the award, unless the Compensation Committee chooses to defer the payment of awards, as it determines, in its discretion, is necessary or desirable to preserve the deductibility of such awards under Code Section 162(m).

Maximum Award. The amounts that will be paid pursuant to the Incentive Plan are not currently determinable. The maximum bonus payment that any participant may receive under the Incentive Plan in any of our fiscal years is $2,000,000.

Amendment and Termination. The Compensation Committee may amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Incentive Plan, in whole or in part, at any time and in any respect, including the adoption of amendments deemed necessary or desirable to correct any defect or supply omitted data or to reconcile any inconsistency in the Incentive Plan or in any award granted thereunder. Any such amendment, modification, suspension or termination may be made without the consent of any affected participant. However, in no event may such amendment or modification result in an increase in the amount of compensation payable pursuant to any award under the Incentive Plan.

Indemnification. Our Board of Directors and Compensation Committee are generally indemnified by Omega Flex for any liability arising from claims relating to the Incentive Plan.

Federal Income Tax Consequences. Under present federal income tax law, participants will recognize ordinary income equal to the amount of the award received in the year of receipt. That income will be subject to applicable income and employment tax withholding by Omega Flex. If and to the extent that the Incentive Plan payments satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Code and otherwise satisfy the requirements for deductibility under federal income tax law, the Company will receive a deduction for the amount constituting ordinary income to the participant.

Awards to be Granted to Certain Individuals and Groups. Awards under the Incentive Plan are determined based on actual future performance, so future actual awards cannot now be determined.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE OMEGA FLEX, INC. EXECUTIVE INCENTIVE PLAN.

Proposal 3 - Ratification of Audit Committee's Appointment of Auditors.

To ratify the appointment by the audit committee of the board of directors of McGladry & Pullen LLP, as independent auditors for the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2012. Although action by the shareholders in this matter is not required, the board believes that it is appropriate to seek shareholder ratification of this appointment in light of the critical role played by independent auditors in maintaining the integrity of our financial controls and reporting. If a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote on the proposal do not ratify the appointment of McGladry & Pullen LLP, the audit committee will consider the vote and the reasons therefor in future decisions on the selection of independent auditors. A representative of McGladry & Pullen is expected to attend the annual meeting.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE'S APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS.

Congress has recently passed a law requiring non-binding advisory votes by shareholders approving executive compensation (commonly referred to as "say-on-pay"). However, the Securities and Exchange Commission has by regulation delayed the implementation date for say-on-pay votes for smaller reporting companies such as OmegaFlex until the 2013 annual meeting. The board has elected to defer any say-on-pay shareholder resolutions until that implementation date. The compensation committee report on executive compensation appears on page 16 of this proxy statement.

No business other than that set forth in the attached notice of annual meeting is expected to be acted upon. Should any other matters requiring a vote of shareholders be properly brought before the annual meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof, the persons named in the accompanying proxy card will vote thereon according to their best judgment in the interest of the Company.

Vote Required

The Company's by-laws provide that the presence of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding stock of the Company entitled to vote at the annual meeting, in person or represented by a proxy, constitutes a quorum for the annual meeting; and that the vote of the shareholders who hold a majority of the voting power present in person or represented by proxy at the annual meeting and entitled to vote will decide any question brought before the annual meeting, unless otherwise provided by statute or the Company's restated articles of incorporation or by-laws.

The nominees for election as directors of the Company at the annual meeting who receive the greatest number of votes cast will be elected as directors for the three (3) positions on the board of directors of the Company to be filled. Abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the annual meeting is required to approve the Omega Flex, Inc. Executive Incentive Plan and the ratification of the appointment of the independent accountants. Abstentions are not deemed to be votes cast, and have no effect on the voting results for those two proposals.

If you do not provide your broker or other nominee with instructions on how to vote your shares held in street name, your broker or nominee will not be permitted to vote your shares on non-routine matters (a broker non-vote), and your shares will not affect the outcome of proposals concerning non-routine matters. Please note that the rules regarding how brokers may vote your shares have changed, such that the election of directors is a non-discretionary item. This means that your broker may no longer vote your shares in connection with the election of directors in the absence of your specific instructions as to how to vote. If you hold your shares beneficially through a broker or nominee, we strongly encourage you to provide instructions regarding the voting of your shares as your broker cannot vote your shares with respect to this proposal without instructions from you.

Voting Rights

The shareholders entitled to vote at the annual meeting will be those whose names appeared on the records of the Company as holders of its common stock at the close of business on April 11, 2012, the record date. As of April 11, 2012, there were issued and outstanding 10,091,822 shares of common stock of the Company, all of which are entitled to vote. The Company is not entitled to vote the shares of common stock held in the treasury nor are such shares considered issued and outstanding. As of April 11, 2012 there were 61,811 shares of common stock held in the treasury.

Shareholders are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters to be considered and acted upon at the annual meeting. Cumulative voting is not permitted. There are three (3) directors to be elected at the annual meeting to be held on June 6, 2012. Unless otherwise indicated on the proxy cards, the votes represented by such proxies will be voted in favor of the nominees listed thereon and in favor of the other Proposals set forth above under the caption Proposals for Shareholders Vote.

Shareholder Proposals

Proposals that shareholders wish to present for consideration at the annual meeting to be held in 2013, pursuant to SEC Rule 14a-8, must be received at the Company's corporate offices no later than December 30, 2012 in order to be included in the Company's proxy statement and proxy relating to such meeting. Upon receipt of any proposal, the Company will determine whether or not to include such proposal in next year's proxy statement and proxy in accordance with regulations governing the solicitation of proxies.

In order for a shareholder to bring other business before a shareholders meeting, timely notice must be received by the Company within the time limits described above. Such notice must include a description of the proposed business, the reasons therefor and other specified matters. These requirements are separate from the requirements a shareholder must meet to have a proposal included in the Company's proxy statement and proxy.

Nominations by a shareholder for the election of a person or persons to the board of directors must be delivered to the chairman of the board of directors not later than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting. Please refer to the report of the nominating/ governance committee on page 14 for further information and requirements.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

General Information

The Omega Flex board of directors consists of nine directors. The nominating/governance committee reviewed the disclosures submitted by the nine board members and determined that directors David K. Evans, J. Nicholas Filler, David W. Hunter, Bruce C. Klink, John E. Reed, Stewart B. Reed and Edward J. Trainor were independent directors under the requirements set forth in the corporate governance guidelines of the board, applicable Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules and the NASDAQ listing standards. The Company's corporate governance guidelines can be found at the Company's website at www.omegaflex.com. The Company will provide any person, without charge, upon filing a written request with the Secretary of the Company at its general offices, with a copy of the Company's corporate governance guidelines. The process by which directors are considered for nomination is more fully described in the report of the nominating/governance committee below.

During the calendar year of 2011 the board of directors held four regular and one special meeting. All directors were present at all of the meetings, except that Mr. Hunter was excused from attending one meeting. At each meeting non-management, independent directors had the opportunity to meet in executive session. The Company's corporate governance guidelines sets forth the policy that all directors are encouraged, but not required to attend the annual meeting of shareholders, and all of the directors attended the annual meeting of shareholders in June 2011.

The board of directors has adopted a code of business ethics, applicable to all employees of the Company, including its principal executive officer, its principal financial officer, its principal accounting officer or controller and persons performing similar functions. This code of business ethics can be found at the Company's website at www.omegaflex.com. The Company will provide any person, without charge, upon filing a written request with the Secretary of the Company at its general offices, with a copy of the Company's code of business ethics. Amendments to and waivers from the code of business ethics will be disclosed on the Company's website within four business days following the date of amendment or waiver.

The Company is not aware of any material proceeding in which any director or executive officer, or any associate of any director or executive officer, is a party adverse to the Company or has any material interest adverse to the Company. The Company is not aware of having made any charitable contribution to an entity of which any Director is a director, trustee or executive, in excess of the reporting thresholds of $200,000 or 5% of such entity's gross revenues.

Board Leadership Structure and Role in Risk Oversight

The board of directors exercises oversight of the Company and its business through the Company's executive management. Under the Company's bylaws, the board annually elects a chairman of the board, who may or may not be an officer of the Company, and who presides at all meetings of the shareholders and the directors, and a chief executive officer, who has the general and active management of the business of the Company. Since 2005, when Omega Flex, Inc. became a publicly-traded corporation and continuing to the present time, John E. Reed has been the chairman of the board, and the position of the Company's chief executive officer has been held by Kevin R. Hoben.

The board of directors has determined that this leadership structure is appropriate in that the separation of the offices of chairman of the board and chief executive officer enhances board independence and oversight. Moreover, the separation of the chairman of the board and chief executive officer allows the chief executive officer to focus on his responsibilities of the day-to-day running the Company and expanding and strengthening the Company, and allows the chairman of the board to lead the board in its fundamental role of providing advice to and independent oversight of management.

Risk is inherent in every business and the Company is subject to many risks which have been described in our periodic filings. Management is responsible for the day-to-day management of the risks that the Company faces and the board of directors is responsible for the oversight of risk management. While the board is ultimately responsible for risk oversight at the Company, our board committees assist the board in these oversight responsibilities in certain areas of risk. Most notably, the audit committee has general oversight with respect to risk management in the areas of financial reporting, internal controls and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and reports to the board on these matters regularly.

Communication with the Board

Shareholders who wish to communicate with the Company's board of directors may do so in writing, addressed to the chairman of the board of directors, or to any individual director, at the Company's corporate headquarters at Omega Flex, Inc., 213 Court St., Suite 701, Middletown, CT, 06457. Shareholders wishing to communicate with the director presiding over the executive session of the Company's non-management directors may direct such communications to the chairman of the board, at the address set forth above. All such correspondence will be forwarded to the Company's investor relations department, which will review the correspondence. The board has delegated to the investor relations personnel discretion to review such correspondence, and forward any matters dealing with current, specific business or customer matters to the appropriate senior management in the Company. All other correspondence will be forwarded to the appropriate director designated by the shareholders.

Director Background Information

The following persons constitute the Company's board of directors. Only the Class 1 directors are standing for election for a three-year term and until their respective successor have been elected and qualified. The specific experience, qualifications, attributes or skills that have led the board to conclude that each of the directors should serve in that role in light of the Company's business and structure are included in each of their respective biographies. In the past ten-year period, no director (a) has filed or been subject to a petition for bankruptcy or insolvency, or (b) was convicted in a criminal proceeding or is a named subject of a pending criminal proceeding. No other candidates for election to the board of directors have been proposed or nominated.

BOARD COMMITTEES

The board of directors has four (4) standing committees: nominating/governance, audit, executive and compensation.

Nominating/Governance Committee

The board of directors has established the nominating/governance committee pursuant to the Company's by-laws and the NASDAQ listing standards. The nominating/governance committee's responsibilities are as set forth in its charter, which can be found at the Company's website at www.omegaflex.com. The committee responsibilities include (a) evaluating and recommending nominees for election as directors to the board of directors, (b) recommending to the board of directors criteria for membership on the board, (c) proposing nominees to fill vacancies on the board of directors as they occur, and (d) recommending principles of corporate governance pursuant to which the board and its committees perform their respective duties. The Company does not have a formal policy with regard to the consideration of diversity in identifying candidates for director but the nominating committee strives to nominate directors with a variety of skills and qualifications such that the board, as a whole, will possess the appropriate expertise to oversee the Company's business. The committee held one meeting in 2011. The current members of the committee are Messrs. Evans (Chairman), Hunter and S.B. Reed. The board of directors determined that the committee members are independent directors in accordance with the Company's corporate governance guidelines, applicable SEC rules and the requirements of the NASDAQ listing standards. In selecting candidates for election to the board of directors at future annual meetings of shareholders, the Committee will consider prospective candidates whose names have been submitted by shareholders in accordance with the procedures described in the committee's report, below. Such submissions should be in writing and directed to the secretary of the Company at 213 Court Street, Suite 701, Middletown, Connecticut, 06457.

Audit Committee

The board of directors has established and maintains an audit committee comprised of three of the Company's independent directors. No member of the audit committee serves on the audit committee of more than three public companies.

The audit committee's responsibilities are as set forth in its charter, which can be found at the Company's website at www.omegaflex.com. These responsibilities include assisting the board of directors in its oversight of the accounting and financial controls of the Company, reviewing the process and procedures underlying management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's systems and financial controls, and the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The audit committee selects the independent auditors, reviews the scope of the audit and the results of the audit, approves permitted non-audit services (such as tax services), and reviews the financial and disclosure controls procedures. The audit committee also oversees management's efforts to establish and maintain a process for handling complaints or concerns relating to accounting or financial matters, as well as compliance issues generally.

As part of its oversight role relating to the Company's systems, controls and procedures, the audit committee also oversees management's response to relevant risk factors that potentially face the Company. On an annual basis, the committee reviews those risks to the Company and its businesses that have been identified by management, and reviews the analysis and plans prepared by management to eliminate, mitigate or address those potential risks.

The audit committee acts pursuant to the Company's by-laws and the audit committee charter. The audit committee charter is reviewed annually by the audit committee to determine the charter's adequacy to respond to the issues raised in the course of the audit committee's activities. The audit committee has acted under its charter. The committee held nine meetings in 2011, at which all members attended in person or by telephone, and consulted with each other and management as necessary to discharge its duties. Please see the report of the audit committee set forth in this proxy statement. The current members of the audit committee are Messrs. Trainor (Chairman), Klink and Filler. The board of directors has determined that (a) all of the members of the committee are each an audit committee financial expert under SEC rules, and (b) all of the audit committee members are financially sophisticated as required by the NASDAQ Listing Standards.

Executive Committee

To the extent permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the executive committee has and may exercise all the powers and authorities of the board of directors as follows: (a) to take action on behalf of the board of directors during intervals between regularly scheduled meetings of the board of directors if it is impracticable to delay action on a matter until the next regularly scheduled meeting of the board of directors, and (b) to take action on all matters of the Company that have been delegated for action by the board of directors. The executive committee meets from time to time, irregularly, and consults with each other and management as necessary to discharge its duties. The current members of the committee are Messrs. J.E. Reed (chairman), Hoben and Albino.

Compensation Committee

The compensation committee's responsibilities are as set forth in its charter, which can be found at the Company's website at www.omegaflex.com. The committee's duties include establishing a compensation philosophy to guide the committee in executive compensation decisions, establishing and approving executive compensation plans, reviewing the compensation of the chief executive officer and the executive officers of the Company, and recommending to the board of directors the amount of compensation to be paid to the chief executive officer and the executive officers of the Company. Please see the report of the compensation committee set forth in this proxy statement. The committee met three times in 2011, with all members in attendance, to consider and recommend compensation matters to the board of directors. The current members of the committee are Messrs. Hunter (chairman), Evans, S. Reed, and Trainor, each of whom have been determined to be independent directors in accordance with the Company's corporate governance guidelines, applicable SEC rules and the requirements of NASDAQ listing standards.

BOARD REPORTS

Nominating/Governance Committee Report

And Director Nomination Process

This report of the nominating/governance committee shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or subject to Regulations 14A or 14C of the Securities and Exchange Commission, or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") or under the Exchange Act, notwithstanding any general incorporation by reference of this proxy statement into any other document, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts. The Company will provide any person, without charge, upon filing a written request to the secretary of the Company at its general offices, with a copy of the Company's nominating/governance committee charter.

REPORT

The nominating/governance committee met in 2011 to review director qualifications, nominate directors for election at the annual meeting of shareholders, to review the corporate governance issues for the board, and discuss the adoption of certain policies by the Company.

The Company has a policy, as set forth in its by-laws, of considering candidates for election to the board of directors who may be nominated by the shareholders. The board of directors recognizes and fully appreciates its position of stewardship of the Company for the benefit of the shareholders, and the board firmly subscribes to the proposition that the shareholders should be free to exercise their franchise to select and elect the persons who direct the Company in which the shareholders have invested. To that end, the by-laws of the Company provide for a process by which shareholders may nominate individuals for election to the board of directors. This process requires that such shareholder nomination be made in writing by a shareholder holding, or by a group of shareholders who in the aggregate hold, five percent (5%) or more of the Company's common stock continuously for at least one year prior to the date of the submission of such candidate, and delivered to the chairman of the board of directors not later than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting. Such nomination must also include (a) the name and residence of each proposed nominee and of the nominating shareholder, (b) the principal occupation of each proposed nominee, (c) the written consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the Company, if elected, and (d) any information regarding each nominee proposed by a shareholder that would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder and applicable NASDAQ listing standards.

Any candidate for election to the board of directors nominated by a shareholder shall possess the minimum qualifications, as required by the by-laws and by the corporate governance guidelines, to wit: (a) be a natural person, (b) be not less than 21 years of age, and (c) not be a director, officer, employee or agent of a competitor of the Company. The specific skills or expertise of a shareholder nominee should complement the needs of the board at the time of the election. These needs will vary from time to time based on the composition of the board. In reviewing and identifying candidates for the board of directors, the nominating/governance committee is charged with a mandate under the Company's corporate governance guidelines to identify and consider candidates having significant skills or experience in any one or more of the following areas: understanding of the application and use of some or all of the Company's products, understanding of various manufacturing technologies, an understanding of general accounting principles as applied in the preparation and reporting of financial statements of a public company, and expertise and knowledge of management of a large multi-facility organization, international experience, and other pertinent characteristics all in the context of an assessment of the then current perceived needs of the Company. To that extent, the committee will seek to identify and consider candidates who may have a diverse background and not limited strictly to the markets in which the Company competes or to manufacturing industries generally.

Identification of persons to become nominees for the board of directors are obtained through a variety of sources, including the directors, the executive officers of the Company, and trade or industry groups in which the Company participates. Once a candidate has been identified, the nominating/governance committee evaluates such candidate based upon his or her length and breadth of business experience, specific skills or knowledge, values, and other qualities which the Company may deem pertinent. The committee's review may include personal interviews and/or reference checks. This process is applied regardless of whether the potential nominee has been identified and proposed by a shareholder or by any other person.

As of the date of this proxy statement neither the chairman of the board nor the nominating/governance committee had received from shareholders owning more than 5% of the Company's common stock a nomination of any individual to the board of directors. There are no nominees included on the Company's proxy card who are not standing for re-election.

Audit Committee Report

This report of the audit committee shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or subject to Regulations 14A or 14C of the Securities and Exchange Commission or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Exchange Act and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act or under the Exchange Act, notwithstanding any general incorporation by reference of this proxy statement into any other document, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts. The audit committee furnished the following report as required under the revised proxy rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company will provide any person, without charge, upon filing a written request to the secretary of the Company at its general offices, with a copy of the Company's audit committee charter.

REPORT

The audit committee met nine times during the 2011 fiscal year and discussed with the Company's management the interim financial statements of the Company for each applicable reporting period prior to the filing or distribution of such financial statements. The audit committee met in March 2011 to review and discuss with the Company's management and the independent auditors, together and separately, the audited financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011. Management has the responsibility for preparation of the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors have the responsibility for examining those statements and expressing an opinion thereon. The audit committee's primary responsibility with respect to the Company's financial statements is one of review and oversight.

The committee has acted, pursuant to its charter, and has during the year, (a) reviewed with the independent auditors their internal quality control procedures and independence from management, (b) reviewed with management and the independent auditors recent accounting pronouncements and their effect on the financial statements of the Company, (c) reviewed the Company's financial and disclosure control procedures instituted by management, and (d) reviewed with the vice president-finance and chief financial officer the Company's internal system of financial and accounting controls.

The audit committee also discussed with the independent auditors matters required to be discussed by Statement and Auditing Standards No. 61, titled "Communication with Audit Committees," and received from the independent auditors written disclosures regarding the independence of the independent auditors from the Company as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, titled "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees." The audit committee considered the compatibility of the non-audit services the Company received from its independent auditor and the effect of such engagements on the independence of the independent auditors.

Based on all of the above, the audit committee recommended that the board of directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Compensation Committee Report

This report of the compensation committee shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or subject to Regulations 14A or 14C of the Securities and Exchange Commission, or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Exchange Act and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act or under the Exchange Act, notwithstanding any general incorporation by reference of this proxy statement into any other document, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts. The compensation committee furnishes the report on executive compensation as required under the proxy rules on executive compensation adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The compensation committee charter is available on the Company's website at www.omegaflex.com. The Company will provide any person, without charge, upon filing a written request to the secretary of the Company at its general offices, with a copy of the Company's compensation committee charter.

REPORT

The compensation committee of the board of directors consists entirely of independent, non-employee directors. The committee has the responsibility for: (a) fixing the elements of a comprehensive compensation program for the chief executive officer and the executive officers of the Company that provide rewards and create incentives for their performance in maintaining and improving the profitability of the Company and enhancing long-term shareholder value; (b) reviewing the levels of compensation to be paid or granted to the chief executive officer and the executive officers of the Company; and (c) recommending to the entire board of directors the levels of such compensation to be paid or awarded.

The compensation committee is fully committed to the proposition that compensation paid to the chief executive officer and the executive officers of the Company should be fashioned in a manner so as to encourage initiatives by those officers that will promote the long-term growth and enhancement of the intrinsic value of the Company. The committee believes that growth of the Company's intrinsic value will ultimately translate into the growth and enhancement of the interests of the shareholders in the Company. This compensation program is further intended to provide incentives to the executive officers that are linked to the financial results of the Company. The committee is also mindful of the need to attract and retain individuals possessing the vision and leadership skills necessary to continue the Company's growth into the future. With these propositions in mind, the compensation committee has based the compensation of the Company's executive officers upon three pillars: base salary, performance-related annual bonuses based on the actual financial results of the Company measured against its pre-established business plans, and long-term incentives, such as phantom stock units.

Base salary. The committee annually reviews the annual base salary of the chief executive officer, the chief operating officer and the chief financial officer. The committee also reviews the recommendations of the chief executive officer for the annual base salary of the Company's other executive officers. The factors upon which the committee determines the base salary of the chief executive officer and the Company's other executive officers include the performance in the preceding year in meeting pre-established business plan goals for sales and net income, the level of responsibility within the Company, and the contributions of the chief executive officer and each of the Company's executive officers that will enhance the long range prospects of the Company, but the effects of which may not be immediately apparent. Effective January 1, 2011, the annual base salary of the chief executive officer was increased by approximately 3% from $338,500 in 2010 to $348,500 in 2011. The committee believes that the salary policy of the company should be at a rate that may be considered below market, with the view of encouraging superior performance with above market short-term incentive awards.

Incentive Bonus Plan. Effective January 2011, the committee adopted a performance measurement for the plan based on earnings before interest and taxes ("EBIT") because the committee determined that EBIT represented the true measure of management performance of the Company's continuing operations. For fiscal year 2011, the bonus pool earned by management was approximately $1.3 million, which is unchanged from the prior year and is consistent with the company's financial performance and general economic performance, and this result provides an appropriate example of the compensation philosophy employed by the committee pay for performance.

Long-term Compensation. The Omega Flex, Inc. 2006 Phantom Stock Plan is designed to function as the long term component of our compensation program. Under the phantom stock plan, select members of the management team may receive units of phantom stock. The value of the phantom stock is tied to the value of our common stock. The phantom stock units have a vesting schedule, typically three years. After the phantom stock units have vested, the executive would receive the value of the phantom stock, which would be equal to the then current value of the company's common stock on the maturity date of the phantom stock units. This amount could either be full value (the phantom stock unit is equal to the common stock) or it could be appreciation only (the phantom stock unit is equal to any increase in the value of the common stock). The outstanding phantom stock units also accrue amounts equal to any cash or stock dividends declared on the company's common stock. If the executive voluntarily leaves the company or is terminated, then any unvested awards of phantom stock units are forfeited. Awards to employees are at the discretion of the committee and upon recommendation by the chief executive officer. We do not have a formal program on the timing of the phantom stock awards, but we do review decisions on whether to grant phantom stock units on an annual basis in the first quarter, and then during the year depending on circumstances. Generally, the awards will be made either outside any black-out period applicable to insider trading of our common stock, or in conjunction with the calculation and payment of our annual bonus program, which occurs in the first quarter of each year.

After considering all of the factors and making recommendations upon the annual base compensation and bonus formulae and percentage participations for the chief executive officer and each of the other executive officers of the Company, the committee presents this report to the full membership of the board of directors at its December meeting each year. The recommendations of the compensation committee for 2011 was presented, discussed and voted upon, and approved in an executive session of the board of directors of the Company, Messrs. Hoben and Albino abstaining.

Other Compensation. In addition, each year the entire board of directors, based upon the recommendation of the Compensation committee, considers the percentage participation of all employees (including the chief executive officer and the other executive officers of the Company) in the Company's Profit Sharing Plan. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, the committee recommended and the board of directors voted in favor of a Company contribution of 3% of annual base salary for all eligible employees up to the maximum of $106,800 and in favor of a Company contribution of six percent 6% of annual base salary for all eligible employees for amounts in excess of the maximum of $106,800 (as limited in accordance with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act).

Any payments under the agreements that may be subject to an excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the IRC will be reduced to a level so that the payment will not be subject to that excise tax. unless the Committee has made a determination that such amendment or modification is in the best interests of all persons to whom Awards have theretofore been granted; provided further, however, in no event may such an amendment or modification result in an increase in the amount of compensation payable pursuant to such Award or (ii) cause compensation that is, or may become, payable hereunder to fail to qualify as Performance-Based Compensation. To the extent necessary or advisable under applicable law, including Section 162(m), Plan amendments shall be subject to stockholder approval. At no time before the actual distribution of funds to Participants under the Plan shall any Participant accrue any vested interest or right whatsoever under the Plan except as otherwise stated in this Plan.

Withholding. Distributions pursuant to this Plan shall be subject to all applicable federal and state tax and withholding requirements.

Except as otherwise expressly agreed to in writing by the Company and an employee of the Company, the employment relationship between the Company and its employees is terminable at-will. This means that an employee of the Company may terminate the employment relationship at any time and for any reason or no reason.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such persons may be entitled under the Company's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, by contract, as a matter of law, or otherwise, or under any power that the Company may have to indemnify them or hold them harmless.

Nonassignment. The rights of a Participant under this Plan shall not be assignable or transferable by the Participant except by will or the laws of intestacy.

16.

Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, the Plan shall be interpreted and construed consistent with this intent. Although the company and the compensation committee intend to administer the Plan so that the Plan and the bonus amounts granted thereunder qualify for an exemption from Code Section 409A, if the Plan and the bonus amounts granted under the Plan are not so exempt, neither the company nor the compensation committee represents or warrants that the Plan or the bonus amounts granted thereunder will comply with Code Section 409A or any other provision of federal, state, local, or non-United States law. Neither the company, its subsidiaries, nor its respective directors, officers, employees or advisers shall be liable to any current or former participant (or any other individual claiming a benefit through a participant) for any tax, interest, or penalties the participant may owe as a result of participation in the Plan, and the company and its subsidiaries shall have no obligation to indemnify or otherwise protect any participant from the obligation to pay any taxes pursuant to Code Section 409A.
