Information on the Company

The business of the Bank is substantially the same as the business of Credit Suisse Group, which is described in Item 4 Information on the company in the Group's 2006 20-F. The following are the principal differences between the businesses of the Group and the Bank. These differences relate to legal entities and activities that are in the Group's consolidated operations but not reported in the Bank's condensed consolidated financial statements.

Entity	Principal Business Activities
Clariden Leu <sup>(1)</sup>	Banking and securities
Neue Aargauer Bank	Banking (in the Swiss canton of Aargau)
BANK-now <sup>(2)</sup>	Private credit and car leasing (in Switzerland)
Financing vehicles of the Group	Special purpose vehicles for various funding activities of the Group, including for purposes of raising consolidated capital

(1) Formed as of January 1, 2007 by the merger of the private banks Clariden Bank, Bank Leu, Bank Hofmann and BGP Banca di Gestione Patrimoniale, and the securities dealer Credit Suisse Fides.

(2) Formed as of January 3, 2007 as a subsidiary of Credit Suisse Group. The operations comprising BANK-now previously were recorded in the Bank.

The Bank manages its business through the same three operating segments as the Group. The results of operations of Clariden Leu and Neue Aargauer Bank, which are managed, but not legally owned, by the Bank are included in the Bank's Private Banking segment but not reflected in the Bank's condensed consolidated financial statements. The results of operations of BANK-now, which are managed by the Bank and included in the Bank's Private Banking segment, were included in the Bank's consolidated financial statements through December 31, 2006. Effective January 3, 2007, BANK-now is a subsidiary of the Group and its results of operations are not included in the Bank's condensed consolidated financial statements. In addition, the Group has certain financing activities that are not in the Bank's consolidated balance sheet and statement of income.

Operating and financial review and prospects

The Bank's operating results, cash flows and prospects are substantially the same as the results from continuing operations, cash flows from continuing operations and prospects of Credit Suisse Group, which are described in Core Results on pages 14 to 19 in the Group's first quarter 2007 financial review (Credit Suisse Financial Review 1Q07), which was filed with the SEC on May 3, 2007. As further described below, the Bank operates through the same operating segments as the Group, and the principal differences relate to the legal entities and activities that are in the Group's consolidated business but not in the consolidated operations of the Bank.

Differences in the results of operations of the Bank and the Group

Substantially all of the Bank's operations are conducted through the Investment Banking, Private Banking and Asset Management segments.

Certain other assets, liabilities and results of operations that are associated with the three segments are not included in the Bank's condensed consolidated balance sheet and statement of income. In 2006 and prior years, these related principally to the activities of Clariden Leu and Neue Aargauer Bank. The results of operations of these entities, which are managed, but not legally owned, by the Bank are included in the Bank's Private Banking segment but not reflected in the Bank's consolidated statement of income. The results of operations of BANK-now, which are managed by the Bank and included in the Bank's Private Banking segment, were included in the Bank's consolidated financial statements through December 31, 2006. Effective January 3, 2007, BANK-now is a subsidiary of the Group and its results of operations are not included in the Bank's consolidated financial statements. In addition, the Group has certain financing activities that are not in the Bank's consolidated balance sheet and statement of income. All of these activities vary from period to period and give rise to differences between the Bank's aggregate assets, liabilities and results of operations and those of the Group.

The following tables set forth a comparison of selected condensed consolidated financial information for the Bank and the Group's continuing operations as of March 31, 2007 and for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and 2006:

Three months ended March 31, 2007, in CHF m	Bank	Group
