Green Dot Sends Letter to Stockholders Comparing Director Nominee Credentials

- Believes Incumbent Director Nominees Stand Head and Shoulders Above Dissident's Nominees -

- Urges Stockholders to Vote on the WHITE proxy card "FOR" Green Dot's Three Experienced and Highly-Qualified Nominees -

Pasadena, CA - May 13, 2016 - Green Dot Corporation (NYSE: GDOT) (the "Company") today issued a letter to stockholders comparing the credentials of its experienced and highly-qualified director nominees against Harvest Capital Strategies' ("Harvest") slate of director nominees.

In the letter, which has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and posted to www.GDOTValue.com, Green Dot's Board of Directors encourages stockholders to consider four critical questions concerning Harvest's slate of candidates before casting their votes:

Do you believe it is wise to remove three experienced and highly-qualified directors?

Steven W. Streit - Founder and one of Green Dot's top shareholders with over 8 percent ownership, inventor of the reloadable prepaid debit card and primary relationship holder with major business partners and key regulators.

Michael J. Moritz - Large Green Dot shareholder and current Chairman of Sequoia Capital, prominent technology company board experience, currently serves on the board of LinkedIn (~$17 billion market capitalization), prior board member of Google, Yahoo, Kayak and PayPal.

Timothy R. Greenleaf - Audit Committee Chair; oversees Enterprise Risk Management Committee and Cybersecurity, key relationships with bank regulators and auditors.

Do you believe these are suitable candidates to serve on a highly regulated, bank holding company's board that has a market capitalization in excess of a billion dollars?

Philip B. Livingston - Former CEO of Ambassadors Group, former NASDAQ listed company that saw its stock price decline over 60 percent before being liquidated. Current board member of Rand Worldwide (OTCBB: RWWI), a $50 million market cap company.

Saturnino Fanlo - Served on only two public boards: Capmark Financial Group ("Capmark") and KKR Financial Holdings ("KKR"). Capmark declared bankruptcy and KKR Financial Holdings' stock declined 97 percent during Mr. Fanlo's tenure as CEO.

George W. Gresham - Never served on a public company board and declined offer to be immediately appointed to Green Dot's board.

Do you believe Green Dot is better off without its founder, Steven W. Streit, the individual who invented the prepaid card industry, established the Company as the industry leader, successfully navigated significant competitive and regulatory headwinds, and who will be held accountable if Green Dot does not produce $1.75+ Non-GAAP EPS in 2017?

Are you willing to jeopardize invaluable business partnerships and the support of regulators?

Green Dot believes the right choice clear and strongly encourages stockholders to vote on the WHITE proxy card “FOR” the reelection of incumbent director nominees- Messrs. Streit, Greenleaf and Moritz- at the Company’s May 23, 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Green Dot advises shareholders not return the “green” proxy card, even to withhold on Harvest’s nominees.
