Mr. Sakman has served as the Company’s Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President, Corporate Development since August 22, 2012. Mr. Sakman’s resignation is not due to a disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices.

Under the terms of the Separation Agreement, Mr. Sakman will receive, subject to certain conditions, cash severance payments equal to six months of his current base salary. The Separation Agreement also provides for standard ownership of works, confidentiality, non-compete, non-solicitation and non-disparagement covenants, as well as a release of claims.

On March 25, 2013, the Board appointed David Clark, as the Company’s Chief Financial Officer effective immediately. There are no family relationships between Mr. Clark and any director or executive officer of the Company, and he has no direct or indirect material interest in any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

In connection with his appointment as Chief Financial Officer of the Company, on March 25, 2013 (the “Effective Date”), the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Clark (the “Employment Agreement”), effective immediately. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Mr. Clark will initially receive an annual base salary of $220,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual incentive bonus equal to 50% of his base salary, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors based on meeting certain financial and non-financial goals.
