For the three months ended August 31, 2012 and 2011, 101,661 and 118,810 stock options, respectively, were excluded from the computation of earnings per share because their effect would have been anti-dilutive. For the six months ended August 31, 2012 and 2011, 103,449 and 119,024 stock options, respectively, were excluded from the computation of earnings per share because their effect would have been anti-dilutive. Restricted stock units become dilutive within the period granted and remain dilutive until the units vest and are issued as common stock.

The Company classifies its business interests into three reportable segments: Franchising, Manufacturing and Retail Stores. Amortization expense related to intangible assets totaled $4,988 and $28,072 during the six months ended August 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively. As of August 31, 2012, $17,123 net intangible assets subject to amortization remained to be amortized through May 2016.

NOTE 9 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has entered into Franchise Agreements and a Development Agreement with a member of the Company's Board of Directors. The director operates two ALY locations under the Franchise Agreements and the Development Agreement.

As of August 31, 2012, the Company had receivables of approximately $6,600 due from such director associated with the director's ownership and operation of the two current ALY locations.

Our President and Chief Executive Officer has members of his immediate family with ownership interests in retail marketing businesses. These businesses have, on occasion, provided services to the Company and may provide services in the future. As of August 31, 2012, the Company had incurred expenses of $7,500 and there was $1,050 recorded to accounts payable that related to these businesses. Transactions with these businesses have been immaterial to our results of operations.

NOTE 10 – FRANCHISE FEE REVENUE RECOGNITION

Franchise fee revenue is recognized upon the opening of a franchise location. During the six months ended August 31, 2011, three Aspen Leaf Yogurt franchise locations opened and $78,500 of franchise fee revenue was recognized associated with these openings. During the three months ended November 30, 2011, the franchise fee for ALY was reduced and a decrease to revenue of $54,500 was recorded associated with locations previously opened during the six months ended August 31, 2011. The change to ALY franchise fees was the result of the Company's continued evaluation of the self-serve yogurt franchise environment and its desire to remain competitive among many franchise offerings. There was no change to the Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory franchise fee or the Company's franchise fee revenue recognition policy.

Overview

We are a product-based international franchisor, confectionery manufacturer and retail operator. Our revenues and profitability are derived principally from our franchised system of retail stores that feature chocolate, frozen yogurt, and other confectionery products. We also sell our candy in selected locations outside our system of retail stores to build brand awareness. We own and operate fifteen retail units as a laboratory to test marketing, design and operational initiatives.

The most important factors in continued growth in our earnings are ongoing unit growth, increased same-store sales and increased same-store pounds purchased from the factory. Historically, unit growth has more than offset decreases in same-store sales and same-store pounds purchased.

Our ability to successfully achieve expansion of our Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory and Aspen Leaf Yogurt franchise systems depends on many factors not within our control, including the availability of suitable sites for new store establishment, the availability of adequate financing options and the availability of qualified franchisees to support such expansion.

Efforts to reverse the decline in same-store pounds purchased from the factory by franchised stores and to increase total factory sales depend on many factors, including new store openings, same-store sales, and the receptivity of our franchise system to our product introductions and promotional programs.

In April 2012, we entered into a Master Licensing Agreement for the development and franchising of new Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory stores in Japan. The agreement requires at least ten new stores to open each year for the next ten years, for a total minimum of 100 stores to be opened in Japan by the expiration of the initial term of the agreement. We believe that international opportunities may create a favorable expansion strategy and reduce dependence on domestic franchise openings to achieve growth. As of September 30, 2012 three stores were operating under the agreement.

Results of Operations

Three Months Ended August 31, 2012 Compared to the Three Months Ended August 31, 2011

Basic earnings per share decreased 6.7% from $.15 in the three months ended August 31, 2011 to $.14 in the same period of the current year. Revenues increased 2.0% from $7.6 million in the three months ended August 31, 2011 to $7.7 million in the same period of the current year. Operating income decreased 9.7% from $1.40 million in the three months ended August 31, 2011 to $1.27 million in the same period of the current year. Net income decreased 9.1% from $912,000 in the three months ended August 31, 2011 to $829,000 in the same period of the current year. The decrease in operating income and net income for the three months ended August 31, 2012 compared to the same period in the prior year was due primarily to an operating loss of approximately $172,000 associated with the retail operations and franchise support of Aspen Leaf Yogurt.

Total	$7,729.8	$7,575.8	$154.0	2.0	%

Factory Sales

The increase in factory sales for the three months ended August 31, 2012 versus the three months ended August 31, 2011 was primarily due to an increase in shipments of product to international franchisees and Cold Stone Creamery co-branded licensed locations. These increases were partially offset by a 1.3% decrease in same-store pounds purchased by our network of domestic franchised stores.

Retail Sales

The increase in retail sales was primarily due to an increase in the average number of Company-owned stores in operation. The average number of Company owned units in operation increased from 13 during the three months ended August 31, 2011 to 17 units in the same period of the current year. The increase in average Company-owned units in operation and the resulting increase in retail sales was partially offset by a decrease in Company-owned same-store sales. Same-store sales at Company-owned stores decreased by 15.8% in the three months ended August 31, 2012 compared to the three months ended August 31, 2011. We believe the decline in same-store sales was primarily the result of the grand opening effect of Aspen Leaf Yogurt locations and the resulting revenues associated with these openings in the prior year.

Royalties, Marketing Fees and Franchise Fees

Royalties and marketing fees increased 2.5% in the three months ended August 31, 2012 compared with the same period of the prior year as a result of an increase in royalties based on the Company's purchase-based royalty structure, an increase in royalties from co-branded locations and an increase in same-store sales, partially offset by a decrease in domestic franchise units. Same store sales at franchise locations increased 1.1% during the three months ended August 31, 2012 compared to the same period in the prior year. Average licensed locations in operation increased from 44 units in the three months ended August 31, 2011 to 53 units in the same period of the current year. The average number of domestic units in operation decreased from 247 in the three months ended August 31, 2011 to 238 in the same period of the current year. The decrease in franchise fee revenue during the three months ended August 31, 2012, compared with the prior year period was the result of a decrease in domestic franchise openings from 5 during the three months ended August 31, 2011 to 2 openings during the three months ended August 31, 2012.

Adjusted gross margin, a non-GAAP measure, is equal to the sum of our factory adjusted gross margin plus our retail gross margin calculated in accordance with GAAP. Factory adjusted gross margin is equal to factory gross margin minus depreciation and amortization expense. We believe adjusted gross margin is helpful in understanding our past performance as a supplement to gross margin and other performance measures calculated in conformity with GAAP. We believe that adjusted gross margin is useful to investors because it provides a measure of operating performance and our ability to generate cash that is unaffected by non-cash accounting measures. Additionally, we use adjusted gross margin rather than gross margin to make incremental pricing decisions. Adjusted gross margin has limitations as an analytical tool because it excludes the impact of depreciation and amortization expense and you should not consider it in isolation or as a substitute for any measure reported under GAAP. Our use of capital assets makes depreciation and amortization expense a necessary element of our costs and our ability to generate income. Due to these limitations, we use adjusted gross margin as a measure of performance only in conjunction with GAAP measures of performance such as gross margin. The following table provides a reconciliation of factory adjusted gross margin to factory gross margin, the most comparable performance measure under GAAP:

($'s in thousands)	Three Months Ended August 31,
	2012	2011
Factory adjusted gross margin	$ 1,604.6	$ 1,522.4
Less: Depreciation and Amortization	71.9	69.0

Costs and Expenses

Cost of Sales

Factory margins increased 80 basis points in the three months ended August 31, 2012 compared to the three months ended August 31, 2011 due primarily to an increase in the average selling price of products to domestic franchise units. The slight decrease in Company-owned store margin is due primarily to a change in product mix.

Franchise Costs

The increase in franchise costs in the three months ended August 31, 2012 versus the three months ended August 31, 2011 is due primarily to an increase in costs associated with support and development of the Company's international development initiative. As a percentage of total royalty and marketing fees and franchise fee revenue, franchise costs increased to 37.2% in the three months ended August 31, 2012 from 32.7% in the three months ended August 31, 2011. This increase as a percentage of royalty, marketing and franchise fees is primarily a result of a 75.4% decrease in franchise fee revenue as a result of fewer franchise store openings in the three months ended August 31, 2012.

Sales and Marketing

The increase in sales and marketing expense for the three months ended August 31, 2012 compared to the same period in the prior year is due primarily to an increase in marketing-related compensation and benefit costs.

As a percentage of total revenues, general and administrative expense decreased to 9.1% in the three months ended August 31, 2012 compared to 9.5% in the same period of the prior year.

Retail Operating Expenses

Depreciation and amortization of $230,000 in the three months ended August 31, 2012 increased 21.1% from $190,000 incurred in the three months ended August 31, 2011, due to additional depreciable assets acquired by us as a result of an increase in the number of Company-owned stores in operation and the associated depreciation of those assets.

Interest Income

Interest income of $11,500 realized in the three months ended August 31, 2012 represents a decrease of $2,500 from the $14,000 realized in the three months ended August 31, 2011.

Income Tax Expense

Our effective income tax rate for the three months ended August 31, 2012 was 35.2%, compared to 35.7% for the three months ended August 31, 2011.

Costs and Expenses

Cost of Sales

Factory margins increased 110 basis points for the six months ended August 31, 2012 compared to the six months ended August 31, 2011 due primarily to an increase in the average selling price of products to domestic franchise units. The increase in Company-owned store margin is due primarily to lower costs associated with Aspen Leaf Yogurt grand openings, a change in the number of Company-owned stores in operation, and the associated change in product mix.

Franchise Costs

The increase in franchise costs for the six months ended August 31, 2012 compared to the six months ended August 31, 2011 is due primarily to an increase in travel and support costs associated with our international development initiative and an increase in franchise opportunity advertising costs. As a percentage of total royalty and marketing fees and franchise fee revenue, franchise costs increased to 35.9% in the six months ended August 31, 2012 from 30.7% in the six months ended August 31, 2011. ### Interest Income

Interest income of $23,000 realized in the six months ended August 31, 2012 represents a decrease of $8,000 from the $31,000 realized in the same period of the prior year due to lower balances of notes receivable.

Income Tax Expense

Our effective income tax rate in the six months ended August 31, 2012 was 35.1% and was approximately unchanged from 35.4% in the same period in the prior year.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of August 31, 2012, working capital was $10.2 million, compared with $10.6 million as of February 29, 2012, a decrease of $400,000. The change in working capital was due primarily to operating results being offset by the repurchase of stock and payment of cash dividends.

Cash and cash equivalent balances decreased from $4.1 million as of February 29, 2012 to $3.8 million as of August 31, 2012 as a result of repurchase and share retirement of $1.7 million partially offset by cash flows provided by operating activities. Our current ratio was 4.53 to 1 at August 31, 2012 in comparison with 3.98 to 1 at February 29, 2012. We monitor current and anticipated future levels of cash and cash equivalents in relation to anticipated operating, financing and investing requirements.

We have a $5.0 million (no amount was outstanding as of August 31, 2012) working capital line of credit collateralized by substantially all of our assets with the exception of our retail store assets. Additionally, the line of credit is subject to various financial ratio and leverage covenants. As of August 31, 2012, we were in compliance with all such covenants. The line was subject to renewal on July 31, 2012. The line was renewed on September 24, 2012.

In November 2011, we executed a promissory note for $2.5 million in order to establish a line of credit for the funding of the potential expansion of Company-owned Aspen Leaf Yogurt locations. The line of credit is guaranteed by us and is collateralized by our land, building and improvements. We may draw from the line of credit until November 1, 2013 to fund new Aspen Leaf Yogurt store openings. After November 1, 2013, any amount outstanding will be repaid over the 48 month period subsequent to November 1, 2013. Interest on borrowings is at 4.75% per annum. As of August 31, 2012, no amount was outstanding under this promissory note.

We believe cash flows generated by operating activities and available financing will be sufficient to fund our operations at least through the end of fiscal 2013.

Impact of Inflation

Inflationary factors such as increases in the costs of ingredients and labor directly affect our operations. Most of our leases provide for cost-of-living adjustments and require us to pay taxes, insurance and maintenance expenses, all of which are subject to inflation. Additionally, our future lease costs for new facilities may include potentially escalating costs of real estate and construction. There is no assurance that we will be able to pass on increased costs to our customers.

Depreciation expense is based on the historical cost to us of our fixed assets, and is therefore potentially less than it would be if it were based on current replacement cost. While property and equipment acquired in prior years will ultimately have to be replaced at higher prices, it is expected that replacement will be a gradual process over many years.

Seasonality

We are subject to seasonal fluctuations in sales, which cause fluctuations in quarterly results of operations. Historically, the strongest sales of our products have occurred during the Christmas holiday and summer vacation seasons. In addition, quarterly results have been, and in the future are likely to be, affected by the timing of new store openings and sales of franchises. Because of the seasonality of our business and the impact of new store openings and sales of franchises, results for any quarter are not necessarily indicative of results that may be achieved in other quarters or for a full fiscal year.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We do not engage in commodity futures trading or hedging activities and do not enter into derivative financial instrument transactions for trading or other speculative purposes. We also do not engage in transactions in foreign currencies or in interest rate swap transactions that could expose us to market risk. However, we are exposed to some commodity price and interest rate risks.

We frequently enter into purchase contracts of between six to eighteen months for chocolate and certain nuts. These contracts permit us to purchase the specified commodity at a fixed price on an as-needed basis during the term of the contract. Because prices for these products may fluctuate, we may benefit if prices rise during the terms of these contracts, but we may be required to pay above-market prices if prices fall and we are unable to renegotiate the terms of the contract. As of August 31, 2012, based on future contractual obligations for chocolate products, we estimate that a 10.0% change in the prices of cocoa would result in an $125,000 favorable or unfavorable price benefit resulting from our contracts.

We have a $5.0 million bank line of credit that bears interest at a variable rate and a $2.5 million promissory note that allows draws until November 1, 2013 and bears interest at 4.75% per annum. As of August 31, 2012, no amount was outstanding under the line of credit or the promissory note. We do not believe that we are exposed to any material interest rate risk related to these credit facilities.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act")) that are designed to ensure that material information relating to us is made known to the officers who certify as to our financial reports and to other members of senior management and the Board of Directors. These disclosure controls and procedures are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports that are filed or submitted under the Exchange Act, are recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Management, with the participation of our CEO and CFO, has evaluated the effectiveness, as of August 31, 2012, of our disclosure controls and procedures. Based on that evaluation, our CEO and CFO have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of August 31, 2012.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the three months ended August 31, 2012, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
