- (1) The phantom stock converts into common stock on a one-for-one basis.
This total includes restricted stock units acquired through the Company's Deferred Compensation Plan before the new SEC reporting rules went into effect in August 1996. This adjustment is being made in order to reconcile the reported total and the actual total currently held in the participant's account.
- (2) The units are to be settled 100% in cash beginning on a date elected by the participant that is at least one year after the end of the Plan Year for which the initial deferral is made, or upon the reporting person's ceasing to serve as a director.
