However, the Issuer will not be required to make any payment of Additional Amounts to any such holder for or on account of:

(a) any such tax, assessment or other governmental charge which would not have been so imposed but for (i) the existence of any present or former connection between such holder (or between a fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, member or shareholder of such holder, if such holder is an estate, a trust, a partnership or a corporation) and the United States, including, without limitation, such holder (or such fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, member or shareholder) being or having been a citizen or resident thereof or being or having been engaged in a trade or business or present therein or having, or having had, a permanent establishment therein or (ii) the presentation by the holder of any such Note for payment on a date more than 15 days after the date on which such payment became due and payable or the date on which payment thereof is duly provided for, whichever occurs later;

(f) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge imposed by reason of such holders past or present status as the actual or constructive owner of 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote of the Issuer or as a direct or indirect affiliate of the Issuer; or

(g) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge required to be deducted or withheld by any Trustee from a payment on a Note or coupon, if such payment can be made without such deduction or withholding by any other Trustee;

The term "United States Alien Holder" means any holder of a Note who is not a United States Person. Non-U.S. Holders

The interest income that a non-resident alien individual or a foreign corporation (a "non-U.S. holder") derives in respect of the Notes generally will be exempt from United States federal withholding tax. This exemption will apply to a non-U.S. holder provided that:

it does not actually or constructively own 10 percent or more of the combined voting power of all classes of the stock of the Issuer and the non-U.S. holder is not a controlled foreign corporation that is related, directly or indirectly, to the Issuer through stock ownership; and the beneficial owner provides a statement (generally, an Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN) signed under penalties of perjury that includes its name and address and certifies that it is a non-U.S. person in compliance with applicable requirements (or satisfies certain documentary evidence requirements for establishing that it is a non-U.S. person).

Any gain a non-U.S. holder realizes on a sale, exchange or other disposition of the Notes generally will be exempt from United States federal income tax, including withholding tax. This exemption will not apply if the gain of a non-U.S. holder is effectively connected with its conduct of a trade or business in the United States or it is an individual holder and is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the disposition and either its gain is attributable to an office or other fixed place of business that it maintains in the United States or if it has a tax home in the United States.

United States Federal estate tax will not apply to a note held by a non-U.S. holder if at the time of death the holder was not a citizen or resident of the United States, did not actually or constructively own 10 percent or more of the combined voting power of all classes of the Issuer's stock and payments of interest on the note would not have been effectively connected with the conduct by the holder of a trade or business in the United States.

For the purposes of applying the discussion under this heading "Non-U.S. Holders" to a Note held by an entity that is treated as fiscally transparent (for example, a partnership) for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the beneficial owner means each of the ultimate beneficial owners of the entity.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

The paying agent must file information returns with the Internal Revenue Service in connection with payments made on the Notes to certain U.S. holders. A U.S. holder will not generally be subject to United States backup withholding tax on such payments if it provides its tax taxpayer identification number to the paying agent and certifies under penalties of perjury that it has provided the correct taxpayer identification number, it is not subject to back-up withholding, and it is a U.S. person. It may also be subject to information reporting and backup withholding tax requirements with respect to the proceeds from a sale of the Notes. A non-U.S. holder may have to comply with certification procedures to establish its non-U.S. status in order to avoid information reporting and backup withholding tax requirements. The certification procedures required to claim the exemption from withholding tax on interest income will satisfy these requirements. The amount of any backup withholding from a payment to a holder may be allowed as a credit against the holders U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle the holder to a refund, provided that the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.
