NEWS RELEASE

INDEPENDENCE HOLDING COMPANY ANNOUNCES

$35 MILLION LIFE BLOCK ACQUISITION

Stamford, Connecticut, December 27, 2005. Independence Holding Company (NYSE -IHC) today announced that Madison National Life Insurance Company acquired a block of traditional and universal life policies and annuity contracts totaling approximately $35 million of reserves.

Roy T.K. Thung, Chief Executive Officer, commented, "We are delighted that we completed a second block acquisition this year. We remain optimistic that we will continue our recent success by acquiring additional blocks of business in the future.

IHC is a holding company principally engaged in the life and health insurance business and the acquisition of blocks of policies through its insurance company subsidiaries (Standard Security Life Insurance Company of New York and Madison National Life Insurance Company, Inc.), its affiliate (AMIC), and its managing general underwriters, third party administrators, and marketing affiliates. Standard Security Life markets medical stop-loss, long-term and short-term disability, employer-sponsored group major medical, short-term medical, group life, dental, vision and managed health care products. Madison Life sells group life and disability, employer medical stop-loss, employer-sponsored group major medical, short-term medical, dental, vision, credit life and disability and individual life insurance. AMIC is a holding company principally engaged in the insurance and reinsurance business through Independence American Insurance Company and its managing general underwriter division.

Some of the statements included herein may be considered to be forward looking statements which are subject to certain risks and uncertainties. Factors which could cause the actual results to differ materially from those suggested by such statements are described from time to time in IHC's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
