Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Multi-Year Revolving Credit Agreement

On November 20, 2015, Questar Corporation (the "Company") entered into an amendment (the "Amendment") to its senior unsecured Amended and Restated Multi-Year Revolving Credit Agreement dated as of April 19, 2013 (as amended the "Credit Agreement"), among the Company, the administrative agent and the lenders party thereto (the "Lenders"). As amended by the Amendment, the Credit Agreement has a scheduled maturity date of November 20, 2020, with an option for the Company to extend the term for two successive one-year periods, which extended terms will apply to any Lender who consents to such extension and any lender replacing a non-consenting Lender.

As amended, the Credit Agreement commits the Lenders to provide advances up to an aggregate principal amount of $500 million at any one time outstanding, with an option for the Company to request increases in the aggregate commitments to an aggregate amount not to exceed $750 million. In addition, the Credit Agreement provides for letters of credit to be issued at the request of the Company in an aggregate amount not to exceed a $50 million sublimit.

Interest accrues on advances at a LIBOR rate or a base rate, as selected by the Company, plus an applicable margin. The issuing fees for all letters of credit are also based on an applicable margin. The applicable margin used in connection with interest rates and fees is based on the Company's ratio of consolidated funded debt (as defined) to consolidated EBITDA (as defined) at the time. Proceeds of borrowings under the Agreement may be used for general corporate purposes, including to provide liquidity for the Company's commercial paper program and finance working capital, to refinance existing indebtedness and to pay certain fees and expenses.

The Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and events of default, including a covenant limiting the amount of aggregate funded debt (as defined) based on a ratio of total consolidated funded debt to EBITDA, a covenant that limits aggregate funded debt of the Company's subsidiaries based on a ratio of consolidated funded debt to book capitalization (as defined), and a change of control event of default. During the continuance of an event of default, the Lenders may accelerate all outstanding debt and terminate all lending and letter of credit commitments.

The foregoing description of the Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

364-Day Revolving Credit Agreement

On November 20, 2015, the Company also entered into a senior unsecured revolving credit agreement (the "364-Day Credit Agreement"), among the Company, the administrative agent, the syndication agents and the lenders party thereto (the "364-Lenders"). The 364-Day Credit Agreement has a scheduled maturity date of November 18, 2016. The 364-Day Credit Agreement commits the 364-Lenders to provide advances up to an aggregate principal amount of $250 million at any one time outstanding. Interest accrues on advances at a LIBOR rate or a base rate, as selected by the Company, plus an applicable margin. The applicable margin used in connection with interest rates is based on the Company's consolidated funded debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio at the time. Proceeds of borrowings under the 364-Day Credit Agreement may be used for general corporate purposes, including to provide liquidity for the Company's commercial paper program and finance working capital, and to pay certain fees and expenses.

The 364-Day Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and events of default, including a covenant limiting the amount of aggregate funded debt based on a ratio of total consolidated funded debt to EBITDA, a covenant that limits aggregate funded debt of the Company's subsidiaries based on a ratio of consolidated funded debt to book capitalization, and a change of control event of default. During the continuance of an event of default, the 364-Lenders may accelerate all outstanding debt and terminate all lending and letter of credit commitments.

The foregoing description of the 364-Day Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 364-Day Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.
