Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure.

On February 1, 2002, American Medical Security Group, Inc. ("Company") formally amended the Rights Agreement by and between the Company and Firststar Bank, N.A., (the "Rights Agreement") dated as of August 9, 2001, to confirm how certain provisions would apply to a possible, future purchase of Cobalt Corporation ("Cobalt"). Cobalt's wholly owned subsidiary, Blue Cross & Blue Shield United of Wisconsin ("BCBSUW"), is the Company's largest shareholder. In return for the amendment, BCBSUW has withdrawn its shareholder proposal to redeem shareholders' rights pursuant to the Rights Agreement and has agreed to refrain from submitting a proposal relating to the Rights Agreement for action at any meeting of the Company's shareholders prior to December 31, 2003, unless the Company alters the amended language.

The amendment clarifies the original intent of certain provisions of the Rights Agreement to confirm that it would not be automatically triggered solely by a potential purchaser of Cobalt entering into an agreement to acquire the shares of Cobalt or BCBSUW or the consummation of such a transaction. In either case, the Rights Agreement would apply in the event a purchaser owns any common stock of the Company ("Common Stock") other than that acquired in a Cobalt transaction, or later acquired additional Common Stock without the permission of the Company's Board of Directors.

Effective January 1, 2002, LaSalle Bank National Association ("LaSalle Bank") became the successor rights agent under the Rights Agreement pursuant to an Appointment and Assumption Agreement between the Company and LaSalle Bank.
