Mexico City, November 26, 2004 - Grupo Iusacell, S.A. de C.V. [BMV and NYSE: CEL] announced today that its Board of Directors approved the appointment of a new independent auditing firm.

After more than 7 years of continuous service by PricewaterhouseCoopers' Mexico City office, the Company's Auditing Committee considered it appropriate, in light of recent developments in international corporate governance that encourage periodic rotation of independent auditing firms of public companies, to review the need for a change in the Company's independent auditors. After a thorough survey and analysis of the Company's alternatives, the Auditing Committee unanimously proposed to the Board of Directors that Freyssinier Morin, S.C. a member of Moores Rowland International be appointed to replace PricewaterhouseCoopers as independent auditors of Grupo Iusacell and its subsidiaries beginning with fiscal year 2004.

The Auditing Committee and Board of Directors expect that the appointment of Freyssinier Morin will result in a healthy change in the Company's auditing practices, among other benefits. Freyssinier Morin is based in Mexico and has around 30 offices nationwide.

Grupo Iusacell and its Board of Directors wish to thank PricewaterhouseCoopers, especially Javier Soni, its head partner in Mexico, for the invaluable services that they have provided to the Company over the past years.
